Gamma Theta Creed

To keep the fires of friendship bright
As down Life's road I go;
To live a life of service
For every one I know;
To make my life a clean one
And to myself be true;
To ever love and cherish
My colors, white and blue;
To seek for truth and honor,
Make my ideals pure and high;
To have great thoughts that
Always, I'll keep until I die;
To keep the bond that links us
Ever strong and shining bright;
To keep the faith at all times
And choose the way that's right;
To do my work from day to day,
Give Christ my life to lead
That I may be a beacon light
To others, in word and deed;
And to thy sacred symbols
May I always be most true—
This is my Creed, dear Gamma Theta,
I pledge each day to you.

MEBANE HUNT

THE SWEETEST ONE, MEBANE HUNT

It is so easy to write a tribute to a great person we have never known personally, or even to such an intangible thing as the spirit of our Alma Mater. But how different it is to express in so small a space the affection and devotion to one near us! How can we find the words befitting a tribute for Mebane? She isn't a mediocre person, neither is she a mediocre president. In her leadership there has been enthusiasm mingled with tact and justice and dignity. In her fellowship constantly we have found sympathy and understanding. Once we loved Mebane for the beauty of her voice, but now we find in her a depth and sweetness far deeper and more lovely than the richness of her voice.

Yours in Gamma Theta, typewriter! Ruddy

FOSTER SUCCEEDS HUNT AS CLASS PRESIDENT

Since Mebane Hunt, the Sophomore president, is leaving school at the end of this term, it became necessary for the class to elect a girl to fill this office. "Red" Foster was elected by a large majority as the most capable girl to take up the work which "Mebane" had so successfully carried on.

The whole school regrets that Mebane Hunt has decided to leave. The Sophomores especially appreciate the excellent work, and untiring interest which she has always brought to the class. They wish to express to "Mebane" their sorrow at her leaving, and to wish her "the best of everything" in the future.

GAMMA THETA GIVES SPRING BANQUET

The members of the Gamma Theta sorority gave their Founder's Day banquet, Saturday, April 2, 1927.

The banquet room was beautifully decorated in blue and white, and evergreens.

Among those present were seventeen alumnae and the invited guests, Miss Mix and Miss Stubbs.

GAMMA THETAS HAVE BANQUET

The new Gamma Thetas entertained at a Valentine party, Monday night, February 14 in the banquet hall. The hall was very attractively decorated with hearts, and the color scheme was carried out with Valentine decorations. The old Gamma Thetas were presented with dainty boudoir pillows. Covers were set for thirty. Those invited besides the Gamma Thetas were: Miss Stubbs, Miss Mary White Cox, Miss Mix, Miss Grenels and Mrs. Coyner.

Former students at S. T. C., who returned to attend the Gamma Theta banquet held last week-end, were: Mrs. W. E. Somers of Richmond; Misses Mary Alice Blanton, Virginia Cowherd and Janet Peake, all of Richmond; Misses Polly and Mildred Smith and Misses Estelle Cake, Polly Riddle and Rebecca Burgess of Norfolk, Misses Alice Moore Armstrong of Portsmouth, Ann Smith of Staunton, Frances Jones of Charlottesville and Kitty Montague of Lynchburg.

The Gamma Theta Sorority entertained yesterday afternoon at a subscription card party at the home of Mrs. John Willis, Jr., on Colonial avenue. Bridge was played and those present were Mrs. Owen Hollis Hill, Mrs. Benson Ferebee, Mrs. Thompson Neely, Mrs. W. P. Bass, Mrs. William Coleman, Mrs. M. S. Miller, Mrs. D. R. Haesloop, of Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. F.

L. S. Blincde, Mrs. Benjamin Willis, Mrs. John Willis, 3d, Mrs. Marshall Butt, Mrs. W. S. Langhorne, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. C. N. Robertson, Misses Frances Ward, of Savannah, Ga.; Lucy Boushell, Sallie Map Jacobs, Margaret Bass, Alice Moore Armstrong, Nancy Peebles, Kitty Morgan, Betty Odom, Josephine Hancock, Ruth Creecy, Virginia Hall, Sally Woodward, Marie Hurst, Helen Patton, Alice Denby, Polly Smith, Mildred Smith, Virginia Ransome, Mary Willis, Polly Riddle and Alice Shultice.

GAMMA THETAS ARE ENTERTAINED

On Saturday afternoon, February 12, Gamma Theta Sorority was entertained at a delightful Valentine party given by Mrs. Coyner and Miss Mix. After a novel Valentine game was played, delicious refreshments were served.

The guests, besides the sorority members, included Misses Stubbs and Grenels, and Miss Catherine Ewing from Norfolk, Va.

DEAN'S LIST IS ANNOUNCED FOR FALL

Louise D. Foster

Because of Folks Like You

There's a heap o' joy and gladness
In knowing folks like you,
The sunny days are brighter
The cloudy ones are few,
And as Christmas Day draws near
Glad thoughts now come to mind,
And I wish you Christmas happiness
Of just the finest kind.

VICTORY FOR GREEN AND WHITE IN TENNIS

On account of Martha Henderlite's inability to play the final game in the tennis tournament at any time this year the game is forfeited to Dolly Reed. Seventy-five points go to Dolly Reed as winner and fifty points to Martha Henderlite as runner-up.

Five points toward the cup will be awarded to the green and white.

STARDUST

I wandered into darkness
To lose myself from care—
And I felt a bit of stardust
Fall on my rumpled hair.
I wondered who had sent it
As I ambled through the hills;
For I didn't remember the keeper
Of the stars—
Dusting his window sills. —F. W. '29

DOLLY REED WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

A fast well played tennis match closed Tuesday afternoon leaving the fall tennis championship to Dolly Reed.

In this game the contestants were both green and white. Martha Henderlite, a senior, played Dolly Reed, a sophomore, giving five points to green and white.

The score was 6—1, 5—7, 6—3. It was a hard match, especially in the second set, Henderlite almost winning the game from Reed but the sophomore proved the better of the two, and carried off fall tennis honors for the class of '31.

MISS LOUISE FOSTER

OUR PRESIDENT

"Red" has shown her competency in the manner in which she has handled the Presidency of our class for two and a half years. When Mebane Hunt, our Sophomore president, decided in preference of a matrimonial venture, it was "Red" who succeeded her with utmost efficiency. With vigor and zest she has continued to lead us. As president of the Senior class more strenuous duties fall to her. But, aware of the support of the entire membership, "Red" will lead the class of '29 to a successful graduation.

AMONG OUR CAPS AND GOWNS

FRANCES WILLIS

Just as unusual as her name is the girl—"Pannie." Few girls have won for themselves the love and the friends that she has. Few girls have held two of the major offices in the school as proof of the feeling of the students toward her of their faith in her. Few girls can be interested in everything, about everybody, and be sincere in that interest. Few girls can be elected the most popular girl in the school, the "Queen of Hearts", for two years without a forceful and lasting personality. And—well, there are endless things that could be said, yet nothing that could quite express the feeling.

"Pannie" is one of the few who can dream, and yet recognize the possible and the practical. She has understanding, ideals, and ability. Her presence in the school is sensed; she is truly a leader who leads. Her work in the school has been of an exceptionally high type. The very hardest things her successors have to do is to live up to the standards she has set!

"RED" FOSTER

"Red" is one of those kind of people everyone likes—full of pep, enthusiasm and wit! One is first attracted to her by her hair—one learns to know her by her unfailing wit and one learns to love her for her sincerity.

She has served her Alma Mater in many, many ways—but one usually associates her with the present graduating class. President of the junior class, and then president again of the senior class, Red has executive ability and she uses it with a tact that becomes an executive.

She will leave behind her many monuments to her interest and to her desire to improve the spirit of the school she loves so well.

To "Red" we are indebted for the organization and safe launching of the Class Council. She has served in nearly every organization in school, the Y. W. C. A., the Rotunda staff, and the Student Council.

June will come and "Red" will leave and yet her influence will remain in the friends she has made. First in the hearts of the seniors, "Red" has completed her four years, a living example of seniorhood.

HOGG-MORGAN.

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Marshall Morgan, of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Morgan, of Jacksonville, Fla., to Francis Russell Hogg, of Hagerstown, Md., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Hogg, of this city, took place yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the Ghent Methodist Church with the pastor, the Rev. Roscoe M. White, officiating. The church was decorated with palms and lilies and the wedding march was played by Miss Newell Lacy.

The bride entered the church with Augustine W. Creecy by whom she was given in marriage. She wore an afternoon gown of madonna blue chiffon made with an uneven hem line and with a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

She had as her matron of honor Mrs. Clarence J. Hyslup, who wore a gown of green chiffon with a picture hat of the same shade, and the maid of honor was Miss Ruth Creecy, who wore a gown of yellow chiffon with a hat to match. They both carried bouquets of mixed flowers. The bridegroom had as his best man, Clarence J. Hyslup, and the ushers were Harry D. Wilkins, of Baltimore; Malcolm

A Bride of Yesterday

Mrs. Hugh David Ebert, who before her marriage, yesterday, was Miss Katherine Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Reid.

Ebert-Reid.

Christ Episcopal church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday, June 8, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon when Miss Emily Katherine Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Smith Reid and Mr. Hugh David Ebert, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe Ebert were united in marriage.

The church was tastefully decorated with Dorothy Perkins' roses, palms and candles.

The Rev. Taylor Willis, rector of Christ church, read the ceremony.

While the guests were assembling, Miss Blanche Deal at the organ played "Adoration," Kern; "Nuptial March," Read; "Le Bonheur," Reiff.

Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus and Mendelssohn Wedding March were used as the processional and recessional. During the ceremony Miss Deal played "Love Dream," Sheppard.

Just before the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. John R. Anderson sang "When Song Is Sweet," Sans-Soucie, and "All for You," Bertrand-Brown.

The groomsmen, who also acted as ushers, were: Eugene Crumpler, Bynam Hitt, Durwood Phipps, Harry Crumpler, Paul Reid, brother of the bride, and Dr. Paul Ebert, of Blacksburg, brother of the groom. Mr. Andrew Ebert was his brother's best man.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Eugene Crumpler, sister of the bride, wore an ensemble of orchid chiffon, with hat and accessories of contrasting shades. She carried an arm bouquet of Claudius Penet roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Harriet Critz, wore a green gorgette frock with velvet jacket, and carried an arm bouquet of Premier Supreme roses.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was handsomely gowned in a shell pink chiffon frock, the skirt fashioned in circular tiers with uneven hem line and hip length coat, with cape collar. Her hat was of flesh silk straw. She carried a shower bouquet of Briarcliff roses and swansonia.

Mrs. Ebert is a graduate of Farmville State Teachers college, and has been a teacher in the Roanoke Public schools for several years. She is a member of Gamma Theta sorority.

Mr. Ebert is a graduate of Fishburne Military school and later attended Washington and Lee university. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

After a motor trip through the Northern states, Mr. and Mrs. Ebert will make their home in Lexington, where Mr. Ebert is engaged in business.

Out of town guests for the wedding include: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ferguson of Erwin, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Felts, and Miss Elizabeth Felts, of Galax; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Trinkle, of Pulaski; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Whitlock, of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith; Mrs. John A. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hutchinson, of Lexington; Mr. Slater Brown, of Blacksburg, and Miss Cecil Charlton, of Atlanta, Ga.

WILEY—TIMBERLAKE
An out-of-town marriage of interest was that of Miss Pauline Estill Timberlake, formerly of Portsmouth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Estill M. Timberlake, of Hammonton, N. J., to Samuel F. Wiley, formerly of Portsmouth, now of Scranton, Pa. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Hammonton on Saturday, October 26, and was witnessed only by members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of antique ivory crepe and her flowers were an arm bouquet of pale yellow roses. Her only ornaments were a burst of blue and white sapphires and a bracelet worn by the bride's grandmother 69 years ago. A small wedding breakfast followed the ceremony after which the bride and bridegroom left on a trip through the New England States. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley will make their return, upon their return, at 1105 Bare street, Scranton, Pa.

SORORITY RUSH RULES

I. Rushing shall start two weeks after school opens in the Fall Quarter. There shall be no relations with freshmen during these two weeks. Explanation of "no relation"—from the day school opens in September until rushing officially begins, sorority girls must conform to strict rules in regard to their relations with freshmen and new girls. This is done to protect the over-conscientious girl.

1. Sorority girls may speak to the freshmen on the halls and on the campus.

2. Sorority girls may not have any written communication with freshmen.

3. Sorority girls may not walk around the campus, nor down town, nor through the halls with freshmen.

4. There shall be no financial rushing. This includes patrons and friends.

5. Sorority girls may not visit freshmen's rooms at any time.

6. Sorority girls may not dance with freshmen in the recreation hall.

7. Sorority girls shall not wear their sorority jewelry during the first two weeks.

Note an exception to those rules may be made for girls on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet whose duty it is to help freshmen get settled. Also, on the night of the Y. W. . A. reception the "little sister" plan shall prevail.

II. Rushing will continue for four weeks; the rush days shall be Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday from four to six P. M. There shall be the same relations between sorority girls and freshmen before and after the hours as were held the first two weeks of school.

During rush hours, a sorority girl may not mention the name of her sorority or of any other sorority on campus. During rush hours a sorority girl may visit a freshman's room, go to the movie with a freshmen, or down town, or on the campus.

DOLLY REED IS AGAIN CHAMPION

Monday afternoon quite a crowd gathered around the tennis courts to witness the final tennis match of the season, played by Dolly Reed and Dot Snedegar. The splendid ability of both was shown throughout the match. The first set was fast and lasted only a few minutes, Dolly winning 6 to 0. The second set ended 6-4, giving Dolly college championship for the third time. The semi-finals resulted in Dolly Reed defeating Enza Evans 6-1; 6-4; Dorothy Snedegar defeating Mildred Maddrey 2-6; 6-3; 6-3.

The elimination tournament has been a huge success, and the girls have cooperated splendidly. The success of the season has been due to their good sportsmanship and help.

We offer Dolly our heartiest congratulations on her excellent playing.

MARGARET LEONARD

As we look among our seniors, Leonard is one who will be missed a great deal next year. She has shown a great deal of interest in school organizations, especially in the Y. W. C. A. Leonard has served on the Freshman Commission, the Conference and Convention committee, Student Standards Committee, and she has been secretary and vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. Leonard was also secretary of her class during her sophomore year.

Leonard has been greatly liked for her kind disposition and willing attitude.

The idea of Sam saying he left Dolly Reed without reason. I don't think she's a bit different in that respect.

Cov wouldn't tell Buster she loved him so the poor boy had to squeeze it out of her.

Helen Cover adds that though "Ignorance is bliss" she wishes Bruce Clark wouldn't stay blissful all the time.

Cottie Willis told me sheh worked years to get her face in its present condition. It certainly is wonderful how we can waste so much time doing absolutely nothing.

Bill: "Your lips are sweeter than anything, in the world."
"Cov": "You've been drinking again?"
Bill: "No, you have."

Buster Kendig: "How old are you?"
Alice: "Nineteen."
Buster: "You told me that two years ago."
Alice: "Well, I'm not the kind of girl that will tell you one thing one time and something else another."

Dollie looks in a man's eyes for love; Cov looks to see if the coast is clear.

You know I never do see Reed and Vernie Oden down Dolly town any more.

and the more I see of Martha Moore, the sweeter I think her to be.

Much Ado 'Bout Nothin'?

Oh, I've got to go—no, I can't see the clock but I can see Dolly Reed out of the window looking across the street at Sam. Oh, was that a break?

Will the girl who moved Frances Rawling's trunk from this building to Cottage E please report to Mr. Graham's office. He wants a piano moved.

Some people just are musical—
Some people just are studious—
Some people just are artistic—
Jack and Chic just are.

That reminds me of Frances Rawlings. I heard her say the other day she ate about a dozen pieces—and yet she's supposedly reducing. Can't understand some people.

Honestly if I eat any more toast I'll die. I certainly was sticking my neck out to comment on Frances Rawlings.

I heard that "Cov" was awfully worried about getting a costume; I don't see why; 'cause she would look good in anything.

Alice Covington—Most Attractive
Ain't it just grand—when some folks don't attract
And others attract just a pile—
That the one who attracts most we see every day
And the others—just once in a while?

Did I see Helen Cover? Why she was the cutest thing this side of nowhere. I bet all Hampden-Sydney fell for her.

Cottie Willis told me she worked Cupid to shoot her with a Pierce-Arrow.

It's an injustice to say Alice Covington only likes steadies, athletics, and Shannon's. Alice only likes Shannon's.

Anne McGann: "I don't know which boy to take to the Cotillion."
Cotty Willis: "Flip a coin."
Ann McGann: "I did, but it didn't come out right."

"Jac" Lee: "Aren't we under the mistletoe?"
Law Stude: "Facts admitted—but find no cause for action."

I've never seen it to fail. Whenever girls like the same person, they don't let each other out of sight. Do you reckon Martha Walters and Helen Cover could be at Shannon's?

DOLLY REED IS TENNIS CHAMPION

Tennis this year has been more a success than ever before. More girls have taken part, and the games have been hard fought and snappy. Many girls in the elimination tournament showed promises of becoming champions later. We feel that Jim Simson, head of tennis is very largely responsible for this success because she has shown much unusual ability as manager.

The semi-finals resulted in Dolly Reed defeating Inza Evans 6-0, 6-2 and Mildred Maddrey defeating Missie Bernier 6-2, 6-2. In the finals, both Dolly and Mildred exhibited splendid ability throughout the match. It resulted, however, with Dolly winning 6-1, 6-1.

This victory makes Dolly champion four years; she having won the championship her freshman, sophomore, and junior years. We congratulate Dolly on her excellent playing, and we hope she'll continue winning championships after she leaves S. T. C.

We also wish to congratulate all of the participants on their good sportsmanship, and we wish to thank everyone for her cooperation in making tennis a success.

This victory adds another five points to the green and white color cup, Dolly and Mildred both being "Green and white."

OVER THE TEACUPS

My lands, Parker, but I'm glad you are back! Yes, I know you had a gorgeous time, but really you missed a treat—our Freshman Party. Don't ever "stick your neck out" about Fancy Dress, 'cause we had one, too. And lollys—well, we had so many that Louise and I both dreamed of them that night. As I was saying, however, you should have seen "Chub" Denit. She really looked precious with such a perfect widow's peak. You know she was impersonating Greta; not bad, eh? I heard that some girl was flirting with and was about to fall for "Nils Astor" when, lo and behold, she found out that it was none other than Mary Shelton. Can you stand that? I thought I was going to split laughing at "Marie Dressler." Really, Louise Phillips deserved her prize. It was plenty hard to decide, however, between her and "Charlie Chaplin", in other words, Nell Dickinson.

And by the way, you should have heard our orchestra. Margaret Eley is the leader, and they are hot stuff! Aunt Lucy was there enjoying lollys and wanting to know "when dis party gwine to break up?"

But now I'll hush; so you can tell me about your big time, 'cause I'm just dying to hear Jacque Lee "looked like a lily" in her Russian peasant costume and how about "Chic" Mosby? Did you see anybody that knew me? No, well I am grieved to tears. I think you might have said "yes" just to make me feel good. Did Rene Greeves ever get all of her clothes together? I'll bet she made a darling little girl.

The school seemed deserted this week-end. I think everybody went to Fancy Dress. By the way, when is "Stump" Bryan going to get back? I certainly do miss her flying in and out of the room, don't you?

Changing the subject, I certainly did hate to see Miss Bedford leave; however, I know I shall like Miss Rhodes. Miss Bedford certainly had a mob of dogs around her before she left. Some of them were perfectly darling. I can't say much for mine, but I love him just the same. His head is awfully warbly, and I don't see why it should be, 'cause I worked my head off on it.

I never was so lonesome as this week-end. Just think, Logan and Le-lia went home after you left and so did Cottie and Sara. Oh, well, "every—has his day;" maybe mine will

Mrs. Henry Landon Cabell Jr., who is the guest of Mrs. George Chumbley at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., will return Sunday to her home on Monument Avenue.

Miss Alice Cabell Gannaway of Draper, has held for two years a position with the City National Bank, New York. She was married on July 18, in The Little Church Around the Corner, New York City, to Walter L. Giles, Jr., formerly of Roanoke, now general manager of the New York office of Patrick Carr & Co., cotton and wool merchants.

MARY PRIEST

THE LAME MARTYR

Sadly he stood on the very outside,
And watched his comrades marching by,
They seemed too happy with heads
held high,
And he so sickly and lowly and blue,
Crippled and maimed! Just what could he do?
Must he stand back and give aid,
And watch his own land's colors fade?
For the surgeon kind, had said to him,
"No, my lad, you must stay at home,
For you are too weak and lame to roam."
So with his friends he was forced to part,
Left far behind with a heavy heart.
His life's ambition had been denied,
He limped away with a wounded pride.
From a child it had been just this way,
Never able to romp and play,
He, always alone, at home must stay.
Then, one day, as he sat thinking,
When the glowing sun was slowly sinking,
He heard a cry, sound wild and
hoarse;
Hobbling out to seek its source,
He found a soldier, wounded, dying,
Who weakly whispered a message,
and sighing,
Went to his home in Paradise.
A moment the boy made a thoughtful stand,
Reviewing news, which could save his land,
If he reached by dawn the one in command.
Could he ride with a furious speed,
And do at last a patriot's deed,
Though death its should be his meed?
Only a moment he stood and thought,
A moment when duty and weakness fought,
Then on the dead man's horse he leapt
Forgetting himself and all except His county and what he must ride to gain.
Twice he almost fainted with pain,
Then, remembering his task he faster rode,
Reaching camp as the dawn first showed,
Delivered his message at the door,
Then weary and faint fell to the floor,
When they tried to revive this hero
true,
He weakly said: "Nothing's left for
me to do,
I've done my deed and saved the day."
And with a contented sigh, he passed away.

To Marry Virginian

Miss Mary Fielding Taliaferro, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taliaferro of White Plains, N. Y., to John Michael Stich Jr. of Winchester.

Virginia Couple Marry In State Of New York

Miss Mary Fielding Taliaferro Becomes Bride of John Steck, Winchester

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 19—Miss Mary Fielding Taliaferro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tinsley Taliaferro of White Plains, N. Y., and Orange, Va., and John Michael Steck Jr. of Winchester, Va., were married Saturday afternoon at Ivanhoe, the summer home of Miss Taliaferro's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walton H. Marshall, in Knollwood Road, White Plains.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clifton Macon of St. Bartholomew's Church, Park avenue. Miss Taliaferro was attended by Miss Martha Lanier of Petersburg, Va. Mr. Frederick Lee Glaize Jr. of Winchester was best man. Miss Taliaferro is a great-great-granddaughter of John Marshall, second Chief Justice of the United States, and is related to the family of Fielding Lewis, who married Betty Washington, sister of George Washington. She was graduated from the Virginia State Teachers' College at Farmville, and has taught in the John Kerr School at Winchester for the last two sessions. Mr. Steck is a grandson of the late Thomas Cover, prominently identified with the development of the Winchester section of the Old Dominion. He attended Washington and Lee University and University of Virginia, and is a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. His father is an attorney, a director of several banks and is president of the Board of Education of Winchester.

After a wedding trip to Canada and Maine Mr. and Mrs. Steck will reside in Winchester.

The Wedding of Miss Mary Fielding Taliaferro to Mr. John Michael Steck Jr. Was Solemnized in White Plains, N. Y., on Saturday

MISS Mary Fielding Taliaferro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tinsley Taliaferro of New York, and Mr. John Michael Steck Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Michael Steck of Winchester, were married Saturday at "Ivanhoe," the summer home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walton H. Marshall, at White Plains, N. Y.

The bride is a great-granddaughter of former Chief Justice John Marshall, and is related to a number of well-known Virginia families.

Ligon—Allen.

PROSPECT, VA., July 19—A wedding of much interest was that of Miss Isabel Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur Allen of Prospect, and Thomas Cecil Ligon of Lynchburg, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Friday evening, July 17, at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. W. Roth, pastor of the bride, amid the light of cathedral candles interspersed with tall baskets of gladioli and hydrangeas, and was witnessed only by immediate relatives.

The bride wore a becoming ensemble of brown transparent crepe, with small hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses. Immediately afterwards the couple left for a motor trip through Pennsylvania and New York, and upon their return will be at home in Lynchburg. Mr. Ligon is a son of T. J. Ligon, is a graduate of V. P. I. and a rising young business man of Lynchburg.

Jones—Bazemore.

LYNCHBURG, VA., July 19—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bazemore of this city have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Bazemore to Samuel W. Jones, a sergeant in the United States army, which was celebrated July 8 in Reidsville, N. C. They will go to San Francisco September 4 and the bridegroom will report to his post September 15.

Cannaway—Giles.

PULASKI, July 19—The marriage of Miss Alice Cabell Gannaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Gannaway of Draper, Va., to Walter L. Giles Jr. of New York, formerly of Roanoke, took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York City, with the Rev. B. A. MacLaughlin as the celebrant, using the ring ceremony. The chancel was decorated with ferns, palms and Cathedral candles.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Beth Gannaway, who wore a costume of platinum blue crepe, with accessories of delphinium blue, and carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses and blue delphiniums. She was given in marriage by her brother, Gilmer Gannaway. The bridal gown was platinum blue satin afternoon dress, with velvet picture hat and accessories to harmonize. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridegroom was attended by William Rodgers of Staunton, Va. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Giles left for a two weeks motor trip in Canada, after which they will be at home at New York.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Gannaway of Draper, and a graduate of the State Teachers' College, Farmville. For two years she has held a position with the City National Bank, New York. Mr. Giles is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Giles of Roanoke. He is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va., and general manager of the New York office Patrick Carr & Co., cotton and wool merchants.

BETTY LOU SCORES BIG SUCCESS

The Sophomores presented the musical comedy, Betty Lou, on Friday evening, February 5. It was one of the biggest hits of the season. This was the first production by the members of the class, and they appreciated the fact that it was enjoyed by all those present. The members of the class worked very diligently to make the comedy a success, and the fact that the auditorium was filled proved that their efforts had not been in vain.

The choruses and dances added spice and pep to the comedy. The characters were ideally selected.

Dresden Tea Shop: Julia Faris, leader, Mary A. Billups, Ann McGann, Mary Ellen Johnson, Clara McKenzie, Frances Rawlings, Alma Foster, Ida Miller, Lillian Hogan, Louise Van Lear, Ruth Wright, Virginia Lanier, Helen Westmoreland, Betsy Wilkinson, Nannie Gilbert.

Peter Pan Chorus: Catherine Jones, Alice Marshall, Myra McIntosh, Frances Graham, Jac Morton Margaret Copenhaver, Dot Leonard, Polly Brock, Mary Lou Fritts, Mildred Gwaltney, Virginia Lanier, Thelma Stevens, Ann Davis, Dot Weems, Marietta Wilson, Anna Frances Traylor. Feature Dance—Glenn P. Colonna

The members of the Sophomore class wish to express their sincere appreciation to Miss Potts, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Henrietta Cornwall and Josephine Smith for their able assistance in producing the play.

Student Building Fund.

We wish everybody could see that student building. Already it is one story high, and the floor of the second story is being laid at one end- and you can imagine what each board means to us as it goes down- just that much nearer to our Gamma Theta room. But all the boards in the world wont do us one bit of good if we haven't the money to pay for it when our pledge falls due. The Chapter in school is giving all it can afford- but what we can afford, at the most, will be far less than the amount we need- and there is where we are depending on you alumnae Gamma Thetas to help us out if you possibly can. We are working and hoping for that room for Virginia who was formerly Miss Mary Taylor.

Since the last letter we have gotten four girls,

Conduct Affair in Mosby
Auditorium Here Saturday.

WITH few private entertainments being given during the Lenten season charity and benefit card parties, of which there will shortly be a number, take on added interest. A large affair of the week-end will be the card party given Saturday afternoon in Mosby's auditorium from 3 to 5 o'clock by the Richmond Alumnae Chapter of Gamma Theta Sorority. A number of prominent Richmond women have engaged tables for the affair, and it is expected to be one of the largest events of the late season. Further reservations may be made by calling Boulevard 4351 or Boulevard 7209-J.
