AND THEN ON TO GAINESVILLE, ALABAMA - HOME OF GREAT GRANDFATHER JACKSON AND MAR-MOO - BIRTH PLACE OF GRANDMOTHER
WOODRUFF, PLACE OF HER MARRIAGE + HER FIRST HOME. MAMIE BORN HERE

Bank of Gainesville. In this building General
Nathan B. Forrest surrendered his forces, the last Confederate troops to disband east of the Mississippi.
Monument commemorates this event. Grandfather Woodruff moved to Gainesville after the war - worked in this bank until after his marriage - moved to Oxford, Alabama.
where my mother was born, & later to Anniston.

Episcopal Church - Grandfather Anderson a member.
Grandmother Woodruff, although a Presbyterian, often went to this Church as a girl & was given a prayer book by the Pastor.

MOTHER ATTENDED
THE FIFTIETH
ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION
AT THE CAVALIER HOTEL,
VIRGINIA BEACH -
JUNE 25-30, 1948

OCTOBER 15, 1948: FARMVILLE, LONGWOOD
DEDICATION OF THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY
PLAQUE OF Z.T.A.
MOTHER HAD CHARGE OF LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS.

BEHIND a national officer there often is a "supporting family." All during the years that his wife was Zeta's National Secretary (1909-1919), Luckin Bugg, Sr., was that patient bulwark of strength and cooperation—Clair's supporting family. Once again, and as interested as ever, Mr. Bugg found Zeta activities swirling about him. Luckin, Jr., a $\Delta X \Delta$ from Hampden-Sydney, came from the University of Virginia, where he is working on his doctorate, to be his mother's aide on October 15. "I have heard of Z T A all my life," he said, when he brought his mother to convention last summer. Since then he has heard Z T A even more.

NOT ALL of the Alpha members present at Farmville on October 15, but nine of them, all in a row, after the luncheon at Longwood. Left to right: Alice Coleman, Clair Woodruff Bugg, Ethel Coleman Van Name, Mary "Cammie" Jones Batte, Della Lewis Hundley, Mary Frayser McGehee, Janie Crute Traywick, Minnie Blanton Button, Ada Miller Carter.

HEADING THE RECEIVING LINE at the reception was Mrs. J. L. Bugg (Clair Woodruff, A), of Farmville, chairman of local arrangements for Z T A's October anniversary observance. Next are: Miss Harrison; Dr. Lancaster; Mrs. Lancaster; Mrs. Strout; Miss Ruth Gleaves, Dean of the College; Mrs. Roberts; Miss Garver.

THE CAKE CUTTING. Miss Harrison applies herself. Directly in back, seated, is Carrie Kyle Baldwin, Alpha. Standing is Mr. Frank Baldwin, her husband.
