To Our Alumnae

IN SPITE OF WAR CONDITIONS in this third year of war, work at the College is going along satisfactorily. Our enrollment is normal, and there is an air of seriousness about the members of the student-body that promises one of the best years Farmville has enjoyed.

Of course there are changes, but there are always changes, for change is the way of progress. But Farmville is still holding to its main purpose—to train the best teachers possible for the schools of Virginia. And I am satisfied that the teachers now being trained at Farmville will, when they go into the schools of the Commonwealth, compare favorably with the thousands of teachers who have gone out from this College in the sixty years of its history.

It is difficult to realize that the College is sixty years old. It seems only a short time ago that our fiftieth anniversary was celebrated. Perhaps this is not a time to boast, but I feel that I state the truth and express the sentiments of all alumnae and friends of the College when I say that the past sixty years have been outstanding in terms of achievement, and the future is most promising. Its services are unlimited, and with the alumnae rests the responsibility of helping the College to realize its opportunities.

Your Friend,

J. J. Garman,
President

Alumnae President's Letter » » »

DEAR ALUMNAE:

In this issue of the Bulletin, I have been given the opportunity to send greetings to each of you, and to thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me.

As President of the Alumnae Association, I have derived much pleasure in returning frequently to Farmville State Teachers College. There I have found the welcome so cordial and sincere. I wish that I could share the privilege with those of you who have not had this contact in recent years. I shall be glad, indeed, if my impressions of our College today, passing to you, will entice you to retrace your steps and renew your spirit there.

At this time while our world is at war, we are amazed at the remarkable way we are reacting to the impact of war, and through all the misery of it, we maintain a sense of proportion and balance. Education, spiritual, mental and physical, has played a large part in training us to be citizens in a democracy to which the whole world is looking. Can we not expect even greater results from our College in the Post War World when trained teachers will be so essential?

We, as Alumnae of this vital institution, can be of inestimable value in giving moral and financial support to its program. Your loyalty will pay rich dividends. More than six thousand Alumnae, with pride in their hearts, can accomplish great things by taking active interest in our College through local Alumnae Chapters, attending meetings, serving as officers and supporting the Association financially. Many, through chapters and individually, are already aiding scholarship funds. I am especially gratified at your interest and devotion in promoting this phase of our common effort.

I have the faith that we will unite in our endeavor to advance the interests of Alma Mater, which will give us the satisfaction of having performed a duty, rightfully imposed upon us, to the end that capable teachers can be provided for the public free schools of Virginia, now and in the future.

Sincerely yours,

LOUISE FORD WALLER.

Response.....Dr. J. L. Jarman

Recessional.....Kipling's "God of Our Fathers"

The luncheon at 1:30 p. m. was the high light of the occasion. Miss Peck welcomed the one-hundred guests, Alumnae and honorary members. Especially did she welcome the reunion classes. The following responded:

1893—Mrs. Fannie Bidgood Price of Petersburg, Va.

1903—Miss Mary Peck, Farmville, Va.

1913—Mrs. Thelma Blanton Rockwell, Norfolk, Va.

1918—Mrs. Katherine Anderson Maddux, Lynchburg, Va.

1923—Mrs. Anne Meredith Jeffers, Farmville, Va.

1933—Mrs. Harriet Moonaw Leck, Roanoke, Va.

Dr. Jarman paid tribute to Mrs. Portia Lee Morrison and Miss Martha Coulling whose portraits were presented to the College library on this day. Miss Lula O. Andrews, an honorary member, also paid a tribute to her friend, Miss Martha W. Coulling. Miss Julia Mahood, our Alumnae portrait painter, was present and was recognized at this time. A short business meeting followed. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Louise Ford Waller; Director, Miss Carrie Sutherlin; Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Miss Pauline Camper; other members of nominating committee, Miss Josephine Gleaves and Mrs. Mary Lancaster Wall.

The Class of 1903 presented the frame of Mrs. Morrison's portrait. The Class of 1913 gave thirty-dollars, one for each year since their graduation, for magazine subscriptions to the College Infirmary.

Dr. Jarman then made an appeal to the Alumnae to continue teaching in this world crisis. He also asked that they continue to send us students for Virginia's future teachers.

The six o'clock dinner in the College dining hall was a beautiful and never-to-be-forgotten occasion. The reunion classes were seated together, and though the dress was formal, the meeting of students, alumnae, and faculty was most informal. The College orchestra, directed by Miss Lisabeth Purdom, furnished lovely dinner music.

Afterwards the reunion classes met in the College parlors to really reminisce. Old annuals, kodak and memory books, and graduating dresses were on display. Letters from absent members were read. Such fun!

At 8:00 p. m. the College Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Leola Wheeler, presented "Prunella". Needless to say, it was done perfectly. All praise to Miss Wheeler, the talented director, who has served this College so long and so well.

Class Reunions « « «

BECAUSE of the war, the executive board considered seriously at both meetings, the advisability of having class reunions this year. Dr. Jarman suggested that we proceed as usual, since our situation is different at S.T.C. Most of our graduates live near enough not to necessitate much travel, and the "Big Four" classes were so eager to return. So Farmville invites her daughters to be her guests on her sixtieth birthday. If you were in the class of 1894, 1904, 1914, 1919, 1924, and 1934, you can't resist the following letters:

CLASS OF 1884

DEAR "FARMVILLITES,"

I was not a graduate, but just a student there when the College opened in 1884. The new walls and paint were not dry when I arrived so I visited my good friends, the McKinneys, until it was safe to stay in the College.

I felt flattered when asked to write a letter for the Alumnae Bulletin. The letters last year were truly from "career women" and I am not in that class. However I want to be one of you and join in the spirit of reunion with the "Four" classes.

Youth forgets but age remembers. It was a privilege to have lived in the Farmville atmosphere sixty years ago. Hampden-Sydney was just as alluring then as it is now! How I do reminisce! I do not have to admonish you to carry on, for the College has advanced from the "Rookie" (Army style) to the perfect product.

In the words of Tiny Tim I say, "God bless us all."

Cordially yours,

BETTY MAYES TREDWAY
Emporia, Virginia

CLASS OF 1894

DEAR CLASSMATES OF JUNE, 1894:

As you know, this is our fiftieth anniversary and we are going to make every effort to have one-hundred per cent of our living classmates present on Founders Day, March 4, 1944. Our Class-letter, which has been going strong to each of you four times a year for the last fifty years, has been boosting our Reunion; but we are going to keep on writing to you, cheering you up for that momentous occasion. We trust none of us will need rolling chairs or crutches. We understand each one still has two good props.

Thirteen "girls" out of the original twenty-one are still living, and we hope each of them will be there. As you remember, Dr. Jarman called us the "twenty-one-ers" when we had our Reunion at Founders Day ten years ago, and received the cup for the highest percentage of attendance of any class! So there! Get busy! Take your vitamins and meet us there.

With love,

Your classmates,

ALMA HARRIS NETHERLAND
PAULINE HARRIS RICHARDSON
Twins — Presidents
Dinwiddie, Virginia

CLASS OF 1904

DEAR CLASSMATES OF 1904:

Again the time has come for our Class reunion! The years have passed so swiftly, and our periods of contact with our Alma Mater have been so few that we as a class will go about exclaiming,

"This is wondrous strange!" Yes, there are many changes.

Do you remember the new library and the occasional meetings of the Seminar there? What an intriguing sound that word had! We really thought it "the bright new word of the future." Now they have a really wonderful new library and Longwood, that beautiful old home just meant for gracious living!

Classmates, let's go back for Founders Day, March 4, 1944.

As of old, Dr. Jarman will be there to welcome us and don't for a moment think that he has forgotten your name!

Sincerely yours,

LUCIE C. CHRISMAN

FEBRUARY CLASS OF 1904

DEAR CLASSMATES OF 1904:

March 4, 1944, brings another Founders Day to our Alma Mater. Only forty years have passed since we left State Teachers College, known then as "The State Female Normal School." As I write this, I recall quite vividly each of the twenty-two happy faces on that eventful graduation evening. Our class, you remember, had the unique distinction of being together one hundred per cent, from the day we entered until we received our diplomas.

I am wishing I could have followed each one along life's path, to know where you have been and what you have been doing. Please try to join us in the annual celebration, and report whether your President's Class Prophecy has been fulfilled.

Sincerely yours,

ETHEL TOPPING FOLKES
(Mrs. William W. Folkes)

FEBRUARY, 1944

CLASS OF 1914

DEAR, DEAR MEMBERS OF THE CLASS
OF 1914:

As the celebration of the "4" classes comes again to "our turn" to celebrate, it's important that we have a goodly number for the occasion.

How wonderful if each of us would feel that she is so important that S.T.C. couldn't even have Founders Day without her! And that's just about how important you are. It makes no difference if you haven't been back since 1914, or if you have been back intermittently, or if you have gone back regularly. Let us count on you this year without fail.

Perhaps we'll have the fun of guessing who some of us are! We have changed! Time requires that of us, and we wouldn't have it otherwise.

When the Class of 1914 gave the statue of Joan de Arc to the college, we gave a spirit which has not only gone with each of us through the years, but has inspired the life of each girl who has passed through those halls since that time. The statue will always serve as a sort of symbol of the broad vision of womanhood, of our willingness to serve and sacrifice—things that we were taught at S. T. C. (It was the Normal then. Remember?)

So let's go back this Founder's Day, have another Class meeting in the auditorium as we used to have, See Dr. Jarman and Miss Mary White. And Mr. Coyner is still there, too. He's still our class man and he's expecting every one of us back.

"Our senior man is something grand,
He's our big brother whom we adore"—etc.

Those were happy, carefree, and serious days, for we took life seriously in the wisdom we acquired.

May we be wise now, and willing to sacrifice whatever effort it may require to be together at College again. I should like so much to meet each of you there on March 4th.

Lovingly yours,
MARIA BRISTOW STARKE

CLASS OF 1919

DEAR FIRST DEGREE CLASS:

As you know this is our twenty-fifth anniversary and I do hope that all six of us can manage to be in Farmville for Founders Day. You remember back in the old days we were all such individualists that none of us could even major in the same subject, but let's be uniform in one thing at least—all be back for our twenty-fifth reunion. Of course, in the past year and a half, I have learned to be "uniform." Unfortunately just after being made a Captain in the WAC, Uncle Sam discovered I had a heart which would not meet specifications, so now I'm trying to be "ununiform" again—it's most disconcerting. You'll never guess what I am now. Come and find out.

Sincerely yours,
CATHARINE RIDDLE

DEAR GIRLS:

How grand it would be if we could all meet at Farmville on Founders Day in 1944! Not once have we all been together since our graduation in June, 1919. What tales we could tell! Two of you are married, I know, and the rest of us are by now, I'm sure, all old members of what a friend of mine calls "The Royal Society of Aunts", so we ought to have a great deal besides the past in common.

Do let's get together on Founders Day if we possibly can, and if there are any of you who can't, how about your writing the class a letter and telling about yourself? Don't you think up-to-date snapshots ought to be included, too? But that's only if you can't possibly return on Founders Day. A face-to-face visit would be decidedly the better.

Yours sincerely,
KATHERINE TIMBERLAKE

DIPLOMA CLASS OF 1919

DEAR CLASSMATES:

Wouldn't we have a grand time if every one of us could be back on Founders Day?

Just think of the fun we'd have, bragging on our children, relating all of our accomplishments, and I even believe we'd find a listening ear for our failures. But best of all we could just be crazy girls for a few days.

They tell me our Alma Mater has made many changes since we left and I'd like to see them, wouldn't you?

I've been in Texas a long time and haven't seen many of you but I believe I could call each one by name. It would be fun to have a chance to try.

So come on, let's have a real get-together, and show Dr. Jarman what he sent out twenty-five years ago!

Sincerely,
MARTHA FITZGERALD LONG

CLASS OF 1924

Troy, Alabama
November 13, 1943

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1924:

This will be our Founders Day. Let's go back to Farmville if we can. For personal pleasure, of course—for the sake of seeing loved faces and loved places—but then, too, because it's a social obligation.

The Class of 1924 knows the meaning of social obligation better than most classes, perhaps. The past twenty years have been years of revolution. We were just the right age to suffer from the chaos and misery of it all. But we were also just the right age to help do something about it, to help mold it into the stable and humanitarian New Deal. We did help.

From wherever members of the Class of 1924 have been living, news has come filtering back that they were leaders and innovators. One thing that made them leaders was the lesson of idealism and laughter—humanism it's called, I believe—while undergraduates at Farmville in the Golden Twenties.

The girls who are in Farmville now will live through another revolution. Every bomb that falls in Europe is destroying their customs and the patterns of their lives.

We owe it to them to go back on Founders Day and tell them that personal integrity and humor and intelligence are the things they need to win this next revolution. We owe it to Farmville to go back and align ourselves publicly with the principles of humanism that the college stands for.

There will be no peace without the organized intelligence that stems from Farmville and other American colleges. There are few other colleges left in the world.

There'll be fun and happiness and pleasure on Founders Day for members of the Class of 1924. But more important than that, there'll be a duty accomplished.

With love to you all.

EMILY CALCOTT

TO THE DIPLOMA CLASS OF '24

DEAR MEMBERS:

On Saturday, March fourth, 1944, Founder's Day will be observed at Farmville, and on that day our class will celebrate with a reunion. It will mark the twentieth year since we stood together and sang Olive Smith's expressive words:

FEBRUARY, 1944

“We may meet in this school,
Dear old College, no more;
Could this meeting, in truth, be the last?”

Remember them? They went something like that and the tune was “Flow Gently, Sweet Afton.”

What memories the song awakens—what pictures it presents! Row upon row of us, thinking so many different things and showing as many different expressions as we turned our faces to the faculty sitting on the platform. Truly our hearts were filled with affection and the bonds were strong. And so they are after twenty years, aren't they?

In two decades there should be many interesting changes to relate and to see. Which of us has a son in training for service? Which has the prettiest daughter attending Farmville? Which has the whitest head or the smoothest cheek? There are other inducements, too. It would be fun to stroll up High Street, take a peep in Dr. Jarman's yard and mozy back down the hill to be surprised at finding splendid new buildings where Gilliam's store used to be, where Stone cottage once reposed. New buildings everywhere, even covering up Philip's old kitchen and some of Miss Mary's flower beds.

Start saving your gas now. Let your dreams wander to “What's the matter with Jarman? He's all right!” Lay your plans early. Come back to Farmville in March to be rejuvenated by the spirit of the dear place. Maybe we still have something to give her, and I am sure she will again stir us with her joy of living, her peace of understanding, and her hope of eternal youth.

With sincere good wishes to each of you, I am

Affectionately yours,

NANCY MONCURE LYNE

FARMVILLE is really bursting with pride over this year's Granddaughter's Club. To be a member, a girl must be a daughter, granddaughter, or great-granddaughter of an Alumna. If Alumnae sisters, nieces, and cousins were included, most of the student body would be eligible. Alumnae can pay no finer tribute of loyalty and devotion than to entrust their daughters to their Alma Mater. Dr. Jarman would say, "What beautiful girls! How like their mothers!"

Brief Report of Alumnae Secretary » » »

From May 1, to November 6, 1943

The Executive Board held a luncheon-business meeting at Longwood in May, 1943. Louise Ford Waller, the new president, presided. The following members and proxies attended: Dr. J. L. Jarman, Louise Ford Waller, Carrie Sutherlin, Mary Peck, Elizabeth Jarman Hardy, Mary Clay Hiner, Carrie B. Taliaferro, Rebecca Peck, Ruth Gleaves, and Ruth H. Coyner. The out-of-town members were guests of the College for the week-end, and attended the beautiful May Day that afternoon.

I attended a tea given by the Norfolk Alumnae Chapter for prospective students at Maury High School. They are planning a Christmas party for the Norfolk students in college now.

The Bristol Chapter gave a dinner party at the Hotel Bristol when Virginia Wall and I were there in the spring.

The Richmond Chapter entertained at a tea, honoring our new president, Louise Ford Waller, and announcing their $100.00 scholarship for the coming year. Glennis Moore, valedictorian of Thomas Dale High School, received this scholarship and is one of our promising freshmen.

The Lynchburg Chapter gave their usual picnic party at the lovely home of Phyllis Burnett Martin. Prospective students were invited, too.

The following chapters have either a loan or scholarship fund this year: Farmville, Lynchburg, Norfolk, Peninsula, Richmond, and Roanoke.

Most of my time last spring was spent in visiting about fifty high schools and interviewing students. I worked two extra months last summer to continue the soliciting of students. We are much pleased with our more than three hundred freshmen this year.

In June, Dr. Jarman did another fine thing for the Alumnae Association. He moved our office to the main hall, in the old town girls' room. This saves much time, as I work closely with his secretary and the registrar. Also, I can meet our Alumnae visitors more easily. It is more convenient for all who work in the office.

In August, I had the pleasure of representing our College at a two-day College clinic, conducted by Thalhimers in Richmond. The clinic lasted a week, and was very well planned. Farmville represented the State Colleges for the two days I was there. At that time, representative women presented the professions of law, medicine, and teaching. There were bank examiners, nurses, insurance agents, and representatives of other business positions open to women.

The first piece of big business this fall was sending a letter from the president and secretary to our fifty chapters. Splendid responses have been received.

On October 11, I attended the Roanoke Chapter meeting at the Patrick Henry Hotel. Elizabeth Shipplett entertained me for dinner before the meeting. "Tnx" Howison Metcalf is the new president of this chapter.

Virginia Wall and I traveled to Culpeper and Washington in the Alumnae car to attend Chapter meetings in both places. The Culpeper Alumnae had a luncheon at the "Hi-Hat" Inn. They elected Claudia Fleming Whipple their new president.

Carrie Sutherlin, President of Chevy Chase Junior College, entertained the Washington Chapter at a lovely tea on Sunday afternoon, October 31, in the president's home. About twenty-five Alumnae attended. Olive Smith Bowman presided. Also she and Anne Smith Green poured tea. I was Carrie Sutherlin's guest for a delightful week-end.

Since there is no NYA help provided this year, Dr. Jarman has made it possible for the Alumnae office to have the services of a student of the commercial department for two hours a day. Nancy Crymes is filling this position acceptably.

We are grateful to the "Rotunda" Staff for sending their weekly newspaper to twelve of our chapter presidents each week. We have also sent a copy to each member of the Executive Board this fall. The Alumnae president, Louise Ford Waller, is on our weekly mailing list.

RUTH H. COYNER

1884-1893

FANNIE LANGHORNE BIDGOOD (Mrs. Robert W. Price) has been active in religious and civic work in Petersburg, notably State Treasurer of the King's Daughters for thirty-one years. She is now President of the Petersburg Tuberculosis Association. She spent the summer of 1930 travelling in England and Europe.

1894-1903

Major Harriet P. Hankins of Williamsburg graduated in 1903. At present she is Personnel Director of Nursing in the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command, and is stationed at Sedgefield, Greensboro, N. C. After she graduated from Garfield Memorial Hospital in Washington, she served as Red Cross nurse in Europe before and during World War I. On returning to the United States she was on the Walter Reed Hospital nursing staff and later became chief nurse at the Station Hospital, Fort Monroe, Va. Major Hankins says, "It has been an intriguing career—full of interesting places and absorbing people."

Josephine Goodwin (Mrs. E. P. Parsons) is living at "Glenn Anne Orchards," Nelson County, the apples from her orchards having been shipped to English markets until the war came.

Zaidee Smith, who died in May, was head of the history department of Woodrow Wilson High School, Portsmouth, and was for many years prominent in civic as well as school life. She was active in the League of Women Voters, a member of the State of Virginia Historical Society, of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary society for outstanding teachers, and of the American Association for University Women.

Lillian Banks (Mrs. W. S. Shepherd) of Charleston, W. Va., is an active member of national and community organizations—Colonial Dames, U.D.C., Family Welfare, Morris Memorial Hospital Board; she has recently been Director on the Board of the Public Health Association, and an instructor in Red Cross work.

Laura Lee Carter Hundley's death was announced in the last issue of our Alumnae Magazine. At Farmville, she was class poet, a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, and prominent in college activities. She taught at Newport News until 1905, when she was married. In 1911 she and her husband went to Essex County where both of them taught and where Laura found much to do in the Woman's Club, the Church, and in all civic organizations. Her death on October 24, 1942, ended a useful and a happy life.

Josephine Luck for many years was a teacher in Lee Junior High School, Roanoke, and superintendent of the Intermediate Department in Trinity Methodist Church.

Since her retirement, she has lived in Richmond and has identified herself with Community and Church work there.

Minnie Taylor (Mrs. L. G. Bentley) is just "trying to keep a small live coal on the home fires," she writes. Others tell us she is president of the Woman's Council in her Church, president of Kingcrest Garden Club, and an officer in the Tuckahoe Woman's Club.

Rassa Caudler (Mrs. E. R. Combs), now living in Richmond, is the wife of the Clerk of the Virginia Senate.

1904-1913

Mary E. Taylor (Mrs. Andrew J. Clark) is still Librarian and Assistant Secretary at Miller School—and in love with her work.

The many friends of Mary Lou Campbell (Mrs. James M. Graham) of Wytheville will be distressed to know that she lost a son, Frank Campbell Graham, in the South Pacific last December. He was a Lieutenant on the "Juno."

Mary Lee Robertson (Mrs. E. A. Painter) has served for several years as trial justice of Botetourt County, one of the two women in Virginia holding this office.

Sallie Hargraves (Mrs. E. B. Short) is case worker with the Department of Public Welfare in Petersburg.

Florence Boston (Mrs. Henry W. Decker) has found time amid her multitudinous interests and activities to write WORLD AIRWAYS FOR THE KING, "a brief but graphic picture, for Intermediates, of Southern Baptist mission work around the globe."

Ruth Harding (Mrs. M. Boyd Coyner) was selected to represent Teachers Colleges in the Advisory Clinic sponsored at Thalhimer's Store in August by the Richmond Business and Professional Women's Club.

Edith Willis (Mrs. W. R. Reed) is the author of THE WAY OF GOOD WILL and of the new closely graded Junior materials for the Methodist and Congregational Christian Churches. She is a regular contributor to the Child Guidance Magazine. Her election to the national honor society Delta Kappa Gamma is a just tribute to her outstanding work in religious education.

Annie Warren Jones (Mrs. W. D. Starritt) is a busy homemaker and community worker in Charleston, W. Va., active in church organizations, Woman's Club, P.T.A., Safety Council, and Red Cross. Her two sons are in the Army, one overseas. Her daughter of fifteen is, we hope, a future member of the Granddaughter's Club.

Zulieme DuVal (Mrs. A. F. Harris) is Deputy Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield County.

Louise Cox (Mrs. W. B. Carper) of Charleston, W. Va. has an interesting family. Her son, The Rev. Wood B. Carper, Jr., has been Chaplain of Episcopal Boys at Princeton University.

Pearl Berger (Mrs. Charles Turnbull) is in charge of a cafeteria in one of the Norfolk City schools.

Mary Alston (Mrs. Curtis C. Rush) first honor graduate of her class, is now principal of one of the elementary schools in Nansemond County.

Edith Dickey (Mrs. John R. Morris) has lived in Charlottesville since her marriage in 1914. Her son, Richard, is a doctor with the University Medical Unit overseas.

Marie Woody's daughter, Lucille Winston, (Junior), represented Farmville S.T.C. as a member of Miller and Rhoads College Board.

Mary Denham Ackerly Field's name is listed as one of two thousand prominent women in a recent English publication entitled "Prominent Women of America." Our college is honored by this mention of Mrs. G. H. Field of Fieldmont, The Plains, Virginia, because she was a student here from 1913 to 1915. Mrs. Field is cited as "one who is interested in art, music, literature, religion and home life—author of "Our Kin," member of Mary Custis Lee Chapter of U.D.C., and of the National Society of D.A.R.—a Methodist and a Democrat.

Alice Paulett (Mrs. Geoffrey Creyke) was nominated in August for the office of Vice-President General of the National Daughters of American Revolution by the District of Columbia group of sixty chapters.

Richie S. McCraw contributed to the October issue of the Virginia Journal of Education an enlightening and suggestive description of a school community project which informed parents, friends, teachers and students of the work being carried on in all departments of Binford Junior High School in Richmond.

1914-1923

Julia G. Whaley (Mrs. Percy L. Gwynn) Route 3, Portsmouth, Va., has done outstanding work in the home demonstration clubs of her county, being invited to be the demonstrator in the Kitchen of the Farmer's Wife and Progressive Farmer, also president of Home Demonstration Clubs in Eastern Virginia.

Irma James (Mrs. Ralph W. Musser) is now living in Franklin, Pa. Her daughter, Jane, was graduated in Chemistry from the University of Pittsburgh, and is now a WAC.

Harriet Purdy (Mrs. Ashley Blackwell), past president of the Charleston, W. Va., Chapter of Farmville Alumnae has one daughter. Her husband is head of the Chemistry Department and Vice-President of Morris Harvey College.

Julia S. T. Holt, teacher in the Newport News Public Schools, had an exhibition of paintings at ARGENT GALLERIES, New York City, November 22 through December 4, 1943. The following is a copy of Foreword to Catalogue: JULIA S. T. HOLT, a native of Hampton, Va., whose paintings are assembled here for her first one-man show in New York, has in the past been a frequent participant in many group shows. Among others, the Provincetown Art Association Exhibitions, 1939 and '40; Third Biennial Exhibition of Contemporary Paintings, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Richmond, Va.; Fifty-first Annual Exhibition of the National Association of Women Artists; etc. Miss Holt is a member of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, the National Association of Women Artists, and various other art organizations with an equal standing.

Miss Holt prefers to have her paintings "speak for themselves", but she is pleased, and with good reason, with the exceptional success that she has had instructing beginners in the basic principles of art. Several of her pupils had examples of their work included in "Young America Paints" held in this city recently."

Lell Cox (Mrs. John Godwin, Jr.) was unable to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of her class, but enrolled her daughter for 1943-44, and she will doubtless be kept informed of important happening at her Alma Mater.

Catherine B. Riddle was promoted from first lieutenant to captain in the WAC'S in October, 1943.

Frances P. Stover, 3508 Brook Road, Richmond, associate head of the Pan-American Business School, is the author of a text book written in Spanish.

Blanche Conwell (Mrs. Euclid M. Hanbury) and her interesting family live in Portsmouth. Her husband is president of the Portsmouth Lumber Company. They have two sons.

Etta Belle Walker (Mrs. O. R. Northington, Jr.) of Petersburg, is now vice-president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs. She will be a candidate for Virginia State President in the Spring V.F.W.C. elections, to be held in April at the Hotel Roanoke.

Vernah B. Collie (Mrs. W. F. Williams) is kept busy as postmistress in Cobbs Creek. She also helps with the service in a general store, and is homemaker for her husband and fourteen year old daughter.

Sarah Stubblefield is teaching on historic Gwynn's Island.

Katherine Timberlake succeeded Zaidee Smith as head of the History Department at Woodrow Wilson High School, Portsmouth, Va.

1924-1933

Mollie Blanton (Mrs. C. W. McDanald) has been active in community and church work in Cumberland while her husband was principal of the high school. She was chairman of the cancer control work, and was a leader in War Bond sales and home demonstration club work. Mr. McDanald is now principal of the high school in Poolesville, Maryland.

Ruth Winer (Mrs. M. B. Brown) is one of the public spirited citizens of Cape Charles. She is president of the local P.T.A.; president of the Northampton Chapter of Farmville Alumnae; program chairman of the local U.S.O.; a busy Red Cross worker; spotter on the watch tower of the local civilian defence.

Mary Ellen Johnson (Mrs. F. H. Garber) made her class reunion in 1942 the occasion of her first visit to Farmville after graduation. Her husband, Captain in the Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Story, and two daughters, seven and five, were left behind, so she could be a school girl again.

Ann Morton Holladay (Mrs. A. M. DeMuth) and Lucy Irving (Mrs. William Shepard), founders of the popular Cactus Inn Tea Room, now are planning meals for their charming young daughter and son. Ann is living in Farmville while Captain DeMuth is overseas. Lucy has another Cactus Inn at Daytona Beach, Florida.

Mary Alice Blanton (Mrs. J. D. Roberts), in March of 1943 was appointed acting superintendent of Richmond City Social Service Bureau. She has held many responsible positions in social work in Richmond.

Tac Waters (Mrs. H. W. Mapp) has a daughter, Margaret Anne, two years old.

Elizabeth George Wilson (Mrs. R. F. Steidtmann) is now at home in Lexington while her husband, Major Steidtmann of the Marine Corps, is on Active duty.

DuVal Ridgway was graduated in 1942 from the Medical College of Virginia with the degree of Doctor of Medicine. She is an interne in Lewis-Gale Hospital, Roanoke. (March, '43)

Emily Simpson of Roanoke, recovered from a long illness, is teaching in Lynchburg. Evelyn Simpson, head of Home Economics in the Farmville High School, is doing an outstanding piece of work in Prince Edward County.

Vara Abbitt is an indispensable worker in her county—in the office of the County Treasurer of Appomattox.

Berta Thompson is a beloved teacher in Climax High School, near Chatham, Va.

Martina Willis and her mother have moved to Wiscasset, Maine. Martina teaches, and her mother employs her garden lore to beautify their surroundings.

Harriet Brown is head of a private school in Portsmouth. In addition, she is a music teacher; secretary of the local U.D.C.; and secretary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the Park View Methodist Church.

Mary Christian Royall (Mrs. R. H. Elmore) is living in Chatham. Mr. Elmore is superintendent of schools of Pittsylvania County.

Ida Mildred Booker has completed work for an M.A. degree in history at William & Mary College. She is a teacher in Walter Reed School, Newport News, Va.

is the wife of a professor in William & Mary College. Recently he has been director of the war training classes in the Norfolk Division.

Nancy Lyne has been traveling since she left Farmville. She has taught in Puerto Rico, North Carolina, Delaware, Michigan, and this year is instructor in a high school at Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y. For a few summer terms, she was demonstration teacher in Duke University.

Louise Hartness (Mrs. E. V. Russell, Jr.) has been during the past year out in the Pacific Northwest with her husband, Captain Russell of the Barrage Balloon Battalion. She is the mother of a fine son, a year old.

Eloise Perkins (Mrs. H. P. Elliott, Jr.) is active in church and civic work in Charleston, W. Va. She has held important offices in church circles, in the Farmville Alumnae Chapter, and in the Local Red Cross Chapter.

Jacqueline Marston recently introduced an original composition before the Hampton Woman's Club. The words of the song are taken from Shelly's poem, "Music When Soft Voices Die." The composition was sung by Lt. Perry Clark of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Marston is the Organist and Director of Music at the Base Chapel, Langley Field.

Mildred Deans (Mrs. R. E. Shepherd) has a son, Bobby, six years old, and a little daughter, aged 2. Her husband is connected with the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Plant in Clinton, Iowa.

Mary Ida Ledford received the B.S. degree from Columbia University in 1941. In August 1942, she was married to Mr. Frederick Hamilton Hughes of Upper Montclair, New Jersey.

All who know Catherine McAllister Wayland were distressed last May to learn of the sudden death of her husband, Ensign Clifford Wayland. Catherine is now doing Red Cross work among disabled service men at the Oliver General Hospital, Augusta, Georgia.

Katy Friel Sanders has gained wide recognition for her literary accomplishments. Her story, "Another Day," was published in an anthology of short stories and sketches entitled, "The American Scene." Her theme concerns itself with ordinary, everyday problems of a rural, one-room school. The author vividly describes a typical day in the life of a school teacher. Four of her poems, entitled "Music," "Patterns," "Dregs," and "Adrift," were published in "The Yearbook of Contemporary Poetry, 1937." "Dregs" has been accepted for publication also in the Biographical Dictionary of Contemporary Poets. Katy Friel is now teaching in her native county, Wythe, in Jackson Memorial High School. Aside from her writing, she finds time also for pursuit of two other hobbies—drawing and palm reading.

Willie Savage gave up her work last year as County Supervisor of Wythe County, and is now doing supervision work at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Mrs. Virginia Updyke Cushwa is now rural supervisor in Wythe County.

Edith Topham Umberger is teaching in Wytheville.

Clara McAllister (Mrs. Paul Parsons) has given up teaching as her time is taken up with housekeeping and the care of her little daughter, Sarah. Clara's husband was re-elected to the office of Commonwealth Attorney for Wythe County in the recent election.

1934-43

Emma Louise Crowgey is doing personnel work with the War Department of the Army Air Forces in Winston-Salem, N. C. Penny Houseman is working there with Emma Louise.

Kitty Price (Mrs. E. E. Wells) is social editor for her home town newspaper "The Wythe County News," while Mr. Wells is in the Army Air Corps, stationed now at Yuma, Arizona.

Betty Lindamood (Mrs. W. P. Crowgey, Jr.) and her little daughter are making their home with her mother in Williamsburg while her husband is in the Army.

Emily McAllister is now working in Washington with the Board of Governors for the Federal Reserve.

Harriette Vaden, formerly a physical training director in Richmond schools, now is overseas with a Red Cross Unit. The Richmond Northside Unit of the Red Cross Motor Corps sent a clubmobile abroad in her honor.

Sarah Ina Drinkard (Mrs. Carlton D. Wayne) is teaching in Vero School, Appomattox County.

Charalie Nelson taught Latin and English in the high school department of Virginia Intermont College during 1942-43, and was sponsor for the high school and its activities. This year she is at Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Mary Hille McCoy is head of the Home Economics Department in the Fairfax High School.

Sara Melba Beale (Mrs. T. A. Matthews, Jr.) wrote in February, "As W.P.A. supervisor, I work with the Supervisor of Atlanta City School Cafeterias under the Atlanta Board of Education. Enjoy my work and expect to continue working in the institutional field after W.P.A. is liquidated."

Eunice Tanner (Mrs. O. T. Bailey, Jr.) is teaching in the schools of Campbell County.

Elizabeth Barrett (Mrs. Joe Sturdivant) is teaching home economics and managing the cafeteria in Clintwood, Va. Her husband is a Staff Sergeant in the Air Corps.

Peggy Allen is a student in the University of Virginia School of Nursing.

Margaret Farrar (Mrs. C. G. Baab) is supervisor in the Supply Department, Langley Field. "The Langley Skytrain," in a July issue, listed her accomplishments—B.S., majoring in political science, with English and dramatics as subsidiary courses; secretarial course in New York; studying at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts; teaching dramatics and speech at Newport News High School. "The subject of this sketch is one of the most accomplished employees of this activity. Would that the War Department had more like her!"

Lena McDonald Gardner (Mrs. Macon C. Sammons) after receiving her degree at Farmville, attended V.P.I. before joining the American Red Cross, with which she was serving in May as recreational staff worker at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

Doris Carper (Mrs. John F. Springer) has three titles, viz., Ph.D. 1941, Mrs. 1942, Ensign (Spar) 1943. Her husband is Lieutenant (Jg) U.S.N.R. Both were in the faculty of Duke University when they were married. They are stationed in Washington where her work is to put Coast Guard and Spar recruits through aptitude tests (many are her own devices) and to develop a program for use through the entire service.

Mary Reeves Hale (Mrs. R. E. Jones, II) is shown computing weight and balance of Martin planes while they are in the development stage in a bulletin of Glenn L. Martin Company devoted to Women in Aircraft Engineering.

Jane Lee Hutcheson (Mrs. Blanton Hanbury) followed the Ensign to Norfolk, Washington, New Orleans, and Panama City, Florida, but now she is staying in Farmville with tiny Lila Jane Hanbury.

Margaret Bowling is one of several Farmville graduates holding positions as chemists with the DuPont plant at Ampthill.

Lucie K. Shields landed in North Africa July 24 as a member of the Military Welfare Service of the American Red Cross, and writes most interestingly of her experiences there. She holds an M.A. degree from University of Virginia and has been a member of the faculty of St. Anne's School in Charlottesville, teaching English and riding.

Lillian Turner (Mrs. Howard F. Hall) writes, "I was married in a military ceremony in 1942, and now have a little girl, Ann Howard, who will go to Farmville in seventeen years. I can wish her nothing better than to be as happy there as I was I have been to Florida, Tennessee, Georgia, Mexico, the Pacific Coast, and Arizona, traveling more than I ever dreamed of doing."

W. Grace Collins, now Ensign Collins, is at Hunter College, N. Y., after receiving her commission in August. There her work is a combination of administration and personnel.

Jacqueline Johnson has been teaching in the elementary schools in Staunton, Va. As a member of the Staunton Players, she has made a contribution to the community outside of school. The Staunton NEWS-LEADER gave high praise to her difficult role as the imaginative and lovely Carzia in "Death Takes a Holiday."

Opal Nelson was the first accepted applicant to become a member of the "Old Dominion Platoon" of the U. S. Marine Corps Women's Reserve, receiving training at New River, N. C.

Marjorie Booton resigned her position in the Art Department at S.T.C. to volunteer for service in the Red Cross Recreational Program. She has her M.A. from Columbia University.

Esther Haskins was the first hostess at Richmond Army Air Base, and the only one for several months. Her job is to keep the men happy, and solve their many problems. Her success has been pronounced.

Alice Grainger (Mrs. J. E. Remsburg) received her commission as second lieutenant in the Women's Army Corps at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, in October. She is one of ten selected to remain at Camp Oglethorpe to train recruits, and is the head of a platoon of WACS composed entirely of Virginians. Mr. Remsburg is in the Marines.

Elizabeth McIntosh, a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Nursing, answered the call to arms along with her four brothers. She was in North Africa before the Germans were driven out, and is said to have danced with two generals and had tea at the Sultan's palace. She has been fortunate in seeing other people from Farmville.

First honor graduate of the class of June, 1943, was Helen Wiley Hardy, Farmville, while Susie Moore, Route 7, Richmond, received second honor. In the August Class, Nellie M. Brown, Carrsville, Va., and Anne Elizabeth Downey, Portsmouth, Va., were valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively.

Sarah Button (Mrs. George Rex, Jr.) taught in Arlington, then in Greenville, S. C., after her marriage. Now she and daughter, Elizabeth Ann, are with Mr. Rex in Seattle, Washington.

Irma Carpenter (Mrs. Billy Crafts) and little daughter Sallie are making their home with her parents in Roanoke. Captain Crafts' company is stationed at present in California.

Virginia Tilman (Mrs. R. C. Aehersold) is teaching at Saltville, Va.

Peggy Suiter is employed by the Robert N. Grubb Electrical and Supply Company in Wytheville.

Mary Simmerman (Mrs. Waller Poage) and husband have just completed a new gray stone Colonial home in Wytheville. They have one son, Staples.

Zaida Thomas (Mrs. Marion Humphries) has two children, Kempy and Betty. They are living in Charlottesville. Dr. Humphries is associated with the University Hospital there.

Agnes Crockett (Mrs. Garnett Davis), Fort Chiswell Farm, Max Meadows, has closed her tea room for the duration, but finds her time is well filled at home. Her son, Garnett, Jr., is a year and a half old. The magazine staff is indebted to Agnes for much interesting news from the Wytheville area.

Maude Deekins (Mrs. H. H. Bell, Jr.) is teaching in the grammar school in Staunton, Va. Mr. Bell is instructor in English at S.M.A.

Elizabeth Walton has given up teaching and is now a student at Pan American Business College in Richmond.

Louise Brown (Mrs. G. R. Rosenbaun) lives in Bland, Va. She has two daughters, Ann and Pat. Dr. Rosenbaun is now in the Army overseas.

Martha Higgins (Mrs. Edwin T. Coulbourn) taught for two years in Martinsville and married a Suffolk lawyer. She has two daughters.

Ruth Gaines teaches the second grade in Roanoke and is "on the self-supporting side until the right one comes along."

Phyllis ("Chub") Denit, "Taught six long years and that was six years too long!" Since 1940 she has worked for the Selective Service Board in Salem.

Margaret Otten (Mrs. H. W. Stuart) taught in Covington, Va. She was married in 1936 and took a business course. She now helps her husband in the grocery business in Farmville.

Margaret ("Grit") Parker (Mrs. Richard L. Pong) is the "proud mama" of Dickie and Julia—and doing as good a job as she did while President of the '34 Class.

Ruth Rucker is teaching in Moneta, Va.

Margaret Hunter (Mrs. Roach W. Watson) is postmistress at Darlington Heights. She has two sons, Hunter and Brett.

Elmer Foster is teaching English and Latin at Calverton, Va.

Ruby Vestal (Mrs. Doyne Burger) graduated from Roanoke Business College after leaving Farmville. She spent seven years in the business world. Now has one son.

Margaret Garnett is "still an old-maid school teacher" and is teaching in Martinsville, Va.

Sarah Elam (Mrs. H. T. James) announced on Founders Day the birth of her son, Thomas, Jr.

Margaret Eley (Mrs. Henry L. Brothers, Jr.) has lived all over North and South Carolina, and Georgia. "Came home to roost" with her two children, Jack Eley and Nancy Lewis. Her husband is a Lieutenant (jg) in the Naval Reserve.

Ida Mason Miller (Mrs. R. W. Dickson) was married in 1936 and is now living on the V.P.I. campus where her husband is connected with the Dairy Extension Department. She is busy with church, civic, and Red Cross work in addition to bringing up two daughters, Eleanor and Gary.

Catherine Micou (Mrs. G. P. Saunders) "Taught in Holland High School for five years, then married the 'local' hardware merchant. Had a quiet, uneventful life until our son was born two and a half years ago. Since then our life has been very eventful and lively!"

Charlotte Parrish (Mrs. William H. Mays) is now living in Grantsville, Md.

Betsy Wilkinson (Mrs. Julius Darden) says, "My two are Pat (5½) and Beverly (2). (I guess that dates me.) I don't do anything exciting, just nurse, wash dishes, and act as a referee in fights."

Jac Morton (Mrs. Harold F. Hawkins) is very busy with club work and war activities. Franklin, Jr. (7) and Laurine Jacqueline (3½) provide plenty of excitement.

Grace Rowell (Mrs. A. W. Phelps) is living in crowded Arlington as husband, Arthur, is an attorney with the O.P.A. in Washington. She would love to enroll Grace Rowell, 20 months, as a member of the Granddaughters Club.

Muriel Scott (Mrs. Bennett) has been married for seven years and has one daughter. She taught for five years in Richmond.

Helen Westmoreland says, "I'm teaching at the Bolling Junior High School in Petersburg for my fifth year! Not much other information—still unattached".

Elizabeth Gills, "I am still an old maid. At this time, I am teaching in a junior high school in Richmond".

Inez Strang (Mrs. E. K. Hubbard) is the proud mother of a baby boy.

Neva Martin (Mrs. J. K. Hickman) taught at Hot Springs, Va. She was Home Economist for the Virginia Public Service in Charlottesville. She has one daughter. Her husband is Commonwealth Attorney for Bath County, but is now on leave with the O.P.A. in Roanoke, Va.

Mary Scott Shelton (Mrs. John Whitehead), "I'm leading a strictly domestic life, what with a year-old daughter, Mary Scott, and these maidless times. It's a busy life but a thoroughly happy one".

Beverly Wilkinson (Mrs. Hampton O. Powell) taught for two years at Brookneal and Altavista. Her husband is Vice-President of the Lane Company in Altavista. She is kept busy with substitute teaching, Red Cross and O.P.A. work.

SARA WAYNE FRANCE, Chairman for Alpha Kappa Gamma

ANOTHER year, another month, another day and another class to attend and despite the strained wartime conditions of the World and the country, school life still goes on at Farmville. Let us not gather from this statement that we are shirking our duty as patriotic citizens, or living in a world all our own unaffected by surroundings, but rather that with wartime limitations and restrictions, we have as much as possible held on to the traditions that are inherently Farmville.

We realize that the aim foremost in our minds is to bring this war to an end as soon as possible by doing every possible thing, no matter how small, to achieve the final and lasting peace. To make this a reality, clubs, organizations, and individuals themselves have their year's programs directly related to the war effort. Last year, through the gradual steps from our peacetime pleasures to the more serious activities and projects, we so familiarized ourselves with our duties that when the calendar had turned to September and the Rotunda was once again alive with chatter, we fell directly into line ready to carry out our plans.

Heading the wartime activities of the organizations on campus is the War Council. This group was newly organized last year as the need for cooperation among the clubs along these lines was felt. It is composed of an executive committee consisting of the Student Body President, Y.W.C.A. President, Senior and Junior Class Presidents, Chairman of the Campus League and the faculty advisor and nine committees which more or less supervise every phase of the program. The War Council has more than proved its worth through its work this year. Its outstanding project other than the sale of war stamps was the Family Album in which members of the faculty portrayed different characters in Miss Grace Mix's scrapbook. The auditorium was packed to see the show and for every person there, there was a war stamp in the boxes at the door which usually contain the admission charge. These stamps were then turned in for war bonds. Alpha Kappa Gamma likewise followed this idea of using stamps as the charge for attending the circus. Through these devices the importance of buying stamps has been brought to the attention of the student body and the entire school has cooperated to the fullest extent.

However the project that affected most of the girls was that of weekly entertaining the soldiers at the downtown U.S.O. center and at Camp Pickett. All of us enjoyed the dances and many new contacts were made that proved interesting and educational. The U.S.O. Committee, headed by Miss Leola Wheeler, did a splendid job of organizing and officiating at these functions. Gamma Psi, the art club on campus, has as one of its projects the upkeep of the recreational center by painting the shuffleboard and decorating during holiday seasons to give a festive air to the "Home Away From Home".

The Physical Fitness program inaugurated last spring is still in effect. This makes at least three hours a week of exercise compulsory to all students. Girls may participate in hockey, swimming, basketball, tennis, golf, archery, softball, badminton, and volleyball. Other activities on campus were sponsored by the Red Cross such as the First Aid classes and bandage rolling every week.

With all of our emphasis on doing what we can in the present to help get the war to an end there are on campus several organizations that have as their projects the peace after the war and the immediate future thereafter. The theme for the Pi Gamma Mu discussions is "Our Problems For World Peace." Future Teachers of America is exploring the problem of "The Teacher During Wartime," and Kappa Delta Pi has chosen for its plan to gain a better understanding of the Latin American peoples, of their way of thinking, of their behavior, and of their customs. The national question facing the debate club is—Resolved: That the United States should cooperate in establishing and maintaining an international police force upon the defeat of the Axis. Alpha Phi Sigma, the honor scholastic society for freshmen and sophomores, will help bring another outstanding speaker to the College this year, and they are adding yearly to their scholarship fund, which is now approaching one thousand dollars. Beorc Eh Thorn had Dr. Edward Mims and Robert Peter Tristram Coffin on their program last year, and they are having Robert Frost again this year. Finally the Association for Childhood Education is planning a gift to help meet the needs of school children in Scotland caused by wartime difficulties. Scotland was particularly chosen since one of their members, Margaret Pattie, will return to her home there upon the completion of her course at Farmville, and, knowing her, the girls have a keener and closer feeling for the Scottish children.

All organizations on campus have been directly connected in some way or other with the war effort and of this we are very proud. But in order to fulfill these duties we have not let our educational aims or values received from typical college life fall below those of previous years.

The spring quarter passed quickly in spite of the fact that we had no spring vacation, and the June 1943 Commencement for the joyous, yet sorrowful, seniors rolled around. The Junior-Senior Prom, Senior Class Day with the traditional Daisy Chain, Reception and Lantern Parade, and finally the Graduation Exercises bade farewell to the seniors and ushered them into the big world of opportunity. It hardly seemed possible that they could graduate without Dr. Jarman's delivering the degrees, but since he was sick, Governor Darden not only delivered the address but also conferred the "sheepskins." Many of the underclassmen stepped right into summer jobs. However, a goodly number helped to keep the halls and campus alive with activity during the summer months.

About the usual enrollment crowded into the dorms in September to find a full year's work lined up—Orientation Classes, lyceums, War Council Programs, Y.W.C.A. speakers, National Education Week, the Circus, dances, holidays, installations, and the inevitable exams. The freshmen became acquainted with the "do's" and "don'ts" in the orientation classes and received helpful solutions to their problems from their faculty advisors. The Y.W.C.A. played a big part in helping them to make friends at the "Big Sister-Little Sister" Reception. Later the picturesque candlelight service in Joan Court impressed the freshmen and brought back pleasant memories to those who had seen it before.

Soon the spotlight was turned from the new girls to the Seniors. Hard as it was to believe, the inevitable time had arrived for the seniors to be "capped" and become Seniors "officially". And the Senior Dance to which we had been looking forward for so long came with a sad situation at hand—a V-Mail letter but no date for the dance. Since the V-Mail letters didn't grow legs, many borrowed dates were in the figure.

During this time, the dramatic club members were retracing their steps in order to have everything in perfect shape for the fall play, "The Ivory Door." To brighten up the campus, the Cotillion Club Dance brought a large number of graduates back and though we didn't name it "Homecoming Day," it could easily have been designated as such. Shrieks of excitement and joy filled the halls. Seeing so many old girls back made the campus look more natural—especially to upperclassmen.

With traveling conditions crowded and unsatisfactory, none of us expected a break during the fall quarter. But one day, much to our surprise, Dr. Jarman rose quietly from his position on the stage and with the charming twinkle in his eyes and with the broad beam on his face, surprised everyone with the Thanksgiving Holiday announcement. Outbursts of joyousness exuded from every nook and corner on the campus, and every student eagerly counted the days until the great trek came about.

Wars and rumors of wars came to us and challenged us to accept new responsibilities, but the spirit, the customs, the traditions that have belonged in "our halls and our arcades" here at Farmville for so long, lived and moved on uninterrupted.

Contributed by KATHERINE PANNILL

VIRGINIA BOYD (Mrs. Edward Barr) teaches Physical Training in the Handley School. She is active in the Century Club, Garden Club, hospital auxiliary and is on the board of directors of the City Recreational Council.

Mae Birch teaches in Berryville, Va. She was president, last year, of Beta Sigma Phi, Winchester Chapter. She is engaged in war and defense work sponsored by this club.

Mary Boxley teaches sewing in the Handley School and has had many of her creations in jewelry, textile design, and art needlework on exhibition in recent art shows. She may be especially remembered for her fine costume design in connection with past Apple Blossom Festival pageants.

Helen Miller (Mrs. Harold Brown) is Red Cross chairman of nutrition in Winchester and Frederick County, local chairman for Woman's Division of War Savings Staff, and is on the U.D.C. Nutrition Committee. She is the mother of one son, Harold, Jr., and two beautiful daughters, Helen Miller and Frances West, one of whom expresses a desire to teach, so may soon become a member of Farmville's Granddaughters Club.

Martha Stine (Mrs. LeRoy Cahill) is interested in civic affairs, church activity, and defense work. Her two young daughters, Patricia Ann, age 7, and Martha Eileen, age 5, have already chosen for their later education, their mother's Alma Mater.

Katherine Montague (Mrs. Clark Cooper) does Red Cross work and first aid teaching. She is secretary to her husband in his business with the Richfield Oil Co. Last Spring she exhibited two beautiful painted trays in the art exhibition given by the American Association of University Women. Her son, Clark Thomas, expects to become a student at Annapolis, and her dainty blond daughter, Evelyn Montague, may be enrolled in the Granddaughters group at Farmville, though she is now still in primary school.

Thelma Courtney (Mrs. Pearson Scott) was married last August and now lives in Heathsville, Va., where she has been teaching.

Helen Glass (Mrs. Douglas DeShane) is again located in Winchester after living a year in Hagerstown, Maryland. She has been engaged in Red Cross work and completed the Home Nursing course prior to taking up the job of teaching in the 5th grade in the Handley system. Her daughter, Virginia Shelley, is 13 months old and already it has been decided that she will attend State College, Farmville.

Edith Cornwell (Mrs. Ray Garrabrandt) teaches English in Handley, is Scout Commissioner for the City of Winchester. She is serving on the local Recreational Executive Council.

Henrietta Cornwell (Mrs. Fred Ritter) keeps house for her husband and Fred, Jr., age 5, pursues the Red Cross home nursing course, is part-time substitute in school and has charge of a Girl Scout troop.

Jane Rosenberger is teaching in the Junior High School of the Handley System.

Annette Roberts, who was in the Virginia Avenue School last year, was among the 109 Red Cross workers who recently arrived in England.

Virginia Ann Huntsberry (Mrs. James Shockley), besides her work among the various organizations in Winchester and taking care of her home and her 14 months old son, Don, often substitutes in the primary schools of the city.

Edna Lamb (Mrs. James Snider) says she intends sending her two young daughters to Farmville for their college work. They are Betsy Lamb, 6 years old, and Carolyn Lee, 7 months.

Nellie White teaches typing in the high school. She came here from the Manchester High School, Richmond, Va., and is finding life in Winchester almost too quiet and restful.

Mary Taliaferro (Mrs. J. Michael Steck) is Red Cross instructor for the making of surgical dressings, chairman of home nursing, and is on the committee of War Council for securing nurses for home nursing. She substitutes in the public schools of Winchester. Her daughter, Mary Marshall, is in the 5th grade at Handley.

Helen Chrisman (Mrs. Bruce Gorham) is busy bringing up her daughter, Cherry, 4½ years, possibly later to be a loyal member of her mother's Alma Mater. Her husband is in Africa.

Mary Gray is chairman of the Production Corps of the Red Cross Sewing Division of the City. She is an active member of the Federated Council of the Church Women of Winchester, works with the local U.D.C. and is a member of the Eastern Star. She is secretary of Stewardship of Centenary Evangelical and Reformed Church of this city. Miss Gray taught in the Handley system for many years and retired five years ago.

Mildred Landis (Mrs. William Hollis) reports that while her husband is located at Fort Benning, Ga., she is also working for Uncle Sam and serves at the money order window at the Post Office. She has two children, John William, Jr., age 6, and Michael Scott, age 4.

Virginia O'Conner (Mrs. Rhodes Huntsberry) has taken up most of her time rearing three fine sons, the oldest of whom is at college this year. She has also assisted with dance classes at the Ewing School of Dancing and with designing and producing artistic costumes for the annual spring recitals.

Mary Jane Joliffe lives at Stephenson, near Winchester, and teaches at Stonewall, the handsome new High School recently constructed there.

Mary Denny (Mrs. Ed. Moulden) is the mother of two children, Mary Lee, 4 years old, and Denny, 15 months.

Katherine Pannill teaches art in the Handley High School and supervises art in the grades. She was appointed chairman of the community art exhibition by the American Association of University Women, Winchester Branch.

Lillian Bugg (Mrs. Herman Pifer) has a son at Washington & Lee. Her two daughters, Paulette and Virgilia, are now in Senior High School and are considering Farmville as their College.

Nancy Crisman (Mrs. Garland Quarles) serves most efficiently on civic committees and organizations and defense activities and yet finds time for a beautiful home life with her children, George and Nancy, and her busy husband, who is Superintendent of the Handley Schools.

Sadie Mae Ritt came here from Franklin, Va., and is teaching in the 5th grade. While at Franklin school she was very active in the stamp and bond sale and was chairman of a group in which the children sold $6549.00 in one drive.

Other members of our organization who attended Farmville in summer are Lemma Snider and Mary Bell Bear.

Class Reunions

CLASS OF 1934

DEAR MEMBERS OF '34:

You don't know what a good time I've had or how much mail I've received this Fall! It has been fine hearing from you, and I do hope that we'll have a good crowd back for our tenth reunion next Founder's Day. Of course, I haven't heard from everybody yet, but most of the girls have said that they plan to come back.

It's almost unbelievable that the Class of '34 is about to have its tenth reunion. We'll surely have a lot to talk about when we see each other, won't we? I wonder if the "lights out" rule is still enforced by the House Council? If so, it will just have to be suspended for us!

I can just hear the "proud mamas" (there are quite a few of them in '34) bragging about their children and the "old-maids" of the Class trying to argue that their life of "independence" is to be preferred! I shan't say any more about that argument until I find out from you just how the members of the Class have lined themselves up on the question.

To be serious for a moment, however, I know that all of the married members and all of the "old-maids" are contributing everything possible toward the winning of the war. Here's wishing each one of us luck in whatever we are doing, and may the Class of '34 be proud of its efforts when the war is won!

My best wishes to each one of you, and I am surely looking forward to our having a big time on Founder's Day.

Sincerely,

MARY "BERK" ELEY NELSON
Secretary

MISS LULA C. ANDREWS retired from active teaching last July and is now living at her home in Alabama, with her sisters, Mrs. Cumbee ("Miss Alleen") and Miss Mamie Andrews. Incomparable teacher that she is, no wonder we hear on every hand, "But Miss Andrews ought never to retire!" The good wishes and love of thousands of her students are hers in this so-called "retirement". She will be like Miss Mix, we know, busier now than when teaching by a schedule.

Miss Minnie V. Rice was asked four times, in recent years, to read a paper before the American Classical Association. Two of these invitations were accepted. One was described by the presiding officer as "the high light of the meeting," and the other aroused a great deal of interest.

Miss Lulie G. Winston has retired from teaching science in Meredith College, Raleigh, N. C., and is living in Richmond.

Mrs. Linus Kline (Miss Fannie Littleton) has been living in Houston, Texas, for the past two years. Her address is 4518 McKinney Avenue.

Miss Mary D. Pierce is spending the winter in Orange, Va., commuting daily nine miles to Unionville High School, where she teaches history and social studies.

Dr. LeRoy C. Merritt, Librarian at S.T.C. and professor of Library Science, is the author of a book entitled, "The United States Government As A Publisher". It deals with the volume and kinds of material the government publishes. The reviewer writes, "Because of the high quality of workmanship, the good organization and the clarity of its reporting, this book is a contribution of real value to everyone interested in federal documents".

Mr. Edgar M. Johnson expects to receive his doctor's degree at the close of the fall semester which he is spending at Columbia University.

Miss Lula Walker is making her home in Baltimore, where she has a position as dietitian in a hospital.

Miss Sybil Henry, Principal of the Elementary School, is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.

For the first time since she became Head of the Home, Miss Mary White Cox was not in place at the opening of the Fall Session. This was due to illness from which she is now recovering.

For more than thirty years Mr. Atkinson (better known as "Cousin Tommy") has been night watchman at S.T.C. Mr. Atkinson retired this summer from active service. Generations of Farnville girls wish for him much happiness in his years of leisure.

Phyllis Payne Pedigo, Covington, Va., has received national recognition for her "work of mercy" as a member of the Red Cross in Australia. Her story was written by a group of soldiers, who felt proud of her as an American girl. Their collective letter was printed first in HARPER'S BAZAAR, and later condensed in the October, 1943, issue of the READER'S DIGEST. Those who knew Phyllis when she was a "live wire" president of the freshman class, and followed her activities as a teacher and president of the Covington Chapter of Farmville Alumnae, are not surprised that her talents made her the symbol to the lonely soldiers of the homes they had left. She was back at her Alma Mater doing work on her degree when she volunteered for Red Cross overseas duty. She went to the land "Down under" as assistant director of Service Men's Clubs more than a year ago. She was injured and is back in the States for a supervised rest period. Every Farmville girl will read the READER'S DIGEST story and feel proud of their sister Alumna!

To Those Who Teach « « «

"A courage which looks easy and yet is rare; the courage of a teacher repeating day after day the same lesson—the least rewarded of all forms of courage."—BALZAC.

I'VE found that my background obtained under such grand teachers as Miss Lennie Blankenship, has given me the essential knowledge to make the grade here.

—Charles I Daniels
Cadet, U. S. Air Corps
University of Miami

Miss Tapelle Pruden has always been my friend and advisor.—Betty Jones

It was Miss Agnes Bondurant who made me want to teach.—Rachel Kelsey

Magistra bona—that's Miss Virginia Brinkley!—Sue Hundley. Did you ever walk into a Latin class with a look of joy and expectation on your face? I did, almost always. With such a teacher as Miss Brinkley, no wonder we liked Latin, and no wonder we wanted to come to Farmville.—Margaret Sheffield. Miss Brinkley's fairness, patience, and understanding endeared her to the students—Ann Martin

Miss Caralie Nelson truly won my admiration. At times she worked us terribly hard, but we rather liked it. Her eagerness for us to take advantage of our every opportunity spurred us on.—Martha Frances Webb

Mrs. Linda Wilkinson Bock started in me a desire to be a real student.—Betty Woodward

Miss Anna Maxey talked over our problems and taught me more practical things than any other teacher.—Doris Smith

Always gay and happy, Miss Ann Ferree inspired every one of her students to want to do better.—Helen Worsham

Miss Mabel Spratley, my history teacher, conducted a class with superlative thoroughness.—Janice Gordon Wells

I can never repay one of my teachers for all she has done for me, nor can I express in mere words how grateful I am to her. This teacher was my mother—Ada Smith Shaffner.—Josephine Shaffner

To appreciate her fine character and charming personality, one has to know Mrs. Edward Eubank, formerly Miss Elizabeth Dunn. Boys and girls alike love her for her sportsmanship, friendliness, and sympathy. The citizens of her town respect her, depend upon her, and love her.—Connie Ozlin

Miss Marguerite Blackwell has meant more to me than just an English teacher; she has been a friend.—Cecelia Arthur

I came to Farmville because of the influence of my senior high school teacher, Miss Ruth Hunt. She was an inspiration to me during my high school days!—Emily Carper

It was Miss Rosa Courter who helped to make my last two years in high school happy, successful, and memorable.—Margaret Ellett

The friendliness of Miss Rebecca Peck was felt by all of her students. She endeared herself to us in many ways, and made us want to go to her beloved S.T.C.—Catherine Stoner and Billy Waid

Miss David Terry was more than a teacher: she was the kind of person that one likes to be near.—Dorothy Turley

Miss Winnie Frances Eubank created an atmosphere that people love. At the time I thought it was her natural personality, but now I believe that Farmville S.T.C. helped to shape that personality.—Ruby Huddle

In Miss Alma Porter I found someone who would help me through difficulties.—Luverta Joyner

I am here today because of the influence of my teacher, Miss Annie Canada, and because my mother loved this school so well.—Bernice Nichols

You should have Miss Frances Howard as your teacher, if you wish a real companion in your study!—Martha Russell East

Miss Lillian Minkel truly is my ideal of what a teacher should be.—Lovice Altizer, Catherine Varner and Margaret Smith.

I want to be a good teacher—one who is a combination of Miss Jean Moyer and Miss Anna Snow Ramsey.—Monterey Twiford

Miss Kathryne Cotten became my ideal because of her efficient teaching and her friendship with her pupils.—Lois Boone

Teaching was a gift with Miss Theo Smith.—Imogene Moore

From Miss Laurie Boush I learned that one can be happy even under the heaviest responsibilities. From her I learned to think.—Anna Headlee

I know no finer teacher and friend than Miss Louise Anthony.—Nancy Crymes

A good teacher is one who makes live and breathe what she teaches. I had one like that, Miss Anna L. Anderson.—Minne Lee Crumpler

One of the best loved teachers at West Point High School is Miss Nan Duer. She loved S.T.C. so much, and told us so many happy tales of her college life that she made us anxious to come here.—Virginia Bland and Judith Reick

Because of lack of space scores of similar tributes, spoken and written, must be omitted from this issue. Among the many other loved teachers mentioned are Erna Shotwell, Margaret Loving, Martha Overby, Helen Roberts, Katherine Spencer, Mary Ann Sanderson, Madge McFall, Nell Hall, Mary Frances Thomas, Mary Berkeley Nelson, Thelma Houpe, Matilda Blake, Virginia Carroll, Nora Lancaster, Ruby Price, Lillie Cordle, Jane Carter, Mabel Burton Marks, Lucille Graves Noell, Elva Reynolds Powell, Bernice Garriss Owen, Dudley Allen, and Emily Irby.

The Richmond Alumnae Chapter

THE Richmond Chapter has accomplished much in such a short time that we feel like passing on to other Chapters their plans of organization and some of their activities. It was reorganized in February 1942 at a luncheon in the lovely home of Maria Bristow Starke, "Rustom" on the James River, at which time she was made president. Six representative "girls" were appointed vice-presidents. The Richmond list of Alumnae was divided between these vice-presidents who would contact them whenever it is necessary. The officers compose the executive committee and they meet regularly to plan the work of the Chapter.

They have had only one big meeting a year. The first one was a luncheon at the John Marshall Hotel, attended by about one hundred Alumnae. The second one was a tea at the Y.W.C.A. (See Secretary's report.)

They have one hundred six active paid members, each contributing a dollar or more a year. They expect to give as an award (not a loan), one hundred dollars a year to a different Richmond girl each year, who graduates from high school in the high scholastic bracket, who is outstanding in leadership and who definitely expects to make teaching her profession. The following is a copy of their membership card.

Report of The Robert Frazer Memorial Fund

By MINNIE V. RICE

THE committee appointed to collect money lent out by the Virginia Normal League, since the funds of that organization were turned over to Dr. Jarman for The Robert Frazer Memorial Fund, wishes to report the collection of $458.00 from May, 1941, to November, 1943.

The following letter was received recently from one who borrowed from the Virginia Normal League twenty-five years ago. The spirit of this letter expresses the feeling that has been expressed by so many girls who borrowed a long time ago. The committee published it in order that those who knew "The Normal League" as a benefactor may know that the work continues in memory of Dr. Frazer, who instituted the idea at Farmville in 1898.

"My dear Miss Rice,

Last night's mail brought a check from my brother which, in turn, clears up my indebtedness to the Normal League Fund. It has taken us a great many years to pay this off, and I may have kept some worthy girl from receiving help to further her education.

The brother to whom my funds were diverted for some time, carried on his education until now he holds a position in one of our leading universities of the South. Now that this is behind me, I shall concentrate my efforts on furthering the education of my own three young Americans.

My very best wishes to you, and for the continued success of Farmville.

Sincerely yours,

I. G."

The Richmond Alumnae Chapter

It serves as a receipt card and makes a convenient identification card to carry in one's pocketbook.

Also they have very attractive printed stationery with this heading: Richmond Chapter, Farmville State Teachers College, Alumnae Association.

THE New York Chapter, despite the many difficulties due to the war and the fact that our membership is scattered over such a wide area, has held four meetings since October, 1942.

Pauline Williamson, then President of the Chapter, was hostess at a luncheon meeting in October 1942, when the following officers were elected for the year 1942-1943: President, Nancy E. Lewis; Secretary-Treasurer, Martha M. Kennerly; Program Chairman, Helene Nichols. Mebane Hunt Martensen spoke on the subject of Juvenile Delinquency in Wartime. Mebane is now a very active member of Governor Dewey's State War Council on Child Welfare.

A luncheon meeting was held on Founder's Day, March 6, 1943, since none of us could attend the festivities at Farmville. The weather was against us that day but in spite of snow, rain, and wind, a number of the members showed up, considerably windblown and more than considerably damp. We toasted all of you and ourselves and read messages and generally felt as though we were celebrating the day with you.

Our third meeting was on April 18, 1943, when the choir and the Madrigal Singers came to New York. Their music was superb and we were very proud of the girls and of Mr. Strick. Following the recital which they gave for the Alumnae, we had a supper meeting and managed to see as many as possible of the faculty who accompanied the girls.

The fourth meeting was held on January 22, 1944, following a luncheon. It does seem from this report that the New York Chapter always manages to eat at its meetings but it is a nice way to get together. The incumbent officers were re-elected for another term and plans were discussed for the coming year. After the meeting, the members adjourned to Nancy Lewis' house where we proceeded to revive old memories and to exchange news of old friends. Since most of the members at this meeting happened to be of the Class of 1916, we got out Nancy's annual and had a thoroughly hilarious time looking at ourselves and our classmates, as we were, and comparing styles and hair-dos. Marie Noell Harr, who is in New York quite often these days, since her husband is stationed here, attended the meeting. We consider her a sort of member-at-large of our chapter.

Dreama Chambers is teaching in Teaneck, N. J. and manages to look less like a dignified teacher than anybody I ever saw. She was the life of the party at our last meeting.

A number of the Alumnae are planning to attend a dinner in honor of Dr. Fannie W. Dunn who is retiring. From advance reports, it is going to be a big success. I wish that some of you could be here for it.

Miss Kennerly, our Secretary-Treasurer, has been more or less hors de combat for some months as a result of an injury to her back. She seems to be improving now and we hope that she will be able to take an active part in our doings before long.

NANCY E. LEWIS
President

Among our Portsmouth Alumnae, Jean Moyer is Mrs. Donald Scorgie and is teaching at Cradock High School. Libby West is doing splendidly at Deep Creek High School as acting principal. Elizabeth Ann Parker has been outstanding with her art work in Cradock. Ann Benton (Mrs. Maurice Wilder) and Anna Shiflett (Mrs. Robert Reed) are among our active alumnae. Elizabeth Booth has an adorable little brown-eyed girl. Louise Clayton is trotting continuously with teaching, leading a Scout troop, and doing recreational work. Kathryn Cotten (Mrs. John Compton) is president of the Junior Woman's Club and has done a great deal for that organization. Lizzie Ewald Lively is teaching again after the rest of bringing up a son. Zaidee Smith, head of the History Department at Wilson, died last year and Katherine Timberlake, another alumna, succeeded her. Etta Marshall has given up teaching for a while to do Red Cross entertainment work overseas. With her dramatic and musical ability, she is ideally suited for this type of work.

In Southampton County, Annie Garrett, '12 (Mrs. John Y. Mason) is president of the Seventh District Woman's Club, and is active in all civic and religious organizations in the town and community. Her son, Capt. J. Y. Mason, Jr., is serving in the Armed Forces overseas.

Patience Moore, '17 (Mrs. John M. Britt) is president of the Red Cross Chapter of Southampton County and is superintendent of the Junior Department in the Boykins Methodist Church.

Lucy Moore, '14 (Mrs. J. S. Drewry) is Chairman of her District of the Virginia War Fund, is active in P.T.A. work and church organizations. Her son, Lt. J. S. Drewry, Jr., is serving with the Armed Forces overseas.

The Northampton Chapter recently elected the following officers for the next two years: President, Evelyn Thorington; Vice-President, Eleen Aliworth Scott; Secretary, Ruth Winer Brown; and Treasurer, Lila Jacob.

The Staunton Chapter met for the election of officers in the home of Annie Davis Shelburne in November. Frances Crawford was made president to succeed Polly Keller, and Margaret Mish was chosen secretary to replace Sallie Chew Leslie. The Chapter is planning a dinner in the near future.

An Atlanta (Georgia) Chapter was organized on December 5, with Elizabeth Bugg Hughes as president.

Alumnae, Please Help !!!

DEAR ALUMNAE:

With the hope of making a contribution to the history of the College through costume, The Home Economics Club and The Granddaughters Club are cooperating in a program of collecting costumes characteristic of each of the past sixty years. These costumes are to become the property of the College, and will be used whenever an occasion arises calling for the history of any particular epoch in our school life.

Should you have your graduation dress and would like it to become a part of the history of the College, we would appreciate a communication from you. A photograph revealing hair style and possibly a hat typical of the year would prove most valuable in completing our efforts.

Give us your cooperation in making a complete history of our College through costume.

Sincerely yours,

RUTH GLEAVES
