Joseph Eggleston Johnston to Frederick Johnston

Joseph Eggleston Johnston

Alleghany Springs

July 22^d 1873

My dear Fred.

We propose to ourselves to leave this place tomorrow afternoon, for the White Sulphur. And, if it is not inconvenient to you, to spend a day with you, on the way.

If any thing should make it inconvenient to you to receive a party, ^{consisting} of an elderly man and his wife, their (grown) niece, & white woman servant, telegraph me, or give information at the depot, about 7 o. c. P. M. Yours affectly
J. E. Johnston
