The organizational meeting of the Longwood College Faculty Senate was called to order at 5:05 p.m., April 11, 1995, in Grainger Hall 110, Dr. Darryl Poole presiding.

The meeting was called in keeping with the specifications of the Longwood College Faculty Senate Bylaws adopted by the Board of Visitors Executive Committee on March 16, 1995.

The orders of business were selection of officers as specified in Article IV, Section 1 of the Bylaws and determination of initial terms of senatorial appointments as specified in Article III, Section 3 of the bylaws.

By secret ballot the Senate elected the following officers for the annual term of office beginning July 1, 1995:

Chair
Deputy Chair
Executive Committee member
Executive Committee member
Executive Committee member

Dr. William Harbour
Dr. Ellery Sedgwick
Dr. Judith Johnson
Ms. Kristine Palmer
Dr. Susan May

Drawn by lot the following members were selected for one year terms:

Mr. Mark Baldrige
Dr. Mary Flanigan
Dr. William Harbour
Dr. Robert Gibbons
Dr. Patricia Lust
Dr. Susan May
Dr. Jeffery Peden
Dr. Pat Shank
Dr. Douglas Young

The bylaws state that a person who serves two consecutive terms must be out of the Senate for a year before serving another term. Prior to the drawing of lots the senators agreed by consensus to refer to the Executive Committee the question of whether their initial terms of appointment would be counted as full terms for purposes of determining eligibility for future elections.
