WHAT IS A SORORITY?

College social sororities are voluntary organizations, formed by the mutual decision of the prospective member and the members, intended to provide an enrichment of the college experience beyond the classroom. They are not "student body" organizations, for they receive no financial nor operational assistance from the associated students. Neither are they college or university organizations, for they are neither a laboratory of social experimentation or organization of social reform. The sorority is a group of individuals, both undergraduates and alumnae, who by reason of common social interests have joined together in order to obtain a pleasant, enriching experience in democratic living.

14 Tapped As Members Of Alpha Kappa

Moyer, Jerry Clarke, Annice Bailey, Donna Frantzen, and Betty Ann Rex.

By Ann Carroll

Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary leadership fraternity, tapped new members Thursday, November 1 in Jarman Auditorium. Nine seniors and four juniors were honored.

Fourteen Tapped

Seniors tapped were Annice Bailey, Donna Frantzen, Janice Harris, Lindy Hatch, Susan Lane, Barbara Gray Martin, Barbara Moyer, Mary Lou Plunkett and Louise Powell.

Rex Capable

Betty Ann Rex is a junior from Charlottesville, majoring in music education, in piano concentration. As a freshman she was vice president and president of her class. She wrote the "Joan of Arc" song which won the Song Contest.

During her sophomore year, Betty Ann was Freshman Counselor for the YWCA and secretary of the Granddaughters' Club. This year she is treasurer of the Choir, a member of the Madrigal Singers and vice president of Sigma Alpha Iota. She has participated in water pageants, is a member of the Westminster Fellowship, the Student Education Association and the Music Educators National Conference. Betty Ann is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority.

Alpha Kappa Gamma selected these girls on the basis of their leadership abilities and promise of future usefulness to the school in various areas of college life.

Walk Scene, all apprehension was thoroughly dissolved, and Darn Judith lived up to her name. The audience went into their intermission expecting great things of Medea and, indeed, they were more than well satisfied. One of the most striking things about Medea, besides the great portrayal of the girl-maddened sorceress was Darn Judith's brilliant application of humor. The outstanding case in point was Medea's reaction to Jason's ideas of his own greatness. The audience, for the most part, not expecting any form of humor in a tragedy, couldn't help their spontaneous burst of laughter. The people, out of the deepest respect for Miss Anderson, did not know whether or not to laugh; but they could not

New Presidents To Take Office After Vacation

Presidents for House Council, Y. W. C. A., and the Athletic Association have been selected by the student body. They are, respectively, Cecilia Lynne Osteen, Elizabeth Ann Rex, and Gaynelle Thomas Taylor. They will be installed in office April 2 during assembly.

Osteen Active

Lynne, of Norfolk, is a history-French major. After graduation from Longwood, she hopes to teach in high school.

While at Granby High School, Lynne was vice-president of her freshman and junior classes, Secretary of her sophomore class, and Treasurer of the Student Government her senior year.

Other activities included membership in the Junior Y-Teen, Welking Tri-Hi-Y, and King Daughter's Circle, and participation in the annual comic shows, somewhat similar to our productions.

Since coming to Longwood, Lynne has been a regular participant in Circus and May Day. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. Her sophomore year she was chosen President of Tabb and Student. Her activities this year have included Secretary of House Council, member of Y-cabinet, and May Court representative.

Rex Majors In Music

Betty Ann is a graduate of Lane High School, Charlottesville. A music major, she plans to teach in public schools after graduation from Longwood.

While in high school, Betty

Ann held membership in the Tri-Hi-Y, Girl Scouts, and Future Teachers of America Club. She also was on the staff of both her school newspaper and magazine and was President of the Senior High fellowship of her church.

Since coming to Longwood, Betty Ann has been very active in school activities as well as a consistent Dean's List student. During her freshman year she was elected class president for the second semester, chosen as Co-Chairman of freshman production, and wrote the words and music to our "Joan of Arc" song.

Since her freshman year, she has both helped with the music in Circus and May Day and been active in the activities of the YWCA. Betty Ann was Freshman Counselor of the Y last year and is very active in the work of her own Westminster Fellowship.

Other memberships here include Sigma Alpha Iota, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Alpha Kappa Gamma, and the Granddaughter's Club.

In the field of music, Betty

Ann is in Madrigals and plays the organ and harpsichord as well as the piano. She presented a solo piano recital her freshman year and is planning to do so again this coming May.

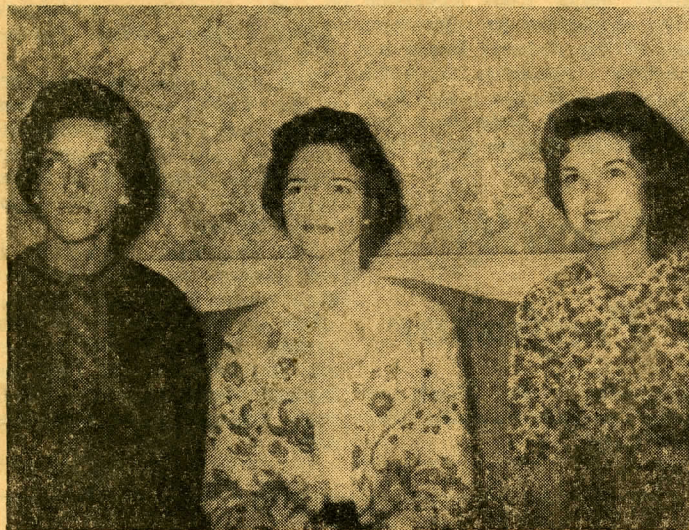

Taylor Holds Double Major

Gay is a health and physical education major and a biology minor from Gretna.

A graduate of Gretna High School, Gay was president of the Monogram Club, her freshman class, and her sophomore class. She played varsity basketball, was a member of the Glee Club, Beta Club, and Student Council and was selected as a May Court representative her sophomore year. Her senior year, Gay was chosen as Homecoming Maid of Honor.

At Longwood, Gay has played varsity basketball her freshman and sophomore years and varsity hockey her sophomore and junior years. She was varsity hockey manager during her sophomore year. Gay has participated in class archery, hockey, volleyball, and softball. She was secretary of Orchesis her sophomore year.

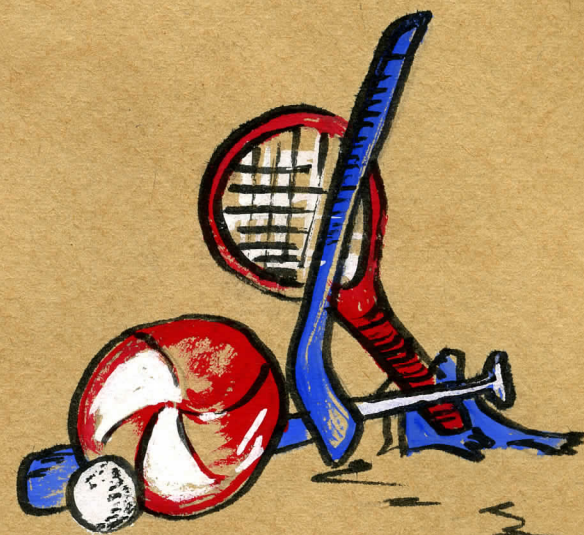

Before being elected as President of the A. A., Gay was its secretary. Asked how she felt about the election she said "At first I was quite shocked. Then, after realizing my new position, I was very honored." After graduation, Gay plans to teach in high school.

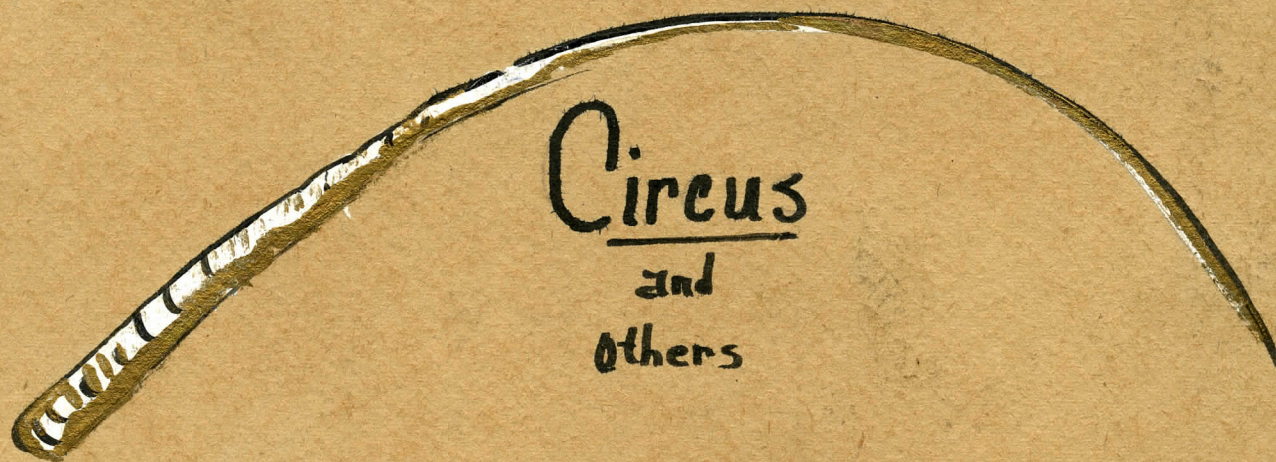

NEW OFFICERS

Newly elected heads of major officers are Gay Taylor, Betty Ann Rex, and Lynne

Columbia Hosts Convention Of AKG

Clara Barton Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma at Columbia College will play host October 5-7 for the annual national convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary fraternity for leadership in womanly service.

Allen, Spear, To Attend

Two advisors and four members of Longwood's Joan Circle will attend the convention in Columbia, South Carolina. Those going are Miss Merry Lewis Allen and Miss Jenelle Spear, Margaret Vaughan, Sandra Freedman, Elaine Lohr, and Alice White.

Vaughan To Speak

The program theme has not yet been announced, but the schedule includes circle reports on the past year's activities. Margaret Vaughan, president of Joan Circle, will speak for Longwood.

A program concerning the patron saints is also on the agenda. The circles will trade ideas of how to emphasize patrons on campus. Joan of Arc is the Longwood chapter's saint. Her statue is in the Rotunda and on the colonnade; the poem by John Gerson is stressed to all students here; and the college song is reminiscent of her. Also in the Alpha Kappa Gamma tapping

Chairmen Plan Final Stage Of Dance

Susan Brittingham and Joan Meadows, co-chairmen of the Junior Dance, are busy preparing the final touches for the dance which will be held Saturday, February 16, from 8:00 to 12:00 in the Main Rec. The theme for this year's dance is "Ole Man River" and the entertainment will be provided by The Chasers from Lynchburg.

Assisting Susan and Joan are Shirley Dunavant, Decorations; Jane Maddox, entertainment; Alta Stricklin, publicity; Betsy MacCorkle, tickets; Janet Lacy, after dance party; Carol Martin, invitations; and Diana Delk, receiving line.

All students and their dates are invited to attend the semi-formal dance. Tickets sell for $2.00 apiece.

Art Students Display Works In Library Show

Student art is on display in the exhibition room of the library. The work will be displayed until April 29.

The art majors who have work in the exhibit are Carol Baumgardner, Brenda Brown, Pam Bullen, Frances Campbell, Gari Dickson, Harriet Hunt, Pudd Murdock, Wanda Robertson, Lynn Sephenson, Winifred Walker, Peggy Whittaker, Melanie Wilkes, Linda Woodall, and Judy Woodyard. However, some of the outstanding work of the exhibit was done by non art majors.

All of the work was completed this year in the second semester. Among the examples of art to be seen are water colors, oil paintings, wood cuts, serigraphs, sculpture, pottery, and crafts.

One painting by Brenda Brown is done in different shades and tints of blue. The painting, in which a part of the face appears, seems to have light shining on it.

The crafts are shown in the display case in the middle of the library. Of particular interest is the jewelry and chip carving.

Work Begins With Election Of Co-Chairmen

With the election of the freshman Circus co-chairmen, final preparations for Circus are now under way.

Freshman Chairmen

Freshman chairman are Frances Heath and Harriet Anderson. Frances is a physical education major from Newport News. Harriet, from Radford is majoring in history.

Freedman To Serve As Circus Chairman

Sandra Freedman, a senior math major and member of Alpha Kappa Gamma from Norfolk, will serve as general chairman of the 1962 Circus to be held October 27.

Sandra has a long list of services to Longwood to her credit. In her freshman year she served as transportation chairman for May Day, and worked on the script committee for Freshman Production.

In her sophomore year, Sandra helped write the script for the Senior Banquet.

The holder of many offices, she has acted as treasurer for Sigma Kappa sorority, for her junior and senior classes, and for Lychnos society.

In her junior year, Sandra undertook the co-chairmanship of May Day Dance. A member of Longwood Players, she has been in charge of costumes for several plays.

An active participant in sports, Sandra has played class hockey, archery, and volleyball. She has also participated in her class skits for Circuses and Productions.

AKG chairmen for the various aspects of Circus have been announced. Alice White and Betty Stack will serve as stunt co-chairman, Sandy Phlegar will serve as parade chairman, and Pam Bullen will act as publicity chairman.

Elaine Lohr will be in charge of the animals and clowns, Sherill Hudlow in charge of the midway booths, and Margaret Vaughan will manage the queen and her court.

All members of Alpha Kappa Gamma will serve in an advisory capacity to the classes in preparation of their skits.

Andrews Wins Title As 'Miss Longwood'

Jo Leslie Andrews was chosen Miss Longwood Friday night, April 5, in Jarman Auditorium. As a result of being selected, Miss Andrews will represent Longwood College in the Festival of the Five Flags in Pensacola, Florida.

First runner-up was Patte O'Neil. Other contestants were Virginia Summers, Virginia Petty, Harriet Hunt, and Wanda Old.

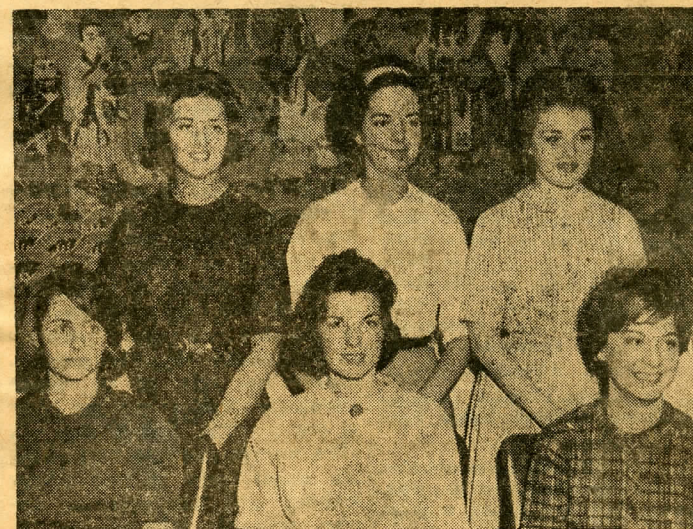

The first level of the contest was in bathing suits. The purpose of this was to judge for beauty.

Jo Leslie's questions were: What are your plans for life after graduation? and What is your opinion of federal aid to education?

The last round of the contest was talent.

Virginia Summers did an original dialogue based on the character of Scarlett O'Hara from the novel Gone with the Wind. She designed her costume and used a tape of her own piano accompaniment as background music.

Jo Leslie Andrews performed a dissertation on parametia mers, pose before pageant last Friday night. New Miss Longwood, Jo Leslie Andrews, will attend Festival of Five Flags in Pensacola, Florida.

Next came informal talks with the judges. This was for poise and personality judgment.

A series of questions was then asked by Mrs. John Allen, who acted as mistress of ceremonies. The first was an "open-end" question and the second dealt with a more serious, political question.

which turned into a song routine.

Patte O'Neil did a pantomime based on the character of Marcel Marceau. She portrayed a sculpturer in "A Day in the Studio."

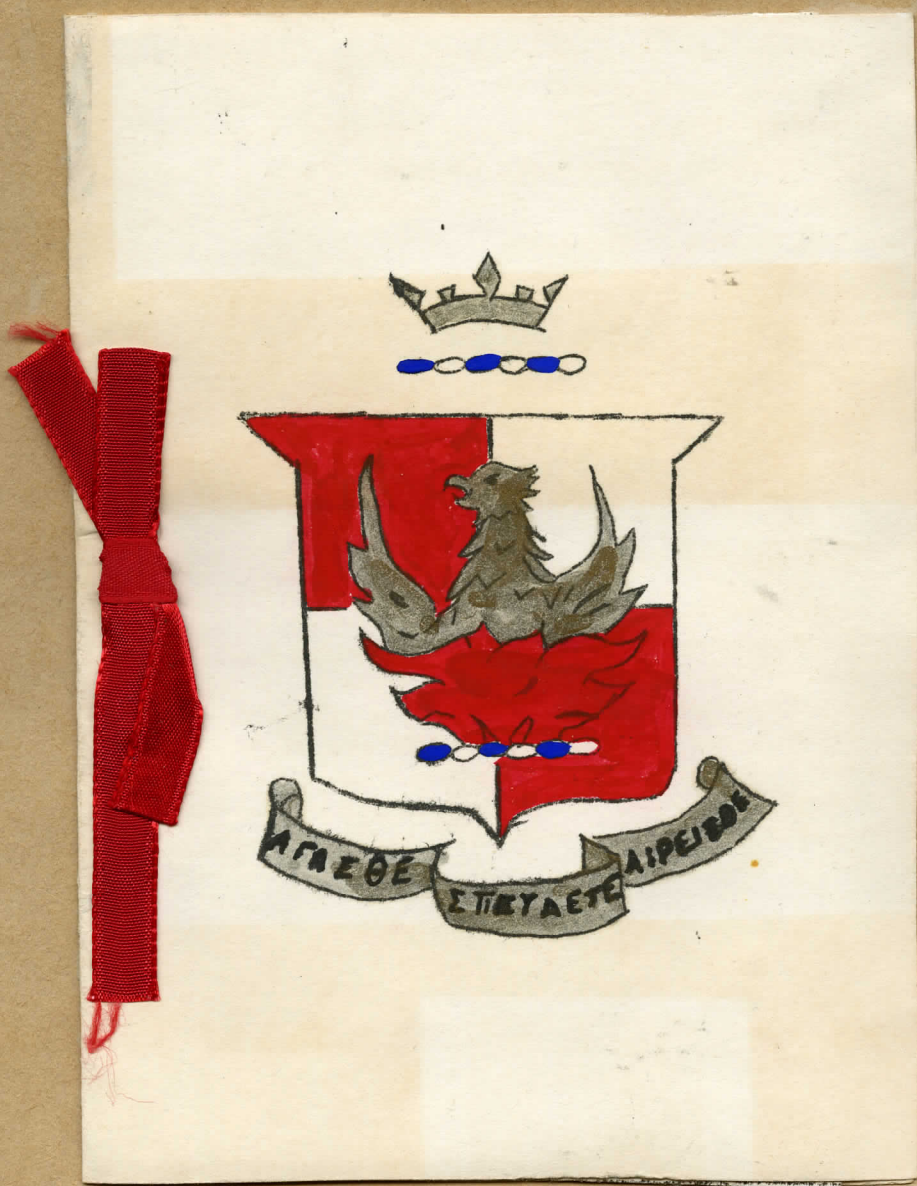

Harriet Hunt sang a Scottish ballad, "Mary Hamilton." She accompanied herself on the guitar.

Wanda Old did a dramatic reading. It was entitled "The Creation" by James Weldon Johnson.

Virginia Petty sang "Cry Me A River" and accompanied herself on the piano.

The judges were Henry Miller of Richmond, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson of Crewe, and Mrs. Virginia Price, of Farmville.

FOUNDERS' DAY

ONLY to a comparatively few persons in a given period of time is opened an opportunity to be a "Founder" of an organization, a movement, a force for good.

Behind these rare persons there is a vision and a purpose, and linked to these conditions is the force of timeliness.

As dedicated people work together to bring the vision and purpose to reality that others may share, timeliness fuses the bond.

That the founders of Alpha Sigma Alpha were rare people is truly evident as we regard what they brought into being sixty-one years ago. With its present alumnae members numbering many thousand, generations later, the underlying purpose that they believed in—Aspire, Seek, Attain—and the present program for carrying this purpose out is tangible evidence in the present day that they founded well.

We salute them, as well as we honor those who took on the continuing responsibility for leadership as it came from the hands of the five great women who brought Alpha Sigma Alpha into being.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with mixed emotions that we observe Founders' Day, 1962, for while honoring and remembering the five outstanding women who laid the foundation for the national organization that Alpha Sigma Alpha has become, we are at the same time saddened by the death during the past year of Calva Watson Wootton, one of these five women. However, as we reflect upon and mourn the loss of this foresighted woman, we cannot but be thankful that her high ideals and standards will be preserved and will continue to flourish in the organization that she helped to found.

Sherrill Hudlow Wed Saturday To Roger Suiter

Miss Sherrill Fisher Hudlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Hudlow, and Roger Norman Suiter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Suiter, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4 in the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. George D. Coffey officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of deluster satin. The molded bodice was fashioned with a scalloped portrait neckline of chantilly lace encrusted with seed pearls and long, pointed sleeves. Lace appliques embroidered in seed pearls were scattered over the front of the bouffant skirt and the chapel-length train. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a pillbox of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses, lily of the valley and ivy, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Bruce Evans Meigs of Fredericksburg was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Melmer of Beltsville, Md., cousin of the bride; Mrs. Donald Gray of Front Royal; Mrs. Walter H. Johnson of Richmond; and Miss Charlene Owen of Newport News.

Otis Belmont Harris Jr. of Virginia Beach served as his brother-in-law's best man. Usher were Phillip Barry Orndorff; Ernest J. Hubble Jr.; Bruce E. Meigs of Fredericksburg, brother-in-law of the bride; and Walter Hugh Johnson of Richmond.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception at Wiley House following the ceremony. The couple will reside in Danville upon their return from a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, Vacation Valley, and Echo Lake, Pa.

Mrs. Suiter, a graduate of Longwood College, Farmville, will join the faculty of George Washington High School, Danville, in the fall. Her husband, a graduate of Virginia Military Institute, is employed as a research chemist in Danville.

Miss Moody Wed To VMI Alumnus

BUENA VISTA — The marriage of Miss Shirley Marie Moody, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Franklin Moody and the late Mr. Moody, to William Adams Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Owen Weigand, took place Saturday at 8 p.m. in St. John's Methodist Church.

The Rev. Joseph Curry officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by Herbert Warren Decker, the bride wore a gown of pure silk organza. Imported alencon lace adorned the sweetheart neckline and a skirt which ended in a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was attached to rose buds of silk organza and seed pearls. She carried a crescent bouquet of white bridal roses and stephanotis.

Miss Evelyn Rebecca Reamy of Ashland was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Augustus Bell Jr. of Hampton and Miss Martha Lou McCormick. Catherine Lynn Baldrige, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. James Moorman Weigand, brother of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

John William Greene was best man. Ushers were Glenn Spurgeon Cunningham, Ronnie McCray Shaffer, William Augustus Bell Jr., Hampton; and Leonard Douglas Hill Jr., Richmond.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception in the social hall of the church.

Mrs. Wells, a graduate of Longwood College, Farmville, will join the faculty of the Buena Vista public schools in September. Mr. Wells, a graduate of Virginia Military Institute, also will join the faculty there.

The couple will be at home in Lexington after Aug. 25.

Miss Signe Young Is Bride

Marriage To Officer Is Saturday

Miss Signe Lancaster Young and Lt. Conrad Douglas Marechal were married in a double ring ceremony Saturday at 4 p.m. in the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Salem.

The Rev. Ronald Wesley Young, brother of the bride, officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rhupert Young of Roanoke; the bridegroom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Joseph Marechal, also of this city.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza mist over taffeta with re-embroidered Alencon lace trimming on the bodice, short sleeves and portrait neckline.

The bouffant skirt was highlighted in the rear with two wide rows of lace extending from the back bodice to the chapel train. A queen's crown of lace pearls and seed pearls held a fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a long cascade of white cymbidium orchids, white bridal roses and stephanotis.

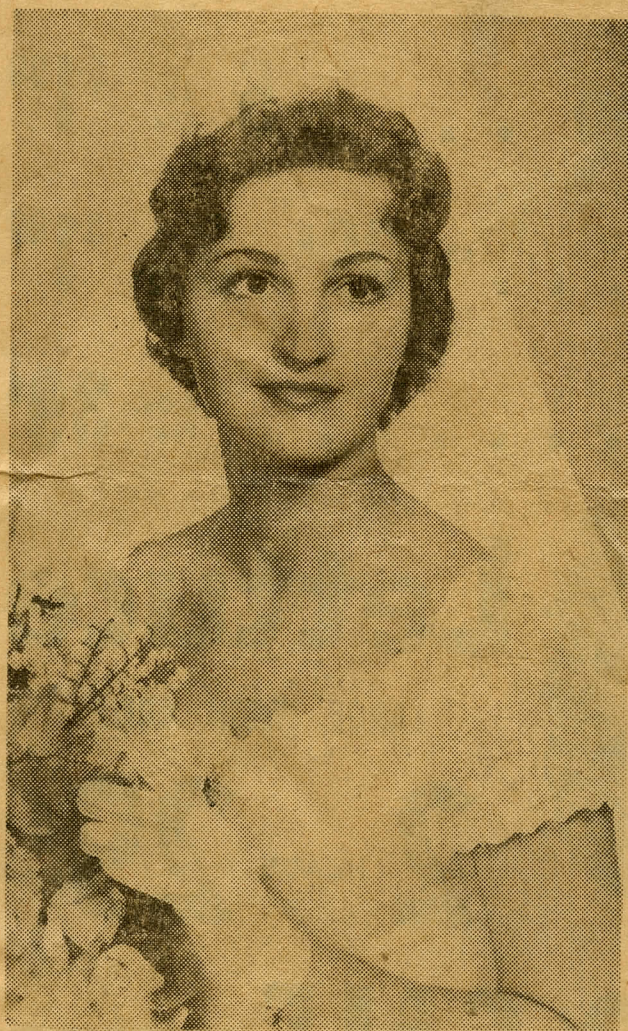

Miss Lucy Lee Oliver of Derrick City, Pa. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Ann Cundiff, Roanoke, and the bridegroom's three sisters: Miss Deanna Marechal, Miss Dulce Marechal and Miss Debra Marechal.

Flower girls were Rhonda Sue Young and Renee Young of Fincastle, nieces of the bride.

The bridegroom's father was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Beverly Young of Roanoke; the bridegroom's cousin, Joseph Marechal, Roanoke; and Richard Hardison, Salem; William Griggs Jr., Roanoke; Fritz Hart, Richmond and John Court, Martinsville.

The bride's parents gave a reception in the church social hall before the couple left for a wedding trip to the Homestead, Hot Springs. They will live at Fort Benning, Ga.

The bride is a graduate of Longwood College and will teach this fall in the Fort Benning Children's School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute and is an officer in the U.S. Army.

Held their annual business meeting at Mrs. H. C. Kayton's on St. Patrick's Day. Mrs. Bruce Spencer received an award for winning the most points during the year. Mrs. T. J. Fulcher, Jr., was second.

Seated at left is Mrs. J. H. Walmsley, newly elected vice president of the Nora Lancaster Garden Club, and Mrs. T. J. Fulcher, Jr., president. Standing from left are Mrs. Bruce Spencer, award winner, Mrs. H. C. Cunningham, Jr., treasurer, and Mrs. Jack Reed, secretary.

The annual Christmas party was held December 11 in the sorority room. We all exchanged gifts, enjoyed refreshments, and sang Christmas songs. The pledges decorated the room with the traditional Christmas tree and arrangements. The door was decorated with a pineapple which is the Hawaiian symbol of friendship. Everyone was thankful for the opportunity to get together in close companionship during the busy week before departing for the Christmas vacation.

CAMPUS HONORS

Kappa Delta Pi Initiates Members Recognizes Scholarship, Character

The Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi has recently initiated thirty-one new members. Kappa Delta Pi is the national honor society of education on campus. Its objectives include the recognition of scholarship, character, and service, as well as making contributions to the intellectual and social life of the college.

Membership is limited to those with at least junior standing who hold a position in the upper quintile of the student body. The officers are Charlotte McClung, president, Betty Howard, vice-president, Dana Brewer, secretary, Jeanie Kafer, treasurer, and Donna Arnold, historian. Mrs. Helen Savage is sponsor for the present membership of forty-five.

The initiates include two each from Concord and Lacrosse, one each from Lorton and Republican Grove, and two from out of the state. There are even elementary education majors, three mathematics majors, three business education majors, and nine English majors among the assortment of individual fields.

Variety of Majors

The new Kappa Delta Pi members are Cynthia Alcock, an elementary education major from Hampton; Betty Jane Alvis, an elementary-Spanish major from Concord; Jo Leslie Andrews, an elementary-English major from Farmville; Katherine Barker, an English-Spanish major from Portsmouth; and Martha Bergeron, an English major from Richmond.

Two more elementary education majors are Mary Bodine from Richmond and Beverly Jane Butler from Scottsville.

Also on the list are Margaret Cooke, an English major from Columbia; Anne Cordle, a history and social science major from Victoria; Rebecca Evans, a math major from Lacrosse; Dorothy Guthrie in elementary and social science from Republican Grove and Doris Harwell, a music major from Petersburg. Edna Mae Hudson from Lynchburg has combined elementary education and social science and Sandra Jamison is an elementary education major from Petersburg.

From Lorton comes Jean Leary who is in history and social science; from Hampton is Elaine Mancil, an elementary education and English major, from Arlington is Nancy Mowrey, a history and social science major. Marie Murphy from Halifax is an English-history major; Patricia Ogden is an elementary major from Amherst.

The three girls from Martinsville are: Alice Palmer, elementary education and French, Frances Shenel Brady, business education, and Nelda Shields, English. Elizabeth Perkinson from Lacrosse is in math and Pauline Perrow, English, is from Concord.

Out of State Members

The two out-of-state members are Bonnie Ramey from Timonium, Maryland, who has combined math and biology and Delores Watkins from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is in English and French. Betty Ann Rex is from Charlottesville and is a music education major. From Chatham and Danville come Lurleen Robertson and Melody Saunders who are physical education majors. Anne Snead is from Concord and is a home economics major. The total number of new members is completed with Betty Ruth Stimpson and Willie Wells from the Business Education Department.

Sorority Wins Two Prizes In Contest

The Alpha Chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, Longwood College, won both first and second prizes in this spring's Marlboro Pack Contest. This contest was open for entry to any groups or organizations on campus.

To win the prizes offered, it was necessary that a group have the largest collection of old cigarette packs.

During the past two years the "Alpha Sigs" had collected 10,000 cigarette packs. All collected packs were submitted by March 18, and on that same date, the members of AEA learned that their collection had been sufficient to win the stereo record player and the tape recorder.

Thompson Displays Cubistic Art In Exhibition Room Of Library

Now on display in the exhibit room of the Lancaster Library are paintings by Mr. Lewis O. Thompson. Mr. Thompson's paintings will be on display until the end of February. One of Mr. Thompson's paintings will be purchased by Longwood and it will be added to the college's collection of paintings by Virginia artists.

Mrs. Janice Lemen, one of Longwood's art instructors, said of Mr. Thompson's works, "Mr. Thompson's paintings can be classified stylistically as synthetic cubism in the tradition of Picasso, Braque, and Gris. Mr. Thompson confined still life shapes to the center of the picture and surrounded the center by planes and shapes which grew out of both the back and foreground materials."

Born in Augusta, Georgia, Mr. Thompson received his Bachelor of Fine Arts and Masters degrees from the University of Georgia. Mr. Thompson plans to take a leave of absence from the faculty of Hollins College next year in order to visit Florence for a year.

Reigning over the May Day festivities will be Queen Bobbi Cadow. May Court is not a new experience for Bobbi after representing the class of '64 both her sophomore and junior years. Bobbi is an Elementary Education major from Fredericksburg. Consuming most of her time at present is student teaching in the third grade at Drakes Branch Elementary School.

A member of Delta Zeta Social Society, Bobbi has also been very active in class functions. All four years found her working hard on Circus and numerous class projects.

The queen's court consists of Lynn Osteen as Maid of Honor, Marlene Armour, Suzanne Ballard, Margie Barnard, Janice Blowe, Meredith Cate, Kathy Dodge, Evelyn Gray, Amy Haley, Barbara Lewis, Wanda Old, Gail Paige, Connie Parkins, Mary Kay Richerson, and Carole Shrewbridge.

Chairman for the May Day activities is Judi Hackney. A resident of Nansemond County, Virginia, Judi is presently student teaching at Drakes Branch Ele-

"Neath Canvas Skies" Theme Of AKG's Circus For 1963

By Joan Lord

With circus music in the air, Alpha Kappa Gamma will present "Neath Canvas Skies" for Circus 1963.

General chairman for the fete is Betty Jean Russell and it is her duty to coordinate all aspects of Circus. Betty Jean presides at AKG meetings concerning Circus, secures a place for the midway, and secures the judges and usherettes among many other duties. Mary Ann Lipford and Margie Twilley are in charge of the skits. They set up rehearsal times and go over preliminary outlines of the skits to make sure there are no duplications.

In charge of publicity is Gay Taylor. Charlotte McClung is in charge of the midway. Lois Obenshain will be in charge of the animals and clowns. The preparations for the Circus Queen and her court as well as the Circus Assembly will be headed by Evelyn Gray.

This year's usherettes will be Ginger Groobey, Judy Hackney, Kathy Dodge, Winnie Walker, Caryl Hogg, Carol Gibson, Nancy Piland, and Julie Glass.

One Performance

There will be only one performance of the skits. All students are requested to attend the dress rehearsal if they wish to view them. On the night of the performance the members of the faculty, parents, alumnae, and townspeople will be seated first. If there is any additional space, then students will be seated. The reason for this is that there is an increase in enrollment this year and Jarman Hall cannot seat everyone that wishes to see the performance. There will be no crowding in the aisles as this is against all fire precautions. AKG requests that the students understand the problem and try to help them by attending the dress rehearsal.

Omits Parade

In previous years there has been a parade on the Saturday of Circus. However, it has been felt that too much time has been spent on decorating a float for such a short parade and because of this there will not be a parade this year. The emphasis has always been placed on the skit.

Since there will be no 100 per cent participation factor counted in the judging, the omission of the parade will not dampen the enthusiasm. Rather, it will allow more time for everyone to spend on the skit.

AKG urges the student body to attend the Longwood hockey game which will be played at the time previously occupied by the parade.

CIRCUS IN THE AIR

As time for circus nears, Margie Twilley, Evelyn Gray, Lois Obenshain, Betty Jean Russell, Mary Anne Lipford, Gay Taylor, members of AKG make plans.

Letters To Editor

Rex Welcomes New Students

Dear Editor:

As you embark on the first year of your Longwood voyage, I want to add a personal welcome to the many greetings you have already received, and to invite you to participate in the life of your Young Women's Christian Association. The Y.W.C.A. has contributed a great deal to the atmosphere which is distinctive at Longwood—an atmosphere of sincere friendliness and fellowship — of appreciation and regard for Christian values, of respect and honor for things spiritual as well as temporal. The Y.W.C.A. has become a major influence and part of our campus life because of its membership — a membership which embraces the entire student body.

Life at Longwood is rich and rewarding. While you are here you will study, learn, share, develop, laugh, cry, pray, and much more—in short, you will meet and experience life in its multitude of facets. Through the Y.W.C.A. you will find opportunity for spiritual growth. You will find that communion with God gives you a wide perspective in which to view life and meet it bravely and with love.

While you are here your mind and your heart will be seeking many things — knowledge, love, truth, purpose. But . . .

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you." (Matthew 6:33)

Yours in Christ,
Betty Ann Rex

BETTY ANN REX

Betty Ann has been an active worker in both her class and the school since her freshman year. She has been a member of the Westminster Fellowship, the Granddaughter's Club, and both the choir and madrigal singers.

For her outstanding leadership and scholastic achievement, Betty Ann has been elected to membership in Alpha Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta Pi, and Sigma Alpha Iota. She is also a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority.

This year Betty Ann was chosen by the student body to head the Young Women's Christian Association. She was also elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Much of her present time is spent working on her paper for the honors program. She is pursuing the topic, "a historical and musicological study of Thomas Jefferson's associations with music and musicians during the early period of his life up to his sojourn in Europe."

Chosen Princess

Senior To Represent Longwood In Apple Blossom Festival

Pretty to look at, talented, and a good scholar Betty Ann Rex, a senior, has been chosen by the faculty and administration to represent Longwood College in the annual Apple Blossom Festival. It will be held in Winchester, April 29-May 2.

Betty Ann started taking an active part in class and school activities in her freshman year and has continued her interest through her four college years. Elected vice president of her class, she became president when the student elected to that office failed to return at the beginning of the second semester. She has been a member of the Granddaughters' Club and of the Westminster Fellowship. During her years as a music major at Longwood College, she has belonged to the choir and madrigal singers, and has also been presented in several recitals by the Music Department.

"I've found college to be a full and enriching experience because of the various opportunities available. I have enjoyed entering into college activities and the association with my schoolmates, the faculty, and administration," the newly made princess said when interviewed.

The granddaughter of Mrs. George L. Rex and Mrs. H. E. Button, of Farmville, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex, Jr., of Charlottesville. Both her grandmothers and her mother, as well as a great aunt, are graduates of Longwood.

The brown-eyed brunette was taken into Alpha Kappa Gamma, a national honorary leadership fraternity last year, and elected to Kappa Delta Pi and Sigma Alpha Iota, all for her outstanding leadership and scholastic achievements. She is also a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, a social sorority.

In her sophomore year she won a contest with her song, "Joan of Arc." She has held various offices in her sororities, classes, and other college organizations to which she belongs. Betty Ann has also been a participant in the water pageants at the college. This year, she was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

She is presently working on a paper for the honors program on the topic "A Historical and Musicological Study of Thomas Jefferson's Associations with Music and Musicians during the Early Period of his Life up to His Sojourn in Europe."

About her selection as Apple Blossom Princess she commented, "I was surprised and felt greatly honored at finding I had been selected to represent Longwood College, and I am really excited about going. I am grateful for the opportunity afforded me which doesn't come to many girls."

Honors Program Lures Four Longwood Seniors

By Barbara Melton

The honors program was begun at Longwood in 1930 for the benefit of those students who wish to continue intensive study in a particular field under individual instruction. The student must be enrolled with the Honors Committee for two semesters, and upon completion of the paper, she will receive six semester hours credit. If the candidate passes an oral examination she will graduate with honors in her field.

Currently enrolled under this plan are four girls: Jo-Ann Cartwright, Betty Ann Rex, Jeanne Whitaker Claybough, and Betty Ann Atkinson.

Jo-Ann Cartwright is making a study of Andrew Johnson. The title of her paper is 'Andrew Johnson; Political Incompetent.' She maintains that "Andrew Johnson was totally imbued with the highest principles and goals. He concentrated on cultivating the disaffected elements of the South, and ended by alienating himself from those who could help him most. He was the politician's 'dream reformer' Andrew Johnson wanted to restore the South while the radicals wanted to reconstruct it."

Jo-Ann has gone through extensive research which has included work both here and in Washington, D. C. She read five reels of microfilm on loan from the Library of Congress which included some 2,000 of Johnson's letters and other documents. Reading was made difficult because these were films of Johnson's original correspondence.

Last summer she spent two weeks in Washington, D. C., where she worked every day in the Library of Congress. She has already submitted a rough copy of her paper to the Honors Board, and will later make two revisions.

Betty Ann Rex is pursuing a study of the topic, Jefferson and music. Her work will concern "a historical and musicological study of Thomas Jefferson's associations with music and musicians during the early period of his life up to his sojourn in Europe; including his personal training, performance, and musical experience; and an identification of his music as to publication, date, and time of ownership."

Betty Ann has made extensive use of the library at the University of Virginia, where she studied the original collection of Jefferson's music. She is planning a trip to Williamsburg

Johnson Wins Longwood Title, To Attend Virginia Pageant

Longwood held its annual "Miss Longwood" contest recently in Jarman Auditorium. Amid eager faces and anxious anticipation a queen was chosen. Mildred Smith Johnson, a 19 year old sophomore from Vinton, Va. became the new "Miss Longwood."

"Honey," as she is called by her friends, is a music major emphasizing voice and piano. For her talent she sang "One Kiss" by Sigmond Romberg. During an interview with Honey, she commented on the contest: "I am most grateful for the honor to represent Longwood College in the Miss Virginia Pageant. I was very excited and still find it hard to believe."

A second queen was chosen also. Ruth Ann Baxter, a 19 year old sophomore from Petersburg, was crowned "Queen Longwood." Ruth Ann is majoring in mathematics while at college.

For the talent competition, Ruth Ann portrayed Pinocchio as he changed from a wooden toy to a happy little boy. Ruth Ann said of the contest: "The Miss Longwood Contest was a most exciting event. The excitement for me was too much; I still can't believe it."

For each queen the judges chose an alternate. Miss Longwood's runner up is Kay Catron, a 20 year old sophomore from Pulaski. Kay did a pantomime and danced called "Honeybun" from the musical, "South Pacific." Cathie Dugan, a 19 year old freshman from Roanoke, is Queen Longwood's alternate. Cathie played "Malaquena."

Judging was based on the number of points given during personal interviews with the judges, bathing suit competition, a three-minute talent, an evening gown appearance, and an answering period of two questions.

The contestant receiving the highest number of points became Miss Longwood and the one with the second highest, Queen Longwood.

Miss Longwood will represent the college at the annual Miss Virginia Pageant where a contestant is selected to compete in the Miss America Pageant.

Queen Longwood will go to Pensacola, Florida in the month of June to represent the school at the Festival of Five Flags.

PINOCCHIO REIGNS!

After her own successful year as Miss Longwood, Jo Leslie Andrews crown new Miss Longwood Honey Johnson, during recent contest in Jarman. Ruth Ann Baxter will reign as Queen Longwood. Runners-up are Kay Catron and Cathie Dugan.

Swimming Group Begins Practice On Annual Show

Longwood's annual Water Pageant will be presented March 25-27. The participants have been selected and are now known as the Synchronized Swimming Group.

The Synchronized Swimming Group along with the H2O Club will present the water show. Practice is held each week and is already under way.

The new members of the Synchronized Swimming Group are Linda Barren, Dana Brooken, Lucy Flannagen, Lynn Gardner, Julie Glass, Jean Gould. Also, Lynn Howard, Kathy Kolva, Mary Long, Susan Lawler.

Also, Laura Lee Meyerhoffer, Gail Nolen, Rosalie Palumbo, Connie Parkins, Janice Smith, Arlene Steiner, Sue Stone, Betsy Stuart, Susan Williams.

Longwood Tennis Teams Active In LC Sports

Henrietta Gilliam and Ann Downey are the managers of tennis activities on campus. Henrietta is in charge of the varsity tennis team, and Ann is in charge of class tennis.

Class tennis which is now in progress, is one of the sports that contributes points to the Color Cup. The singles matches are now being played, and the second round should be completed within the next two weeks. The winner will add five points toward the Color Cup.

Varsity tennis practice usually starts about the first of March. Everyone is urged to try out for the team. Henrietta stated that no one should fear the word "varsity" when considering trying out.

Miss Heintz is the new varsity tennis coach. She is replacing Mrs. Harris who is attending the University of Tennessee, where she is studying for her master's degree.

The varsity team usually plays from six to eight matches with neighboring schools. Some of those schools are William and Mary, Lynchburg College, Madison College, Westhampton College and Mary Baldwin College. When the team visits other schools, they generally play three singles matches and two doubles matches.

Last year Longwood had two representatives in the Mid-Atlantic Collegiate Tennis Championships at Mary Baldwin. They were Henrietta Gilliam and Nancy Moorefield. The tournament lasted three days. Some of the best players in the nation participated. This was the first time that Longwood had representation in the tournament and it was quite an honorable experience.

Fall Rush Ends, Council Announces New Pledges

After a month and a half of rush, the Panhellenic Council announces the new pledges for each of the nine sororities on campus. This came at the end of the past week of Formal Rush.

Juniors Prepare Annual Occasion For Longwood

Plans and preparations are under way for the Junior Dance, which is to be held from 8:00 until 12:00 on February 29. The juniors have secured Johnny Houston and the Charmers to provide music for the occasion. The dance will be held in the downstairs dining hall, and the tickets will be $2.00 per couple.

Heading up the dance project is Amy Haley. Other chairmen are as follows: decorations chairman, Jackie Walker; invitations, Pam Gustafson; music, Nancy Knewstep; publicity, Wanda Old; tickets, Tot Sykes; and charerones, Sandra Craig.

Tickets will go on sale after the beginning of second semester.

Longwood senior Betty Ann Rex (left) and her sister, Carol Rex, are shown above making the lantern which Betty Ann will use in the traditional Lantern Parade Saturday night. Carol will also serve as her sister's "little sister." Betty Ann and Carol are the granddaughters of Mrs. George Rex, and Mrs. H. E. Button, both of Farmville.

Seniors Begin First Block Teaching

Many of our seniors have begun preparation in earnest for their chosen profession. The first block of student teachers have already begun their practice teaching in a number of Virginia schools.

Those teaching in the Danville area are Sally Barclay, Sandra Cowan, Gloria Dobyns, Norma Eudy, Frances Haga, Betty McFall, Joan Pritchett, Beverly Pruitt, Barbara Ramsey, Linda Rippey, Anne Snead, Jean Still, Sallie Williams, and Ola Worley.

Teaching locally are Cynthia Alcock, Janet Culpepper, Phyllis Mathews, Judy Melchor, Carol Nurney, and Mrs. Waddell.

Our Patrons

This year Alpha Chapter has six new patrons. They are Miss Virginia Wall, Mrs. Kathleen Cover, Mr. and Mrs. Billy S. Batts, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Rubley.

Miss Wall and Mrs. Cover are long-time members of ASA and our past advisors. Miss Wall is Longwood's Registrar and Mrs. Cover is a professor in the sociology department.

Mr. Batts, a biology professor who came to Longwood in 1962, can be found in the science building with a microscope in his hand and a smile on his face. Mrs. Batts teaches biology at Prince Edward Academy and also is kept busy at home with her two frisky boys, but still she finds time to have the Alphas over for informal get togethers.

Mr. Rubley is a professor in the geography department. He is new at Longwood this year, but has become well known to all the students. This could be due to the red and black "bug" that he drives around Farmville.

Pert Mrs. Rubley is an industrious homemaker with three children, two boys and a girl.

All of our patrons have been of immeasurable help to us this year. We hope that they enjoy being with us as much as we enjoy being with them.

Senior Picnic

Each year in the spring Alpha Chapter holds a picnic in honor of our seniors who will be graduating in June. This year we have six seniors graduating: Sandra Burnett, Susan Shepherd, Evelyn Gray, Betty Ann Rex, Mary Ann Debnam, and Alta Stricklin.

The picnic was scheduled for April 14 at Sydnor's Lake, but because of bad weather it was held in the recreation room of Cox Dormitory. The weather couldn't dampen ASA spirit however, and we all spent a very enjoyable afternoon. We presented gifts to all the seniors and honored Alta Stricklin, our retiring president, and Mrs. J. H. Wamsley, our advisor. We also welcomed Alpha Chapter's patrons and their families. We considered this year's picnic a wonderful success and thank Winnie Walker and Sandra Hamrick for their excellent planning of the food and entertainment.

Philanthropic Report

Alpha Chapter's philanthropic activities unfortunately were not as busy as we would have liked them to have been. Our family in Farmville which has always received a basket at Thanksgiving and Christmas is no longer here. We hope next year to have another family. Alpha Sigs did contribute to the Thanksgiving baskets collected by the College. Also the White Christmas conducted by the Y.W.C.A. was well supported by Alpha Chapter.

Plans have been discussed for a new philanthropic project for next year. Acting as hostess at the Community Hospital is one idea which has formerly been a philanthropic project for Alpha Chapter. Also, the idea of several members going to the Lynchburg Training School one Saturday of the month to entertain the patients or help in any other way has been discussed.

To Our Alums

We, the members of Alpha Sigma Alpha, extend to you, our alumni, a warm thank you for inspiring and helping us throughout the year.

MISS JUDY MATTHEWS
National Officer
Visits Sorority At Longwood College

Alpha Chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority at Longwood has just concluded four days of being hostess to Miss Judy Matthews, traveling secretary from the national offices of Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Miss Matthews, a member of the Beta Mu Chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha, finished at Henderson's State Teacher's College, Little Rock, Ark. As traveling secretary, her duties are to visit each chapter, to review the activities and duties of each officer and sorority as a whole. This includes rush, inspection, visiting, and relations between the chapter and the National Council.

Before her trip to Farmville, Miss Matthews visited other campuses in Pennsylvania, New York, Wisconsin, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Arizona. Her most recent stay was at Syracuse University where she was presiding officer for installation of the newest chapter, Gamma Theta. From Farmville, Miss Matthews will go to Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va.

Marriages

Couple Weds In Calvary

A ceremony conducted Nov. 23 at 4 p.m. united in marriage Miss Rose Ann Hubbard and Robert Randolph Draper.

It was performed at Calvary Baptist Church with the Rev. Harry Y. Gamble officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herman Hubbard. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Bernard Draper.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of jasmine white silk taffeta designed with molded bodice, little-girl sleeves and crescent neckline edged in re-embroidered Alencon lace.

The gently flared front skirt fell in clustered unpressed back pleats that formed a sweeping chapel train.

Her miniature crown of tiny taffeta flowers was attached to a pouf veil of French illusion; she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Miss Alta Rooth Stricklin of Arlington was the bride's honor attendant. Others were Miss Charlotte Campbell Little, Arlington, Miss Sharon Ann Bie-ler and Miss Jane Carol Mad-dox, both of Roanoke.

William Bernard Draper Jr. served his brother as best man. Ushers were John Crozier Draper, a brother of the bride-groom, Frank Herman Hub-bard Jr., brother of the bride, Silver Spring, Md.; Philip Rod-ney Cutright, Homer Lee Bart-ley and Richard Reynolds Beasley, all of Roanoke.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the social hall of the church. The couple left for a northern wedding trip.

The bride is a recent grad-uate of Longwood College.

The bridegroom attended Fork Union Military Academy and Virginia Polytechnic In-stitute and at present is a stu-dent at the University of Vir-ginia Extension.

How we love our dear old Alpha with the memories she has left
And we will ne're forget the high ideals she has set.
Many lasting friendships deepen and our hearts are so inspired
As we sing the songs we love so well of which we're never tired.
Together day by day we've shared along the way a happiness that'll
Last our whole lives through. Our hearts will never forget the Friendships that we've made, a feeling that is caught by only a few.

When we think of Alpha Sigma and the years of loyalty
Our hearts will be filled with love for our own
Sorority - - - for our own sorority.
