E. LEE TRINKLE
Attorney at Law
WYTHEVILLE, VIRGINIA

My dear Miss Mary Boothe:-

Allow me to acknowledge receipt of your invitation to the early approaching evening. Well - I had heard you were going to leave - dear old Virginia & really I regret the fact that some Virginia boy could not have kept you here.

I want to thank you for remembering to send me a card for you

I want you always to feel that I wish you both well - and that no time may ever come you following -

I receive our pleasure acquaintance with a great deal of joy & may we again meet at the Anniversary Reunion next spring - With best wishes

I am always,

E. Lee Trinkle
