Alpha Kap. Gamma Installs New Circle

Miss Florence Stubbs, national executive secretary of Alpha Kappa Gamma, Tac Waters, president of Joan Circle, Jane Royall and Lelia Sanford, actives of the circle went to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on October 13, to investigate a petition for a charter from a group of girls on that campus. For some time there has been a need for organized leadership at Chapel Hill.

The girls who have been instrumental in petitioning Alpha Kappa Gamma were very enthusiastic about the organization and purposes of Alpha Kappa Gamma. October 22 was set for installation of the new circle. Seven charter members will be initiated at this time. They are Frances Coffee, Mary Pride Cruikshank, Ellen Deppe, Nancy Lowlor, Kay Quigley, Jane Ross and Harriett Taylor. Delegates from Joan Circle will officiate at the installation.

Junior Class Gives Annual Production

Songs and Dances Compose Musical Program

A few songs, a few dances, and the Junior class scored another victory. Their production "Lucky Thirteen", has won school-wide acclaim for its jolly spirit and its entertaining features. Some of the talent was new to S. T. C. show-goers, while the rest was presented again in new and thoroughly delightful roles.

"Lucky Thirteen", was the last of the musical comedy productions which will be staged by this Class of '37—that is, it will be the last if the class follows the example of the last two senior classes by giving a dance. Judging from here's and there's still echoing around our halls, many of our gentlewomen hope that the Juniors will see fit to do so. Anyhow, on last Friday night this class succeeded in making a favorable impression on its audience. Many of the older students were thrilled again at hearing the husky voice of Virginia Leonard in new ballads. It is little wonder that she sang so sweetly when one stops to consider to whom she was singing—none other than our own Mary Bowles, president of the Junior Class. Were there time and space we would stop to give each member of the sparkling class her just dues as a fine singer, dancer, or

Miss Iler Announces Varsity Hockey Squad

Miss Olive T. Iler, varsity coach at S. T. C., announced the varsity hockey squad this week. The first game of the season will be played at the State Hockey to be held at William and Mary on November 8 and 9. The Farmville team will leave school Friday morning at 10:30 A. M. As yet the opposing team has not been announced.

The following girls made the varsity squad: Mary Lena Anderson, Mary Elizabeth Badger, Kathleen Bailey, Edna Bolick, Mary Bowles, Army Butetrworth, Susie Clark, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Rosalie Grear, Katherine Irby, Nelwyn Latimer, Bess McGlothlin, Madeline McGlothlin, Elizabeth McIntosh, Bernice Mann, Evelyn Massey, Martha Nottingham, Mildred Potter, Kathleen Ranson, Kitty Roberts, Edith Samford, Linda Walker, M. Wilkerson, and Marguerite York. This list is subject to change at any time.

Kathleen Ranson was unanimously elected captain of the varsity hockey team Tuesday afternoon.

FALL TEA FOR MAYO

Tuesday afternoon the Gamma Thetas gave an informal tea at Longwood for Mrs. B. E. Dotson, formerly Miss Mayo Beaty. Another guest at the tea was Mrs. Byd Coyner.

Martha Nottingham

Martha Nottingham, who as maid of honor will act as chief priestess in the May Court.

Nottingham To Be the Maid of Honor at Fete

Lucy Potter and Martha Nottingham were elected May Queen and Maid of Honor respectively Saturday night at Sing. As Queen of the celebration, Lucy will take the part of the Golden Goddess and Martha will appear as the high priestess of her court. Kitty Roberts, third candidate, will be one of the attending priestesses.

Martha Nottingham of Eastville, Virginia, has served on the Student Council, the Freshman Commission and has played an important role in school athletics throughout her four years here. This year she is leader of the Cotion Club.

On the same ballot used in electing the queen and the maid of honor, nominations for the court were made. Election of the court will take place on Dec. 7 at Sing.

The setting for the May Day this year is Egyptian. The theme is extracted from Mozart's Golden Flute. Pamina is liberated from the bondage of her mother, the queen of Night, by Tamino, an Egyptian youth, who brings her to Ar'et where she is crowned the Golden Goddess. She will be attended by a court of priestesses.

Gamma Theta Party

Miss Stubbs was hostess to the Gamma Thetas at her home on High Street on Sunday evening. Outstanding features of the occasion were the Christmas tree and the Christmas eats.

Y. W. C. A. Presents Christmas Pageant

The annual S T C. Christmas pageant will be given at Prayers this evening. The pageant under the direction of Hazel Smith will depict, in three scenes, the shepherds on the hill side and the appearance of the angel unto them; the journey of the three Wise Men to Bethlehem, and the scene of the nativity in Bethlehem and the offering of gifts by the Wise Men.

Lucy Potter will take the part of the Madonna, Sue Waldo the part of Joseph, Agnes Crockett and Kitty Roberts will appear as angels. Other characters in the scenes are Sue Eastham, Mary Elizabeth Wood, and Charlotte Rice, the Wise Men; Margaret Clark, Mary Elizabeth Slater, Josephine Quinn, Florence Sanford, Doris Coates, and Kitty Smoot, the shepherds.

Musical accompaniment will be furnished by the sixteen voice choir. Elizabeth Sieber will play a violin solo.

Dotson-Beaty.

Wise, Oct. 12.—A brilliant wedding of the fall season, uniting two prominent families of Wise county, was solemnized in the Wise Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Mayo Beaty, daughter of Mrs. John Morton Beaty and the late Senator Beaty, became the bride of Bernard Earl Dotson, son of Mrs. C. F. Bruce, and grandson of the late Napoleon Dotson.

The church was decorated with trees and sprays of hemlock over white making an effective background for three large white arches, softly lighted with cathedral candles. On either side of the arches were flower baskets of mammoth orchid chrysanthemums on tall standards. Baskets of white foliage, alternating with cathedral candles, decorated the windows, the whole effect making a beautiful setting for the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Lewis McColgan, of St. Charles, Mo.

Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. N. F. Hix, organist, and Charles Bickley, soloist, who sang "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," and "Love's Old Sweet Song. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional. Liebstraum was softly played during the ceremony.

The bridal party was led by the ushers, Dave Rice, of Richmond, John Taggart, of Charlotte, N. C., Josh Taggart, of Dorchester, Charles Bickley, of Wise, Bob Alsover, of Big Stone Gap, and Berry Hodgson, of Farmville. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Ruth McGuire, of Norton, Mrs. Floyd Showalter, of Lynchburg, and Misses Ann Rogers, Dorothy Prescott, and Mary and Margaret Gilmer, of Big Stone Gap. Ushers and bridesmaids entered the church through the side archways, and took their places on either side of the central arch. The bridesmaids wore gowns of iris velvet, with high necks, deep sheered yokes and long full sleeves. Their bouquets were yellow chrysanthemums, tied with silver.

Miss Sarah Beaty, sister of the bride, wore emerald green velvet, similar to those of the bridesmaids, and she also carried yellow chrysanthemums. The flower girls, Mary and Billy Richmond, nieces of the bride, and Mary and Emma Sue Bruce, sisters of the bridegroom, came before the bride, wearing dainty dresses of yellow taffeta, with short trains and fashioned on the same lines as those of the bridesmaids. Their bouquets were nosegays of purple asters.

The bride, escorted by her uncle, D. F. Flanary, of Norton, was gowned in white satin, fashioned on princess lines, with a regal neck, a pleated collar in the back and embellished with gardenias of seeded pearls at the throat and completed with full sleeves, ending in a tight cuff, and a long fan-shaped train. Her voluminous tulle veil fell from a Russian coronet of old point lace. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Tom Young, Jr., of Memphis, Tenn., was best man and entered with the bridegroom, meeting the bridal party at the altar where the ring ceremony was performed.

The bride received her education at Hollins college and Farmville State Teachers college, and is a member of the Gamma Theta sorority. Mr. Dotson attended Greenbrier Military Academy and will receive his degree at Hampden-Sydney this year. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. The young couple are social favorites in Wise county.

Following the ceremony a reception for the bridal party and intimate friends was held at the home of the bride's mother.

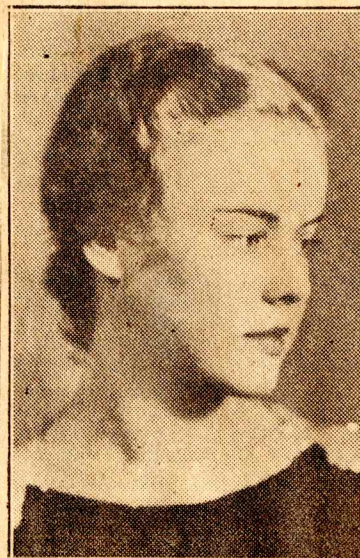

Mrs. Beaty and Mrs. Bruce, mothers of the bride and bridegroom, wore gowns of black chiffon, velvet trimmed with silver lame and shoulder corsages of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Dotson left in their car during the evening for a motor trip, after which they will be at home in Farmville.

Mrs. Dotson's traveling suit was of spinach green, imported botany cloth with lynx collar. Her accessories were green and she wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. J. A. McGuire and daughter, Miss Ruth McGuire, and Mrs. D. F. Flanary entertained the bridal party with a buffet supper Friday evening at the home of Mrs. McGuire.

Mrs. Richard Luter Pond, formerly Miss Margaret Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Parker of Suffolk, whose marriage was an important social event in Suffolk last night.

Pond—Parker

SUFFOLK, June 15—A marriage of unusual interest throughout Virginia and North Carolina was solemnized tonight at 8 o'clock at Main Street M. E. Church, when Miss Margaret Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Parker, became the bride of Richard Luter Pond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Pond of Suffolk.

The church was decorated in palms, ferns, Southern smilax, calla lilies and cathedral candles and the wedding music was rendered by Miss Josephine Lawrence at the organ with violin accompaniments, the Wedding March from Lohengrin being used as a processional and the bridal party leaving the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's March. Lieberstraume and Schubert's Serenade were played before the entrance of the bridal party and Miss Jane Butler sang "Because." "I Love You Truly" was rendered softly during the ceremony. The Rev. George Wesley Jones read the service, assisted by the Rev. E. C. Dean.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a Princess gown of bridal satin, with long train and inserts of lace and yoke of pearls, Duchess and Point lace and her veil of illusion was a replica of Princess Marina's, with a tiara of rhinestones and pearls, caught up in the back with a wreath of pearls and orange blossoms. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of Brides roses and lilies of the valley.

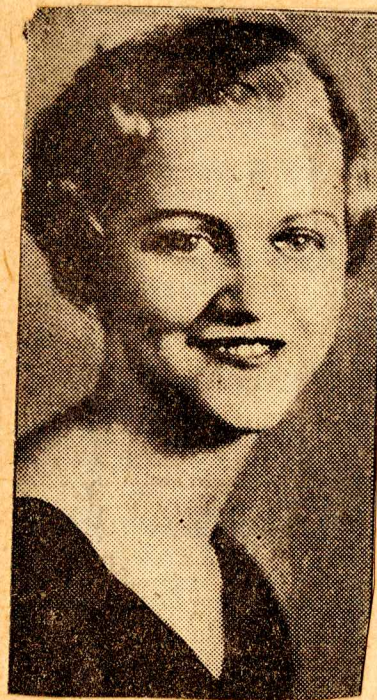

Miss Sarah Parker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. William E. Parker, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Riddick and Miss Helen Westmoreland of Petersburg, Mrs. Paul T. Howell Jr. and Miss Martha Brothers, Misses Julia Taylor, Bernice Jones, Juliet Gentile and Mary Lou Fritts of Winchester.

The little flower girl, Betty Brett of Portsmouth, carried a basket of pink roses. Jimmy Pond, young brother of the groom, was ring bearer. Wayland T. Pond Jr. acted as best man and groomsmen were Paul T. Howell Jr., Alfred Elliott, John Vaughan of Woodland, N. C., Fred Pond, A. D. Brinkley, Ben Parker, Dr. William E. Parker, C. B. Pond Jr., Lewis Ames of Richmond.

At the conclusion of the wedding a reception was held at Hotel Elliott with the solarium and ballroom decorated in summer flowers and ferns with a garden arranged with a trellis and a wedding bell suspended under which the bridal party and parents of the bride and groom stood to receive the guests.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Pond left on a motor trip and on their return will reside in Linden Avenue until their new home in the West End is completed.

Halifax Church Is Scene Of Nuptial Event

Miss Lelia Lovelace Becomes Bride Of Paul Howell

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]

HALIFAX, June 3—Ferns and Madonna lilies, interspersed with lighted candles in silver holders formed a beautiful and artistic setting for the marriage of Miss Lelia Lovelace to Paul Howell of Suffolk, which was solemnized at St. John's Episcopal Church, Halifax, at noon today, the Rev. Wingfield Shiers, of South Boston having been the celebrant. The bride who entered with her father, Dr. W. S. Lovelace, wore a suit of dark blue, with white trimming, and blue hat and shoes. Her flowers were a corsage of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. Miss Elizabeth Lovelace, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Little Jacquelin Osborn was the flower girl.

Mr. Howell was attended by Richard Pounds of Suffolk as best man and James Easley, M. B. Booker, Russell Hughes and John Riely served as ushers. Preceding the ceremony, the vested choir of St. John's Church, with Mrs. D. F. Hankins at the organ, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and just before the entrance of the bridal party, Robert Hankins sang "Oh Promise Me," Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches were used as processional and recessional music.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Howell left by motor for a bridal trip to unannounced points, and will later be at home in Suffolk. Mrs. Howell is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Lovelace of Halifax, and is prominently connected in the county and State. She was educated at the schools in Halifax, studied two years at the Maijorce Webster School of Expression in Washington, D. C., later going to Farmville State Teachers' College, graduating in the class of '34. Mr. Howell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howell of Suffolk, and is prominent in the business and social life of that city.

Rotunda Reverberations

Winnie Goodman is easily pleased. All she asked Santa Claus for was a dime's "Wert" o' candy. While we're on that subject I hear tell the sophomores are asking for a large portion of originality what with their production in the offing. Kitty Fitz has an unquenchable appetite for cranberry. Unless I miss my guess, her tactics will bear plenty fruit. And Tank of course, calls for "Soup". Nancy Sellman is sure to rake in some mittens er somepin, with a "Weaver" attending to her order. Football captains are pretty scarce but Sallie's got everything in her favor, I believe. I wonder what Martha Glenn will do with a one man audience. It's certain that the student body doesn't crowd her. Baker, some small things come in large packages. You'd better look out next time.

Virgina Leonard declares to lock herself in some secluded spot so that the lure of Miller and Rhodes won't tempt her, but where there is a "Will" there is a way to be otherwise amused.

It seems impossible for Ginny Hall to put her hand in her pocket. Maybe a sling would help until she gets used to the unaccustomed weight on the third finger. Page Nottingham's been doing some pretty c... fumbling, too.

Waters Leads First Student Day Chapel

Tac Waters led the first Student's Day chapel program for the New Year this morning. The program was a timely one, featuring the beginning of a New Year. After the usual devotional service, Tac introduced Miss Florence H. Stubbs who spoke to the students on "Student Government from a Faculty Member's View". Miss Stubbs emphasized the need of some form or organization in every community and developed her thoughts along the line of sportmanship, loyalty, and development of attitudes. Florence Sanford spoke briefly on "A Student's Part in Student Government." Florence dealt more with specific aims that we might strive for in upholding our system of student government, stating the responsibility of each girl in maintaining the standards of the school.

Honor Fraternity Taps Six Students

One Senior and Five Juniors Bid to Fraternity

In performing the first tap service ever held at S. T. C. last Friday morning in chapel, Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honor fraternity in leadership, tapped one senior and five juniors. Recognized by the group were: Beverley Wilkinson, Virginia Leonard, Virginia Bean, Virginia Baker, Elizabeth Shiplett, Dorothy Wise.

Tac Waters, president of Alpha Kappa Gamma, made a brief talk in which she surveyed the history of the organization, expressed the ideals, and stated the qualifications for membership. Active members of the circle, Dr. Jarman, and faculty members were seated on the stage and at the conclusion of Tac's speech scouts went out into the auditorium and tapped the new girls. The tap service was recently adopted by the national organization as its official means of recognizing new girls.

Beverley Wilkinson, a senior, has shown outstanding ability and interest in her work in the Y. W. C. A. She has served on the following committees: service committee, chairman; chairman of student's day. "Billy" is also a member of the Association of Childhood Education, the Dramatic Club and is treasurer of the Cotillion Club.

Virginia Leonard, too, has done outstanding work on the Y. W. C. A. She was chairman of the Freshman Commission, served on the Publicity Committee and World Fellowship Committee. Last year she served as hall president on the House Council and this year is secretary of the Council. Virginia is the junior representative on the Student Council. For two years she has been typist on the Virginian staff. She is a member of the Artist Dance Group.

Virginia Bean has made a memorable scholastic record in college and last year was honor graduate of her class. She is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, Kappa Delta Pi, vice-president of Beorc Eh Thorn, and is also a member of the Association of Childhood Education. Virginia has been active in her tant tennis manager; at one time she was affiliated with the Choral Club; she is president of the Latin Club; last year she was assistant advertising manager on the Virginian staff and this year she is advertising manager.

Committee Names New Staff Heads

Bean, Baker, to Edit Publications in 1936

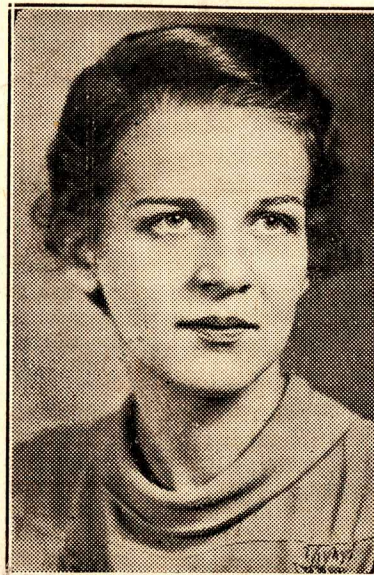

That Virginia Bean will serve as editor-in-chief of The Rotunda and that Virginia Baker will hold the same position on The Virginian for the year 1936-37 was the announcement made by the committee on appointment for the college publications today. Elsie Cabell was selected for business manager of the weekly and Mary Elizabeth Slater was chosen for business manager of the year-book. All four girls are outstanding members of the class of '37 and contributing citizens of the student body as well.

Virginia Bean has worked on The Rotunda Staff for almost three years. Her work was interrupted last year as she did not expect to return to school but she resumed her activities last fall and worked up to the position of Editorial Editor on the staff. She has worked well in her class serving as vice-president this year; she is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, Beta Eta Theta and other student organizations. At the end of her two year course she was honor student in her class.

Virginia Baker has proved herself as associate editor of The Virginian this year. She has worked hard and has shown an unusually keen interest in the progress of the book. "Baker" is secretary of her class, a member of the English honor society, the Portsmouth Club and others. In recognition of her work and ability, Virginia was tapped by Alpha Kappa Gamma in January.

Elsie and Mary Elizabeth have made themselves indispensable to the publications staffs here. Elsie has worked well on the business staff of The Rotunda for two years and this year worked in the capacity of assistant business manager. Mary Elizabeth has contributed to both publications, but her real love has been The Virginian. She has been a strong supporter of the Athletic Association and at present is a member of the Athletic Council.

Names of the associate-editor of The Rotunda and The Virginian will be withheld along with those of the art and literary editors until just before the minor elections take place.

Dramatic Club To Present Annual Spring Play, April 3

All prospective husbands should be notified of the production of "Taming of The Shrew" on our stage April 3. Quite a few outstanding features of courting and marrying may be of great help to the bewildered males who are contemplating nuptial ceremonies.

Virginia Agee did not bargain for a gym lesson or a ruff and tumble bout when she accepted the leading lady part but—oh well, "the plans of mice and men". Now she daily suffers cave-man treatment at the hands of her tamer, Chubby Gray. Chubby has a whip that she cracks coming and going. (If you see her coming, you better start going for even Director Wheeler has felt its sting). Miss Wheeler stamps her foot, Chubby cracks her whip, Gin Agee jumps and so a cracking good time is had by all.

Just one week from Friday the big affair comes off. Practice has become intent on the finishing touches. Virginia and Chubby are taking less and less time out to stop for laughing at the hilarious speeches and gestures characteristic of a Shakespearian comedy. They have even gotten so that when Virginia calls an old withered, lame man a sweet blushing maid, neither of them crack a smile though the object of their remarks, Katie Ryburn, sometimes has to burst out giggling at their very seriousness.

Our little Yankee talking freshman, Nan Throckmorton, plays the personal servant of the quick wit and sharp tongue to her love-lorn master, Elizabeth Carroll. The contrivances of these two men of Padua to marry the latter to the shrew's beautiful, bashful but time-making sister, Clara Nottingham, are considerable enough to carry on an interesting theme all on their own.

The fatherly hand of Margaret Pollard as the parent of these two girls sways the destiny of suitors, Marjorie Thompson and Alpha Lee Garnett representing the old and the young in love making. Alpha Lee is over her slight difficulty of not knowing how to do a doddering old man's cackle; now she cackles like a chicken and thinks nothing of it.

So far as Carter Belle Munt and Nancy Gray are concerned, servants' lives are dog lives. Carter comes in for a big dose of whip cracking, and Nancy has a hard time convincing Elizabeth Carroll that the only way to win Clara is to elope with her. Virginia Hooke is drawn into the plans of Nan Throckmorton who transforms the

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Gamma Theta Holds Twenty-Fifth Annual Celebration, March 21

On March 21, the twenty-fifth anniversary of Gamma Theta Sorority was celebrated. The occasion was honored by presence of seven of the eight founders of the chapter; Louise Eubank Broadus, Nita Evans, Ruth Shepard Forbes, Ann Wilkinson Cox, Lilly Percival Rucker, Florence Buford, and Irene Briggs. About seventy-five alumnae returned, representing every year since 1911.

A formal banquet was held at Longwood on Saturday night; those present included the alumnae, the active chapter, Dr. Jarman, Miss Stubbs, Miss Mix, and Miss Mary White Cox. The alumnae presented three hundred dollars to Dr. Jarman to initiate a Gamma Theta Alumnae Student Loan Fund.

At a meeting of the alumnae after the banquet, Pat Cowherd Adkins was reelected president, and Dorothy Leonard Moore was elected secretary for next year.

Fifty of the guests were accommodated at Longwood overnight and others in school. Sunday morning an informal breakfast was served at Longwood to the alumnae and the present chapter. With the help of Miss Stubbs and the founders, the early history of Gamma Theta was related with interesting and personal incidents.

Stubbs to Head Va. Social Service Assn.

Organization Elects First Woman President

Miss Florence Stubbs of our faculty was elected president of the Virginia Social Science Association on the opening day of its tenth annual meeting, held in Lynchburg, April 24 and 25. Dr. G. D. Hancock of Washington and Lee University was named vice-president; Dr. R. H. Barker of the State Labor Department, secretary-treasurer; and the following executive committee was appointed: Dr. A. G. Taylor and Dr. T. S. Cox of William and Mary; Dr. O. J. Hale and Dr. R. R. Gouch of the University of Virginia; Miss Bertha Wailes of Sweet Briar; Miss Maude Woodfin of Westhampton.

Miss Stubbs' election is a well deserved honor, for she has been a vital force in the association in the past, serving as chairman of major committees and as a member of the executive committee. She is the first woman who has been president of the association, and the college is the first teachers college to furnish a president for the organization, though the membership includes the teachers in all the social sciences: economics, history, law, political science, and sociology.

Another recognition of Miss Stubbs' contribution in this field is her charter membership in the Southern Sociological Society, which met recently in Atlanta.

Miss Stubbs Attends Meetings of Southern Sociological Society

Our charter member of the Southern Sociological Society, Miss Florence H. Stubbs, attended its first annual meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, April 17 and 18.

Headquarters of the meetings were at the Biltmore Hotel, where the banquet and luncheon were also held. Subjects for discussion at the various meetings covered a wide range of topics including Social Welfare and Public Policy, Race and Culture, Social Research in the South, Regional Studies and Planning, Teaching of Sociology, and Rural Life and Problems.

On Saturday afternoon the group was directed in a visit to the Atlanta Slum Clearance Projects, which are a center of interest to those who look to the capitol for the future welfare of the people.

The Southern Sociological Society is a comparatively new organization of sociologists of the south. Its membership includes men and women from ten states, representing such colleges as Vanderbilt University, Tulane University, University of Virginia, University of North Carolina, Clemson Agricultural College, University of Florida, Duke University, etc. Dr. Wilson Gee, University of Virginia, was elected president of the society at the meeting.

Cotillion Club Has Reser For Dances

Annual Spring Dances Will Be Held May 16

The Cotillion Club will hold its spring dances Saturday, May 16 in the big gymnasium. Harry Reser and his Cliquot Club Eskimos will play for the dansante from 4 to 6 p. m., and for the dance from 8:30 p. m. til midnight. Reser's orchestra has recently been touring the state, playing on Eastern Shore, in Danville and at other places nearby.

Martha Nottingham and Dave Rice will lead the figure, assisted by Grace Eubank, president of the club, and James Powell, Billy Wilkinson, treasurer, and Billy Waldo, and Florence Sanford, business manager, and Billy Lyne. Only the old members of Cotillion Club will participate in the figure.

Dr. J. L. Jarman, Miss Mary White Cox, Grace Eubank, Billy Wilkinson, Martha Nottingham, and Florence Sanford will receive the guests.

The chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham, Miss Mary White Cox, Mrs. J. H. Tabb., Mrs. J. E. Warren, Mrs. Hallie K. Laing, Miss Pauline Camper, and Dr. J. L. Jarman.

The decorations for the occasion will be furnished by Gamma Psi. Punch will be served in the Student Building Lounge at intermission, as is customary.

S. T. C. Princess Attends Festival of Apple Blossoms

Tac Waters Goes To Winchester
April 30

As a princess in the Apple Blossom Festival, Tac Waters left Farmville on Thursday, April 30, for Winchester. Tac drove to the fete accompanied by Miss Stubbs, "Tib" Simmerman, and Virginia Baker. Immediately upon arrival, Tac registered at Princess' Headquarters, the Southern Inn. At ten A. M. everyone assembled at the headquarters in costume for pictures to be taken. After this the rehearsal for the coronation was held at Handley stadium. On the same morning was the School Children's Parade, made up entirely of children of the schools of Frederick county. Early in the afternoon, all the princesses assembled again at headquarters in costume in readiness for the coronation. At three o'clock the actual crowning of Miss Cornelia Anne Larus took place, and she was proclaimed to all the world as Queen Shenandoah XIII. An arrival show at 4:30 took many of the visitors to Admiral Byrd Airport and others to a tea dance at the Golf Club. An impressive dedication of the Winchester City Flag was made at the City Hall in the late afternoon.

The night took on a more glamorous aspect with the reception of the Princesses by Queen Shenandoah Thirteenth and dance at the George Washington Hotel. The Apple Blossom ball took place at Jordan Springs, six miles northeast of Winchester, with music by Bud Cordori and hsi Pennsylvania Ramblers.

The pageant, "Dawn, a Pageant of Springtime," which had been relayed the preceding day on account of rain, was presented on Friday morning at Handley school auditorium. All the princesses were present at this pageant which was produced by the teachers and pupils of the Winchester schools. Just after this was over, the Queen and her court were taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hack for a reception and luncheon. Following this at 2 P. M. came the Grand Feature Parade—"The Trail of the Pink Petals." The costumes of the Princesses were made in shades of pink. The top was of shell pink taffeta, with ruffles of net starting at the waist and graduating toward the bottom into coral. The hatler neck of the dress was covered by a short net jacket having puffed sleeves. Each princess wore a tiny bouquet of flowers low at the neck.

The festive activities ended for Queen Shenandoah XIII and her Court with the second night of the Queen's Ball held at the George Washington Hotel and the Apple Blossom Ball at Jordan Springs.

Leadership Groups Meet In Carolina

Alpha Kappa Gamma Holds Spring Meeting

On Friday, May 15, the national officers and old and new heads of Alpha Kappa Gamma held the first annual spring meeting to make plans for the coming year, at Chapel Hill, N. C. National officers from the Joan Circle, included Miss Florence H. Stubbs, executive secretary, Miss Jane Royall, vice-president and Florence Sanford, editor of the Torchbearer, attended the meeting, accompanied by Tac Waters and Virginia Leonard as old and new presidents.

The meeting was held at Chapel Hill, the home of the new Alpha Kappa Gamma circle, the Athenians. They were in the midst of May Day activities, the first to be held at the University of North Carolina, and sponsored by the Athenian circle.

Plans for next year include those for the national convention. It will be held at Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte, N. C., November 13-15, 1936. The theme of the convention will be in the form of a problem which will be worked out in various ways by the circles. The problem is "Over-organization of Schools".

Miss Jane Royall, as vice-president, is working on an Alpha Kappa Gamma handbook which will be published some time during the coming summer.

Smith, Thomas Are Elected Queen And Maid of Honor; Twenty-four Are In Court

Twenty-Two Girls Are Chosen For Court

ELECTION AT SING

Queen Nominees Are Automatically Members

Twenty-two members of the May Court were selected by the students at Sing on Saturday night. The thirty nominees for the court had previously been chosen by ballot on Wednesday.

The court is composed of twenty-four girls, of whom two are Mary Bowles and Bonnie Lane, May Queen nominees. The twenty-two who were elected on Saturday are Margaret Dortch, Lloyd Kelly, Page Nottingham, Martha Hamlet, Dorothy Wise, Bess McGlothlin, Claire Eastman, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Madeline McGlothlin, and Susan Lane.

Carter Belle Munt, Elizabeth Harris, Mary Harrison Vaughan, Isabel Plummer, Virginia Dougherty, Elizabeth Morris, Virginia Agee, Virginia Carroll, Anne Hardy, Elizabeth Butler, Vera Ebel, and Gwen Bell.

Members of the court were chosen for qualities of beauty and grace, as they will participate in the dances of the May Day fete. They will be hand-maidens to the queen, under the enchantment of the witch.

Gamma Theta

Miss Florence Stubbs entertained the Gamma Theta chapter with a Christmas party in her home, Monday night, December 14. Everybody sat around the Christmas tree, singing songs and eating fruits, nuts, and Christmas candy.

Miss Catherine Woodson is entertaining tonight at a buffet supper in honor of Miss Elizabeth Bacon Feild, and her fiance Thomas E. Williamson, whose marriage will take place on Friday, Jan. 22.

Others who will entertain for Miss Feild preceding the wedding are Mrs. Robert Morgan Crafton, who is giving a cocktail party on Sunday afternoon at her home on Warren Avenue; Miss Evelyn Knaub, one of the bridesmaids, who will be hostess at a bridge shower at her Seminary Avenue home on Wednesday and Miss Catherine White, who will have a luncheon the following day for the bridesmaids.

The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock at Watt's Chapel in Ginter Park. Miss Woodson will also be a bridesmaid for Miss Feild and Mrs. Crafton will be her sister's matron of honor.

Fancy Dress Ball Will be Florentine

Eight Farmville Girls Will Attend Dance Set

The annual W. and L. Fancy Dress ball, which will portray the glory and splendor of the Florentine palace of Lorenzo Medici, ruler of Florence during the late fifteenth century, will be held on January 29. 55 students and their dates will participate in the figure, led by Norman Iler.

The Gym will be decorated to represent the ball room of Lorenzo Medici at Florence. The colorful and artistic styles of the Renaissance will be the motif of all the decorations. Many famous fifteenth century Italians will be represented in the figure.

Farmville S. T. C. will be represented by a number of girls, some of whom will be in the figure. Among the latter are Eugenia Jolly and Jennie Belle Gilliam. Others attending will be Marjorie Wicks, Frances Hudgins, Dorothy Wise, Elizabeth Wilson, Virginia Agee, and Sarah Hayes.

Plans for the dance set are being rapidly completed. Hal Kemp's orchestra will open the Junior Prom Thursday night at 10 o'clock. On Friday night Eddie Duchin will play for the Fancy Dress ball, which will be broadcast at midnight, as is the custom. Duchin also will furnish music for the dansant and dance Saturday afternoon and night.

Richmond, with its fine display of new spring bonnets and Easter regalia, attracted many girls to its attractive shops. Scurrying along Broad street Saturday with the other Easter shoppers were seen Frances Maxey, Doris Brandis, May Bates, Alpha Lee Garrett, Mary Jackson, Grace Allen Pittard, Margaret Long, Doris Eason, Martha Glenn Davis, Minnie Smith, Caroline Willis, Dorothy Nebron, Betty Butler and Libby Morris.

Elizabeth Butler was the guest of Harriette Vaden in Richmond for several days.

"Rec" is Scene of Modern Night Club

Freshmen Introduce Novel Production Feature

The freshman class will present "Night in Manhattan," a cabaret as their production, on Thursday, February 25, at 8 o'clock in the "rec."

The scene will be in a night club with the sky-scrapers silhouetted in the background along the walls. Surrounded by table the entertainers will perform in the spotlight in true night club style.

Laura Morris, Sara Keesee, and Micou Sneed are featured as soloists and the freshman trio will sing in their own inimitable way. An unusual tango with Macon Raine and Isabel Williamson and three well gotten up dance choruses vary the program. Eliza Wise and Harriette Vaden, Mary Page Huff, Virginia Lee Pettis, and Mary Mahone give the novelty in separate skits throughout the night.

Elizabeth Kent will be the mistress of ceremonies.

The freshman jazz band will furnish music for the program and for dancing. This group is composed of Geraldine Hatcher at the piano; Eloise Whitley, xylophone; Mildred Owen, Edith Bradshaw, and Wilma Beaton, bazookas; Micou Sneed, drums; and Dot Fischer, banjo. Jane Hardy and Geraldine Hatcher have arranged a piano duet and accompaniment for the Liebestraum chorus of nine girls.

The costumes vary from thin, shadowy dresses or ballroom costumes to the chorus-girl type which blend well with the lighting and the decorations.

Tasty refreshments will be sold at reasonable prices. Since the entertainment is in the "rec" and the capacity is limited, no boys will be admitted.

The following girls are heading committees:

Sara Keesee	Singing
Macon Raine	Dancinig
Anne Billups	Refreshments
Marjory Nimmo	Table
Johnny Lybrook	Tickets
Isabel Williamson
Eliza Wise	Decorating
Mary Mahone,
Ruth Curtis Robeson
Macon Raine	Floor Show
Once again—don't miss it.

Production Proprietors

Dances Attract Many Girls to Places Here and There

The buildings were quite empty this past week-end. Girls traveled far and wide—

To Richmond

Elizabeth Butler spent the week-end with Harriet Vaden in Richmond; Kitty Brooks visited Mabel Burton at her home in Richmond. Margaret Britton, Nancy Sellman, Mary Bowles, Betty Butterworth, and Elsie Dodd were the week-end guests of Vera Ebel and attended the dances at the University of Richmond.

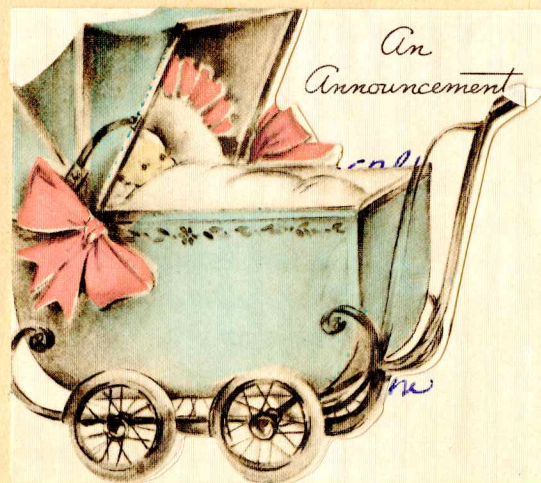

Fancy Dress

S. T. C. was well represented at W. and L.'s Fancy Dress. Among those attending were Virginia Agee, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Ann Hardy, Frances Hudgins, Sarah Hayes, Eugenia Jolly, Jean Taylor, Marjorie Wicks, Elizabeth Wilson, Dot Wise, Virginia Woodward and Ann Galusha.

Freshmen Present Bizarre Production on February 26th

Extra! Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Freshmen crash through with another of their original ideas! Production to be given in Rec! Cabaret style! Food! Colossal floor show! The date is Friday, February 26.

There are to be tables food, and a floor show. (Those of you who miss your night-club life will feel perfectly at home again). The floor show will be stupendous under the direction of Sara Keesee, Macon Raine, Hope Minter and Mary Mahone. These will be assisted by other able committees; Lula Windham, costumes; Ann Billups, food; Johnny Lybrook, ticket; Phil Schlobohm, advertising; Eliza Wise and Isabel Williamson, decorating. These gals assure us rollicking entertainment that we can't afford to miss.

College Freshmen Defeat Crewe Hi

Class of '40's Team Wins by Score of 25-16

The Freshman basketball squad played a game with Crewe High School Tuesday afternoon, February 9. Both teams were on the court ready to begin promptly at 4 o'clock. The Freshmen, with a large number of upper classmen, attended the game and showed the team that they were backing it through the songs and yells.

Crewe began with a bang! But soon the Freshmen made everyone know that there was nothing to fear. At the end of the first half the score was: Crewe 10 Freshmen 18. Both teams displayed excellent sportsmanship and good team work.

The Freshmen held the lead—the final score being 29-14.

The line-up:

Farmville	Crewe
Fisher, forward	Cramer
Adam, forward	Crafton
Dix, center	Moore
Jarman, guard	Taylor
Gibson, guard	Poole
Nimmo, side center	Weeks
Substitutes: Crewe — Wilson;
Farmville — Vaden, Blackwell,

Presbyterian Seniors Entertained at Tea

Reverend and Mrs. Hollingsworth entertained the members of the Presbyterian church from the Senior Class with a delightful tea at their home on Wednesday afternoon, February 10. Miss Mary was also present at the tea.

Those attending were Elizabeth Booth, Sara Buchanan, Ruth Crumley, Merwyn Gathright, Martha Hamlet, Lelia Hill, Dorothy Hutcheson, Lucile Rhodes, Anne Scales, Mary Lib Slater, Rose Somers, Virginia Tilman, Nancy Wall, Ruth Dunnington, Betty Rivers and Margaret Watkins.

STC Varsity Team Plays at W. & M.

Red and White Win the Class Games

The varsity basketball team will play William and Mary Friday night at Williamsburg. The team is leaving the Rotunda Friday at eleven thirty. Come out and see your team off.

The Red and Whites came out on top Thursday with both Freshmen and Juniors victorious in their basketball games.

The Sophomores struggled before a crowd of cheering classmates in an attempt to defeat the Freshmen, but they went down in glorious defeat to the tune of 16-6.

The Juniors following in the footsteps of their little sisters triumphed over the Seniors 18-6.

The line-up was as follows:

Freshmen	Sophomores
Crockett, forward	Badger
Mann, forward	Prince
Kent, jumping center	Boyotte
Keesee, side center	Ball
Vaden, guard	Burke
Newman, guard	Gentry

Substitutes for Freshmen: McCallis, Jefferies, Baldwin, Harry, Gathright.

Substitutes for Sophomores: Sellman, Gwalthmey, Fagg.

Referee: Frances Hudgins.

Juniors	Seniors
Ames, forward	Mann
Callihan, forward	Hopkins
Crowell, j. center	Blankenship
Butterworth, s. center	Bowles
Ellis, guard	Dunnington
Bailey, guard	Chappell
Substitutes for Seniors: Scales and Nottingham.

Referee: Jenny Carroll.

Umpire: Sue Eastham.

A great number of girls went home and quite a few took friends with them. Elizabeth Tyree almost had a house party with Catherine Waite, Mary Louise McCullough and Page Nottingham visiting her in Danville.

IN MEMORIAM

The distressing accident which ended in the loss of one of our former students, Tyler Wood, is deeply felt by all who knew her.

She was a member of the Class of '38 and served as vice-president the one year she was here. Tyler was greatly loved and admired by her host of friends, and entered whole-heartedly into the spirit of our college life.

We regret that she did not return to Farmville, but having known her we feel we have gained from an outstanding and beautiful character much that time cannot erase.

To the memory of our beloved friend we dedicate these lines with the assurance that those who knew her and associated with her always found her worthy of every trust placed in her.

We extend to her family our sincere feeling and heartfelt sympathy.

Lynchburg Loses Before the Student Body

FINAL SCORE 35 - 14

Cheer Leaders Aid S. T. C. Team To Win

Farmville met Lynchburg College in the first seasonal game Friday afternoon, Jan. 29. The game began promptly at 3 o'clock. An unusually large number of the student body attended the game.

At the end of the first half the score was Lynchburg 6, Farmville 15. Both teams displayed unusually good team work. The cheering section entered into the spirit of the game, and did much to make it an exciting one.

Farmville emerged victorious with a score of 35-14.

The line-up:
Farmville Lynchburg
Hudgins—forward Garing
Carroll—forward Taylor
Phelps—Jumping center Robinson
Eastham—side center Fuller
Gilliam—guard Wells
Smith—guard Swanson

Substitutes for Lynchburg: Meredith for Taylor. For Farmville: Chambers for Carroll; Mann for Eastham; Jarman for Gilliam; Gibson for Smith; Butterworth for Gibson.

Referee—Mary Dabney, William and Mary.

Umpire—Katherine Chambers, Randolph-Macon.

SOCIALS

Blacksburg attracted many prom-trotting S. T. C. girls last week-end to V. P. I.'s mid-winter dances. Some girls enjoyed the allaying tunes of Jack Denny at Cotillion while others trucked over to the German Club with music by Barney Rapp. Both clubs had Valentine decorations of red and white with many hearts and balloons which helped to keep our "cute" girls in bright spirits. Farmville was very well represented with Jennie Belle Gilliam, Elizabeth Smith, Louise Painter, Lelia Hill, Elsie Greene, Frances Pope, Gay Stieffen, Emily Channell, Sue Pack, Frances Warriener, Helen Hoyer, Virginia Dougherty, Clara Nottingham, Frances Bryan, Ruth Emma Chambers, Bernice Copley, Hope Minter, Martha Sietz, Nancy Taylor, Ann Billups, Katherine Moomaw, Lois Powell, Kathryn Fitzgerald, Amy Powell, and Mary Bowles.

SPORT SLANTS

(—By the Sport)

BASKET BALL:

Victory—S. T. C.'s on top! Shouts, songs and laughter followed the game Friday afternoon, when Farmville defeated Lynchburg College 35-14. It looks as if all those practices were not held in vain. We are proud of our basket ball team and of all the members of the squad, who were ready to help in any way they could, in order that Farmville would be the victor. All of our efforts were rewarded by the victory that started out basket ball season with a "bang."

Now for a few high-lights of Friday's game. Frances Hudgins, Captain and forward played such a grand game—that remarks were made, "as to how that tiny little girl could get around so well, and make so many goals." Then too, that sophomore, Jennie Carroll, who has already made a name for herself as the "never-miss girl", played an outstanding game, starting out with Hudgins. Only one substitution was made among the forwards, when Ruth Emma Chambers substituted for Jennie Carroll. Ruth Emma Chambers is a junior transfer from Blackstone, and was on the Blackstone team last year. She really helped to make those Lynchburg girls move around and did she help to roll up the score? I'll say!

And now for the centers, Ruth Phelps, Sue Eastman and Evelyn Mann. Ruth Phelps, jump center, is the girl that "reaches out" and "pulls in" the ball and then passes it on. Is there any wonder that we beat Lynchburg when we have every position filled with such "grand players"? Sue Eastman started off as side center, and Sue and Ruth played "ring around the rosy" with Lynchburg centers. Evelyn Mann substituted as side center, in the last of the game, and "there's no stopping her." "Dynamite comes in small packages!" Now, we will give credit to those girls who actually kept the Lynchburg forwards from "dropping the ball in the goal." They were starting off, Ellen Gilliam and Virginia Smith, and then later, they were substituted by "Pat" Gibson, Clotilde Jarman and Army Butterworth. All we can say about these girls, without filling pages, is just to say, "Fleet were their feet, fast did they guard—and well did they play."

Well now, who was the coach of such a team? And the answer is Miss Olive T. Iler, the coach who has "coached" more than one team to pictory. A coach who has been patient, understanding, determined and one who knows "her stuff" about basket-ball! To her, we owe our thanks, as well as to those girls who were so anxious to play and keep us on top! After all, she is the nucleus around which all the rest has been added.

To the cheer leaders, Will Scott, Mary Lib Slater and Macon Raine, and the score keeper and time keeper, Virginia Baker and Mary Bowles, we say thank you! To the student body, who helped support the team, we also thank and say, "we hope you enjoyed seeing your school be the victorious one—and only—S. T. C."

Sophomores Present Harry Hoosegow As Villian of Melodrama

Acting in pantomime while Vera Ebel droned events, the sophomores went through the motions of an intense drama called "The Downfall of Handsome Harry Hoosegow" in Sing Saturday night. This was the second of a series of Sings to be put on by classes in a contest.

The first act depicted fair Fanny running frantically from a villian, Harry Hoosegow. Finally the helpless maiden is caught and away she is carried by the relentless villian. Then arrives the distraught lover of unhappy Fanny. The hero vows he will catch the wretch with his helpless victim. His search carries him to a camp of wild Indians who dance madly around Fanny to the tune of "Organ Grinder's Swing." Enter the hero, who kills the Indians with his trusty bean shooter and at last takes fair Fanny into his arms.

Between acts Frances Steed and Bunny Yonce sang "Indian Love Call." Nan Throckmorton, Alpha Lee Garnett and Clara Nottingham were the heroine, villian and hero respectively.

Rotunda Reverberations

And speaking of reverberations and the Rotunda—how about all those satchels out there last week-end? Have you ever? Records show that over two hundred checked out, and the fare-welling started on Wednesday! It's a pity more of us couldn't have gone to Blacksburg on Wednesday—Gay Stieffen came back an engaged woman—miniature 'n all. Congrats and stuff!

Kitty Fitz reports that she really did behave herself at V. P. I. Someone asked her if she believed that germs were carried in kisses, and she said, "Well, I don't know, but they cause plenty of heart troubles."

Are we supposed to admire those in our midst who profess to be feminine "gangbusters?" We never knew before that people could play bridge in the dark! It must be an art, and how about the rooms really becoming cells! It helps though to know that there's enough sportsmanship among some play-goers to 'fess up.

People come to college for various reasons, but from all signs, Vera came purely for the sake of Ed-ucation. They say Randolph-Macon has students of Ed-ucation also. But that's all right, Ebo—Stay in the game, show your sportsmanship—keep up the good fight—we know how you like to play.

Have you heard about the ap-pin-dicitis in the Willis family? Say, Jean, just what did you go to Charlottesville for?

Smitty and Jennie Belle crashed through with delovely products of the garden this past week-end. Orchids to you! How graceful your Valentines must have looked hanging from your shoulders. Can't you see those two fair damsels trucking at V. P. I. now? Fact is—it beets everything we've ever heard tell. Do you think those boys carrot all for you gals?

Gigi, we're sorry to hear 'bout your blisters, but it sounds like it was a good excuse for sitting out dances. Is your foot Bruiced? Your best Franz will tell you.

Scene in the rec—Dickie Burrell keeping the hearts of the fair damsels a-pitter with his piano selections—Sara Keesee without Dick—Walter Tower without Eason—Elizabeth Prince carrying a big stick and keeping the skirts off of her uniform—Nan—June—Frank Johns—No Reed—sweet (?) music—lights out—the ten thirty bell and another Saturday night is over.

February 4 Is Date
Of Musical
Show

The Sophomore Class will present "Mother Goose Goes to Town" at 8 p. m. February fourth, in the large auditorium.

While we have had productions dealing with trips to foreign lands, night clubs, trans-Atlantic liners, and hotels, the Sophomore class is endeavoring to put on an entirely new type of production—one with Mother Goose characters.

In the prologue the characters of the nursery rhymes will come to life—stepping from Mother Goose books to appear as we knew them in childhood. Then, that fatal trip of Jack and Jill up the hill brings it to a close.

The other four acts take place hundreds of years later. We see the same characters, but while they haven't grown old with the years they haven't failed to keep up with modern times.

Many interesting and unusual situations arise over the love affairs of Jack, Jill, Lucy Lockett, and Georgie Porgie. Of course there's a villain, the Knave of Hearts, a court fool and a Jolly old King Cole. Gone are the fiddlers, though, replaced by a Swing Trio. Despite the troubles caused by the Knave, the new and wonderful love tarts, an astounding "find" helps to straighten everything out in the end.

The production is under the direction of Pattie Bounds, assisted by an able committee; Virginia Ritchie, music; Gwen Bell and Ann Dugger, dances; Florence Bress, tickets and ushers; Jane Saunders and Frances Steed, programs; Jane Burke and Louise Anthony, posters, cards; Virginia Jarman, Ellen Mims, Virginia Smith and Elizabeth Butler, scenery.

Brooks; Lula Windham, with Jack Temple; Virginia Tilman, with Richard Woolling; Vera Thames, with Bob Vaughan; Hope Minter, with Mutt Wise; India Martin, with David McCallion.

Elizabeth Kent, with Buck Buchinsky; Jennie Belle Gilliam, with Jimmy Powell; Ann Billups, with Everette Meredith; and Sue Adams, with John Kincaid.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

Virginia Baker

"Baker," as she is known to us, has filled a niche way up in the hearts of many of her fellow-classmates and students. Always gay and cheerful, with an infectious laugh that set everyone smiling, she is a happy companion. With her propensity to sit up all night and sleep through eight-thirty classes habitually, we are accustomed to seeing her dashing madly across the campus with books and papers flying.

In her four years here she has proved herself a worthy and capable person overflowing with school spirit and love for her Alma Mater. This year she has been up to her ears in "annual" secrets, as editor-in-chief of the "Virginian". She had served on the staff previously as associate editor. Her class knows her well, as she has been its treasurer for two years. As a successful English major, she made Beorc Eh Thorn, the English honor society.

Recognizing her qualities as a leader and an influence, Alpha Kappa Gamma tapped her last year. She has been treasurer of that organization this year. "Baker" has served on Student Standards Committee, and is a member of the Cotillion Club and Gamma Theta sorority.

TRIUMPH of THRILLS

Susan Hume Weds William A. Cox, Jr., At Christ Church

Large Assemblage of Society Views Ceremony By Rev. Taylor Willis

The marriage of Miss Susan Howard Hume, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Heath Hume to William Albert Cox, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cox, took place last night at 8 o'clock at Christ and St. Luke's Church, with the Rev. W. Taylor Willis, rector of the church officiating. The church was decorated with palms and cathedral candles, and the ceremony was witnessed by a large assemblage of society and out-of-town guests. The wedding music was played by George M. Vail, organist of the church.

The bride entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of old French lace, worn by her great aunt, over ivory satin, with the fullness of the skirt forming a train. Her veil of illusion was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms with a short veil over the face, and she carried an ivory prayerbook covered with gardenias and showered with lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Howard Thompson, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a gown of coral organza, made with tight bodice, short puffed sleeves and a long full skirt. A ribbon belt formed a bow in the back and fell to the bottom of the skirt, and she wore a halo hat of tulle and organza with short veil over the face. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Talisman roses and blue larkspur. The bridesmaids were Miss Zilla Newsom, Miss Jane Thompson, cousin of the bride;

Miss Marion Louise Heitmeyer, of Louisville, Ky., and Miss Polly Pinner, of Suffolk. They wore gowns of aquamarine organza, made similar to that of the maid of honor, with halo hats and short veils to match, and carried arm bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

M. King Cox was his brother's best man and the groomsmen were Ralph W. Jones and Henry Downing, of Richmond; John B. Pinner, 3d, of Suffolk, and Peter DeWitt, Lamar Wilkinson and John E. Wales, 3d.

Mrs. Hume, mother of the bride wore a gown of periwinkle blue lace, with a corsage of violets. Mrs. Cox, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of gold lace with a corsage of sunset roses. Mrs. Howard, grandmother of the bride, wore a dress of black cut velvet with a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony there was an informal reception at the home of the bride's parents in Pelham place. Later Mr. and Mrs. Cox left for a wedding trip to Florida and on their return will reside at Virginia Beach. The bride's traveling costume was an ensemble of rust colored cloth with

Shipplett Attends Festival as S.T.C. Blossom Princess

Elizabeth Shiplett will go to Winchester this week-end to represent Farmville S. T. C. as a princess in the fourteenth Apple Blossom Festival.

Queen Shenandoah XIII is Miss Gretchen Thomson of New Orleans. She will be crowned by Captain J. R. Beardall, who is naval aide to the Secretary of Navy, Swanson. The coronation will follow the old English pattern and the queen and princesses will wear court dresses of Elizabethan style. The costumes will be very elaborate; more gorgeous than ever before.

The pageant and coronation will take place at the Hanley High School. The coronation will be held on Friday afternoon.

Following the coronation, a pageant will be given, depicting the rise of America from a wild country to a great nation. The queen and princesses will be entertained at the Queen's Ball Friday night at the George Washington Hotel, and at a smaller affair Saturday night. The pageant will be repeated on Saturday morning, and on Saturday afternoon there will be a very colorful parade with many floats and bands. The only changes in the regular program are that there will be no parade for the school children, and there will be a street dance Friday night.

The queen was welcomed to the Valley of Virginia Sunday with a pageant given at Endless Caverns, in which she was greeted by the mountain king and his fairies.

The twenty-two maidens are Margaret Dortch, Lloyd Kelly, Page Nottingham, Martha Hamlet, Dorothy Wise, Bess McGlothlin, Madeliene McGlothlin, Claire Eastham, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Susan Lane, Carter Belle Munt, Elizabeth Harris, Mary Harrison Vaughan, Isabel Plummer, Virginia Doughty, Elizabeth Morris, Virginia Carroll, Elizabeth Butler, Vera Ebel, Gwen Bell, Bonnie Lane, Elsie Dodd, Esther Beebe, and Bernice Jones.

The Lullaby Ladies' Assistants are Gwen Bell, Virginia Woodward, Anna B. Jones, Jean Nichols, Beverly Baptist, May Bates, Kathryn Newman, Nancy Armistead, Nancy Taylor, Meriel McAllister, Chlotilde Jarman, Pattie Bounds, and Clara Nottingham.

Dorothy Fisher, Florence Bress, Ruth Chambers, Estelle Mann, Harriette Vaden, Virginia Jarman, Frances Collie, Marjorie Nimmo, Agnes Sale, Maxine Lewis, and Sudie Dunton will act as attendants to the witch.

Gingerbread absurdity is led by Marguerite York. The gingerbread fence, composed of Susie Clark, Helen Glass, Margaret Thomas, Zell Hopkins, Mary Joyner Cox, Mable Burton, Mary Harvey come to life and perform.

Elizabeth and Alma Butterworth are peppermint posts. The cookie children are Macon Raine, Virginia Woodward, Anna Jones, Jeanne Nichols, Beverly Baptist,

May Bates, Kathryn Newman, Nancy Armistead, Nancy Taylor, Meriel McAllister, Chlotilde Jarman, Pattie Bounds, Essie Millner, Dorothy Fischer, Harriette Vaden, Sara Keesee, Florence Bress, Ruth Chambers, Estelle Mann, Virginia Jarman, Frances Collie, Marjorie Nimmo, Agnes Sale, Maxine Lewis, Sudie Dunton, Myra Smith, Ellen Bowen, Irene Frances and Jean Clark.

Lucille Moseley, Virginia Polley, Madeline Fleshman, Jane Baldwin, Frances Lyons, Jane Powell, Warren Land, Betty Harwood, Nancy Woodward, Cornelia Story, Janet Lemmon, and Ann Billups will act as gentleman dancers around the May Pole.

Virginia Leonard Campbell, former president of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

An understanding and sympathetic nature has endeared Virginia to her many friends and the influence of her fineness of character has been keenly felt not only by her close friends but by her classmates and other members of the student body as well.

That hers is the true spirit of leadership has been proved to each of us by Virginia's quietness and unselfishness in the performance of her duties. Her steadfastness and sincerity of purpose have repeatedly been brought into action in services to the student body and to the school. Her every task has been cheerfully and thoroughly performed.

Virginia proved outstanding in many fields. She served as typist for the Virginian for two years and this year was again a member of the staff, having the position of circulation manager. In her junior year she was secretary of the House Council. She was Vice President of the class of '37. In February of last year she was tapped by Alpha Kappa Gamma and this organization recognized her outstanding abilities of leadership by electing her its president for this year. She is a member of Cotillion Club and belongs to Gamma Theta Sorority.

Virginia graduated in March and since then has married Mr. Douglas Campbell of Richmond. Although she is not here for the last few months of this year, her influence is still with us, and it is certain that her Alma Mater is often in the thoughts of one who caught the spirit of fellowship and service.

Miss Stubbs Attends Social Science Meet As Presiding Officer

Miss Florence Stubbs, social science instructor at Farmville State Teachers College, will preside at a meeting of the Virginia Social Science Association to be held at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Virginia on May 7-9. Dr. James Walmsley of this school will also attend the convention.

This association is made up of members of social science faculties of the leading colleges and universities of the state of Virginia. This is the eleventh annual meeting of the association.

Miss Stubbs is the first woman president of the Virginia Social Science Association. She is also the first Teachers College representative.

Dr. John A. Lapp, assistant administrator on labor relations and Public Works Administration, Washington, D. C., will be guest speaker at the meeting.

Smith Takes Oath As Gamma Psi Head

Virginia Whitehead Smith, serving her second term as president of Gamma Psi, installed the other officers of the art fraternity Tuesday night. She received her oath from Kitty Roberts, outgoing vice-president. Virginia installed Louise Painter vice-president; Charlotte Minton as secretary, and Mildred Gentry as treasurer.

Senior Chis Doom Names Of Curious Ones to Flames

"Chi is calling you. I wanna go where you are!" Shades fly up and heads eagerly appear in windows. The witches from Macbeth seem to have added two to their number and appeared miraculously on the campus across from Senior Building. Cunningham Hall becomes a bedlam as steps race window-ward.

Mary Bowles, Hippy Hurt, Charlotte Rice, Virginia Baker, and Mary Lib Slater hover around a glowing fire and wildly chant the names of their victims to observe as they toss papers leaving their epitaphs into the flames. With solemn mein they begin their work. Libby Morris is the first to be nominated for their Hall of Oblivion since she doesn't take enough interest in Chi. Boos, shouts and shrieks accompany the reading of Ruth Sears' and Ruth Emma Chambers' names as nosey ones. Snootiness is the feature that caused Midge Davis' entry papers into the Hall.

"Aid-de-camps" aren't appreciated by the worthy members Virginia Hannah was selected as a candidate because of her work in Pi Gamma Mu. "Just Once Too Often" has been Elsie Cabell's theme song since her election to the noble hall of the obliterated members of S. T. C. on the basis of her masquerade as one of the noble Chi's. The list increases, names follow names into the fire, for various and sundry misdemeanors.

Obviously, the Hall of Oblivion grew tremendously this year. The whole of second flood Cunningham Hall is nominated for admittance. Accompanying giggles from within the building made the entry of these names notable.

Finally with weird shrieks and leaps of enthusiasm the noble order doomed their rival "the Black Widows" to the flames. Their shadows flickered with the flame as they once more chanted and retraced their steps homeward. No more planned answers to constant queries. Their days of mystery are over, just as the fires' flames are slowly dying under the windows of the slumbering dormitory.

Junior-Senior Prom Will Be Sponsored In Gym on June 5

A Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Juniors as a part of the Commencement program will take place June 5 in the gymnasium. Following the Senior reception for graduates and their parents, the dance will be in progress from nine until twelve. As yet the orchestra has not been announced.

Seniors and Juniors may have escorts but the other guests, comprised of graduating Sophomores and Little Sisters, will attend unescorted.

The committee composed of Kitty Walden, Evelyn Montgomery, and Kathleen McCann has not as yet completed the plans.

Delegates Attend Alpha Kappa Gamma Convention

Elizabeth Shipplett, Jane Royall and Miss Florence Stubbs attended the Alpha Kappa Gamma Convention in South Carolina last week-end.

Delegates from four Circles attended the convention. The circles were Farmville, Chapel Hill, N. C., University of South Carolina, Queen's Chicora, S. C. Altogether there were ten girls and two chaperones.

The convention was held at Dean Child's Cottage on Pawley's Island, near Myrtle Beach, S. C. The meetings were very informal.

On Saturday the girls went to Myrtle Beach and visited Brookgreen, the gardens of Anna Hyatt Huntington's estate. She gave the statue of Joan of Arc that stands in the colonnade at Farmville.

The main business of the convention was to plan for the National Convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma to be held here next October.

Dean Childs will speak at this time on Jane Adams, who is the national patron saint of the order, and there will be another outstanding speaker. There will be many members present, and alumni will return for the meeting.

Miss Stubbs Presides At Science Meeting; Walmsley, Secretary

Miss Florence Stubbs served as president of the Virginia Social Science Association held jointly at Blacksburg and Radford on May 7th and 8th. Dr. J. E. Walmsley acted as secretary of the political science section. There was a large attendance at this meeting and it was considered the most successful ever held.

On Thursday, May 6th, the Academy of Science met at Charlottesville, Virginia. Those faculty members who attended the meeting were Dr. Jeffers, Dr. Stevens, Mr. Coyner, Mr. French, and Mr. McCorkle. "Dot" Wright, Eugenia Reeves, LeNoir Hubbard and Martha Hamlett were student representatives at the Academy of Science.

Beorc Eh Thorn Bids Four Girls

Beorc Eh Thorn, English Honor Society, has elected to membership the following girls: Betty Sue Cummings, Jean McConnaughey, Catherine Pilcher and Katherine Roberts.

These girls chosen for membership have shown creative ability in writing and scholarship in English. The formal initiation took place on Tuesday night, May 18 in the honor room.

Susan Lane Is President of Cotillion Club; Munt to Lead

Davies Is Secretary; Bailey Is Elected

Susan Lane, a junior of Alta Vista, was selected a spresident of the Cotillion Club for the coming year at a meeting of the club last Wednesday night. Carter Belle Munt of Petersburg, also a junior, will be leader. Others chosen to head the club were Ducky Davies of Culpeper, secretary-treasurer and Annie Leigh Bailey, of Wakefield, business manager.

All of these girls have been very outstanding in school and social activities during their three years here. Susan Lane was Mardi Gras queen this year and has been in May Court for two years. She is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority. Carter Belle Munt was also in Mardi Gras court and May Court this year. She is member of Sigma Sigma Sigma, social sorority.

The Cotillion Club sponsors two big dances during the year, one in the fall and one the spring. The membership is limited to two hundred girls.

Eight Girls Taken Into Orchesis Tuesday Night

Gwendolyn Bell, Washington, N. C., was elected president of Orchesis, the honorary dance club at a called meeting Tuesday night, May 18. Other officers of the club elected were Clara Nottingham, vice-president; Pattie Bounds, secretary-treasurer; and Margaret Thomas, costume chairman.

Gwen has been outstanding this year in dance as a member of the May Court. She is a member of the College Choir, Cotillion Club and Campus League. She is vice-president of the Choral Club and a member of Pi Kappa Sigma social sorority.

The new members initiated at the meeting were Gwendolyn Bell, Pattie Alston Bounds, Clara Nottingham, Elizabeth Butler, Essie Millner, Estelle Mann, Kathryn Newman and Macon Raine who was not present for initiation. These girls have been outstanding in artistic dance. The leading parts in May Day were taken by Orchesis members.

Orchesis is the only artistic dance club in our school. The organization was founded in 1935. Mary Winston, an outstanding dancer was its first president. The name taken over by the group was Artistic Dance Group which was changed to Orchesis in 1935. The club was founded because a need was felt for such a group to help with dance programs and especially May Day.

To become a member of Orchesis a girl has to show outstanding ability and interest in dance. Her course of study has to meet certain requirements before she is eligible for membership.

Mrs. Louise Fitzpatrick of the physical education department is adviser. The club has had one public appearance this year. All of the dances given were original. The club has also taken trips to visit other dance group performances. They had the opportunity to entertain the Chas. Weidmann dance group in this college in the fall quarter.

Dudley Allen Announces House Council

Dudley Allen president of the House Council has announced her council for the coming year. The girls selected are Dorothy Bailey, Lucy Baskerville, Helen Callihan, Kitty Carlton, Bernice Copley, Martha Meade Hardaway, Marion Harden, Geraldine Hatcher, Frances Lyons, Mary Mahone, Laura Morris, Marjorie Nimmo, Mary Anna Nottingham, Nannie Page Trent, Jean Watts, Elizabeth Penn Wilkinson, and Sudie Yaeger.

There will be no house presidents next year, and these girls as hall presidents will have absolute authority on their halls. They were selected because of their cooperation and service as members of the student body this year.

Gamma Thetas Entertained

The new members of Gamma Theta entertained the old girls yesterday afternoon with a picnic supper at Longwood.

Clara Nottingham, Marjorie Wicks, and Mary Jackson visited in Danville with Dibbs Tyree.

Miss Florence Stubbs is entertaining the Gamma Theta Sorority at a picnic at Whittaker's Lake on Saturday, May 29.

Alpha Lee Garnett spent the week-end in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Seven Girls Complete Tests In Senior Life Saving

Mrs. Fitzpatrick To Award Badges For Completed Work

Marjorie Nimmo, Sara Keese, Ellen Conyers, Dot Fisher, Catherine Underwood, Margaret Thomas, and Louise Walmsley have completed the various tests for the Senior Life Saving Badge. Mrs. Fitzpatrick has been coaching the class which is held every Friday afternoon.

Sara Button, Jeanne Clark and Catherine Newman expect to complete the tests soon. All these girls who have worked constantly for the past quarter will receive badges in June.

Testing has been given on the standard life saving requirements. To be qualified for the course one must be at least eighteen years old and must be able to swim eighteen lengths of the pool.

Exams in life saving have been given once annually since 1935. That year eleven girls were awarded badges, and last year eight girls passed the course.

Shipplett Leads Princesses; Potter Has Leading Part

Elizabeth Shipplett led the thirty-two princesses down an aisle formed by Massanetten cadets at the coronation of the Apple Blossom Queen Friday, May 6. She carried a golden apple, symbol of the festival. By her side marched the high school princess, with the key to the city. Miss Gretchen Thomson of New Orleans, beautiful young blond with perfect features was crowned Queen. The pageant portrayed the development of festivals from the Stone Age to the present. Lucy Potter former S. T. C. student took one of the leading parts as Goddess of Dawn.

Liz seems to have enjoyed herself thoroughly. The princess were escorted around the city in a Greyhound bus, siren blowing and two handsome cops leading the way. Everywhere the group was siezed by movie and camera men and they crunched pretty pink apples into the microphone.

Jennie Belle Gilliam Is Chairman of Student Standards

Jennie Belle Gilliam has recently been elected chairman of the Student Standards Committee. She has served on the committee for three years and as secretary this year. Jennie Belle is a member of Alpha Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta Pi, Monogram Club, Dramatic Club and Cotillion Club. She was vice-president of home economics club, and treasurer of the Athletic Association in 1936-37.

The committee elected Mary Jackson as secretary. This will be her first year to observe. She has been hal president during the past year and served on the Freshman Commission.

Peace Conference Is Held by Pi Gamma Mu

World Peace Conference was held by Pi Gamma Mu as its annual project in the large auditorium on Thursday, May 13.

Members acted as delegates from various countries. The countries and their representatives were: Great Britain, Chic Dortch; United States, Ruth Sears; France, Nora Jones; Japan, Dudley Allen; Italy, Marjorie Robertson; Russia, Ann Scales; Germany, Jean McConnaughey; China, Ann Galusha, and Pan-America, Bess McGlothlin.

United States opened the conference by welcoming all the other countries to the conference. Each representative presented problems and reasons for rearming. In the end, Pan-America offered the Good Neighbor Policy of the United States and Pan-America as a solution to all the existing evils.

Members used these papers as year projects. Much interest was taken in them, and listeners seemed to enjoy the miniature conference.

Four Girls Receive Bids To Group Of Swimmers

Norvell Montague was elected president of the H2O Club Tuesday, May 25 and Marjorie Nimmo was chosen secretary and treasurer. Managers elected were: Carnival, Margaret Britton; Swimming Meet, Virginia Carroll; Life-Saving, Sidney Yonce, with Ellen Conyers as her assistant.

The following were bid to the club: Marjorie Nimmo, Ellen Conyers, Sara Keese and Dorothy Noehren.

Norvell Montague is designing an insignia for the club which will be worn on the regular pool suits. She is an outstanding member of next year's senior class. She is editor of the Farmville Quarterly Review, a member of Gamma Psi, Pi Gamma Mu, Kappa Delta Pi, and Alpha Kappa Gamma.

This club first took its place on the campus last year. Its founders were Lelia Sanford, Helen Fern Perdue, Mary Bowles, Margaret Farrar, Louise Walmsley, and Frances Hudgins. Its purpose is to foster higher standards of swimming and to sponsor swimming activities.

Dramatic Club Installs Officers; Cox Becomes Head

The installation of the officers of the Dramatic Club for the coming year was held Wednesday night, May 5, in the small auditorium. The new president, Mary Joyner Cox, took the oath of office from the outgoing president, Fletcher Walker. The new president then installed the other officers, as follows: Josephine Quinn, vice-president; Anna Shiflett, secretary; and Virginia Whitehead Smith, treasurer.

The new heads of departments were also installed. Mary Wilson Clarke will be head of the costuming group; Janie Lee Young, the lighting group; and Mable Burton, the make-up group. The music committee will be under the leadership of Elizabeth Seiber, and Virginia Jarman will be in charge of the staging group. The acting group will be led by Alpha Lee Garnett. Anna Hoyer will act as chairman of the properties committee, while Jennie Rock will continue as roomkeeper for another year.

Staff of Virginian Builds '37 Bonfire

Baker and Rice Hold Bag In Snipe Hunt

The annual burning of the remains of the 1937 Virginian took place Tuesday night, honoring the yearbook which arrived last week and celebrating the completion of work on the part of the staff.

The bon-fire was held after the banquet of the staff in the tea room. Beauty was added to the fire by chemicals which turned the flames many hues.

After the material had burned, Virginia Baker and Charlotte Rice agreed to go on a snipe hunt if they could hold the bag. They held the bag and held the bag. Nothing happened. Charlotte states that she was completely at a loss to understand the lack of game because she learned from Webster before giving her consent to the hunt that snipes really are birds.

Class Day Exercises Take Place Monday

Auditorium, Longwood Are Scenes of Histories, Gifts

Class Day exercises were held by the senior class at Longwood Monday afternoon and by the graduating sophomores in the auditorium Monday morning.

The first feature on the senior program was the daisy chain formed by the seniors and "little sisters". They sang as they made the numbers 1937 with the chain.

Mary Bowles, class president, then welcomed all visitors to the exercises. Victoria Gillette gave the history of her class and Lucille Moseley gave the class gifts that were appropriate to each girl. Mary Lib Slater was elected giftorian but was unable to take part because of illness.

Mary Bowles announced that a fountain for the court between White House Hall and Main Hall would be presented as a gift by the class.

Miss Mary Nichols, president of the Alumnae Association welcomed the seniors and sophomores as Farmville Alumnae.

At ten o'clock, the sophomores dressed in white formed a line outside the auditorium.

Following the singing of the class songs, Kitty Roberts, sitting on a pedestal and representing the statue of Joan of Arc in the auditorium gave the past and future of the class.

Kitty Waite, representing the "spirit of the class of 1939" in a white cap and gown, gave gifts to graduates.

Songs were sung to the class by the class man, Miss Moran, and the exercises closed with the singing of "Onward Farmville".

ROTUNDA REVERBERATIONS

By Liz Carroll

Near draws the end! Once again we must bid adieu to girls we have grown to love. One glance at the tear stained faces after senior chapel revealed that even the most hard hearted found that parting was a bit on the sad side. We are losing a grand bunch of girls. It will seem strange next year with no Mary B. flitting here and there with a cheery smile for everyone . . . no Bonnie to take your troubles to . . . or Baker running around all excited over annuals. Good luck, seniors! We hope that the best of everything will come your way.

Flash! Will the girl who wrote to Jordan Steed please get in touch with him before leaving town. It seems that he is some fair maid's secret passion. 'Tis rumored that he's quite excited about it . . . so make yourself known and stop keeping the young man in suspense.

Most of the members of that illustrious organization, The Black Widows are leaving us this year. What will we do without the excitement they stir up. They certainly got a wonderful send-off the other night . . . a certain group of girls took it upon themselves to rid the school of such a spirited organization. One member of the raiding party even went so far as to say that she was paid by Chi to do her bit. Sounds a little screwy tho' . . . Chi has been here a long time and they've always managed to do their own work. Perhaps it was just an easy way of getting out of a tight place . . . well, what do you say, Frances?

A few of the lads we've become accustomed to see around are graduating from the near-by institution this year. Wonder what Carter Belle and GeGe will do without Fred and Bruce next year? Guess we'll all miss seeing them about . . . kinda' grown to be a habit. We wish all the lads the best of luck! As for the fair maids who are left behind . . . cheer up . . . a year isn't such a long time and maybe they'll come back to see you occasionally.

Nan Seward and Lib Wilson are going to do a bit of traveling this summer. Have a jolly time . . . and take in the night life of Paris. Remember enough of the things you do to tell us next fall.

To those of you who are coming back . . . have a gleeful summer . . . do a mean piece of playing . . . remember all the news you hear that can be printed . . . Au Revoir! See you next September.

"Last Will" of Departing Ones Is Stated In Person

"We, the Senior Class of the State Teachers Colledge, Farmville, Virginia, in our sane mind do hereby submit this, our last will and testament," said Mary Bowles, president of the senior class in Sing Saturday: Article I To the juniors we give all of our senior privileges in this nutshell, because they can all be placed here. Also our successors need this pill box ful of senior dignity; Article II—I, Dorothy Wise, request that Nan Seward carry the Y. W. C. A. spirit to Europe with this candle. A good luck from me. Bonnie Lane, to you, Libby Morris, will help next year.

For Mary Joyner Cox, I, Fletcher Walker, leave a sailboat hoping that sailing with Miss Wheeler at the helm will not be rough. To keep the fort next year for the Class of '37 Virginia Bean leaves a sailboat to Lizzie Shiplett, who is also bequeathed by Virginia Leonard a penny bank to keep track of all those pennies she can't count. Article III—Virginia Baker leaves a bag full of choicest and rarest snipes for Ruth Montgomery who may be aided by Charlotte Minton with a stick for this specific purpose to be given by Charlotte Rice.

Lucille Moseley and Elizabeth Smith leave Ruth Sears and Ruth Emma Chambers a monkey which hears no Chi, sees no Chi, and speaks no Chi. Kitty Fitzgerald wants Sara Keesee to have a pair of scissors with which to keep cutting up. Martha Hamlet hands down two safety pins, one each for Prince Smith and Chlotilde Jarman, so they can pin on angel wings when they arrive from Sears and Roebuck. These are to symbolize etherial qualities, or, better, to escape from hall presidents.

Article IV—I, Martha Gwaltney, made some splendid reducing resolutions which I wish Anna Maxey to have, hoping she will find them as beneficial as I did. Mary Lib Slater bequeaths her mountain music to Virginia Doughty to keep on roaring next year. If Willis Shields Scott is present, will she please receive Claire Eastman's place in the Training School Library where she can jaddle with Mr. Holton. Article V—I, Marie Moore, leave Sue Pack a box of Pep so she can keep on trucking.

Chic Dortch prides herself on her abiltiy to be satisfied in her senior year without a Hampden-Sydney man. This she leaves to Carter Belle Munt. Midge Davis leaves a Mickey Mouse to Janet Lemmon. Minnie Smith wants Jac Adams and Helen Byrd Harris, to have a pot of gold to help them not have as difficult a time as she did paying her tea room bills.

Signed: Class of '37

Notary:
Mary Bowles.

Moseley, Sykes Find Treasures

A treasure hunt with a pot of gold was what the sophomores chose as entertainment for their sister class, the seniors, on Thursday night, May 27.

These girls present were divided into four groups under Mary Bowles, Virginia Baker, Lucille Moseley and Bess McGlothlin. The group headed by Lucille Moseley found the pot of gold. Inez Sykes won the individual prize.

After the treasure hunt, all those present returned to the "rec" and sang class songs while eating pop-sickles.

Miss Stubbs, Gamma Theta adviser, gave that chapter a picnic at Whittiker's Lake Saturday, May 30. Swimming was a big object, and a truck was used to carry the group to and from the picnic grounds.

Memories of Past Students Remain to Haunt School

Dusk brings a soft mist hovering over the campus. In the dim light the memories of other girls who have walked these same paths in other autumns, glow with reality. Mary Bowles, in sport clothes and little oxfords, grins a greeting to everyone as she hurries across the street to meet Miss Iler.

Virginia Baker, a black notebook clasped under one arm, takes a shortcut across the campus to a group of people gathered around a camera. Virginia Leonard runs out of the Rotunda with a letter for Cousin Tommy to mail.

Margaret Farrar, in fur coat and high heels, climbs into a snappy roadster headed for Richmond. Bonny Lane and Billy Wilkerson find a bench and are joined by Anne Johnson and Nancy Pobst.

A giggle is heard and Em Easley, amid a crowd of girls, goes into the dining room. The Sanford twins turn the corner and walk toward the publication office. Eyes gaze as Lucy Potter, tall and stately, passes by with a box of water colors in her hand.

Little Ginny Hall runs down the hill, probably to keep a date in Shannon's. Crenshaw Jones folds a natural dancing costume under her arm as she whistles to herself. Kitty Fitz waves gaily to Berry as he speeds by. Agnes Crockett and Hazel Smith are deep in discussion as they saunter toward the Rotunda. Soon, we too, shall be memories mixed in with the Alma Mater.

Reception Opens New Headquarters of Richmond Theatre Guild

Receiving the guests at the house warming given last night by the Richmond Theatre Guild were Mrs. R. K. Carter, Mrs. Overton Dennis, Mrs. A. H. Herrmann, Mrs. Dave E. Satterfield Jr., Mrs. T. Nash Broadus, Mrs. John M. Taylor Jr., Mrs. Robert I. Boswell and Mrs. George Wright Jr., who are shown in the top picture.

Mrs. John Cronly shows Miss Anne Diggs Peple a very beautiful tea pot, which she is probably yearning for as a decoration for her corner cupboard. Miss Peple will become the bride of Mr. Howard A. Gills, Jr., on Saturday.

Horseback Riding Offered at S. T. C.

With brisk weather coming on there are a large group of students taking to the bridle path. This is the first year that S. T. C. has had a class in riding, and about twenty-five girls have enrolled.

The horses are owned by Mr. Herbert Pullam from Appomattox, but the riding is being supervised and taught by the riding master, Mr. Jimmy Longan.

There are nine horses in all, among these are five gaiter horses, three gaiter horses, and jumpers. The riding ring is just back of the old Burger home, about two blocks from Mr. Graham's home. All riding at the present will be done in the ring under close supervision and instruction. Later the students will enjoy riding trails which are now being constructed out at Longwood.

All the pupils entered in classes now will automatically become members of the riding club which is now being formed. Those now getting instruction are: Virginia Wallner, Chlotilde Jarman, Virginia Jarman, Mary Jackson, Pattie Bounds, Betty Harwood, Elizabeth George Wilson, Peggy Young, Marjorie Wicks, Mary Allen Peters, Elizabeth Lewis, Blair Goode, Deane Saunders, Mary Wilson Clark, Isabel Plummer, Florence Rowett, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Betty Gregg, Adelaide Dressler, Elizabeth Butler, Bernice Copley Marcia Etheridge and Florence Bress.

House Council Holds Formal Installation Services

Dudley Allen, president of the House Council, formally installed the council on Thursday night, October 7, in the large auditorium. Rev. A. H. Hollingsworth, of the Presbyterian church, led the devotional.

Dudley explained the duties of the House Council briefly and stated, "The House Council works for the well being of the group through the individual." She asked for the cooperation and support of the Student Body in carrying on this week.

Lucy Baskerville was installed as vice-president and Virginia Agee as secretary of the Council. The following hall presidents were then installed: Mary Emma Thompson, Frances Lyons, Jean Watts, Mary Mahone, Elizabeth Penn, Wilkinson, Sudie Yager, Geraldine Hatcher, Laura Morris, Marian Harden, Bernice Copley, LeNoir Hubbard, Martha Meade Hardaway, Marjorie Nimmo, Frances Pope, Nannie Page Trent, Helen Gallihan, Kitty Carleton, David Terry, Elizabeth Watterson, and Carrie Mahood.

Virginian Wins First Class Honor Rating

The 1937 Virginian, year book of S. T. C., was given first class or excellent rating by the Associated Collegiate Press, according to recent word received by the editor, Ruth Montgomery.

Only nine year books in the United States received first class rating. There is only one rating, namely, All American, which surpasses what the Virginian received.

Virginia Baker, now a member of the Blackstone High School faculty was editor of this edition of the annual.

This is the first time the Virginian has received this rating. Last year it was rated as good or second class.

When Ruth Montgomery put the Virginian on display in Chicago at the A. C. P. convention, it received many favorable comments by delegates and by annual experts. A delegate from Johns Hopkins University declared the Virginian had the best group pictures of any annual he'd ever seen.

Y. W. C. A. Gives Annual Reception For New Girls

Isabel Williamson Presents Skit

The Big Sister-Little Sister Reception, given by the Y. W. C. A. was held Friday night in the Rec.

In the receiving line were Dr. Jarman, Dr. Jeffers, Dr. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle, Miss Nichols, Miss Lila London, Miss Willie London, Miss Mix, Miss Haynes, Miss Penny, Elizabeth Morris, Nan Seward and Carter Belle Munt.

Punch and cake were served, after which the Big Sisters introduced their Little Sisters.

A three act play was presented followed by tap dancing, singing and the Big Apple. Isabel Williamson was in charge of entertainment. The skit presented depicted a mock story of the life of Cinderella. Anne Scott and Sara Keesee sang between acts. Margaret Britton, Army Butterworth and Ann Dugger sang and tapped to "School Days."

Among those who seem to have had the most exciting time during the summer are Lib Wilson and Nan Seward. From all we've heard (and you can't stay around them long and hear anything else) they seem to have painted the continent of Europe at least a pale shade of pink. Nan has added to her laurels one PRINCE and Lib (poor thing), can only lay claim to a mere Count.

Juniors Entertain Sister Class at Party in "Rec"

The "green and white" spirit was really tops on last Thursday night when the Juniors entertained the Freshmen at a party in the "Rec."

The classes were entertained by Mary Jackson, Sidney Yonce, and F. Bryan who sang "Love's Serenade," after which Army Butterworth, Margaret Britton and Anne Dugger tap danced. As a conclusion the two classes joined in doing a spirited "Big Apple."

Water Carnival Is Sponsored By H2O Club

Margaret Britton Is In Charge

October 14 at 8 o'clock has been selected by the H2O Club as the date for their annual water carnival. Every year the members of the club sponsor the carnival.

Margaret Britton, as vice-president of the club, is acting chairman of the event. Her class chairmen who are in charge of the class stunts are: Isabel Plummer, senior chairman; Jinny Carroll, junior; Sara Keesee, sophomore and Marjorie Nimmo, freshman chairman.

The various class events including plain and fancy diving and the different styles of swimming will be judged by form and ability. Spectacular swimming and diving are not points to be judged.

The members of the H2O Club whose purpose is "to create and foster an interest in swimming" are: Norvell Montague, Margaret Britton, Marjorie Nimmo, Frances Hudgins, Jenny Carroll, Sidney Yonce, Sara Keesee, Isabel Plummer and Ellen Convers.

Seward And Wilson Arrive Clutching Duck From Paree

By Ann Dugger

"Everything has been 'ducky'", exclaimed Nan Seward and Elizabeth Wilson as they stepped off the Ile de France, clutching a huge wooly duck bought on their two months tour of Europe. Even after weeks of everyday life, they talk as excitedly of England, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, France, and "fifteen minutes worth of Austria" as they did the day they slipped the duck past the customs officials.

Something interesting happened to Nan and Lib in each country that they visited. In Italy they were in a gondola wreck. They explored the ruins of the Colosseum at night with a cigarette lighter. They were impressed by the new Mussolini Stadium, which contains fifty smaller stadiums—one for each athletic event—and a swimming pool that could hold all the buildings of our college. In Monte Carlo Nan couldn't find the money changer to enable her to play roulette, so she wandered out in the lobby and lost fifty cents in the slot machine. Of course they went mountain climbing in the Alps, and wrote home, "When those people built the Alps they really meant business." They spent a day in the Caledonian market in London where one "can buy anything from alarm clocks to inner tubes". They liked Germany best of all, because it is "clean, beautiful, and the people are so friendly." The scenery in the Mediterranean was the most beautiful that they saw—white cliffs, sapphire blue sea, and real "Red sails in the sunset."

Being feminine, Nan and Lib talked of the clothes seen on their trip. Most of the people dress as Americans do, but the peasants wear long dresses, dark aprons and shawls. The two girls noticed that Europeans have unusually large feet, and many wear stockings that are between flesh-colored and orange.

Being S. T. C. students, they talked of the food. They learned to eat crayfish in France, and spaghetti, "even if it is three feet long" in Italy. They did their best to down snails. Coca colas were scarce, and cost fifty cents when they were lucky enough to find them at all. They thought the sidewalk cafes of Paris great fun.

As for men, Nan fell for a prince, Yugoslavian, but Lib dropped to a count.

On the voyage home Nan was seasick, and Lib kept her company by being "homesick for Europe". From their conversation one can bet that of the million Americans reported to have been in Europe last summer, the two girls from Farmville had as much fun as anybody.

Y.W.C.A. Holds First Open Cabinet Meeting

The Y. W. C. A. held an open meeting on October 6, 1937. Following the roll call, the devotionals were led by Isabel Williamson. The heads of the different committees gave their reports.

Frances Thomas, Norvell Montague, and Ruth Curtis Robeson gave reports on sports, spiritual and atmosphere of the conference at Blue Ridge. The conference was held last June and was a conference of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. from all the southern states.

The meeting was well attended and they were served punch and cake.

Mary Joyner Cox, president of the Dramatic Club anticipates a successful year for the club. Changes in the constitution and departments have been made and students have begun serving their apprenticeships as the heads of the major departments choose their assistants.

The major departments and their heads are as follows: Lighting, Jane Lee Young, assistants, Martha Meade Hardaway and Jean Taylor; Acting, Alpha Lee Garnett; Costuming, Mary Wilson Clark, assistants, Margaret Pritchard and Ada Sanford; Make up, Mabel Burton, assistants, Myra Smith and Anthelia Robinette; Staging, Virginia Jarman, assistant, Lorano Moomaw; Business, Virginia Whitehead Smith, assistant, Frances Lee Russon. Publicity, headed by Marguerite Blackwell, is a sub-department of business.

The minor departments are Music, Elizabeth Seiber, and Properties, Musse Hoyer, assistant, Kitty Brooks.

Some changes in the constitution have been made and Juanita Callis is the newly elected Parliamentarian.

Girls who were initiated into the Dramatic Club at the last meeting include: Jane Powell, Ora Wilson, Vivian Womack, Elizabeth Tindall, Jean Wyatte, Jeannette Ferguson, Sis Sturgis, Myra Smith, Ann Billups, Harriette Vaden, Virginia Price, Margaret Black.

New Members Announced By Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu wishes to announce the following new members: Florence Bress, Dot Buckland, Pattie Bounds, Katherine Galusha, Nellwyn Latimer, Madeline McGlothlin, Virginia Whitehead Smith, Ruth Read and Carolyn Alsop.

These girls were taken into the national honor fraternity for social science because they have shown special interest in this field. In addition to a high standard of general scholarship, each member must carry on an original piece of work in one of the social sciences while a member of the society.

Convention Closes With Banquet At Longwood

Shiplett Is Head Of Toasts

Alpha Kappa Gamma concluded its tenth annual convention with a banquet at Longwood on Saturday evening. The gold and blue colors of the organization were artistically carried out in the table decorations.

Elizabeth Shiplett, president of the local chapter, presided as toast mistress. The toast themes were centered around the shield of Alpha Kappa Gamma. Dr. J. L. Jarman made the address of welcome. The following toasts were given: To the guests by Dudley Allen, to the spirit of Jane Adams, National Patron Saint by Elizabeth Morris, and to Alpha Kappa Gamma by Margaret Finch, an alumna of the Joan Circle.

Miss Florence Stubbs introduced Miss Ruth O. Blakeslee, who was guest speaker.

At the conclusion of the banquet Miss Ladema Gaines presented Miss Stubbs a diamond set insignia—a gift from the circles in appreciation for her twelve years of interest and service.

Miss Mary Gives Informal Reception To School Guests

Miss Mary White Cox entertained the delegates of the Alpha Kappa Gamma convention at an informal reception in the Student Building Lounge at nine thirty on Friday night.

Besides the active members of the Joan Circle, the presidents of the other honor organizations on campus were invited. These girls were: Marjorie Robertson, Nora Jones and Virginia Whitehead Smith.

Among the honorary and associate members of the local circle present were: Dr. J. L. Jarman, Miss Grace Mix, Miss Mary Clay Hiner, Miss Winnie Hiner and Miss Olive Iler.

Alumnae of the Joan Circle returning for the convention were: Kate Trent, Margaret Finch, Mary Ellington, Frances Sole Lyle, Elizabeth Bowers, Frances Edwards, Frances Crawford, Martha Gunter, "Tac" Waters, Florence and Lelia Sanford, Virginia Baker, Helen Smith, Margaret Pollard, Amanda Gray and Mary Burgess Fraser.

Clara Nottingham Heads Orchesis

Clara Nottingham, junior, will act as president of Orchesis for the coming year.

The Orchesis is composed of those students who have shown unusual ability and interest in natural dancing. This group of students is also known as the Artist Dance Group.

Gwen Bell was elected president of the Orchesis last spring. She did not return to school this fall. As vice-president elect, Clara Nottingham has taken over the duties of president for the year.

The Orchesis functions in many varied activities during the school year. Among these are their annual recital and May Day. Each year the club endeavors to secure some renowned artist to teach the natural dancing class and to give a concert in the Lyceum series. Last year Charles Weidman was here.

Clara has been an active member of her class. She is on the Rotunda staff and is a member of Gamma Theta sorority.

Hockey Team Will Meet Wm. & Mary Extension Nov. 13

Game There to Mark First Intercollegiate Try

November 13, when S. T. C. plays William and Mary Extension of Richmond there, marks the first game of intercollegiate hockey that S. T. C. has ever participated in. Further plans have not been announced.

Harriette Vaden, manager, also announced that unless there are at least fourteen players from each class out for the required amount of practice, there can be no class games this year. As it stands now, there are ample freshmen and twenty sophomores out, but not nearly enough participants to make up junior and senior teams. Upperclassmen are urged to come out since some of the ones already signed up are dropping from the list.

If there are enough for green and white and red and white teams, these teams probably will play determining points for the color cup.

Thirty-two Girls Receive Bids To Cotillion

Thirty-two upper classmen will receive bids from the Cotillion Club at dinner tonight.

All who accept bids will receive the yellow and green ribbons of the club to be worn a week.

At the fall dance, new members will wear these ribbons. They will be unable to invite guests to the first dance, but they will be full-fledged members of the club by the spring dances.

Vaden Announces Hockey Plans As Manager

Upperclassmen Are Urged To Report

Harriette Vaden, manager, announced recently that for the first time Farmville will have an intercollegiate hockey team this year. She has written to William and Mary Extension and Westhampton of Richmond, but to date has heard from neither.

Eighty-nine beginners reported for practice last week and show signs of being valuable players for their respective teams. Only twenty-two came out for advanced.

Smith Announces Gamma Psi Plans

Gamma Psi, the art fraternity, is faced with a busy year states Virginia Whitehead Smith, the president.

Quarterly projects have been decided upon. The fraternity at present is working on the fall project—a mural for the training school. Posters and decorations for the Cotillion Club, Alpha Kappa Gamma, and the circus are being made.

Posters and advertisements for other school organizations will be made by Gamma Psi at a small price.

Agee Is Guest Of History Class At Luncheon

The class of Current History 350, taught by Miss Mary Peck, met at a luncheon in the tea-room on Thursday, Oct. 21. Virginia Agee, columnist of the Rotunda was the guest of the day. Current topics were discussed during the meal.

Royal Virginians Play for Cotillion On Saturday

Student Lounge Is Scene of Reception

The Cotillion Club will hold the first dance of the year in the gymnasium on Saturday night. Dancing will start at eight-thirty and last until twelve with one intermission.

The Student Building Lounge will be decorated with fall leaves and flowers. Here the receiving line will greet the guests. Those who will receive are: Dr. J. L. Jarman, president of the college, Miss Mary White Cox, Head of the Home, T. A. McCorkle, faculty adviser of the Cotillion Club, and Susan Lane, Elizabeth Harris, Ducky Davies and Carter Belle Munt, all officers of the club.

The music of the Royal Virginians will start promptly at eight-thirty. This orchestra comes from the University of Virginia under the direction of Hartwell Clarke.

During the intermission refreshments will be served in the Student Building Lounge. Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Tabb, and Mrs. Laing will assist at the punch bowl. The various sorority rooms will be open to members and guests.

A floor committee composed of the following girls will act to preserve order: Jacqueline Johnson, Madeline McGlothlin, Miriam Ficklin, Eleanor Dodson, Elizabeth Harris and Essie Millner.

Every member of the Cotillion Club has two girl bids and one boy bid to this dance. The membership of the club is limited to two hundred girls. Freshmen however have not yet been invited to the club. Thirty-one upper-classmen were recently bid to membership.

Crowell Announces Her Committees For '38 May Day

Bruce Crowell, general chairman for the 1938 May Day, has announced the following committee chairmen to aid her in the selection of the May Day theme and in the make-up of the program: Kathleen Sawyer, theme chairman, Clara Nottingham, chairman of dance composition, Will Scott, chairman of costumes, Elizabeth LeGrande, music chairman, LeNoir Hubbard, property chairman, and Norvell Montague, chairman of setting.

Mrs. Louise R. Fitzpatrick is faculty advisor for the May Day committee in the plans for the presentation of this year's May Day.

Alumnae Give Fashion Show

A fashion show, under the auspices of the Farmville Alumnae Association, was presented by the Dorothy May Shop, last Wednesday evening in the large auditorium.

Miss Jane Royall described the frocks after introducing Miss Yarm, the new manager of the Dorothy May, who announced that the Shop was displaying not only the dresses and coats, but hats and accessories as well.

The show was divided into parts—sport and street clothes, and those suitable for dinner and evening, while the modeling was done by S. T. C. girls.

The models and the styles they displayed in the first half were Norma Johnson modeling a golf outfit consisting of a rust knitted cashmere suit set off by a multi-colored Balivian tucker, and a red and gray tennis dress with a Gone With the Wind cap in corresponding red; Billie Lewis, in a navy jacket with plaid skirt and scarf for football; Eugenia Jolly wearing a spectator's coat of large, bright plaid; Elizabeth Butler displaying a short-sleeved brown, all-round dress for Fall with a new-style, square, hand-bag to match, and a beige wool coat which strikes up a new color for fall and winter, this year; Elsie Dodd in a green street outfit with black accessories, and a green fitted coat with the new, rolled collar.

Gamma Thetas Get Together In Chapter Room

The members of Gamma Theta Sorority had a "get-together" tea in their chapter room on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. Besides the active members of the group, Miss Stubbs, faculty adviser, was present.

Lord Bothwell and Mary of Scotland Relive Tragedy In Dramatic Play

Miss Wheeler Announces Entire Character List

The tragic story of Mary Stuart and the Earl of Bothwell come to life as Virginia Agee and Jim Johnston take the leads in "Mary of Scotland" to be presented on November 19 by the Dramatic Club of S. T. C. and the Jongleurs of H.-S. C.

Virginia is known to the audiences for her outstanding work in the leads of "Mary the Third" and "The Taming of the Shrew", the former in which she also played opposite Jim Johnston. Clara Nottingham, gradually working her way into the limelight in "Mary the Third", "The Taming of the Shrew" and "The Cradle Song" is Mary Beaton and the other Marys, Mary Seton, Mary Livingstone, and Mary Fleming are portrayed by Emily Hoskins, Jean Scott and Kathryn Reed, respectively.

"The good Queen Bess", Elizabeth Tudor, whose nick-name does not suit her in this play, is ably handled by Elizabeth Carroll, who gave splendid performances in "A Kiss for Cinderella", "The Cradle Song", and "The Taming of the Shrew".

Hockey Team Plays W. & M. In Richmond

Class Teams Need Practices

The Farmville-William and Mary hockey game will be played at 3:30 November 12 in Richmond, and the contest with Westhampton will start at 4:20 on Thursday, November 18, in Richmond.

Girls wanting to play in the inter-class games are to begin their required seven practices immediately. In order that girls who began practices late may arrange these practices, there will be double practice time for several days.

As yet the date for class games has not been set.

The varsity hockey team is being chosen now by Miss Olive Iler, coach and Harriette Vaden, manager. The team will be announced just before the trip to play William and Mary.

Madame Fleeway Presents Ferocious Circus Animals

The barker was barking in his eloquent fashion: "Hear ye! Hear ye! You are about to witness one of the most stupendous—one of the most colossal events in the history of all circusses! Our very own Madame Fleeway—with only a cage over her head as protection—will tame, before your very eyes, the most ferocious, the most vicious animals on this earth. Ladies and gentlemen—I present to you—Madame Fleeway—the awful animal trainer (or should I say the trainer of awful animals?)."

From the distance, the soothing slightly nasal tones of Madame's voice reached the ears of the waiting audience. "Yew git in thar!" Onto the stage came Fleeway—walking, beside the most feared, the most looked-up-to animal of the animal kingdom. Why, what was that, Madame? Oh, he'll even answer questions? "My deah Giraff, does Drene shampoo make Mr. Bell's hair grow east and west?" Before our very eyes, we saw that animal nod assent!

Oh, the Madame says she fears no animal. She will approach any animal from the front, eh? Watch where you're walking Madame. I've heard that some giraffs kick!

Then, wild cats became as quiet and "me-owed" as softly as a baby; the three little pigs—who we all know are as wild as March hares—were pacified and danced "ring-around the rosy" under the magic hand, our animal-trainer. The pink elephant that would usually romp and stamp, behaved like a little gentleman! All moved smoothly (barring a few timely up-roads from the audience) until in stalked an unsightly skunk (Hopie Dick, they say) and the beautifully tamed animal, scampered away. We didn't blame them!

Poor Madame Fleeway! We sympathized with you. After your noble taming, everything went up in smoke!

The barker roared again, as Madame Fleeway stumbled off in disgust, "That—ladies and gentlemen—was our very own—Madame Fleeway."

Freshman Class Chooses Leaders From Many Nominees

Atkinson, Lewis, Fahr Are Officers

Ruth Lea Purdom of Danville was elected president of the class of '41 at a call meeting of the class Wednesday night, October 6. Other nominees for president were Esther Atkinson, Nancy Pierpont, and Billie Lewis.

Ruth Lea comes to Farmville with an outstanding record from George Washington High School of Danville. She was president of the Dramatic Club, a member of the Student Council for four years, a member of the Debate Club, a member of the basketball team and alumni editor of the Chat Box, the weekly newspaper.

"Hello, everybody," said when she was asked to make a speech upon being elected president. "I appreciate your votes. This is the finest class that has ever been in Farmville. It is our task to make this, and we are going to."

Esther Atkinson of Hampden-Sydney was elected vice-president. She ran against Frances Ellett.

Billie Lewis of Charlottesville defeated Norman Atkinson for secretary. Betty Fahr of Richmond was elected treasurer. Martha Welcher ran against her.

The two student government representatives are Caralie Nelson of South Boston and Nancy Pierpont of Salem. They defeated Marian Worsham and Helen Seward.

Class of '41 Elects Twelve to Y. W. Commission

The freshman commission of the Y. W. C. A. as voted on by the class of '41 will include Frances Ellett, Martha Welcher, Helen McIlwaine, Mary Petticrew, Bess Thomas, Ethel Carr, Patricia Whitlock, Mildred Perdue, Norma Pamplin, Jean Terral, Alice Lee Barham and Norma Johnston.

Assisted by the freshman counsellor, Ruth Curtis Robeson, this group will be worked into various phases of activities in the Y. W. C. A. They will sponsor a bazaar around Christmas time and will be in charge of morning watch on Sundays.

Freshmen Nominate Purdum, Atkinson Pierpont and Lewis

Billie Lewis, Esther Atkinson, Nancy Pierpont and Ruth Lee Purdom were nominated for class president at the first meeting of the Freshman class Tuesday night.

Ruth Lee Purdom from George Washington High School in Danville is a member of the Student Council, president of the dramatic club and also editor of her school paper. Nancy Pierpont is an officer of her school and was through high school and college member of Girl Reserves.

Billie Lewis from Charlottesville attended Farmville College High School and was salutatorian of her class. Esther Atkinson came to S. T. C. from Peace Junior College, where she was very active in all her class activities.

These nominees will be voted on by the class of 1941 Wednesday night in the auditorium. Vera Ebel, junior class president, will conduct freshman class meetings until the president is elected.

Emily Hoskins Is Assistant In Hockey

First Game Is November 18

Emily Hoskins, a freshman from Lynchburg, is the assistant hockey manager, selected to aid Harriette Vaden, manager.

Emily attended school at Hannah Moore Academy in Reisterstown, Maryland, where she played hockey for two years and earned her school letter in that sport. Because of an ankle injury she has been slowed in her practices.

Nineteen Players Are Chosen By Miss Iler For Hockey

Team Will Travel To Richmond Friday

The varsity hockey squad, who will travel to Richmond on Friday, November 12 to meet William and Mary Division and again on Thursday, November 18 to meet Westhampton, was announced by Miss Olive Iler, coach, Tuesday.

Those making the squad were Kathleen Bailey, Edna Bolick, Louise Bryan, Inez Chappell, Ellen Conyers, Dot Fischer, Ellen Gilliam, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Emily Hoskins, Hilda Hubbard, Chlotilde Jarman, Bernice Mann, Estelle Mann, Evelyn Mann, Helen McIlwaine, Kathryn Moomaw, Marjorie Nimmo, Ruth Sears and Harriette Vaden.

Last year Farmville had no varsity squad because the East-West Hockey Tournament was played here.

Honorary Fraternity Holds Initiation

Alpha Phi Sigma held an initiation meeting in the little gym Oct. 27. The following girls were initiated into the apprentice degree:

Robert Wheeler, Anne Brodner, Dell Warren, Rachel Kibler, Marie Allen, Sarah Sibold, Nancy Goode Bland, Nancy Saville, Martha Crawley, Victoria Tanner, Marjorie Holt, Caralie Nelson, Eunice Westbrook, Martha Anne Saunders, Carolyn Ford, Evelyn Thornton, Mary Millie McCoy.

The ones innitiated into the novice degree are:

Jane Rosenberger, Hope Dickinson, Elva Kibler, Bertha Vick, Elizabeth Garrett, Elizabeth Von Gimmingen, Daphne Wilkerson, Emma Hutchinson, Sara Joyner, Susie Pearl Crocker, Anne Benton, Charlotte Davis, Mary Cecil Bynum, Virginia Howell, Coralee Gilliam and Margaret Shank.

Alpha Phi Sigma is the national honorary fraternity for scholarship; it is the only honorary society in the college to which the freshmen are eligible upon matriculation. Salutatorians and valedictorians of high schools are automatically eligible for membership; students in college who make a high scholastic record are also eligible for membership.

Cotillion Club Holds Dance

The annual fall dance sponsored by the Cotillion Club was held last Saturday night in the gymnasium. Approximately one thousand dancers were on the floor.

Guests were greeted in the Student Building Lounge by a receiving line composed of Miss Mary White Cox, Head of the Home; Dr. J. L. Jarman, President of the College; Mr. T. A. McCorkle, faculty adviser of the Club, and the officers of the Club: Susan Lane, president; Carter Belle Munt, leader; Lib Harris, business manager; Ducky Davies, secretary-treasurer.

Hartwell Clarke and his Royal Virginians from the University of Virginia furnished the music for dancing from nine until twelve. Many alumnae and out of town guests were present.

The Student Building Lounge was decorated with fall leaves and flowers. During intermission, punch was served in the Lounge. The various sorority chapter rooms were open to members and guests.

Decorations in the gymnasium were furnished by Gamma Psi, honorary art society. They carried out a fall color scheme. Large colored leaves covered the walls of the gym.

Tryouts Present Plays at Meeting Of Dramatic Club

Two apprentice plays were given at the Dramatic Club meeting, Wednesday, November 3.

The first play, "The Flattering Word" was coached by Alpha Lee Garnett. The cast was: Dr. Wrigley, Helen Seymore; Mrs. Wrigley, Beatrice Bland; Lena, Bill Stone; Mrs. Zooker, Marion Worsham; Mr. Tish, Jamie Lee Peake.

The cast of "Joint Owners in Spain" was as follows: Mrs. Mitchell, Agnes Pickral; Miss Dyer, Hope Dickinson; Miss Blair, Margaret Tucker; Mrs. Fullerton, Marjorie Holt. This play was coached by Elizabeth George Wilson.

Girls Shriek Over Alumnae

The new girls may have been a bit mystified over the shrieks of greeting and the ensuing huddles, which were a common occurrence over the week-end. Have no fear—we are not all "tetched in the haid". It's just our own little way of showing the old girls how happy we are to have them back for a visit. They were here in swarms and buzz continuously from the time they arrived till they left.

Baker, Mary Lib and Charlotte had their heads together for a good session. It made one think of last year's Virginian. It's hard to understand how they ever stopped giggling long enough to get out such a wonderful annual.

Martha Hamlet found it very pleasant to be able to join in the hubbub without having her conscience hurt. There was a day when her main conversational topic was "Lights Out Right Away, Please." Martha Glenn and Zaida had a long chat right in the middle of the dance floor. It seems that at one time the school in which Martha Glenn teaches was a reform school! Lloyd Kelly hasn't let teaching slow her down one bit. She looked better than ever, if that is possible.

Lucy P., "Smitty" and Bernice Jones breezed around in a cloud of dust. Grace Eubank, president of the Cotillion Club in '35-'36 had everything under control. Last year's May Queen, Minnie Smith, has cut her hair and is, of course, "looking good."

There were lots of others that gave us that "old feeling" and made us realize more than ever what graduation means. By next year the freshmen will be able to understand this sentiment. There are always Cotillion Club week-ends to look forward to tho', and "auld acquaintances" blossom anew.

Virginia Baker and Sue Mallory and Mary Virginia Walker came for the dance too because they were all at the dance and everybody was glad to see them again because they were graduated last year and now they are old maid school teachers but before they were graduated they came to S. T. C. and so they came to the dance.

Fifty-Five Attend Alumnae Tea In Richmond

About fifty-five guests attended the annual Alumnae Tea at the Teachers Convention in Richmond during the Thanksgiving holidays given by the General Alumnae Association. The tea was held this year on Friday, November 26 in Milier and Rhoads' tea room.

The tea is given each year for all Farmville alumnae in Richmond for the convention. The guests ranged from the first graduate of this school to several of last year's graduates.

The planning and carrying out of the tea was done by the Gamma Theta Alumnae Chapter in Richmond. Mrs. Pat Adkins, president of Gamma Theta Alumnae Chapter, was in charge of the affair.

Dr. J. L. Jarman and Miss Mary Nichols, president of the general alumnae association, received the guests. Among the faculty members present were: Miss Lila London, Miss Wilhelmina London, Miss Grace Mix, Miss Peck, Miss Haynes, Miss Tucker, Mr. McCorkle, Dr. Wynne, and also Mrs. Wynne.

Thirteen Seniors Are Chosen For May Court

FIVE JUNIORS

Members Will Be Escorted By Lords

Thirteen seniors, five juniors, three sophomores and one freshman were chosen by the student body on November 23 to be members of the 1938 May Court.

The girls selected are: Virginia Agee, Elizabeth Butler, Virginia Dougherty, Mary Harvey, Eugenia Jolly, Susan Lane, Frances Maxey, Kathleen McCann, Madeline McGlothlin, Ruth Montgomery, Elizabeth Morris, Nan Seward, Gay Stieffen, Caroline Upshur, Mary Harrison Vaughan.

Frankie Bryan, Elsie Dodd, Vera Ebel, Charlotte Minton Kitty Roberts, Sara Keese, Virginia Lee Pettis, Lula Windham, and Norma Johnson.

These girls will be ladies in Queen Elizabeth's Court and will be attended by lords who will be selected by the May Day Committee.

The exact roles which the lords and ladies of the court will play have not been definitely decided but it is probable that they will form a court figure and dance the minuet.

The costumes for this year's May Day will be more elaborate than heretofore. Will Scott, chairman of costumes, has been working on the May Queen's and her court's costumes which will be in keeping with the Elizabethan times.

Miss May Harwood Bates was among the Richmonders, attending the Duke-Pitt game in Durham, N. C., Saturday.

Isabel Williamson Serves Supper To Problem Club

Members of the Problem Club were entertained Sunday evening at an informal buffet supper at 108 First Avenue. Miss Isabel Williamson acted as hostess. After a bit of idle chatter in the living room, the feast was disclosed to the eager eyes of the guests. The menu consisted of hamburgers, rolls, tomato sandwiches, anchovy and cheese sandwiches and coffee. During the general confusion which followed, members of the club held an informal business meeting at which much was said and one thing accomplished. It was unanimously voted that Miss Williamson be issued a bid to become a Problem Child, and the type of initiation was decided upon at that point. Upon facing the issue, the active members easily saw that the candidate could "bear" up under any strain. She earnestly expostulated with the club for five full minutes on the subject of one whom they were considering for membership. She decided the issue for once and for all. The Problem Club is happy to announce its new member.

Little brown teddy-bears were given as favors to the following: L. Virginia Carroll, Problem Mother; Prince Smith, Problem Child; Cleo Jarman, Problem Child; Sue Owen, Problem Child, while yellow bears were given to Ginna Jarman, Leader-Astray-Ex-Officio, and Nan Seward, G-gal-Ex-Officio. Miss Williamson's official position will be that of Go-Between.

*Note! Not everyone who entertains the Problem Club at dinner is eligible to membership, although the club is always open to persuasion.

Three Students Are Guests for Opera

Beverly Sexton, Mary Harrison Vaughan and Katherinen Moomaw were guests of the Richmond debutantes on November 23 in Richmond for Mozart's comic opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte".

A reception at the Mosque was given in honor of the out of town debutantes in the afternoon from 4:30 until 5:30 p. m. At 8:15 the guests and escorts went to the opera given by the Salisbury Guild.

A dance after the opera at the Westwood Supper Club was held in their honor, with Jelly Lewich and his orchestra playing.

Rev. and Mrs. Tucker entertained the Episcopal girls in school at a buffet supper in their home last week. Among the girls who helped serve were Margaret Pierce, Martha Meade Hardaway, Frances Alvis and Helen Jeffries. The Methodist girls in school were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Potts at a seated tea last week. Entertaining games were played at which Dot Eades and Dot Adkins won prizes. Valentine refreshments were served.

Sophomores Defeat Freshmen

Tuesday, Nov. 16, the class hockey games were played resulting in a double victory for red and white. Class colors, yells, and cheer leaders made these games colorful.

In the first half of the freshman-sophomore game there was much pass work and both teams fought hard. Katheryn Newman climaxed this period with a goal for the sophomores.

The forward line of the red and white team pushed on immediately after the half, Margaret Eckford scoring the first point of this period. The sophomores continued to roll up the score as points were made by Chlotilde Jarman and Katheryn Newman. Helen McIlwaine, as center forward was outstanding for the green and whites. The final score was 5-0 in favor of the sophomores.

Farmville Loses Contest to Westhampton Hockey Team

First Intercollegiate Game Lost By Small Score

Farmville was defeated 2-0 in a hard fought hockey game on November 18, by Westhampton College in Richmond. This was the first intercollegiate game in which Farmville has participated in four years.

Westhampton scored her first goal after about ten minutes of play, when the forward line rushed the ball, made a quick pass from wing to center, then into the goal. The ball stayed in Farmville territory most of the first half, but a hard fighting S. T. C. team held them to one point.

Both teams came back stronger in the second half and Farmville carried the ball deep into Westhampton territory, at which time she came nearer to scoring as Newman passed to Mann who dribbled the ball and centered it quickly. A Westhampton player stopped the onslaught by knocking the ball out of bounds and forcing a "bully", after which the ball was quickly hit out of danger.

Line-up:
Center forward	K. Newman
Center half	E. Conyers
Right inside	J. Gilliam
Right wing	E. Mann
Right halfback	H. McIlwaine
Right fullback	E. Gilliam
Goal Keeper	E. Mann
Substitutes—	Sears, Jarman, Nimmo.

S. T. C. Hockey Team Conquers W.&M. By Score 5-1

Mann Dribbles Squad To Victory

Farmville triumphed over William and Mary Extension by a score of 5-1 in the last hockey game of the season played at Richmond on Tuesday afternoon.

The first goal was made by Farmville after about two minutes of play when Newman passed out to Mann, who dribbled down the field then quickly shot the ball to Bolick. Bolick with a hard drive centered it and then into the goal. Two points were made in this manner in close succession.

William and Mary's only goal was made when the center with a clear field carried the ball down and with a quick drive scored.

Newman recovered the ball after a center bully and with successive passes from the wing she drove the ball into the goal, giving Farmville a 3-1 lead at the half.

Coming back strong after the second half S. T. C. immediately carried the ball into W. and M. territory and after a struggle Bolick pushed a hard ball beyond the goal keeper to make the fourth point.

After the center bully, W. & M. came close to scoring, but blue and white's score keeper kept the ball out by picking it out of danger. Then the ball was quickly taken out of Farmville territory, and after passing back and forth across the field, Bolick came through once more to score the last point. The final whistle found the ball deep in W. & M. territory.

The line-up was as follows:

Center forward	K. Newman
Center half	E. Conyers
Right fullback	H. Vaden
Goal keeper	R. Sears
Substitutes:	Mann, Bryan, Nimmo.

Juniors Present Mr. Coyner Thursday As Classman

Mr. Coyner, as Coach of the Junior Class, was presented by Vera Ebel, president of the class, in chapel last Thursday morning.

The class, dressed all in white, was seated on bleachers on the stage. Vera Ebel, Virginia Smith, Clara Nottingham, and Louise Anthony, officers of the Junior Class, acted as cheerleaders. They were dressed in dark green, carrying out the class colors, green and white.

The Freshmen, sister class of the Juniors, also dressed in green and white. They stood while "Green and White" was sung. "Classmates", Junior class song, followed this. The Cheerleaders led the class in a cheer for Mr. Coyner. Original songs to the tune of familiar school songs were dedicated to Mr. Coyner. After the singing of these by the Juniors, Vera Ebel presented Mr. Coyner, scholar, friend, coach and Classman.

B. Van Gemaninger

Leaders of Virginia

THE Times-Dispatch presents herewith its first annual Virginia Honor Roll.

Without claiming originality for its idea, this newspaper feels that the plan is worthwhile, since it will afford us an opportunity on the first Sunday in each year to single out a limited number of citizens who have shown conspicuous courage, ability, intelligence or tenacity during the 12 months immediately preceding.

Persons in every sphere of activity are considered eligible for inclusion, provided they have been pre-eminent in that sphere. However, pre-eminence does not necessarily connote State-wide prominence. We intend to hail the achievements of those whose theatre of action may have been comparatively limited, provided those achievements are inherently worthwhile, and provided they redound to the benefit of the public.

It has been, and it will be in the future, our endeavor to name to The Times-Dispatch Virginia Honor Roll only those who have achieved above and beyond what is expected of them. To gain a place on the roll, it is not sufficient merely to do a job well. It must be done superlatively well.

In compiling the list of 12 persons who comprise this newspaper's first annual roll of honor, we believe we have chosen citizens who have rendered distinguished service to Virginia during 1937. Service to Virginia is the criterion by which they have been judged, and by which candidates for future Times-Dispatch Honor Rolls will be judged hereafter.

It is not our contention that we have included in the accompanying list all those who have served the State conspicuously well during the past year. We do feel, however, that every one listed has reflected credit on Virginia, and is deserving of this special citation.

MISS FLORENCE STUBBS, associate professor of history and social science at State Teachers' College, Farmville, is conducting a course on "The Negro" that has been recognized throughout the South as a model type of instruction in the field of interracial relations. What impressed authorities in this field was the unvarnished realism with which the teacher, in this case, taught a subject that is so often approached on educational vehicles equipped with euphemistic shock-absorbers.

From the first, she felt that the way to improve relations between the races in the South was to promote a better understanding of the Negro, his background, his achievements, the difficulties under which he lives and works, and the importance of creating more opportunity for him. More than 200 students, many of them now

Virginia teachers, have taken Miss Stubbs' course, and the influence of this teacher of teachers has been an ever-widening circle. The Southern Commission on Interracial Co-operation regarded Miss Stubbs' work as so outstanding that it asked her to deliver one of the principal addresses at the Blue Ridge Interracial Institute held at Blue Ridge, N. C., last summer. There, she described her course for the benefit of Southern educators attending the meeting. The course has been offered since 1934.

Miss Stubbs was a charter member of the Virginia Social Science Association and during 1936-37 served as its first woman president. She was born in Bennettsville, S. C., and took her B. A. and M. A. degrees from George Peabody College for Teachers, at Nashville, Tenn.

Junior Production Has Something, Says Reporter

The Junior production has got something. First it has a catchy title—"Sister Pat with Apologies to Brother Rat."

Then it has a script that promises to rival that of its namesake. It is a breath-taking comedy. The three heroines romp through situations and conditions that are typical of life at S. T. C. The plot is divided into three acts. In the first act we will recognize the scene as the Rotunda several days before the exciting Cotillion Club dance. Here, as people are discussed, mud is thrown, puns are punned, destinies are decided and history is made. The second act depicts a student's room during intermission of the dance. Ah, here we have the plot unfolding. One of the heroines, Sarah, falls in love and the trouble begins—as it always does at that crucial point. Sarah, with the help of her friends, plans a daring escapade that culminates in the last act with—wouldn't you like to know?

Third the production has a cast that is carefully chosen and carefully coached by Frances Hutchinson. Frankie Bryan is Pat, Lib Wilson is Kappy, and Clara Nottingham is Sarah—three as delightful people as ever you met. Elizabeth Burke, a studious comedienne, and Army Butterworth, being herself, furnish humor that will tickle the best of them. The hero is confined to a voice outside the window and your imagination. The cast goes around calling people by their real names and speaking the S. T. C. language. Even current gossip is brought in. You had better wear a veil 'cause you never know when they will be telling the lowdown on you right out there in the audience. Even the faculty is not exempt.

Songs, dances, and even a blood-curdling, riproaring, hair-raising-even-on-bald-heads fight is included in the program.

The Junior production has definitely got something—I mean really.

Acting Group Head Directs Tryouts

The play, "The Woman Who Understood Men", will be presented by the apprentices of the Dramatic Club at the regular meeting Wednesday night, January 19, in the large auditorium.

This play will be directed by Alpha Lee Garnett, the head of the acting group of the Dramatic Club.

She also announces that the final examinations for all apprentices must be completed by January 22.

Spring Cotillion Will Be In Early April

The Cotillion Club has chosen Saturday, April 2, as the date for the Spring Cotillion. At this time, as has been the custom, there will be a tea dance in the afternoon followed by the formal dance that night.

An election was held for a committee to make nominations for next year's leader. The committee is composed of "Lib" Harris, Jacqueline Johnson and Eleanor Dodson.

Elizabeth Butler Is Secretary of Club

Elizabeth Butler was elected secretary of the Granddaughters Club last Wednesday night to fill the vacancy left by May Terrell, who did not return to school this term.

After the election Elizabeth Burke, the president of the Granddaughters Club, urged each member to try to have her mother visit the school on Founder's Day, March 5. The Club is planning to give a tea honoring the mothers that can be here on Founder's Day.

President Ruth Lea Purdum Presents Mr. Raymond French As Freshman Classman

Ruth Lea Purdum, class president of '41.

Mr. Raymond French, Freshman Classman.

Theme Developed Around Chemistry Laboratory

Freshmen Are Compared To Molecules

Mr. Raymond Holladay French, Freshman classman, was presented by Ruth Lea Purdum, president of the class of '41, in chapel last Thursday morning.

The Freshman class, dressed in white, marched down the aisle to the front of the auditorium. The class officers, Ruth Lea Purdum, Esther Atkinson, Billie Lewis and Betty Fahr, were seated on the stage. Six girls, dressed in smocks stood around a table, which was equipped as a science laboratory, mixing acids in test tubes. Since Mr. French is a science professor this was the theme of the presentation.

"When we came here in the fall," Ruth Lea said, "we were many molecules without any definite position. Our greatest scientist has developed those positive charges that will place our class on top."

The Juniors, sister class of the Freshman, stood as "Green and White" was sung. They were also dressed in white. Other songs dedicated to Mr. French followed "Green and White".

A Recipe Is Offered For The Perfect S. T. C. Girl

If one tried to make a perfect S. T. C. girl what ingredients would it take? Of course the personality would be rather complex but . . .

First, put in Margaret Stallard's figure, with some of Isabel Plummer's stateliness. Add Susan Lane's style, with the good looking clothes of Blair Goode. Under hair the color of Dorothy Eades', place Sarah Button's brains. Mix in the musical ability of Frankie Bryan, with the speaking voice of Clara Nottingham, and the singing voice of Virginia Lee Pettis. Add the sweetness of Jennie Belle Gilliam's face, plus Nan Duer's quaintness. Next, throw in a cupful of Kitty Roberts' artiness, and a few grains of Essie Millner's natural dancing talent. Measure out a few drops of Eugenia Jolly's ability to get a man somehow. Mix this with a few more drops of male attraction—(a hint may be gotten from Pattie Jeffries).

Don't forget Mary Harrison Vaughan's vivacity and the leadership of Madeline McGlothlin and the determination to do a job well of Florence Bress. Put in the sincerity of Anna Shifflet and Martha Meade Hardaway's firmness of purpose. Compile with the dignity of Mildred Stone and the spirit of Norvell Montague. Mix with the athletic ability of Ruth Phelps and the sportsmanship of Jennie Carroll. Complete with a pinch of Army Butterworth's foolishness.

Orchesis Presents Dance Program To Student Body

Orchesis, the artists dance group, presented a program of dances to the faculty and student body Tuesday night.

The program consisted of two original dances by the dance club: "Gossip" and "A Life's Cycle". The dance "Absurdity", which was composed by last year's Orchesis, was repeated.

The Composition Class produced two original dances "Theme and Variations"; and short round "Here's To—."

An original "Greeting and Meeting" dance was presented by the Fundamentals Class.

Three solos which were called "Fragments" were offered. "A Serenade" was given by Mary Joyner Cox. "Struttin'" was presented by Beverly Baptist and "A Cocky Miss" was given by Clara Nottingham.

Elizabeth LeGrande, the pianist, wrote music for "Gossip" and "Absurdity."

The program was under the instruction of Mrs. Fitzpatrick. The members of Orchesis are: Clara Nottingham, Pattie Bounds, Mary Joyner Cox, Susie Clark, Essie Millner, Kathryn Newman, and Estelle Mann. The alternates are: Beverly Baptist, Sidney Yonce and Ann Dugger.

Plummer Presides Over Open Y. W. Cabinet Meeting

On Tuesday, February 1, the Y. W. C. A. held an open Cabinet meeting presided over by Isabel Plummer, due to the absence of Nan Seward.

At this meeting, delegates to conventions gave their reports. Ruth Curtis Robeson gave a brief account of the convention she attended in Richmond on January 30.

Caroline Upshur reported on the convention she went, to as delegate in Atlanta. Colored people as well as white, were present and many of them held important positions in the Y. W. C. A.

Isabel Williamson and Miss Nichols attended the convention held at Miami University in Ohio. Isabel told of the meetings held during the day and Miss Nichols reported on the activities held at night. On New Years Eve a dance was held and at exactly twelve o'clock, a prayer was made for the coming year and the dance was continued.

After the reports had been given, suggestions for improvement in the Y. W. C. A. were asked for by members of the Cabinet.

Many Students and Faculty Members Attend Game

Approximately 50 students and faculty members motored to Blackstone to cheer the blue and white to victory on Saturday night, Feb. 26 when Farmville opposed Blackstone College in the hardest fought game of the season.

Blackstone rolled up a 4-0 lead in the first few moments play, holding back Farmville's chances of goals by clever guarding. Later in the half, however, Farmville broke through the line to score six points, their opponnets following at an equal pace. At the half the score rested at 10-6, Blackstone leading.

Spurred by the cheering of the excited witnesses Farmville worked violently in the second half to break the score in her favor, the guards being particularly spectacular in shattering their opponent's chances at the basket. At a crucial moment, tension raced when the score stood at a 13-13 tie. After a rest-up in time out, Farmville pitched into the fray to keep a balance of points with the ever alert Blackstone team. Near the end of the game Farmville scored the determining goal to a narrow victory of 19-18.

The Line-up was as follows:
Pos. Farmville Blackstone
R.F.—Carroll Farley
L.H.—Jarman Batts
J.C.—Eastham Sesze
S.C.—Conyers Hedrick
R.G.—Gilliam, Capt. Wilkerson
L.G.—Smith Paxton

Varsity Defeats Opponent 19-16 In First Basketball Game of '38 Season

Jenny Carroll Is High Scorer For S. T. C.

Farmville's varsity basketball team emerged victorious over Roanoke National Business College with a score of 19-16, Friday, January 28, in the S. T. C. gym. This was the first seasonal game for the Farmville squad, which has a record of no defeats for the past three years.

The game was fast in action, the score at the half being 14-11 in Farmville's favor. Each side shot goal after goal to keep the score close throughout the game. Jenny Carroll was high scorer with a total of 14 points.

The lineup was as follows:

Freshman Classman To Be Presented On Thursday

Ruth Lee Purdom, Freshman class president, will present its classman, Mr. Raymond Holloday (Charlie) French, to the Student Body, Thursday, January 27.

The presentation will take place during the regular chapel period in the large auditorium. Officers of the class will appear on the stage with the classman.

The class will remain in the audience. Classman songs, composed by members of the class will comprise a feature of the program.

This is the first presentation of the Freshman class. When interviewed by a reporter the class president refused to impart information concerning the theme of the event. "The presentation", she stated, "is to be a surprise."

Officers of the Junior's sister class as elected in October are Ruth Lee Purdom, of Danville, president; Esther Atkinson of Hampden-Sydney, vice-president; Billie Lewis of Charlottesville, secretary; and Betty Fahr, of Richmond, treasurer.

Ruth Sears is chairman of the ticket committee; Margaret Bailey and Madeline McGlothlin are working with her.

Virginia Whitehead Smith is chairman of the decoration committee. Assisting her are Virginia Agee, Kitty Roberts, and Edna Bolick. The theme of the decorations will remain a secret until the night of the dance. Pledges of the sororities will help with decorations Saturday afternoon.

The floor committee is composed of the Pan-Hellenic alternates. They are "Jo" Quinn, Caroline Faris, Mable Burton, Virginia Whitehead Smith, Martha Meade Hardaway, Sarah Hayes, and Caroline Gwalthmey.

Eleanor Dodson is chairman of the flower committee with "Duckie" Davies and Jennie Belle Gilliam.

Farmville Trounces William and Mary 29-17 Friday Night On Home Territory

Several Fouls Are Made By Both Teams

Basketball Team Still Undefeated For the Season

Farmville's cheering student body witnessed its undefeated basketball team score a high margin, but hard fought victory over William and Mary College in the S. T. C. gymnasium on Friday night, February 18.

Many times during the game the hard fighting visitors pushed forward to sink a goal, but their able hosts were keen to keep a few goals ahead. Each side added several points for fouls received at the hands of their anxious opponents. The first half saw the score hanging at 16-9 in Farmville's favor.

The second half was particularly fast and hard. Both teams showed able passwork, both gaining goals exhibiting spirited plays up to the final whistle. The final score was 29-17.

Hartwell Clark Furnishes Music At Dance Held Last Saturday

Pan-Hel Council Sponsors Dance

State Teachers College was the scene of a Pan-Hellenic dance Saturday night with Hartwell Clark and his Virginians furnishing the music.

The dance began at 9:30 o'clock. The advisors of each sorority stood in the receiving line in Student Building lounge with Dr. Jarman and Miss Mary. They were: Miss Mix, head of Pan Hellenic; Miss Moran, Alpha Sigma Alpha, advisor; Miss Stubbs, Gamma Theta advisor; Miss Camper, Sigma Sigma Sigma advisor; Miss Jennings, Delta Theta Alpha advisor; Miss Wheeler, Mu Omega advisor; Miss Iler, Pi Kappa Sigma advisor; Miss Bedford, Alpha Sigma Tau advisor. The Pan-Hellenic organization sent corsages to each of the advisors.

The decorations in the gym carried out the spirit of Valentine Day. Red and white hearts covered the sides of the wall and streamers, carrying out the color scheme, ran from the center of the gym out to the sides. The pledges of the sororities composed the decorations committee, which was headed by Virginia Whitehead Smith.

During the course of the evening, each sorority had a no-break dance.

"I'm Getting Sentimental Over You" was played for Alpha Sigma Tau, "Sophisticated Lady" for the Sigmas, "Night and Day" for Mu Omega, "You're a Sweetheart" for Delta Theta Alphas, "Solitude" for the Pi Kaps, "Liebestraum" for the Alpha Sigma Alphas and "Time on My Hands" for the Gamma Thetas.

"Promptly at nine o'clock Tuesday, March 1, the coronation of Mardi Gras for the year 1929 will be held at the Altavista, with the coronation by her escort, Ed Whitehead of Washington and Lee University," stated Norvell Montague, chairman of arrangements for the dance. This is the first time in the history of the Mardi Gras dance on this campus that a girl has been queen both her junior and senior years.

The court will be composed of the following girls and their escorts: Frances Bryan, Philip Purdue of V. P. I.; Charlotte Minton, Robert Simpson from William and Mary; Elizabeth Butler, Joe Lawson from Hampden-Sydney; Kitty Roberts, Bill Roberts from University of Virginia; Elsie Dodd, Wesley Warren from Richmond; Jennie Belle Gilliam, Gratton Lindsey of Hampden-Sydney; Nan Seward; Claude Whitley from Richmond; Gay Stieffen, Clinton Hodder, of Newport News.

Immediately following the coronation the floor show will begin. The numbers will include Army Butterworth and Margaret Britton in a tap dance and Sara Keesee singing.

Helen Watts will act as page with Perry Smith and Katherine Reed as heralds.

Prizes are more elaborate this year than ever before and can be seen at "Martin's" where they are on display. Prizes will be given for the most original costume, the most beautiful costume, and the most attractive couple. There are to be three judges: the two who have been named are Mrs. Leander Leigh and Mrs. Barrye Wall.

Six hundred tickets were printed for the dance, four hundred stag tickets and two hundred date tickets. These tickets have all been sold and no more are to be printed. One hundred spectator tickets have been printed and may be obtained at the door.

Parents of the queen and the girls in the court have been extended invitations to act as chaperones.

Helen Fern Purdue Wins Beauty Contest At Manchester

Helen Fern Purdue, a member of the certificate class of 1936, won first place in a beauty contest which was held at Manchester High School on Friday, January 21. Helen Fern has been a member of the faculty of the school for the past two years.

Helen Fern was very active in the extra-curricular activities of the school during her two years here. She served on the Campus League, and on the House Council as Hall President her Freshman year and as House President her Sophomore year. Her Freshman year she was also the class representative to the Student Council. Helen Fern was a member of the Dramatic Club, the Granddaughters Club, the Artists Dance Group, the Cotillion Club, and the Association of Childhood Education.

She was a charter member of the H2O Club and she was also a member of the Athletic Association and the Y. W. C. A. Helen Fern was a member of Gamma Theta social sorority.

She won over a large number of contestants in the beauty contest which was given to raise money for the school's athletic and for the library.

ALWAYS A SENSATION

Senior Class Nominates Girls As Personalities

Twenty-five seniors were nominated by the senior class Tuesday night from which ten members will be chosen as the most outstanding members of the class.

The members nominated are Dudley Allen, Virginia Agee, Edna Bollick, Mary Joyner Cox, Ducky Davis, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Elizabeth Harris, Kitty Jamison, Susan Lane, Madeliene McGlothlin, Norvell Montague, Ruth Montgomery, Libby Morris, Carter Belle Munt, Ruth Phelps, Isabell Plummer, Marjorie Robertson, Libby Roberts, Josephine Quinn, Nan Seward, Will Scott, Gay Steiffen, Carolyn Upshur and Mary Harrison Vaughan.

Pictures of the ten girls chosen from the twenty-five will appear in the last ten issues of The Rotunda as Senior Personalities. Their identity will remain a secret until divulged on the editorial page of this paper weekly.

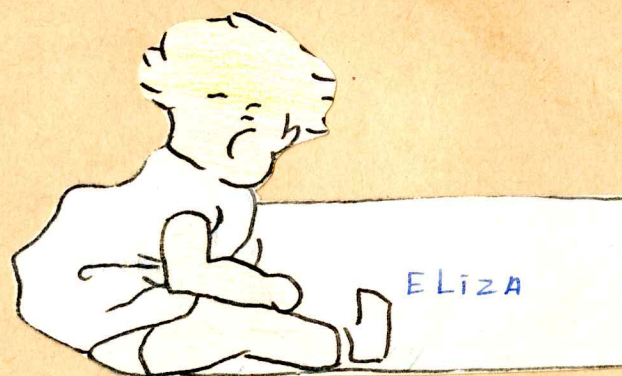

The class will vote for the ten girls next Tuesday night at class meeting.

Gamma Theta Gives Pledges a Banquet

The Gamma Theta sorority entertained its pledges with a banquet at Longwood last Friday night. The tables were decorated in blue and white.

Duck Davies, head of the chapter, presided as toastmistress. Toasts were given by Virginia Whitehead Smith, Isabel Williamson, Martha Welchel, and Frances Hutcheson.

Besides the active members Miss Mix, pan-hellenic adviser, and Miss Stubbs, chapter adviser were present. Alumnae who returned for the occasion were Mrs. Coyner, Mrs. Anne Peple Gills, Helen Fern Purdue, Jean McClure, Martha Glenn Davis, Anne Davis, Helen Cover and Martha Moore.

Isabel Williamson Attends Y. W. Meeting At Ohio

"It was just like going to school—class all day—but did we make up for it at night!" hummed Isabel Williamson, delegate to the National Assembly of Student Christian Organizations. The assembly met during the Christmas holidays at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Approximately two thousand students from colleges all over the United States were present; other countries were represented, too. Some of the students came from Japan, China, and Porto Rico.

The conference was divided into commissions, each commission having a special topic such as "Student and Campus Living" and "Student and Citizenship."

"I chose 'Student and Campus Living' since I was sure that it would apply to our own school. Discussions and lectures were held from eight to twelve every day and from seven to ten at night. All the students told of the problems of their particular school and discussed such problems as group antagonism, friction between sororities, fraternities and other groups, inter-racial problems, and local standards.

"One of the main things that impressed me was the good a Y. W. can do if the student body will cooperate. Here at Farmville we seem to have the idea that the Y. W. is an organization for sissies. A great many problems could be cleared if the student body would regard the Y. W. as one of the most important organizations on the campus.

Seven Girls Receive Bids to English Honor Fraternity

Beorc Eh Thorn, English honor society issued bids to seven girls Tuesday night. Those girls receiving invitations to join were: Laura Morris, Frances Pope, Mary Mahone, Mary Louise Stoutamire, Iva Cummings, Elizabeth Shipplett and Virginia Whitehead Smith.

Beorc Eh Thorn was organized in 1935 when the students who were majoring in English and those who were interested in the subject felt a need for a society in which the study of English would be furthered.

One of the society's main purposes is to bring one distinguished speaker to the college every year. In 1936 they presented John Erskine as their first speaker. In 1937 they brought Lawrence Lee to our school. In 1938 Richard Halliburton was the guest speaker.

Beorc Eh Thorn also takes a very active part in sponsoring the college magazine, "The Farmville Quarterly Review."

Juniors Present "Sister Pat" as Class Production

Theme Based On College Life

The Junior production, "Sister Pat With Apologies to Brother Rat" was presented January 26 in the large auditorium.

The theme of the production dealing with life at S. T. C. was portrayed in three acts. The first took place in S. T. C.'s Rotunda after dinner, the second and third in a typical dormitory room in school. Action centered around a Fall Cotillion Club dance—before and after.

Sarah, an attractive, dramatic young girls contributed color and excitement through engaging in escapades and breaking regulations.

Comedy entered with Mary, the student who through loyalty to duty, denied herself the pleasure of attending the dance.

Vivacity and hilarity marched through the action of a group of fun-loving girls at a college dance.

Members of the cast were Kappy, Elizabeth George Wilson; Pat, Frankie Bryan; Sarah, Clara Nottingham; Mary, the student, Elizabeth Burke, a government girl, Dot Buckland.

Other girls: Nancy Gray, Jennie Carroll, Dibbs Tyree, Margaret Britton, Theresa Graff, Mable Burton, Margaret Stallard, Amy Powell, Bunny Yonce, Louise Bryan, Marjorie Wicks, Army Butterworth, Elsie Dodd, Virginia Whitehead Smith.

The script for the production was composed by members of the Junior class. Frances Hutcherson was director.

Between acts Frances Steed and Virginia Epes Irby sang.

Junior Production To Be Given Tonight

"Sister Pat With Apologies to Brother Rat," the Junior Class Production, will be presented Wednesday night in the large auditorium.

This fast-moving comedy will depict scenes in and around S. T. C. The Cotillion Club Dance forms the background, with scenes before, during, and after the ball being shown.

The cast of the play, which has been directed by Frances Hutcherson, will include Frankie Bryan as Pat, the heroine; Lib Wilson as Kappy, a friend; Clara Nottingham as Sarah, another friend; and Elizabeth Burke and Army Butterworth as the comedienues.

Songs and a dance will complete the program.

Soph Production Will Follow Theme Of Night Club

Marie Eason and Isabel Williamson are Co-Directors of the Sophomore production "Club Manhattan", which will be given in the "Rec", Wednesday night, February 9.

There will be tables reserved for the guests. Cigarette girls will sell coca-colas, nabs and candy.

Kathryn Watkins is chairman of properties, Margaret Etheridge, decorations; Kathryn Moomaw, refreshments; Essie Millner, dancing; Eloise Whitley, tickets; Doris Chestnut, programs; Jane Hardy and Jerry Hatcher, music; Olivia Stevenson, costuming.

Anne Scott, the master of ceremonies will present to us the new song and dance program at the reopening of Club Manhattan. Last year the class of '40 presented the same club, but although the theme is old, the program is new, and original.

Boys will be allowed to come, and an intermission will give the guests an opportunity to dance to the music of the Sophomore orchestra.

"Club Manhattan" Features Guest Speaker At Reopening

Returned by demand! It's here again! Bigger and better than ever before! Straight from the heart of good-time New York, the sophomores bring to you again—"Club Manhattan".

Anne Scott, master of ceremonies for the grand re-opening February 9 at 8 o'clock of the Club Manhattan, will really have song, dance, music and rhythm at her fingertips. Nothing of night club concern will be omitted this year. One will forget he is really under the roof of S. T. C. He will most probably go drifting out to the South Seas when Virginia Lee Pettis renders her lovely song.

There is nothing like good ole southern hospitality — Katherine Newman and Margaret Ethridge will really make you long for dem ole plantation days. Wait — one minute—you say you've heard? Yes, there's going to be a guest artist but this will be the surprise of the evening—no it isn't Charlie McCarthy—even better than that. The pride of the program is in the guest artist.

Tambourines, grass skirts, castanets, white ties, top hats and tails, chorus girls singing and dancing, the strains of a far away orchestra, but no farther than across the spacious dance floor, the rhumba, dancing between numbers of the regular program, and oh so many secrets that must be kept—is there anything else one could want in a night club? We have it.

Oh, I knew there was something else. The dance Lula Windham and Isabel Williamson do is quite the thing! Don't miss that! That beautiful number to which they dance so beautifully, is enough to bring forth sighs and longings for who knows. It will also be sung by six pretty girls, not ten. They are: Micou Sneed, Frances Pulley, Jane Hardy, Sara Keese, Ruth Curtis Robeson and Cornelia Story.

Surely you've heard those announcements about the "Black and White Chorus". Each person has his own ideas as to what it will be, but if you want to see something out of the ordinary on the S. T. C. stage, you can't miss the "Black and White Chorus."

You certainly will want to take advantage of the re-opening of Club Manhattan, February 9, at eight o'clock in the "Rec." It's a relaxation from the humdrum of the day's classes—it's a trip to New York for only two bits! It's an opportunity, you must not let it slip!

Sophistication Reigns As Sophs Present Night Club

The smooth sophistication of Sara, singing "Sweet Someone", lots more of Samoa, white being called black, and black, white, until the twain did meet, rhythm, laughter, syncopation, dancing, music—all got together in a mad, Manhattan Night Club to make the Sophomore Production.

If last year's Club Manhattan was good, the re-gaining the other night was the most of the best, and if Walter Winchell'd been there, we could refer you to his column, but since he wasn't in town, you'll have to take our word for it.

The surprise of the evening came with Gay Stieffen, guest artist from the sister class, and that meant Gay—twirlin', truckin', and goin' to town as only Gay can.

A new starlet came out as Mary Kathryn Nininger showed us another little girl with a voice that had something. Lula and Isabel made "Night and Day" become a reality, Jerry and Jane did some tall tickling of the ivories, "Sally" and "Slim" showed us how the "cullud" folks got rhythm, Beverly was a most subtle Latin from Club Manhattan, if you please, while Brownies' truckin' "shone", and Cou left her traps to do "The Sweetheart of Six Other Guys" in typical Cou style.

And finally, as all good things must, the biggest of re-openings with its gaiety, its "Men About Town" — and, incidentally, of Hampden-Sydney — galleries of girls, the ever-present cakes and nabs, fun, more dancing, came to an end under the fall of the baton of that diminutive mistress of ceremonies, Ann Scott, but, may we add, a good time was had by all!

HERE'S A TIP!

Mother Goose Has Gone "Swing" for Freshman Class

Mother Goose and her retinue have gone "Swing". That is what the Freshmen believe and they attempt to prove it in their production "Sausages and Sweepstakes" which will be presented in the auditorium March 8 at 8 o'clock.

It is chock full of songs, dances and modernized costumes. Many of the songs are parodies of the latest song hits. Norma Johnson is accompanist and Emily Hoskins directs.

Lucy Staples and Frances Ellet take the part of Mama and Papa Pig. The three little pigs, Frances Steger, Marion Heard and Jean Scott, have many adventures and when the three big bad wolves, Theresa Brinkley, Betty Fahr and Jamie Peake, enter, the plot thickens.

The wolves, by the way are from — Surprise. The old Woman who lived in a shoe, Dorothy Perkins, is spry and nimble and can she truck! Her husband, Caralie Nelson is the object of her lashing tongue.

The class is well brought out and many more take part than can be listed. Some of them are Little Red Riding Hood, Virginia Howell; Old Mother Hubbard, Evelyn Thorington; The Mad Hatter and Alice in Wonderland, Nancy Hopkins and Norma Pamplin; Jack and Jill, Martha Wilson and Martha Whelchel; the preacher, Mary E. Pettecrew, and Baby Ray, Anne Leake.

Freshmen Modernize "Three Little Pigs" For Production

"Sausages and Sweepstakes", the Freshman class production, will be presented on March 8 in the large auditorium.

Emily Hoskins, the author and director of the production, has announced that it is a modern version of the "Three Little Pigs" with the big bad wolf, Little Red Riding Hood, Little Boy Blue, and other famous nursery tale characters thrown in for good measure. Song and dance choruses are sprinkled in to round out the musical comedy program.

Many members of the class are on the committees which are headed by M. Welch, business and publicity manager; Patsy Fletcher and Jean Upshur, lighting heads; Alice Leigh Barham and Anna George, staging chairmen; Helen Seward, costuming head; Norma Johnson and Betty Shumate, musicians; Mary Sue Edmondson, dance chairman; Crews Borden and Frances Dudley, program committee.

Emily Hoskins Will Direct Production

"Sausages and Sweepstakes" will be the name of the Freshman production," announced Ruth Lea Purdom, president of the Freshman Class.

The production is to be a modern version of "the three little pigs and how they grew". It will be a musical with many song and dance teams.

Emily Hoskins is directing the production. Martha Whelchel is in charge of the business and publicity groups. The other committee heads will be Lighting, Patsy Fletcher and Jean Upshur; Staging, Alice Lee Barham; Costuming, Helen Seward; Music, Norma Johnson and Betty Shumate; Dancing, Mary Sue Edmondson; Program, Crews Borden and Frances Dudley.

The date for the production has not been definitely decided. The two tentative dates are February 25 and March 2. The admission charge will be 25c.

Honor Fraternity For Leadership Taps Six Juniors In Chapel

Head of Society Gives History of Fraternity

Six Juniors were tapped Alpha Kappa Gamma in Chapel on Thursday, January 20. Those girls were: Pattie Bounds, Sarah But-ton, Miriam Ficklin, Charlotte Minton, Kitty Roberts and Virginia Whitehead Smith.

After an invocation by Dr. Jar-man, Elizabeth Shipplett, Presi-dent, gave the history of Alpha Kappa Gamma. It was founded in 1928, an honorary fraternity standing for leadership in wom-anly service. Its patron saint be-came Joan of Arc, their ideal. Such leadership, as was Joan of Arc's, Alpha Kappa Gamma seeks to at-tain. The President concluded her history by saying: "Such leaders have been found among you."

Virginia Whitehead Smith has been president of Gamma Psi her Sophomore and Junior years; is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma; Assistant Business Manager of Dramatic Club, her Sophomore year; Business Manager of Dra-matic Club this year; Cotillion Club; Publicity Committee of Y. W. C. A., her Freshman year; Varsity Basketball squad for three years; Manager of Basketball this year; Manager of Volley ball her Sophomore year; has been a mem-ber of class teams; and is a mem-ber of Gamma Theta Sorority.

Miss Virginia Boykin Baker, Mrs. C. Littleton Upshur, Miss Dorothy Connell, of Battle Creek College, Mich., and Miss Eleanor Jeffreys, attendants at the Connell-Allen wedding.

Alice Covington Is Betrothed to Leonard H. Davis

Alice Hungerford Walker
Is Married to Gordon
W. Stallings

Mrs. Henry Harris Covington an-nounces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Alice Covington, to Leonard Henley Davis, son of Mrs. Leonard H. Davis, of Portsmouth, and the late Mr. Davis. The wed-ding will take place in April.

Miss Covington is the daughter of the late Rev. H. H. Covington, D. D. She made her debut several seasons ago at a ball given by the Norfolk German Club, and is a member of the Junior League. Mr. Davis is a graduate of Washington and Lee University.

Miss Alice Covington

Varsity Squad Is Reviewed After Thrilling Victories

Speaking of school spirit—a basketball game really succeeds in bringing it out. After the Harrisonburg game the excited spectator, 'tis said, was even more exhausted than the players.

Seven girls are for the most part Farmville's undefeated basketball record. They have given their time and ability to the Varsity Team and have brought praise and victory for their college.

Ellen Gilliam, having played on Varsity for four years, has proved to be an able captain of the team. She guards with tenacity of purpose and a level head.

Virginia Whitehead Smith, the star guard, is a junior and has played on the team for three years. With this combination, Farmville has a stone wall of defense.

Ellen Conyers and Sue Eastham are a pair of fast, competent centers who keep the ball traveling toward the goal. Sue has been playing varsity basketball for four years and Ellen for three.

Virginia Carroll, Chlotilde Jar-

man and Ruth Emma Chambers at forward position run up those pretty little numbers called points. Their accurate shooting runs scores far ahead of the opposing teams. Jennie's freakish (backed by good aim) shots are the wonder of the spectators. Jennie has been a member of varsity for three years and Ruth Emma and Chlotilde for two years.

With a perfect record for three years our Varsity team ends another successful season. Three cheers for "Varsity" and their coach, Miss Iler!

Several of the Freshmen girls play also on Varsity. The entire Varsity Squad includes twenty girls, namely Ruby Adams, Elizabeth Berryman, Jennie Carroll, Ruth Emma Chambers, Ellen Conyers, Rosa Courter, Virginia Crute, Sue Eastham, Ellen Gilliam, Jennie Belle Gilliam, Lavalette Glenn, Mary Grainger, Elizabeth Hillsman, Hilda Hubbard, Chlotilde Jarman, Jean McConnaughey, Ruth Phelps, Juanita Smith, Virginia Whitehead Smith.

Freshmen Go "Swing" for First Class Production

Characters Are Humorous Ones

"Swing" is the key note of the Freshman Production, which will be given on the night of March 10th. The plot is full of zest and fast moving action. Since the class has talented musicians, music will be emphasized.

"Sausages and Sweepstakes" is the title for the production, and will carry the theme of the three pigs a la modern. The three pigs, who are the heroines in the story are Marion Heard, Frances Steger, and Jean Scott. Opposite them as the heroes in the roles of the city silken wolves are Jamie Lee Peake, Betty Fahr, and Mary Sue Edmundson. Teresa Brinkley, Caralie Nelson, Dorothy Menefee, Nancy Pierpont, Nancy Hopkins, Mary Elizabeth Petticrew, Norma Pamplin, Porter Shepard, Ruth Carney and many others will give modern interpretations of such characters as "Boy Blue", "Red Riding Hood", "the Old Woman in the Shoe" and "the Mad Hatter".

The entire Freshman Class has entered into some phase of the production and nearly every girl is assisting in some group—Staging, Business, Music, Publicity, Properties, or Acting. Emily Hoskins is the director, the authors of the production are Marion Heard, Esther Atkinson, Liggie Ellett, Jean Scott, Marion Worsham, and Martha Wheelchel.

A special feature on the program for the night will be the guest artist, Mr. French. Mr. French, who is classman of the Freshman Class, has consented to play the piano between acts.

For the past two weeks rehearsals have been held daily and much of the hidden talent has been discovered. Although the production has been put off several times the Freshmen have not been in the least discouraged, and the production will be up to the usual standard of excellency.

Margaret Stallard Is Assistant Manager Of Archery Team

Margaret Stallard, a member of the Junior class, has been selected as assistant manager of archery by Louise Anthony, manager of archery.

Practices will begin as soon as the class games in volley ball are played. These are expected to have been played by March 25.

Greater interest than ever before is anticipated by those in charge of the game.

Pi Gamma Mu Presents Project April 11, 12, 13

Pi Gamma Mu will present its annual project on April 11, 12, 13. This year the project is a travelogue on Pan-Americanism.

Thursday, April 14, is Pan American Day. Due to the fact that Easter holidays begin on that day, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be observed in keeping with the National celebration of Pan-Americanism.

Tentative plans for the program have been outlined by the project committee. Ruth Sears, chairman, Nora Jones, and Florence Bress and Miss Grace B. Moran, as adviser, make up this committee.

On Monday night at the usual time of Prayers a travelogue will be given by members of Pi Gamma Mu who will represent various Pan American countries. Pictures and maps of each country will be shown on slides as the talk on that country is given.

Articles and Products from these countries will be on exhibition on Tuesday. Brazil nuts, Mexican pottery, baskets etc. will be among the articles in the exhibit.

Florence Bress will speak on Pan Americanism in chapel on Wednesday. This talk will conclude the project.

The Pan-American countries to be discussed will be represented as follows: Mexico by Dudley Allen, Island Group by Martha Baily, Brazil by Elizabeth Carroll; Chile by Rose Marie Hunter; Equador by Kathryn Jamison; Argentina by Nora Jones; Venezuela by Jean McConnoughey; Uruguay by Mary Virginia Putney; Peru by Marjorie Robertson; Central America by Deane Saunders; Columbia by Pattie Bounds; Bolivia by Dorothy Buckland; Paraguay by Katherine Galusha.

More definite plans for this project in celebration of Pan American Day will be announced later.

S. T. C. Telegraphs Results of Meet Of March 14 To Headquarters

Juniors, Sophs Tie for High Scoring

Farmville held her swimming meet on March 14 in the College Pool with ten girls participating. Freshmen had two entrants, Sophomores, four; Juniors, three, and Senior, one.

Juniors and Sophomores tied for points with each team winning three first places. Freshmen and Seniors did not score any first places.

Time and winners of each event were as follows:

100 yd. breast stroke—Vera Ebel, 1.57
40 yd. front crawl—Virginia Carroll, .26.
40 yd. back crawl—Sara Keesee, .34
Medley relay—team, 1.06
100 yd. back crawl—Sara Keesee, 1.45
100 yd. relay—team, 1.10
40 yd. breast stroke—Dot Fischer, .41
100 yd. free style—Virginia Carroll, 1.32

Those participating were Dot Fischer, Jenny Carroll, Nancy Pierpont, Margaret Eckford, Sara Keesee, Mary Ames, Vera Ebel, Eliza Wise, Sidney Yonce and Victoria Tanner.

These results have been sent in to the University of Alabama and Farmville's ranking among other contestants will be sent next week.

Annual national intercollegiate telegraphic swimming meets have evolved from a genuine interest in swimming among college women throughout the country. They give girls in good standing academically, who enjoy swimming races, an opportunity to compete and compare times with other college students. There are fifty-three schools entered from all over the U. S. All results must be in by March 15, after which the winning college will be announced.

Helpers of meet: Marjorie Nimmo, Student Manager; Ruth Leonard, starter; Mrs. Sam Holton and Elizabeth Berger, judges; Ellen Conyers, Myra Smith, and Helen McIlwaine, time keepers.

Don Bestor Will Play Here April 2 For Cotillion

Carter Belle Munt Leads Figure With Escort

Don Bestor and his orchestra will play for Spring Cotillion on April 2 before going to Tantilla the last of April and after playing in Lexington for W. & L. Easters. The orchestra is well-known all over the country as a popular favorite with colleges and over the radio where it furnishes music for the Jello Program with Jack Benny.

Carter Belle Munt, leader of Cotillion will have as her escort Fred Williams of Petersburg, a former student of Hampden-Sydney. Susan Lane, president, will follow in the figure with Ed Whitehead of Washington and Lee then Elizabeth Harris will come with Morton Miller of Hampden-Sydney and Ducky Davies with Winston Lawler.

Saturday afternoon the Tea Dance will be from four to six in the gym and the dance that night will take place from nine to twelve also in the gym.

Frankie Bryan headed the committee for the orchestra and was influential in getting Don Bestor and his orchestra for the occasion. Decorations in Cotillion colors will be done by Gamma Psi, honor fraternity in art, and by the Cotillion Goats.

Gamma Thetas

On Monday, March 21, Gamma Theta Sorority held its annual founder's day banquet in the tea room. Decorations in blue and white were effective. Besides the members of the chapter, Miss Florence Stubbs, faculty advisor, was present.

Students Cast 550 Votes In Nominating Major Officers

Minton and Roberts Will Run For Student Body Head

Approximately 550 students voted on nominees for major offices at tables designated for girls to vote by halls, the largest number ever to nominate for these offices.

Charlotte Minton and Katherine Roberts were nominated for student body president, Sarah Button and Isabel Williamson for Y. W. C. A., Jenny Carroll and Virginia Whitehead Smith for the athletic association, and Marguerite Blackwell and Elizabeth Burke for House Council.

A committee composed of the out-going major officers and Nora Jones, appointed representatives of the student body, considered girls for the offices and presented suggestions for each position for the student body to use in voting. Elizabeth Morris announced in chapel that each girl could add any name to the list, regardless of suggestions. Thursday the students will vote on these girls.

Charlotte Minton has represented her class on the Student Council for two years. She has been Assistant Business Manager and Photographic Editor of the Virginian staff. She is secretary of Gamma Psi and has been recognized as a leader by Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Katherine Roberts was a member of the Student Council as class representative her sophomore year, and this year she has served as secretary. She has been on the Quarterly Review staff for three years as Poetry Editor. Her sophomore year she was Assistant Literary Editor of The Virginian and this year she has been Photographic Editor. Kitty, too, is a member of Gamma Psi and she has been tapped into Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Sarah Button was a member of the Freshman Commission, and this year she was treasurer of the Y. W. Sarah has been president of Alpha Phi Sigma this year. She is a member of Gamma Psi, Kappa Delta Pi and Alpha Kappa Gamma. Not only has she been active in school, but she has been an outstanding worker in the Presbyterian Church here and has had training at the Massanutten conferences for several summers. She has attended various church conventions. The committee feels that living in town would not hinder her work were she elected.

Isabel Williamson has been active on the campus since her entry in the fall of 1936. She takes keen interest in class work and has been chairman of Sing all this year. She was a delegate of the local Y. W. at the National Student Assembly at Miami University during Christmas, and she was also a delegate at the Regional Y. W. meet in Richmond during February. Isabel is also Assistant Literary Editor of The Virginian.

Jenny Carroll has been secretary of the A. A. Council for two years. She is keenly active in sports of every kind. For three years she has played forward on the varsity basketball team. She plays hockey for her class, and is on the tennis team every spring. She is a champion swimmer and recently won recognition in a telegraphic swim meet held here. The A. A. Council has elected her as its representative to the meeting of the Southern Athletic Council in Tallahassee, Florida during the Easter holidays.

Virginia Whitehead Smith, president of Gamma Psi for two years, has been manager of basketball this year. She has been on the varsity basketball squad for two years. She was business manager of the Dramatic Club this year. Pi Gamma Mu and Kappa Delta Pi have recognized Virginia's scholarship and Alpha Kappa Gamma her leadership.

Volley Ball Games Will Be Played March 23, 24

Volley Ball inter-class games will be played Wednesday and Thursday, March 23 and 24 in the gym at 4 o'clock.

This year a team of eight girls will play at a time for their classes, the games being played off in Round Robin style, that is, each class competing with the other three classes.

Captains chosen for the four teams are: Freshman, Mary Grainger; Sophomore, Liza Wise; Junior, Lavelette Glenn; Senior, Evelyn Mann.

Virginia Whitehead Smith, manager of volley ball last year is followed by Dot Fischer this year, with Juanita Smith as assistant.

May Day Practice Begins This Week

May Day practices begin this week. The May Court will practice Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 9:00 o'clock. These dances will be taught by Clara Nottingham, assisted by Sidney Yonce.

May Pole dance practices are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday nights at 8:00 o'clock. This dance will be instructed by Anne Billups. The roll will be called at each of the practices and each participant is urged to attend all practices. All hours scheduled for practices are subject to change.

Juniors Conquer 1938 Inter-Class Volley Ball Title

Sophomores Win Second Place

After several weeks of individual class practice, the Junior Class emerged in first place in interclass volley ball, the games being played on March 23 and 24. The Sophomores took second place, the game being forfeited to them because of the inability of several of the Freshman players to meet for the final game. The games were conducted in the Round Robin style, that is each class competed with each of the three remaining classes, eliminations being made until the final winning classes were determined.

At the end of the final round of games the Juniors had won five games, the Freshmen three, and the Sophomores three.

Line ups for each class:

Seniors—E. Mann, S. Eastham, R. Phelps, I. Jordan, E. Gilliam.

Juniors—E. Conyers, Va. Carroll, C. Gwathney, M. Blackwell, E. Berryman, L. Anthony, M. E. Badger, L. Glenn.

Sing Is Melodrama Of Woolly West In Days of Yore

Sing Saturday night was S. T. C.'s own idea of a western melodrama. Theresa Graff was Sweet Beatrice, as fetching a heroine as ever tread on a villain's toes, in love with Bold John (Ginny Taylor). "Love" dances round this happy pair until their love spoils and proud Beatrice (she is still sweet) boards a train for the city. The energetic engineer (Mary Page Huff) distracts her with rustic rhymes until the almost simultaneous entrance of Big Chief Rotunda, villain, and Cox's Army brings Bold John who properly subdues the villain and takes Sweet Beatrice (as soon as she "unswooneth" in his arms.

Isabel Williamson read the story of the "melodrama" from back stage and presented, as an extra feature, Jane Hardy and Virginia Lee Pettis singing that for a change they want a sweet romance.

Louise Bryan played the part of Big Chief Rotunda, Marjorie Nimmo was sweet Beatrice's mother, and Lucy Staples and Martha Welch made up Cox's Army; Ruth Montgomery was "Love".

MORE PLEASURE in Spring Cotillion

"With every committee putting out the top-notch in perfection in its line, Spring Cotillion on April 2 is destined to be one of the most colorful and festive occasions of the year, announced Susan Lane, president.

Don Bestor and his well known orchestra will start playing promptly at four o'clock in the afternoon for the tea dance. Dancing will continue until six o'clock with no intermission for this dance.

A receiving line consisting of Dr. Jarman, President of the College; Miss Mary White Cox, head of the home; Mr. T. A. McCorkle, faculty advisor; and the four officers of the club will greet the guests in the Student Building Lounge Saturday night. The dancing will start at nine o'clock on Saturday night.

The decorations which are to be furnished by Gamma Psi with the assistance of the Cotillion Club goats are carrying out a spring theme—colorful flowers, etc.

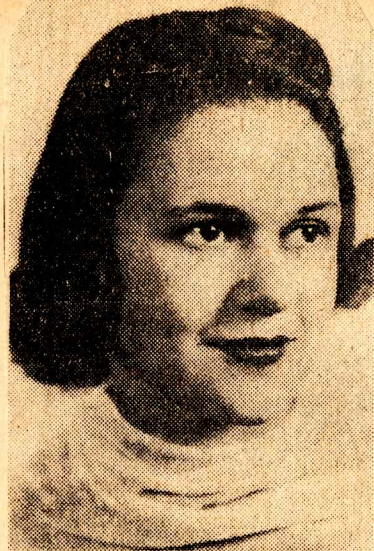

The figure will be formed promptly at ten o'clock. The old members of the club and dates will form two large C's standing for Cotillion Club. The figure will be lead by Carter Belle Munt, Leader of the Club, with Fred Williams of Petersburg; assisted by Susan Lane with Ed Whitehead of Washington and Lee University; Elizabeth Harris with Morton Miller of Hampden-Sydney, and Ducky Davies with Minston Lawler of Norfolk.

During the Saturday night dance a short intermission will be held. At this time a reception will be held in the Student Building Lounge with Mrs. Hallie K. Laing and Mrs. Eva H. Warren serving at the punch bowl. The various sorority rooms will be open to the members and guests. The dance will end at twelve o'clock.

All old members of the Cotillion Club will be allowed one girl guest and one boy guest ticket. No girl in school is allowed to attend unless she is a member of the club. New members or goats will serve as stags for the occasion.

Many alumnae and out of town guests are expected back.

Honored

Miss Elizabeth Butler, of Norfolk, recently elected vice president of the Philosophy Club at Farmville State Teachers College.

Smith, Nottingham And Anthony Hold Offices

Vera Ebel, a junior from Richmond, Virginia, was unanimously reelected president of next year's senior class at a class meeting held last night. Vera has been a very active member of the class since her entrance here in September 1935. She was elected secretary of her freshman class; she served as vice-president of the sophomore class and this year she was elected junior class president.

Virginia Whitehead Smith will again serve as vice-president of her class, having been vice-president of the junior class this year.

Clara Nottingham and Louise Anthony were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the senior class next year. They held the same position in the junior class this year.

Elizabeth Burke and Pattie Bounds were elected as representatives on the Student Council. Elizabeth was junior class representative this year where Pattie Bounds is new on government but her leadership abilities qualify her for this job.

Mary Jackson and Theresa Graff were chosen to represent next year's senior class on the Student Standard's Committee. Mary was the representative from this year's junior class while Theresa is new on the committee.

Minton, Smith, Williamson Are Vice-Heads

Charlotte Minton, Isabel Williamson and Virginia Whitehead Smith were elected vice-presidents of the Student Body, the Y. W. C. A. and the Athletic Association, respectively, last Friday, April 1, in a popular vote of the student body.

Charlotte has worked on the Student Council for two years being class representative both her sophomore and junior years. Her sophomore year she worked as assistant business manager of the "Virginian" and this year she served as photographic editor. This year Alpha Kappa Gamma recognized Charlotte's leadership abilities.

Isabel has served as chairman of the "Sing" committee of the Y. W. C. A. this year and she has been the official representative of our Y. W. C. A. at two conventions. The first was at the National Student Assembly held at Miami University, and the second was at the regional Y. W. meet in Richmond.

Virginia Whitehead has played on the varsity basketball team for three years, and she was manager of basketball on the A. A. Council this year. Besides working on athletics she has served as president of Gamma Psi, vice-president of the junior class and business manager of the Dramatic Club. Alpha Kappa Gamma recognized her leadership ability in the March 1935 conducted by the Y. W. C. A. in January.

Right on top—new council

Carroll, newly elected president of A. A., with the help of the outgoing A. A. cabinet has selected her council for next year. These girls were chosen to serve because of the interest and capabilities they have displayed in sports during the past year.

Louise Bryan will act as manager of hockey, Louise Anthony as manager of Varsity Basketball, Isabel Williamson of Freshman Basketball, Crews Borden of Minor Sports, Louise E. Painter of Volley Ball, Margaret Stallard and Helen Seward of Archery, Shirley Stevens of Tennis, and Marjorie Nimmo of Baseball and Soccer.

Alpha Kappa Gamma Wins Members WITH HEADLINERS

Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma held a program meeting in the senior building lounge last Thursday night. Miss Florence Stubbs, Miss Winnie Hiner and Miss Grace Mix were the faculty members present.

Committee chairmen read reports of the year's work of the committees and then Elizabeth Morris gave a report of the life of Jane Adams. Mary Harrison Vaughan then gave an account of the life and work of Madame Marie Curie.

While Isabel Plummer served tea and cakes, Helen Cover took charge of a game which was played by all the members.

LeNoir Hubbard Announces New "Rotunda" Staff

LeNoir Hubbard, editor-in-chief of "The Rotunda" has announced her staff for the year as follows: Associate editors: Pattie Bounds, news editor; France Alvis, feature editor; Vera Ebel, social editor; and Marjorie Nimmo, sports editor. Florence Bress, business manager, will have Virginia Yager as her assistant business manager next year. Elizabeth Prince will be circulation manager, with Anne Benton, Jeannette Ferguson, Eloise Gwaltney, Anna Maxey, Martha McKinstry, Caralie Nelson, Katherine Watkins and Mary West assistants.

Frances Hutcheson Is President Of Dramatic Club

Frances Hutcheson, a junior from Lexington, Virginia was elected president of the Farmville State Teachers College Dramatic Club on Wednesday night, March 30. Frances has worked continually with the Dramatic Club since her entrance at Farmville in September, 1935. She has taken part in the plays produced by the club and has worked in the various departments of the organization.

Frances Alvis, a sophomore from Lynchburg, was elected vice-president of the club at this time. Sara Melba Beale, a junior from Waverly, was chosen as secretary, while Frances Lee Russow, a sophomore from Roanoke, was elected as business manager.

The following girls were chosen as head of departments: Acting, Alpha Lee Garnett; Lighting, Jean Taylor; Make-up, Mable Burton; Costuming, Margaret Pritchard; Staging, Mary Mahone; Publicity, Marguerite Snell; Properties, Pankey Brooks; Music, Geraldine Hatcher; Room-keeper, Marion Worsham.

Play Tournament To Be Held Here April 22

The Virginia Southside Play Tournament for high schools will hold its fourth annual presentation at Farmville State Teachers College on April 22 and 23.

The smaller schools will compete Friday night and the larger schools on Saturday night.

Josephine Quinn, vice-president of the Dramatic Club, and Miss Leola Wheeler, advisor, are in charge of the contest. A committee composed of Frances Hutcheson, chairman, and Shirley Stephens, Jane Powell, David Terry, Phillappa Schlobaum and Margaret Pitchard is also working with Jo and Miss Wheeler.

Last year the cups were won by Crewe and Amelia High schools; second places going to Orange and Appomattox.

Judges for the tournament will be announced later.

The high schools planning to participate are: Prospect, Rice, South Boston, Crewe, Appomattox, Blackstone, Orange, Clarks-ville and Farmville.

Junior Hall Holds Banquet Saturday in Tea Room

Farmville's social season started with an explosion Saturday night. Last year's Junior Hall held a banquet in the tea room.

Decorations were elaborate. They consisted of place cards for each person, drawn by Frances Steed. Each had a picture symbolic of the personality of the individual. Army Butterworth was raging. Her card was blank.

"More rolls" was the topic of the after dinner speeches. The orators were Eyelashes Wicks, Whatis Butterworth and Navy Bounds.

Guest of honor at this momentous occasion were Nan Seward, Margaret Stallard, Kitty Roberts, Frances Hayman and Isabel Williamson. Nan Seward's Y. W. candle has melted so low that out of sympathy she was invited. Because she's got a man Frances Hayman had the honor of attending. Stallard lived on the hall. Kitty Roberts was invited on account of she was a big shot like the rest of the members of the club. Other members attending were "Fatster" Gray, "Light's Out" Blackwell, "Annual Frizzle" Ficklen, "Bummer" Taylor, "Blank" Britton, "Shirley Temple" Irving, "Dirty" Steed, "Weekly Fizzle" Hubbard, "Gypsy" Evans, "Come out" Carlie, "Sleepy" Willis, "Leader" Ebel, "Garbo" Hutchinson, "Carrie M. B." Wilson, "Susie Glutz" Dodd, "Bows" Hayes, "Infirmary" West, "Navy" Bounds, "Chi" Anthony, "Question Box" Pilcher, and "Fige" Jarman.

W. & L., N. C. And Richmond Are Chosen Spots

Washington and Lee dances the past week-end were attended by Helen Seward, Helene Stras, Kathryn Reed, Mary Elizabeth McCormick, Helen Wentz, Helen Watts and Yette Dawson from Farmville.

Echoes From an Empty Space

Reports from Mardi Gras dance were most favorable. Ever had a beautiful queen, Frankie Bryan, was the climaxing point to a wonderful dance. . . . Stal-

T. C. floor, but this one was unusually hard—so we heard! . . . and Mr. Young was really sugar-footing with our S. T. C. jitterbugs . . . however grand the dance was the "gym crew" was really missed for these good little boys had to go to bed early, so they said . . . which reminds us of the rumor concerning Syd Weed—it seems Wac-

Twenty-Three Girls Are Nominated for Senior Personalities

Twenty-three girls were nominated for Senior Class personalities at a class meeting held last night. Those girls nominated were: Louise Anthony, Marguerite Blackwell, Pattie Bounds, Florence Bress, Frankie Bryan, Dot Buckland, Sarah Button, Elizabeth Burek, Jennie Carroll, Ann Dugger, Vera Ebel, Miriam Ficklen, Alpha Lee Garnett, Mildred Gentry, Theresa Graff, Nancy Gray, LeNoir Hubbard, Charlotte Minton, Clara Nottingham, Kitty Roberts, Virginia Whitehead Smith, Margaret Stallard, and David Terry.

From this number the ten who received the highest number of votes will be the senior personalities from the class of '39. Beginning with the first issue of the "Rotunda" in March these girls will be presented in a short biographical sketch. Their identity will remain a secret until they are published.

MISS GRACE MIX

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

VIRGINIA WHITEHEAD SMITH

Have you ever stopped to wonder who's at the bottom of some of the "backstage" work that's responsible for the success of many undertakings? Then your answer is Virginia Whitehead Smith—for she's one of those rare people who puts her heart and soul into even the simplest tasks, just for the sheer joy of working and for the service she can render others.

Virginia's interests and work in school have been so varied that it's hard to "pin" her interests down to any one thing. But one thing stands out—just mention the word "basketball" and she is "rarin" to go. From the time she had backyard basketball court, she's been an ardent devotee of that sport, and for four years she has been one of the mainstays of Farmville's teams with steady, dependable playing, and unexcelled good sportsmanship. But her activities have ranged, in various fields, from vice-president of her class to decorating for

Carroll and Smith Are Elected to Be Varsity Captains

Virginia Whitehead Smith and Jenny Carroll were elected co-captains of the 1938-39 varsity basketball squad on January 31.

Virginia Whitehead is vice-president of the Athletic Association. She has played on varsity basketball team for four years. Last year she managed varsity basketball, and was also general manager of basketball. This is the fourth year she has played on her class team.

Jenny Carroll has been on varsity and her class basketball team for four years. She is president of the A. A.

dance after dance and managing program after program during her college stay. We'd say versatility is the most characteristic word for so well rounded an individual.

Lately we've all noticed periodic "explosions" of hilarity at the head table in the dining room. Closer investigation will reveal the fact that the "inhabitants" of said table are literally "rolling in mirth" at some of Virginia's "philosophizing"—for her sense of humor is of a rare type, and her choice expressions and coined words are a never ending source of amusement.

To characterize so complex a personality is a difficult task, for Virginia is a person who adjusts herself to any mood. Her sympathetic understanding of people makes us say, "Knowing people like that makes college a wonderful adventure." Words seem trite when we say of her that she is utterly dependable, a friend in the finest sense of the word, and one whose strong influence has proven her one of the leaders of the class of '39.

G. T.'s Entertain At Tea for Miss Mix

Gamma Theta was at home in the chapter room, Friday, May 19, in honor of Miss Grace E. Mix, a patron, who has resigned her position as supervisor of the kindergarten of the Training School.

Invitations were issued to the old and new heads and the advisers of all the sororities and Mrs. M. B. Coyner, Mrs. Mildred Dickinson Davis and Mrs. Tom McIlwaine, alumnae living in Farmville.

Y. W. President Selects Cabinet For New Year

Officers, Counselors, 12 Committee Heads Comprise Group

Dorothy Eades, president of the Y. W. C. A. for the year 1939-1940, with the help of a committee composed of the outgoing executive board and the newly elected officers, has selected the Y. W. cabinet members for the coming year.

Martha Whelchel will head the World Fellowship committee formerly run by Ollie Graham Gilchrist. Allene Overbey will succeed Jean Taylor on the Social committee, Kathryn Reed in place of Nancy Gray on the Service committee; Sara Cline succeeds Helen Reiff as Membership head, and the Church Cooperative branch will have Jean Moyer as its leader succeeding Marion Harden.

Other committee heads are Prayers, Beulah Ettenger; Sing, Helen Wentz; Town girls, Jane Lee Hutcheson; Publicity, Evelyn Thorington; Librarian, Margaretta Gerlaugh; Music, Elsie Berry Yates, Louise Wells, Eliza Wise, Anne Cocks, Sara Melba Beale, Evelyn Beale and Gerry Hatcher respectively, have chairmanned these committees for the past year.

Helen Reiff is Y. W. vice-president, Ollie Graham Gilchrist is secretary, and Eliza Wise, treasurer. Lucy Turnbull is counselor to the incoming Freshman Commission and Caralie Nelson is counselor of the newly formed Sophomore Commission.

Come on, let's go down to the Rotunda for a little while and see if we can't find out where some of these dressed-up girls are going. Look at the ones leaving for V. M. I. Bet they will have a wonderful time at the V. M. I.-Virginia game Saturday. There go Betty Lee Downing, Helen Lewis, May Wertz, Jane McGinnis, Jane Hardy, Mary Catherine Sturgis, Shirley Stephens, Helen Wentz and Lois Jane Steidtmann.

Norma Wood, Mary Katherine Dodson, Augusta Parks, and Helen Wentz entertained Gamma Theta sorority at a tea Sunday, October 8, in the chapter room.

Mary Lily Purdum and Margaret Stallard were present in addition to the active members.

Committee Elects Reiff and Welchel

Group Links Girls and Faculty

Helen Reiff and Martha Whelchel were elected chairman and secretary, respectively, of Students Standards. This past year Helen was secretary and Martha Whelchel was Sophomore representative.

Members are Jane Hardy, and Helen Reiff, senior members; Martha Whelchel and Ellen Gray, junior representatives; Elizabeth Anne Parker and Ellen Royall, sophomore representatives; Caroline Eason, Campus League Chairman; Marie Eason, Student Body President; Dot Eades, Y. W. C. A. President; Marjorie Nimmo, House Council President; Dot Fischer, A. A. President; Frances Alvis, Rotunda editor; Isabel Williamson, Virginian editor; and Johnnie Lybrook, Colonnade editor.

Six faculty members complete the committee. Dr. Jarman appoints two new advisers annually but these have not yet been announced.

Student Standards, which is composed of all major officers, publication heads, two representatives from each class, and six members, is an organization which acts as a link between students and the faculty. Problems are discussed.

Athletic Council Selects Managers For Coming Year

Jarman Heads Basketball

Chlotilde Jarman has been appointed manager of the varsity basketball squad for the 1939-40 season. A member of the varsity squad since her freshman year and playing on the regular team both this year and last, "Cleo" is an outstanding athlete.

Hockey in the 1939 season will be under the supervision of Marjorie Nimmo, who was assistant manager last year. "Marge" has also been active in sports, being a member of the varsity hockey squad for three years and a member of the varsity basketball squad last year.

Gamma Theta's Picnic

Gamma Theta sorority held an Italian spaghetti supper at Longwood cabin Friday night, September 29. Frances Dudley was in charge of entertainment, and only active members were present.

McGinnis, Pancake Take Lead Roles; Lyceum Number

S. T. C. auditorium will turn "Playhouse" Friday night, March 2, at 8:30 o'clock when "The Circle" by W. Somerset Maugham, prominent modern playwright, will be presented by members of the S. T. C. Dramatic Club and the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs as a lyceum number.

Appearing on the list of characters are names familiar to S. T. C. audiences because of previous appearance here.

Characters

Jane McGinnis, who charmed the audience in the fall play, "Dear Brutus", is cast in "The Circle" as Lady Kitty, divorced wife of Clive Champion-Cheney, played by Lex Allison. Jean Hatton is Elizabeth, discontented young wife of Arnold, played by Keith Eubank. Elizabeth's lover, with whom she is about to elope, is Teddy Luton, played by Bob Engle. Anna, Elizabeth's friend is played by Peggy Bellus. Johnny Pancake is Lord Porteus and the parts of the maid and the butler are played by Alice Leigh Barham and Alec Jones, respectively.

Department Heads

The play is being directed by Miss Leola Wheeler, whose productions have gained state-wide recognition, assisted by the various committees whose heads are: staging, Dell Warren and Lillian German; business, Mary Walker Mitchell and Jane Engleby; costuming, Anna Maxey and Gene Hardy Kilmon; make-up, Myra Smith and Blair Goode; properties, Sudie Dunton and Harriet Haskins; and lighting, Helen Jeffries and Dot Johnson.

Hampden-Sydney and Farmville dramatic groups give two plays a year jointly. Last fall they presented James Barrie's "Dear Brutus".

Dramatic Club Issues Bids to Eighty-five Girls

Formal Initiation In Small Auditorium Tonight

Eighty-five girls have been issued bids to the Dramatic Club after an apprentice period which lasted throughout the fall quarter and culminated with an examination on the work taken up in the one of the six major departments to which each girl was apprenticed. These girls were informally initiated Tuesday, January 30, at 7:30 p. m. in the small auditorium and will be formally initiated tonight, January 31, at 7:15 p. m. Yesterday and today these girls have been wearing masks as a symbol of their acceptance of bids to membership.

The following girls, each of whom has shown interest in work of the Dramatic Club and special ability in the department in which she was apprenticed, have been elected to membership from the six major departments—Lighting, Staging, Makeup, Acting, Costuming, and Properties; and the two minor departments: Business and Music.

Virginia Alexander, Dorothy Anderson, May Bartlett, Geraldine Beckner, Elizabeth Bernard, Margaret Bowling, Helen Briggs, Gay Ward Brown, Iris Bryant, Yvonne Cheape, Imogene Claytor, Martha Cobb, Josie Lee Cogsdale, Rosa Courter, Dorothy Sue Crumley, Sara Currie, Lucy Davis, Dot Dawley and Marie Dix.

Juniors to Stage Production Next Thursday, Jan. 25

Would-Be Stars Cut Fancy Capers; Courter Directs

Thursday, Jan. 25 at 8:30 p. m. Junior Class will present its third annual production, a great work, which is based upon the trials and tribulations of a cinema production on the campus site. An original play in three acts, the plot is concerned with the announcement that Hollywood has been transplanted to Farmville for the actual shooting of a major picture, and Farmville's own favorite actresses will be given try-outs for stellar roles. The final act will be a preview of the completed film.

Quite naturally, complications arise when the T. N. T. Producing Company, accompanied by Secretary Garrett-Finley and "Chicadee" Fields, among others, arrive upon the scene. Nutville, however, has an answer in the form of a red-headed stepchild.

The class production, directed by Rosa Courter, and has a cast which includes Marian Heard, Roberta Paine, Evelyn Thorington, Betty Fahr, Virginia Howell, Florence Lee, Dot Menefee, Elizabeth Garrett, Trudy Hale, Emily Hoskins, Evelyn Lupton, Mary Alice Marshall, Marian Worsham, Esther Atkinson, Jennie Noell, Jean Moyer, Mary Marshall Prossie, Ruth Winstead, Anne Lee Gardner, Forrestine Whitaker, Patsy Fletcher, Ethel Carr, Madge McFall, Rosalie Coberly, Ruby Trice, Elsie Berry Yates, Virginia Richards, Susie Pearl
