CREED

To keep the fires of friendship bright
As down Life's road I go;
To live a life of service
For everyone I know;
To make my life a clean one
And to myself be true;
To ever love and cherish
My colors, white and blue;
To seek for truth and honor,
Make my ideals pure and high;
To have great thoughts that
Always, I'll keep until I die,
To keep the bond that links us
Ever strong and shining bright;
To keep the faith at all times
And choose the way that's right;
To do my work from day to day,
Give Christ my life to lead
That I may be a beacon light
To others, in word and deed;
And to thy sacred symbols
May I always be most true—
This my Creed, dear Gamma Theta,
I pledge each day to you.

Goldsboro Junior Leads Monogram

New Members Are Sophs, Juniors

Sara Jeffries, junior of Goldsboro, N. C., was elected president of the Monogram Club last Thursday night, May 6, to replace Jean Carr.

Other officers are Edith Lovins, sophomore, replacing Frances Parham as vice-president, and Eleanor Wade, sophomore, as secretary-treasurer to replace Sara Wade Owen.

New members who were initiated are Patsy Connelly, Ruth Dugger, Sara Jeffries, and Dottie Sue Simmons, juniors; Edith Lovins, Bobbie Scott, Eleanor Wade, and Helen Wilson, sophomores.

The Monogram Club has been active this year and has aided in the physical fitness program in the college. Numerous hikes have been one of the chief objectives this year along with work on Color Rush and play nights.

Orchesis Elects Dugger Head; 7 To Be Apprentices

At the regular meeting of Orchesis, modern dance group, which was held on Wednesday, May 5, officers for the ensuing year were elected. Ruth Dugger, junior from Denbeigh, was elected president to succeed Betty Sexton. Other officers elected were Gwendolyn Sampson, sophomore from Richmond, and Ophelia Whittle, sophomore from Petersburg, who will replace Alice Seebert as secretary and treasurer, respectively. Virginia Ellett will succeed Ellen Ebel as costume chairman.

Apprentices for the coming year will be Ann Jones, Lucie Harvie, Margaret Harvie, Martha Jean Leavitt, Lulu Moss, Patricia Garth and Kitty Rennecker. Elizabeth Ann Jordan, club accompanist, was voted an honorary member. The new members and officers will be guests at a party given in their honor on Wednesday night.

Bell, Whittle, Lead U. S. O. Activities On College Campus

Five Students Added To Local Committee

Marilyn Bell, sophomore from Richmond, was selected last weekend to head the College USO committee for next spring succeeding Margaret Kitchin, who will graduate in June. Ophelia Whittle, of Petersburg, was chosen vice chairman to replace Margaret Bowling who will also graduate.

Marilyn has been extremely active in campus affairs during her two years here, having been on the Debate team, and on the Panhellenic Council, as well as an officer in her class. Ophelia, also a sophomore, is a class representative on government and played on the class hockey team.

Five new members have recently been added to the College U. S. O. committee, Margaret Kitchin, retiring chairman, revealed this week. They are Jac Parden, Pat Garth, Martha Higgins, Emily Carper, and Lucy Harvie.

The U. S. O. committee was organized on the campus last year as part of the College War Council, but this year because of increased activities is working as a separate unit. It serves as a sort of clearing house organization for all student contributions toward the building of morale of the servicemen.

Through the U. S. O. committee dances are being held for the servicemen in the Farmville Armory whenever possible. In addition refreshments are served to the men at the Farmville U. S. O. Center on Sunday afternoon and on Saturday nights when there is no dance for them in Farmville. Various organizations have sent girls and refreshments on these occasions.

No girl is allowed to participate in U. S. O. activities unless she has on file a complete and written permission from her parents or guardian.

Many organizations on the campus have contributed to the general fund of the college U. S. O. committee. Among them are the Athletic Association, $10; Dramatic Club, $10; Junior Class, $50; H2O Club, $10; Cotillion Club, $15; Panhellenic Council $15; Alpha Sigma Tau, $5; Phi Zeta Sigma, $5; Theta Sigma Upsilon, $5; Mu Omega, $10; Pi Kappa Sigma, $5; Alpha Sigma Alpha, $10; and Sigma Sigma Sigma, $15.

Since there is no fund to provide them, the College Recreation Committee supplies sugar, cream, coffee, ping-pong balls, cards, victrola records, soap, and necessities for the center.

Other contributions include a card table from the Cotillion Club, a radio from Alpha Kappa Gamma, sofa and chair from Dramatic Club, posters, maps, and a shuffleboard court from Gamma Psi, and cards, kitchen utensils, and miscellaneous items from other organizations.

On the committee are Margaret Kitchen, Margaret Bowling, Elsie Stossell, Ada Clair Snyder, Lily Bec Gray, Patsy Connelly, Betty Sexton, Jane Waring Ruffin, Sara

Crawford Will Lead A. K. G.

Hawthorne Elected Vice-President

Hannah Lee Crawford, recently elected vice-president of Student Government from Farmville, was elected president of the Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary fraternity for women in leadership, at the regular meeting on Wednesday night, April 14. She will succeed Jane Sanford in this position.

Frances Lee Hawthorne, South Boston, was elected vice-president to succeed Betty Younberg, while Ella Banks Weathers, Lexington, was elected secretary to succeed Agnes Patterson. Patsy Connelly Lebanon, will take over the duties as treasurer, succeeding Betty Boutchard.

The purpose of Alpha Kappa Gamma is four-fold: to foster high ideals and to set up high standards for those women who have proven themselves most eminent in constructive leadership; to promote coordination of various college activities; to preserve the ideals and traditions of the school; and to bring the faculty and students together on a basis of mutual interest.

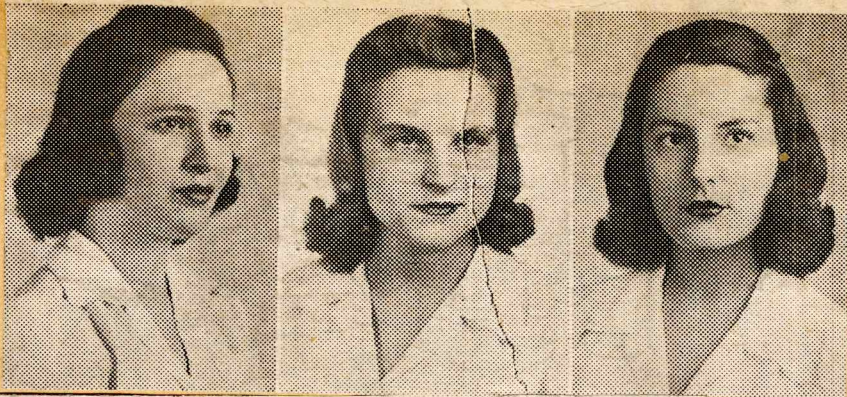

Tennis In Season . . .

The annual interclass tennis tournament will begin next week, Ruth Dugger, manager, has announced. Both singles and doubles will be played and winners will chalk up points for the color cup. Last year twenty-three girls played in the singles and sixteen in the doubles. Ruth Dugger, red and white, captured first place honors in the singles and Mildred Droste and Ruth Dugger placed first in the doubles tournament. Sugar Baker and Anne Payne were close runner ups.

Everyone interested in entering this season's games will sign on the paper on the athletic association bulletin board. For doubles, write your name and partner. The courts have had rain this week which will help harden them for playing. You may use the courts at any time providing a class is not scheduled for that time.

Jeffries, Lucy Manson, Mildred Droste, Jac Parden, Emily Carper, Martha Higgins, Pat Garth, Marilyn Bell, Ophelia Whittle, and Lucy Harvie. Miss Leola Wheeler serves as advisor for the group.

Isabel Sampson will assume the duties of Sing chairman, replacing Charlotte Phillips; Vivian Edmunds will replace Sara Bird Williams on the Social committee and Pat Garth succeeds Nancy Belle Bruce as chairman of the Town Girls committee.

Ex-officio members of the cabinet are Mary Evelyn Pearsall, president of Student Government and Kate Thompson, chairman of Student chapel.

Officers of the 'Y' as elected in a recent election are Frances Lee Hawthorne, president; Louise Bell, vice-president; Nancy Hall, secretary; Sara Bird Williams, treasurer, and Minnie Lee Crumpler, freshman counsellor.

Miss Sexton, John Wills, Jr. Married in Formal Ceremony

Reception Held At Home of Bride's Parents After Wedding

Miss Elizabeth Lockridge Sexton and Lt. John Ramey Wills, Jr., were married last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Hayes Barton Methodist Church.

Dr. H. I. Glass was the officiating minister, and wedding music was rendered by Mrs. O. D. McLeod, organist, and Miss Page Eatmon, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John William Sexton. She wore a full length ivory satin dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, long waist, V-neck, and long sleeves. Small scallops were around the waist, neck, and sleeves, and satin covered buttons went down the back into a full skirt which fell in a long train. A veil of illusion extended beyond the skirt, and her maiden veil was caught in a halo of leaves of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, and stephanotis which was centered with a purple-throated white orchid. Miss Beverley Sevton was her sister's maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Anne Covington of Danville, Va., Hannah Lee Crawford of Farmville, Va., Annette Spruill, and Katherine Turner. Misses Elizabeth Kelley, Sara Frances Terrell, Jean Newton, and Sara Jeffreys of Goldsboro were honorary bridesmaids.

The maid-of-honor wore a gown of white moire taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, long waist, sweetheart neckline, and three-quarter length leg-of-mutton sleeves. The bridesmaids' dresses were of white taffeta and were fashioned after that of the maid-of-honor. All the attendants carried cascade red roses and wore small clusters of red roses in their hair.

Lt. Jack Irby of Blackstone, Va., was best man. Ushers were Earl Barrett of Suffolk, Va., Bill Hudson, and Buster Crocker. Honorary groomsmen were Boyd Bryson and Leon Thompson.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua chiffon, and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of aqua lace and a corsage of white roses.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Ridgecrest Road for the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

The house was decorated throughout with white flowers and candles. The bride's table was covered with an imported Chinese cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake with the bride and bridegroom figurines was flanked by burning tapers in silver holders.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling, the bride wore a white crepe redingote with deep purple accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Wills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sexton of Raleigh was graduated from Needham Broughton High School, attended St. Mary's College, and graduated from Farmville State Teachers' College, Farmville, Va., in June. She was a member of Gamma Theta sorority.

Lieutenant Wills, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wills of Suffolk, Va., is a graduate of Suffolk High School, and received his B.S. degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute, where he was a member of the German Club and Bachelor's Club. He received his commission at Camp Davis.

After August 10 Lt. and Mrs. Wills will be at home at Camp Stewart, Georgia.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wills of Suffolk, Va.; Mrs. J. O. Smith of Berkley, West Va.; Miss Jane Forbes of Greenville; Miss Sara Jeffreys of Goldsboro; Miss Anne Covington of Danville, Va.; Miss Hannah Lee Crawford of Farmville, Va.; Lt. Jack Irby of Blackstone, Va.; Joseph Boyette and Earl Barrett of Suffolk, Va.

The bride entertained yesterday at a luncheon at her home honoring her attendants and honorary bridesmaids.

Gladioli, stephanotis, and white roses were used in decorating the living room, and small silver vases with bridal flowers centered tables.

MRS. JOHN RAMEY WILLIS JR., the former Miss Elizabeth Lockridge Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sexton, of Ridgecrest Road, whose marriage to John Ramey Willis, Jr., of Suffolk, Virginia, was solemnized Thursday evening, August 5, at 8:30 o'clock at the Hayes Barton Methodist Church.

MISS BETTY SEXTON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sexton of Raleigh, whose engagement to Lt. John Ramey Wills, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wills of Suffolk, Va., is announced by her parents. The wedding will be solemnized on August 5.

Mary Ann Biggs Is Married To H. N. Prillaman

Miss Mary Ann Biggs became the bride of Henry Nicholas Prillaman, Jr., yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Raleigh Court Presbyterian church with Dr. Z. V. Roberson performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. S. Allen Whitley, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Nicholas Prillaman, of this city.

White flowers, palms, and candelabra were used in decorating the church. Miss Nellie Stuart, organist, rendered a program of wedding music preceding and during the ceremony and accompanied Lee Rogers, who sang "Because."

Given in marriage by Mr. Whitley, the bride wore a light blue crepe street dress with matching hat and accessories. She carried a white prayer book showered with orchids and gardenias.

Miss Mary Alice Prillaman, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a fuchsia crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and carried a bouquet of purple chrysanthemums.

The groom had as his best man his brother-in-law, Paul A. Powell.
The ushers were William Bryan and Corp. Melvin Carter, of Camp Pickett.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the Red room of the Patrick Henry hotel for the families and close friends.

Mrs. Whitney, mother of the bride, wore a brown crepe dress and hat and a corsage of yellow roses.
and Mrs. Prillaman, mother of the groom, wore a purple dress and hat. Her flowers were yellow roses.

The bride attended Farmville
State Teachers college, and the groom attended Roanoke college.

After a Northern wedding trip,
Mr. and Mrs. Prillaman will home at 1869 Carter Blvd., W.

Angelo Perry To Set Tempo For Senior Dance December 4

FAYE NIMMO

Patterson Returns To Lead Figure Saturday Night

Angelo Perry and his nine Vagabonds from Lynchburg, with Bea Cline as soloist, will furnish the music for the senior dance to be held December 4 from 8:30 to 12 midnight in the college gymnasium. Intermission will be from 10:30 to 11 o'clock, Sara Jeffreys, dance chairman, has announced.

In the receiving line will be Dr. J. L. Jarman, Miss Rachel Royal, Miss Elizabeth Burger, classman; Agnes Patterson, honorary class member; Faye Nimmo, president of the senior class; Hannah Lee Crawford, vice-president; Frances Craddock, secretary; Ruth Dugger, treasurer; and Sara Jeffreys, dance chairman.

Nimmo Assists in Figure

Agnes Patterson, president of Student Government last year and honorary member of the class of '44, will return to lead the figure. She will be assisted by Faye Nimmo, president of the class, the other class officers, and their escorts. Members of the senior class will wear white and will participate in the figure. There will be a special no-cut dance following the figure for all seniors and escorts. All underclassmen are requested not to wear white on this occasion.

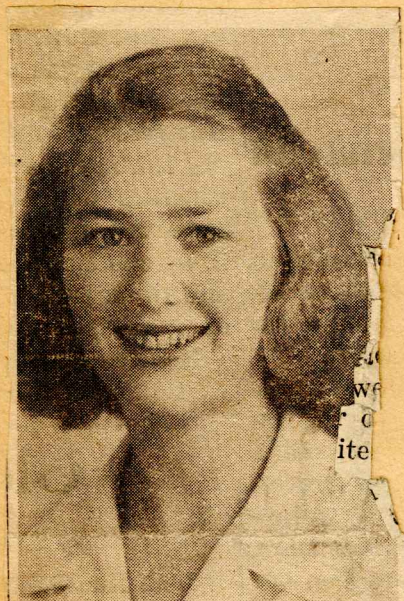

Decorations Red and White

Red and white, the class colors, will be carried out in the decorations. Also, red and white carnations will be carried in the figure by the leaders.

Assisting Sara Jeffreys as chairman of the dance is Betty Bridgeforth. Committees for the dance are publicity, Gloria Pollard, chairman, and Frances Strohecker; decorations, Sarah Trigg, chairman, Jean Arington and Elizabeth Tennent; tickets, Dottie Sue Simmons, chairman, Louise Andrews, and Jerry Titmus.

Also, orchestra, Shirley Pierce, chairman, and Nancy Langhorne; floor committee, Sara Wayne France, chairman, Vivian Gwaltney, Ruth Dugger, Augusta Himes, and Joscelyn Gilliam; program, Mildred Droste, chairman, Betty Van Arsdale, and Jane Ford; and figure, Betty Bridgeforth, chairman.

'Tis harder to say if greater want of will
Lies in over-indulgence or the reducing ill;
But both I have tried at one time or another
With the sad result that I only discover
That from caustic conclusions and delving deductions
By far the most difficult is bodily reductions.
Some few can eat just what they choose
With the result that they neither gain nor lose;
And others of a less numerous variety
Continually eat—but never to satiety.
The constant aim of their meager existence
Is to increase their poundage and bodily resistance.
But the bare fact remains—and yet I can't see
That what's food to them is fat to me!
With mind firmly set, I resolve to lose weight,
To regain my figure, and my appetite abate.
"Tis mind over matter whose victim you are:
Mental construction is better by far."
Poignant pangs of conscience nag at my will
In a futile attempt to cure my hunger ill;
But try however hard they may—
It's my only ill they can't allay.
I've tried the diet of complete starvation,
And lunched on ideas of self deprivation,
And rolled and tossed and bumped around,
In a vain attempt to lose a pound.
But I've grown—alas—to accept my lot
Unsightly and spreading—pretty or not.
But there's never a day that I don't envy the dame
Of the hour-glass waistline, shapely-shaft fame.

THOMAS JEFFERSON AND THE UNKNOWN BROTHER RANDOLPH

THE TRACY U. MCGREGOR LIBRARY, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, 1942, $5.00

THE correspondence between Thomas and Randolph Jefferson consists of twenty-eight letters written between 1807 and 1815. With refreshing simplicity they portray the Virginia plantation life of the times. Among the problems of mutual interest to the brothers were a spinning jenny, a broken watch, shepherd puppies, the schooling of Randolph's son, seeds, a gig, the death of a sister, and the conditions of travel. The two planters lived twenty miles apart: Thomas at Monticello and Randolph at Snowden.

The letters prove that Randolph's interests, grammar, and tastes were typical of the farmer of the 1800's, but they also prove that the Sage of Monticello had some commonplace virtues about which we previously knew so little. The great man was not too busy with great affairs to attend to the interests of an unimportant brother. He was patient in little things.

This little book is primarily attractive to those specialists who collect Jefferson materials, but what passed between the Sage of Monticello and the Squire of Snowden reveals much about the life of the times and something about human behavior in general.

Dearest Mom,

Farmville is absolutely the worst place. I wish you could see my room that is on "Gym Hall". The only resemblance to a gym that I can see is that my room looks like one of those lockers we had in high school. If you put more than one pair of shoes in it, it looks crowded. Golly, I wish I were back at home in my four-poster bed and could see something besides four walls, one dresser (for two of us), a bare window, two beds, and a desk.

My roommate, Janie Stuart, rushed in a few minutes after I got here and declared that she loved S. T. C. already. Personally, I can't see anything to rave about.

Mom, a girl in white brought me up to my room and instead of leaving so I could cry in peace, she stayed and gabbed on and on about the beauty of Farmville and its great spirit. She acted as if there were something very special about this place, but she is probably romantically inclined. I guess you just have to grin and bear all of this show they put on for you.

They have a very silly rule about putting lights out at 10:30 and it's almost that now. They act as if we haven't grown up, so they "tuck us in bed." Maybe tomorrow will be better.

Love,
Peg

Mom, Dear,

It has been a week since I had time to write. We have had three parties and Orientation classes every minute of the day and night. I'm sick of telling people who I am and where I'm from. They even gave us little name stickers to wear. I feel as though I'm on display. I wish I were back home where people don't ask so many questions.

A junior, who calls herself my big sister, came to see me. She kept saying, "If there is anything you want to know, or if you get lost, let me know and I'll try to straighten you out." She acted as if I didn't have any sense and couldn't take care of myself. She took me to the Y. W. C. A. reception. We met Dr. Jarman and a lot of other people who don't know or care anything about me. They had a silly entertainment and then it was all over. Everybody was bored like I was, I guess, but they acted as if they were having a good time.

There was an A. A. and a Junior Class party, too, and I guess they were fun in a childish way. They reminded me of grammar school. I don't really dislike Farmville anymore, but it's just not grown up.

We had to take tests this first week and that was enough to spoil everything. I hate tests.

It is nearing that "chicken hour", ten-thirty, so goodbye for now.

Love,
Peg

Dear Mother,

Sometimes I feel like Farmville is in another world where there is no war going on and that nothing on the outside affects people here. I wanted to be a teacher, but now I don't know. I feel like I am wasting time here. I could get a defense job, make my own money, and get out of this place where the rules are so strict for no reason. Every time I turn around there is some rule that absolutely must not be broken. I can't understand why I can't come and go as I please. Mother, we can't even go downtown except three afternoons a week. And the dating rules are terrible. Tommy came up last Sunday and all we could do was go walking and to church. I know he won't want to come again. We could have done so much if we had been home.

Please you and Dad write to me about getting a job. I'm old enough to take care of myself, and I don't like to be babied. I hope I can come home soon.

Love to you and Dad,
Peg

October 10

Dear Mother,

You always told me not to expect things to come easy and that I'd have to work for what I got. I guess you and Dad were right about not letting me quit school now. I'm not fitted to do anything well now. I'll stick it out even if I keep on hating it.

But Rat Week is coming next week and that is too much. I can't understand the reason for any of this asinine habit of allowing sophomores to dictate to freshmen. I wouldn't mind doing something for anybody if it made sense, but the idea of my having to dress up in silly clothes and obey orders is senseless. The way teachers assign twice the regular amount of work for weekends is easier to understand.

I think all of us freshmen ought to rebel and not allow such a silly practice to continue, but all the freshmen I know are too scared. I'm not afraid of any of them.

Class bell is ringing so I must run.

Love,
Peg

October 15

Dear Mom,

Your letter surprised me. You never told me that you had to go through hazing in Normal School, and, of all things, that you thought it was fun. And did you really have a good time acting like a baby, with a bonnet and nipple? I can't even imagine it.

After I read your letter telling me how it was with you when you were a freshman how you were homesick too, and couldn't settle down, things began to clear up for me. I sat down and thought about all the things I have said and done that were too conceited to be even funny. I realize now that a person has to get initiated into any new situation. All the things people have said and done since I came may have been for my good, and I have been just too dense to catch on.

Thanks a million for making me think. Rat Week starts day after tomorrow and already I have every minute of both days taken up with errands and visits to make on the Sophs I have three themes to write for them, too, one entitled "Why I Think I'm So Cute"; another, "What Makes All Freshmen Look Ratty When They Are Rats"; and the third, "What Makes a Rotunda Round". I had better get started.

Love,
Peg

October 19

My dear Mother,

This is Tuesday night at eleven-thirty. (We could keep our lights on tonight.) I have just come back from running through the halls singing, "We Love the Sophomores" and "Red and White". I'm exhausted, but happy. I have never been so busy, acted so crazily, and had as much fun in all my life as I have had these past two days of rapping. I don't see how the Sophs can watch us scramble like an egg without laughing like we rats do. I'll have to learn before next year when it will be my turn to dictate.

Your letter making me see things with a clearer view, and seeing all of my class going through the same "rigamaroll" of performing and serving, has made quite clear to me the fact that I am not an individual set apart to be babied and allowed to cry for Mother when everything does not suit me.

It is hard to put down into words why I now love Farmville when just a week ago I was so homesick and upset. Since I have gotten to know a few more people in my class, I have learned that the majority of all freshmen get homesick, but most of them take it like good sports. I guess that at times I will get homesick again, but then I will think about all that I'm getting from Farmville—not only a sound background for a future teaching job, but a love of people, of girls and teachers, and of being a small part of that great spirit that is Farmville which makes all the girls speak, no matter whether they know you or not. Maybe you have always felt the way I do now about my school. Anyway, I am so very glad that I could catch something great before I had gotten down too deep in my hole of self-pity.

At ten tonight we had "Big Rat Court" and was it spooky! I was called up on the stage to dance like the artist did in Lyceum earlier this evening. I was so petrified that I almost fell off the stage. Before I had recovered from shaking from that ordeal, I was called up again. Mother, the sophomores have voted me the "best rat". I am so proud.

Peg

In your heart the glad year long
 May there echo the strains of a Christmas song,
 A song so sweet, so glad, so true,
 That it will brighten each day
 for you.

Best love
 Charlotte Phillips

Beneath this flag, forever dear,
 May Christmas bring, year after year,
 New hope, new courage, and new peace,
 May blessings you have known increase,
 And in a world again made strong,
 May echoes of the angel's song
 Ring with new meaning far and wide
 As friend greets friend--AT CHRISTMAS-TIDE!

The wedding will take place in February at the First Baptist Church.

Seniors Choose Six Chaperones

At the regular meeting of the senior class last night, six chaperones were elected. They are: Caroline Caldwell, Joscelyn Gillum, Sara Jeffreys, Nancy Langhorne, Frances Rainey, and Nell Richard.

These chaperones are elected to accompany underclassmen to the offices of the doctor and dentist, and to football games at Hampden-Sydney.

Just Looking, Thanks

By PAT MADDOX

Red and white was the keynote and "Joys We Have Known", the theme last Saturday night when the Seniors held their annual dance. Surprisingly enough dates were plentiful and from where we sat it seemed as though Hampden-Sydney was attending en masse. The Seniors were lovely in their white dresses as they walked with their dates in a beautifully executed figure which culminated in the forming of an S in the middle of the dance floor.

Among those who attended with their dates were Ellen Moore with David Noel, Pat Buckler with Elliott Burdon, Betsy Mathews with Arthur Pleasant, Anna Headlee with Ray Ranum, Barbara Kellam with George Elsasser, Libby Jordan with John Robson, Beanie Dudley with Bobby Lauck Crawford, Mary Agnes Sheffield with Jack Boutchard, Nancy Whitehead with Judge Boutchard, Rose Bland Jenkins with Philip Cheatham, Rosalie Phelps with Luther Kelly, Peggy Belcher with Ben Rapkin, Edith Dotson with Ralph Carrel, Lillian Elliott with Billy Weaver, Ruth Jones with Ralph Lumas, Lucille Cheatham with Milton Cheatham, Cora Redd with Graham Koch, Jac Parden with Bob Carter, Sara Jeffreys with Fred Young, Sara Wayne France with Bill Johnson, Jane Smith with Lang Wood, Hannah Lee Crawford with Lt. Art Adams, Martha Lynn Sprye with Bill Dunn, Barbara Myers with Nubby Golden, Nandy Ingle with Lonnie Dickens, Barbara Dickenson with Moffett Walker, Thelma Diggs with Luther Diggs, Isabel Key with Jeter Ligon, Carolyn Hammond with Buddy Whitaker, Virginia Via with Claude Arthur, Betty Ann Wimbish with Paul Sandrock, Martha Higgins with Roland Walton, Jeanne Strick with Ed Parry, Evelyn Grizzard with Roth Rose, Dana McClellan with Frank Barksdale, Anne Christian with William Lawhorne, Ann Buck with Cliff Johnson and Dot Bennett with Ralph Hulslander.

Also Jean Daniel with Pat Molinari, Harriett Weger with Arthur Goldberg, Betty Lou Hayward with Charles Edmonds, Lucille Lewis with Tom Armstrong, Betty Overcash with Bill Walton, Heidi Lacy with Henry Bennett, Jane Rowe with Harry Allen, Elizabeth Driscoll with Bob Younger, Betty Doggett with Jim Cook, Lucie McKenry with Forrest Cobb, Peggy Alphin with Thomas Marshall, Mildred Droste with James Bare, Ruth Dugger with James Beech, Gussie Himes with Glenn Snyder, Evelyn Faw with John Payne, Mary Woodward with Mohlon Cottrell, Betty Harville with Billy Harville, Mary Moore McCorkle with Milton Anderson, Page Cook with Bob Miller, Frances Rainey with Frank Johns, Sue Harper with Horace Adams, Lyde Thompson with George Jefferies, Lois Alphin with Thomas Dixon, Ella Banks Weathers with Bill Boyle, Mary Ellen Hoge with Bob Mish, Mary Evelyn Pearsall with Dr. H. R. Pearsall, Mae Derieux with Joe Kirkmyer, Jane Knaption with Henry Barr, Janet Davis with Dick Reigner, Lou Baker with Hayden Hannabass, Jerry Payne with Bobby Prat, Martha Cole with Bobby Moore, Rosemary Elam with David Christian, Margaret Sheffield with Forrest Catbey, Vivian Gwaltney with Bob Ballard, Mildred Corvin with Bobby Moore, Frances Craddock with Walter Hardy, and Carol Digges with Robert Burger.

Arrington Fills Position Vacated By Youngberg

Upon the resignation of Betty Youngberg, Jean Arrington was elected secretary of the Dramatic Club at a meeting last week. Other officers elected at the meeting are Pat Garth, scrap book chairman; Jane Waring Ruffin, publicity chairman; Pat Maddox, music chairman; and Carol Diggs, town girls' secretary.

These girls, as officers, are members of the Dramatic Club Executive Committee and members of Miss Leola Wheeler's class in play production.

At the meeting the club voted to give $10 to the Red Cross for the fund for chairs for convalescent soldiers at Camp Pickett.

Classes are now underway for the apprentices who signed up at a recent meeting. Instruction is being given in staging and lighting techniques, and in staging make-up properties and in acting. The various committee, heads of the Dramatic Club, are in charge of directing these classes.

Fox Selected Pi Gamma Mu Head; Group Plans Trip

Huddle Read Paper On Vatican City's Foreign Policy Now

Betsy Fox, junior from Danville, was elected last night to become president of Pi Gamma Mu, honorary fraternity in Social Science, to succeed Frances Craddock. Nancy Harrell, junior of Emporia, was chosen vice-president to succeed Sarah Trigg. Taking Bernice Copenhaver's place as secretary will be Alice Feitig, of Richmond. As treasurer, Caroline Huddle, of Farmville, was elected to succeed Sara Wayne France. Jane Waring Ruffin will act as reporter of the society to replace Betty Overcash. Miss Mary Nichols will replace Dr. Francis R. Simkins as adviser.

Betsy Fox transferred this year from Averett College, in Danville. She has recently been elected class representative on Student government. All the officers have been active in Pi Gamma Mu this year, and Jane Ruffin is editor of the Rotunda for next year.

Caroline Huddle read a paper on the foreign policy of the Vatican in the world today, and the group discussed this question topic at the meeting.

The members decided to visit the home of Thomas Jefferson, near Lynchburg next week, and about 20 girls will make the trip on Tuesday.

Initiation of new officers will take place on Tuesday night, April 11.

Miss May M. Wertz Weds Lieut. Henry L. Roediger

Dr. Owens Performs Ceremony At The Calvary Baptist Church

Miss May McNeil Wertz became the bride of Lieutenant Henry Lederer Roediger, Jr., A. U. S., on Saturday evening, November 13, at 8:30 in the evening at Calvary Baptist church. Dr. Richard S. Owens, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Franklin Wertz and the late Mr. Wertz, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Roediger, of Danville.

White chrysanthemums and roses, palms, and candelabra were used in decorating the church. Miss Virginia Shafer, organist, presented a program of wedding music preceeding the ceremony and accompanied Miss Nancy White Davis, cousin of the bride, who sang "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg. During the ceremony, Miss Shafer played the theme from the Andante of Tschaiowski's Fifth symphony.

The bride wore a gown of ivory taffeta fashioned with high neckline and yolk of lace outlined with a full lace ruffle, basque waist, and full skirt ending in a long train. Her finger tip veil fell from a juliet cap of matching lace, and she carried a round bouquet of gardenias, white roses and orchids showered with stephanotis.

Earl McClellan Speck, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage.

The bride had as her matron of honor Mrs. John Pemberton Penn, Jr., sister of the groom, and as her maid of honor Miss Rebecca Page Stone. Their gowns were ashes of roses faille with yolks of mull, cap sleeves, and shirred torso bodices falling into full skirts with slight trains. They wore calots of shirred mull with matching chin veils and carried arm bouquets of anemone chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, who were Mrs. Julian H. Rutherford, Jr., and Miss Harriet Cantrell, were gowned alike in dresses fashioned after that of the maid of honor. Their flowers were arm bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Henry L. Roediger acted as his son's best man and the ushers were John Pemberton Penn, Jr., Lieut. William White, and Lieut. Buford Allen Graves.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the wedding party and out-of-town guests was held at Hotel Roanoke.

Mrs. Wertz, mother of the bride, wore a purple crepe gown with side drapings and her flowers were a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Roediger, mother of the groom, was gowned in turquoise crepe with gold trimmings and wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

After the reception Lieut. and Mrs. Roediger left for a northern wedding trip.

For travelling Mrs. Roediger wore a costume suit of oyster white wool with green accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Roediger is a graduate of Farmville State Teachers college where she was a member of Gamma Theta and Alpha Kappa Gamma sororities.

Lieut. Roediger is a graduate of Riverside Military academy and received degrees from Washington and Lee university and the Harvard School of Business Administration. He attended Washington and Lee Law school and is a member of the Virginia State Bar association. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. Lieut. Roediger received his commission at Camp Lee.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Roediger, Mr. and Mrs. John Pemberton Penn, Jr., and their daughter, Miss Anne Elizabeth Penn, of Danville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Radspinner, Richmond; Mrs. William M. Turner, South Hill; Dr. William McNeil

The couple will live at 636 Chestnut Ave., Waynesboro, following a brief wedding trip.

Miss Peerman, Lt. Coleman Are Married

Ceremony Performed
Tuesday in Danville

The marriage of Miss Martha Elizabeth Peerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Peerman, of Danville, to Lieutenant Nathaniel Terry Coleman, USNR, son of Mrs. Oliver Crump Coleman and the late Mr. Coleman, of Springfield, Halifax County, took place Tuesday, September 19, at Mount Vernon Methodist Episcopal Church, Danville. The Rev. J. B. Winn performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Pearson.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory taffeta with marquisette yoke. Her full-length veil of illusion was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a prayer-book showered with orchids.

Miss Jane Peerman was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of light blue chiffon with lace bodice. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was Joseph Edmunds Coleman, cousin of the groom.

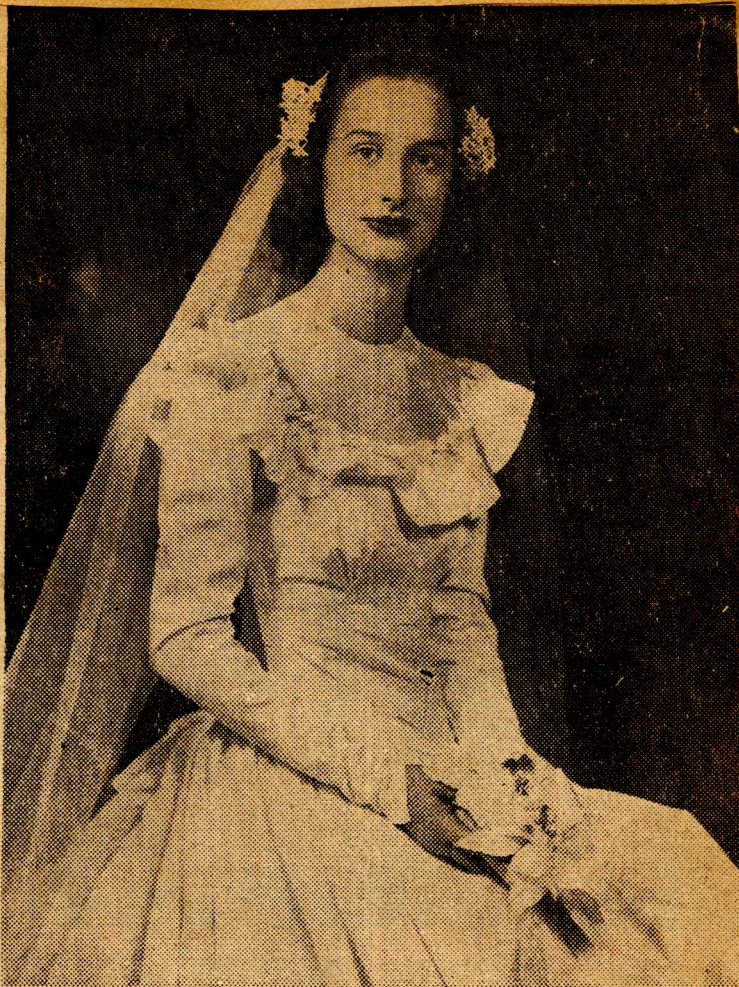

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Lieutenant and Mrs. Coleman will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. Coleman is a graduate of Farmville State Teachers' College, where she was a member of Gamma Theta sorority.

Lieutenant Coleman was graduated from Knox College, Galesburg, Ill. He received his commission in the Naval Reserve in March, 1941, and has since been on active duty in the Pacific.

Thomasson Wedding Held Yesterday

Ceremony Performed In St. John's Church

LYNCHBURG—The marriage of Miss Mary Ambler Thomasson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Thomasson, of Riverside Drive, and Captain George Gilmer Loving, Jr., USAAF, of Millville, N. J., son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Loving, of Fort Avenue, took place last evening at 8 o'clock in St. John's Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert A. Magill, rector.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin made tunic style, with Mary, Queen of Scots' sleeves and a long veil of illusion and lace held by a Juliet cap of rose point lace. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of orchids and white roses.

Miss Charlie Lumsden was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Loving, sister of the groom; Miss Nan Thomasson and Miss Virginia Hollifield. Gowned in pastel blue taffeta with fitted bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a bustle bow, Miss Lumsden carried yellow roses and ageratum. The bridesmaids, who wore frocks in pastel shades of taffeta, made like that of the maid of honor, carried pink roses and ageratum. Miss Loving was in yellow taffeta, while Miss Hollifield was in aqua and Miss Thomasson in pink.

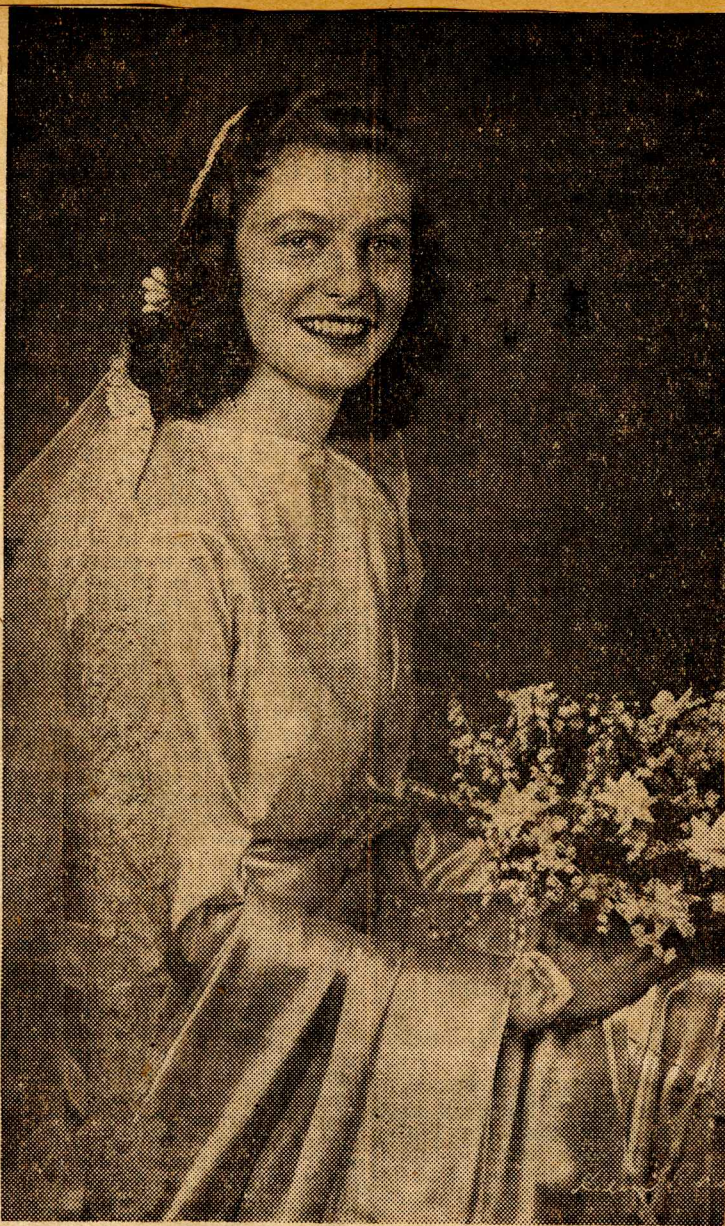

Mr. Loving was his son's best man and groomsmen were Dabney Loving, brother of the groom; Lunsford Loving, Charles Loving, John Carr, of Roanoke, and Henry Page, of Nelson County.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thomasson were hosts at a reception for members of the bridal party, the two families and close friends.

The bride attended Farmville State Teachers' College, where she was a member of Gamma Theta social sorority. She is a member of the Spinsters' German Club.

Captain Loving, who attended Lynchburg College, entered the service in June, 1942. He received his commission in the Army Air Corps March 25, 1943, and recently he received the Air Medal with 20 oak leaf clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Silver Star Medal and two unit citations.

After a trip, Captain and Mrs. Loving will live in Millville, where he is now stationed.

The formation of the college unit on this campus was instigated by a talk by Miss Helen Pickings in chapel last week.

★ SENIOR ★ ★ PERSONALITY ★

BETSY FOX

The second senior spotlight is directed this week on Betsy Fox, one of Danville's contributions to S. T. C. Betsy came to us last year from Averett as a junior. In the few months she has been here, Betsy has made an outstanding record, and has made a permanent place for herself in the hearts of those with whom she has come in contact.

Tall and blond, Betsy possesses one of those contagious grins, and she keeps it tushed on most of the time. She is overflowing with class and color and school spirit, and each group can be proud of the part she has taken in their activities.

In the official records Betsy will go down as president of Pi Gamma Mu, as student government representative, as chairman of Sing. But we'll remember her for long chats, for her level-headedness, for her smile that makes you feel good all over. We'll remember her because she's Betsy and no words will describe her.

Summers Selected Head of Cotillion For Coming Year

Other Dance Club Officers Elected

Anne Summers, junior from Hampden - Sydney, was elected president of the Cotillion Club at a meeting held last night, May 8, in the small auditorium. She will succeed Marilyn Johnson.

Nancy Pitts, junior from Norfolk, was elected figure leader. She will succeed Betsy Caldwell. Katherine Prebble, junior from Lynchburg, will succeed Margaret Pogue Massie as secretary-treasurer. The new business manager will be Peggy T. Ross, junior from Onley, succeeding Catherine Trower.

Anne Summers was recently elected vice-president of the senior class for next year, and is chairman of the recreation committee of the Red Cross. A transfer from Randolph Macon Woman's College, she was chairman of one of the discussion groups for war emphasis day.

Spring Cotillion dance will be held Saturday, May 19, in the college gymnasium. Al Massie will play for the dance which was originally scheduled for April 14, but was postponed because of the death of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Betsy Caldwell, Queen, and Elise Hume, Maid of Honor, at May Day Celebration.

18 Girls Chosen To Attend Queen

Betsy Caldwell, senior from Sweet Briar, was selected to reign as queen over the 1945 May Day celebration at the student body election Monday night. Elise Hume, senior from Bluefield, W. Va., will serve as maid of honor in attendance to the queen.

Seven other seniors were elected members of the court, which will be composed of 18 girls, two of which are juniors, six are sophomores, and three are freshmen.

Those seniors chosen are Marilyn Bell, Richmond; Ann Blair, Portsmouth; Martha Higgins, Portsmouth; Marilyn Johnson, Roanoke; Lucy Manson Sharpe, Virginia Beach; Virginia Terrell, Richmond, and Mary Watkins, Emporia.

The two junior representatives on the court will be Frances Lee, Richmond, and Jacquelin Parden, Norfolk.

Chosen from the freshman class were Louise (Peepsie) Brooks, Farmville; Theresa Powell, Richmond, and Berkley Richardson, Richmond.

May Day, always slated for the first Saturday in May, falls this year on May 5.

Details for the program have not yet been revealed by General Chairman Dora Walker Jones, but the Russian theme has been announced, and already intensive work has begun on the dances and costuming of the annual fete.

Caldwell to Reign As May Queen; Hume to Attend As Maid of Honor

Program Divided Into Two Sections, Yesterday's Russia, Today's Russia

Betsy Caldwell, senior from Sweet Briar, will reign as queen of the May Day festival which will begin at 4:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, May 5, at Longwood. She will represent the Spirit of New Russia in which symbolism speaks for a people. Representing the Nationality, Elise Hume, senior from Bluefield, West Virginia, will attend her as maid of honor.

The festival is based on a Russia of yesterday and today with a re-discovery of the past and re-appraisal of the present and future. The first part of the program represents Old Russia, dating from the time of Peter the Great with a trinity—the Czar, the Church, and the Nobility ruled by the masses. Nancy Whitehead and Corrine Baker will portray the Czar and Church, respectively, while the Nobility will be represented by Emily Carper, Shirley Crusier, Anne Dickinson, Vivian Edmunds, Lois Fuller, Heidi Lacy, Pat Maddox, Nancy Parrish, Jean Parry, Theresa Powell, Doris Ramsey, Berkley Richardson, and Frances Timmons.

Masses Represented

Representing the ignorant masses of people who don't know anything, yet are eager to learn, will be the students from the Dance Fundamentals classes. These masses of people will be seen in both parts of the program.

The second part of May Day will be that of a New Russian in which the triumvirate—the peasant, worker, and the soldier—speaks for the people. Edith Lovins, Grace Loyd, and Betty Ellis will represent these three groups of people. It is at this time that the queen, the New Spirit of Russia, appears, as well as the maid of honor, the Nationality. Members of the queen's court, Marilyn Bell, Anne Blair, Louise Brooks, Joan Davis, Martha Russell East, Martha Higgins, Marilyn Johnson, Mary Jane King, Frances Lee, Jacqueline Parden, Theresa Powell, Berkley Richardson, Lucy Manson Sharpe, Martha Lynn Sprye, Virginia Terrell, Virginia Travis, Mary Watkins, and Nancy Whitehead represent the Republics as a federation speaks through its representatives.

Dances Presented

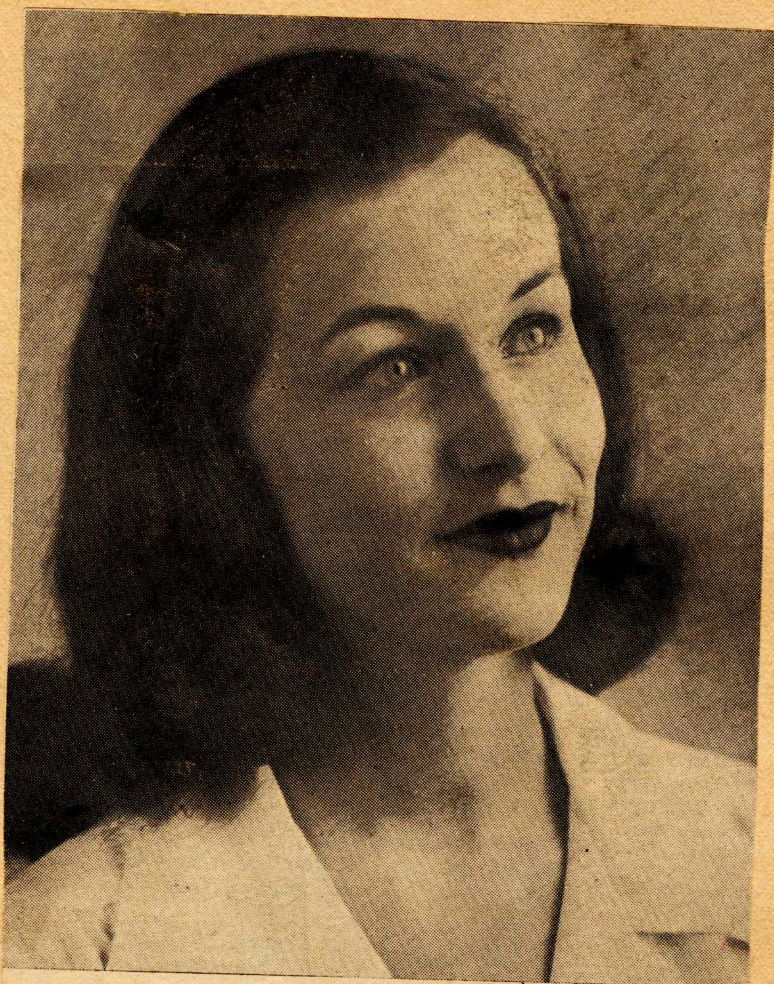

Jean Carter Smith and Betty Parrish will present a dance duet of the Cossacks, and Hildrian Suttle will give a solo dance of the Chumak.

Five Russian folk dances, Holiday Walk, Katerina, Arkon, Kolomeyka, and Hopak, will conclude the festival.

Dora Walker Jones is the general chairman of May Day assisted by Frances Lee. Serving as

Miss Wentzel Becomes Bride Of Lt. Gayle

She Is a Senior
At Farmville College

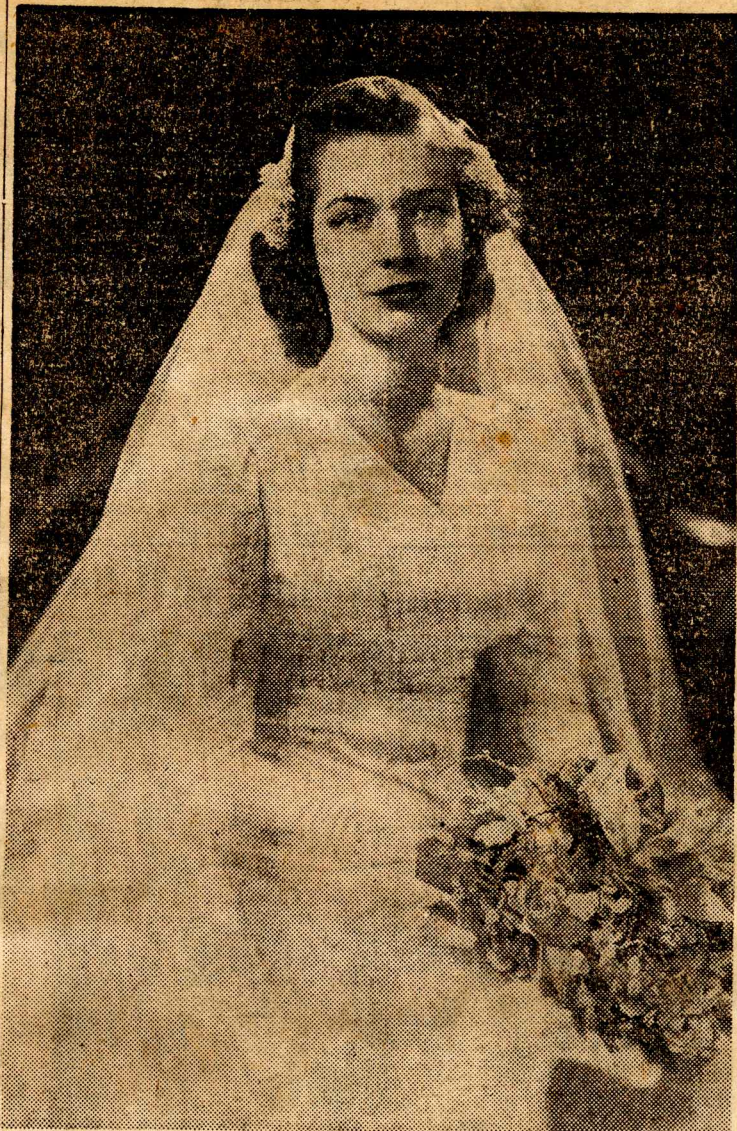

By Corbin Old

The wedding of Miss Caroline Frances Wentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Wentzel, and Lieutenant John Lefebvre Gayle, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Gayle, took place February 1 in the chapel of All Saints' Episcopal Church with the Rev. James W. Kennedy performing the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white satin made with V neckline, tight bodice with puffed sleeves. Her veil of illusion fell from a small cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and a white orchid. A small reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Gayle is a senior at the State Teachers' College at Farmville and a member of the Gamma Theta sorority. Lieutenant Gayle, a graduate of the University of Richmond and a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, is at present stationed in Norfolk.

Still others flashing rings are Terry Jett, Virginia Tobey, Molly Reid, and Pat Carter.

We wonder what happened to Margie Hewlett's twin. According to the Crystal Gazer, there is such a person.

And we can't forget Lucy Harvie—pride of '46 who is loyal to the last!

"Bomber" is thoroughly convinced that blind dates are terrific! She was evermore carried away with Nelson. That trip to Richmond in a Model A would have been the thing. A would squeeze, eh "Bomber?" Some tight Wonder why Betty Brothers didn't tell us more about John, because everyone is simply wild about him.

And Margaret Harvie realized a life ambition when she took piano lessons New Year's morning. Some way to celebrate!

These conferences to Duke sound like quite the thing according to Minnie Lee and what was that about the football game?

If you happen to notice Alice and Doris haunting the post-office in the next few days, they're only trying to head off a certain package from New York. Now, now, girls—better watch that stuff!!!

And perhaps you didn't know but Bobby Moore seems to have succumbed to Nancy Pitt's charms once more.

Just sing Anchors Away to "Bomber" if you want to give her a large charge..

Substitution of Jane was the best Betty could do for her date. Maybe he didn't know the difference.

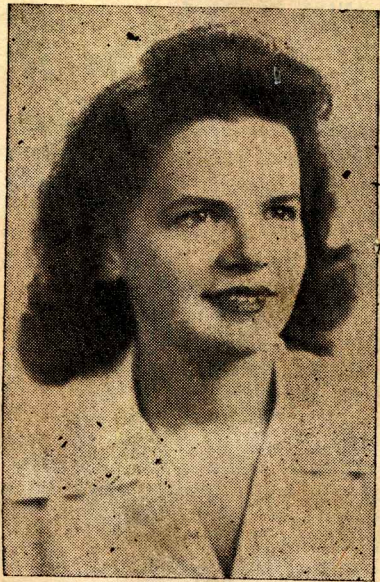

Nancy Pitt's date was really six feet four inches tall—or so he says. You must admit that man shoots a line and a half!
