General Information

PROBLEMS OF CHOOSING A COLLEGE

Many people upon the completion of their high school courses have to make an important decision. They will enter the life of the world or they will continue their education in an institution of higher learning. Those who have found their high school work almost beyond their capacity will not find college work less difficult. But those who have been able to do the work required in the high school with a reasonable degree of effort should find that they can do the work required in college with about the same degree of effort. Those who have found high school activities interesting probably would find the activities of the college likewise interesting. The first thing that the high school graduate has to decide is whether or not he will continue on a higher level in a wider field the kind of life he has led in the high school.

If he should decide to continue his education in the college, he should then make a study of his capacities and interests and the opportunities offered for service in the various fields of life. After such a study of himself and the opportunities that are available and after deciding in what direction he wishes to travel, he should consider the kind of education that is best suited to his needs. If he has not quite decided what he intends to do in life but still wishes to continue his education in the meantime, he should attend some institution that supplies a liberal background in many fields. If he decides definitely to enter a particular profession, he should attend the type of institution that will enable him to make the necessary preparation for this profession. For instance, the student who expects to study medicine should enter an institution which enables him to get the best preliminary education preparatory to entering medical college. If on the other hand he expects to teach, he should enter an institution which will provide for him the kind of education that leads to the teaching profession.

PURPOSE OF THE TEACHERS COLLEGE

In some respects the teachers college is like any other college. Its primary business is to prepare teachers for various types of service in the high schools and the elementary schools. It is therefore a professional institution. But it is more than that. In order to be a professional institution dedicated to the training of teachers, it must also be an educational institution of broad perspective. Teachers need a general background in scholarship and social experience, as do the members of other professions.

The teachers college thus undertakes to help students to learn not only those things that are especially important for teachers but also other things that are important for educated people everywhere. It provides many courses in which the work is influenced by the particular type of teaching which the student is expected to enter. It provides for supervised practice teaching through which the student learns to teach by teaching and in consequence of which college courses become more meaningful and significant. It also provides for its students, even as do other colleges, courses in the fine arts, including literature, music, and art; foreign languages; mathematics; the natural sciences; history and the social sciences; philosophy and psychology.

The teachers colleges in Virginia are different from those in many other states in two important respects. First, whereas teachers colleges in some states are open to both men and women, in Virginia they are open during the winter session to women only. However, they are open to men in the summer, and a few men have received degrees from the teachers colleges of the State. Second, whereas in some teachers colleges only professional degrees leading to teaching are offered, the teachers colleges in Virginia offer also the A. B. and B. S. degrees which provide for an education in the liberal arts and sciences like that offered by the liberal arts colleges. In other words, the teachers colleges are, for the women of the State, both professional institutions for teachers and liberal arts colleges. They are open to those qualified young women who wish to teach and also to others who wish to continue their general education in the liberal arts before preparing definitely for a profession. Furthermore, many young women who expect to enter the field of business, religious education, social welfare work, nursing, and library work may make a selection of courses offered that will provide for them the necessary preparatory training in these fields. In some instances different curricula are provided in such fields. But whether an outline of work is provided for a given occupational group or not, every student can with the help of the faculty and college authorities usually get whatever combination of courses she needs preparatory to practically any profession.

THE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE AT FARMVILLE

The State Teachers College at Farmville represents the accumulation of educational efforts for more than a hundred years. Martin's Gazeteer of Virginia, published in 1835, records that there was at the time of the writing of the book, "1 female school" in Farmville. This was succeeded by the "Farmville Female Seminary" (called on its corner stone "Farmville Female Academy"), incorporated March 5, 1839, and changed by amendment March 21, 1860, to the "Farmville Female College." This college, under church and private management, enjoyed a long period of successful work, directed from 1873 to 1882 by Dr. Paul Whitehead and from 1882 to 1884 by the Misses Carter, of Mecklenburg County. April 7, 1884, the property passed from the hands of its joint stock company to the town of Farmville, which on the same day deeded it to the State of Virginia as the site of the "Female Normal School." The sole purpose of the College then became that of supplying teachers for the public schools of the State. For more than sixty years the main purpose of this institution has been to supply the public schools of the State with adequately educated teachers.

Purpose of the College

The constant progress of the State and the school system has been reflected in some variation in the nature of the educational activities of the institution from time to time. The growth and development of the College have extended its services in many forms. But the abiding purpose for which the institution was founded remains today as clear to the administration and faculty as in the past. The primary aim is to supply the elementary and secondary schools of the State, whether in the cities or the rural communities, with the best possible teachers. Although this objective emphasizes those qualities and traits that are of special significance in the field of teaching, it involves also such widely recognized values as good health, citizenship, character, and scholarship, which are desirable for people in all occupations.

Such a conception of teacher-education as the primary aim of the college emphasizes the importance of both curricular and extra-curricular activities, and it implies constant attention to three different kinds of education in planning and developing curricula and courses. General education, which widens the area of the common interests and concerns of all the students, is indispensable; professional education, which distinguishes teacher-education institutions in general from other educational institutions, is essential; and specialized or vocational education, which prepares students for different specialized fields, is likewise indispensable in a comprehensive educational program. Some courses place special emphasis on general education, other courses place special emphasis on professional education and still other courses place special emphasis on specialized education. Most courses give some attention to all three aspects, but the relative emphasis given to general education, professional education, and specialized education varies in the case of different courses as well as in the case of different curricula.

Historical Stages of Development

In the very beginning this college represented the response of far-sighted educational statesmen to the needs of the public school system. The first legislature to assemble after the adoption of the post-bellum constitution established on July 11, 1870, a system of public schools. For twelve years or more the conduct of the schools was entrusted to such teaching forces as were found ready at hand. During this period it became evident to educational leaders that, if the returns were to be in any wise commensurate with their cost and the high mission of the system, some provision had to be made for the proper training of teachers. To meet this demand the Legislature, on March 7, 1884, passed an act establishing a State Female Normal School. In October of the same year the school was opened at Farmville with 110 students enrolled.

Since that time there have been three important landmarks in the history of the institution. In 1914 the Legislature changed the name to State Normal School for Women at Farmville and in January, 1924, to the State Teachers College at Farmville. In 1916 the College was authorized by the Virginia Normal School Board to offer a four-year curriculum leading to the B. S. degree in Education. In 1935 it was authorized by the Virginia State Board of Education to offer courses leading to the standard A. B. degree, and in 1938 to offer courses leading to the standard B. S. degree.

Business Education

In January, 1938, the State Board of Education authorized the College to offer curricula in Business Education. Two curricula are provided in this field; one four-year curriculum leading to the B. S. degree in Business Education and to teaching commercial subjects in the high school and to positions in the field of business; and one two-year curriculum leading to clerical positions.

National Standing

As a teacher education institution the College has a professional rating that places it in the very highest rank. It is a member of the American Association of Teachers Colleges and the National Association of Business Teachers Training Institutions. It is a member of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, which is the highest rating agency in the South. It is a member of the Association of Virginia Colleges. The privilege of granting the standard B.A. degree and the standard B.S. degree places it on an equal footing with the liberal arts colleges for women.

Location and Convenience

The College is situated in the heart of a progressive and thriving town. Farmville is the business and educational center of Southside Virginia. It has good schools, hotels, and churches, and the Southside Hospital is located here. It is on the Norfolk and Western Railroad fifty miles from Lynchburg and sixty-five miles from Petersburg and Richmond and at the intersection of highways leading north and south, east and west. Good railroad service, bus lines, and excellent highways place Farmville in direct connection with the life activities of the State.

Basis of Low Expenses

Virginia students do not have to pay tuition. The expenses for them for a nine-month session are $400.50*, while tuition charges of $50 a semester make the expenses for students from outside this State $500.50*. This relatively low cost to the student arises from the effort of the State to bring within reach of worthy young women the advantages of a liberal education and supply its public schools with adequately educated teachers.

Association of Alumnae

The Association of Alumnae serves both the college and its former students. It keeps the alumnae informed of the activities of the College and keeps the College informed as to the problems and needs of the alumnae. The Association of Alumnae is a kind of clearing house through which the alumnae and the College can work together to their mutual benefit. It also serves to keep former students of the College interested in one another by organizing them into local associations and bringing them back to the College on special occasions.

The Association operates in many ways. It keeps a record of former students, holds reunions, aids worthy students through the Fraser Memorial Loan Fund, Cunningham Memorial Loan Fund, Jennie Masters Tabb

*See Footnote—page 34.

Memorial Fund, and organizes local chapters of alumnae in counties and cities. It makes available the college news through The Rotunda, the weekly publication of the College and the Alumnae Magazine, and brings to the attention of the College the achievements and needs of individual alumnae. It holds one annual meeting at the College on Founders Day in March and another in Richmond during the meeting of the Virginia Education Association in November.

COLLEGE STANDARDS

Certain standards are recognized by the administration, the faculty, and the student body as a means to the achievement and maintenance of high scholarly and professional ideals. Reasonable requirements for entrance, for a diploma, or for a degree are necessary to secure the recognition given the graduates of this College as teachers in the State and as graduate students in other institutions. Likewise the high standards of good citizenship in cooperative community life are responsible, in part at least, for the spirit of devotion which the alumnae invariably manifest for their Alma Mater.

The College Year

The college year consists of a winter session, including two semesters of 18 weeks each, and a summer session of eight weeks beginning in 1948. The student may enter in the summer or at the beginning of either semesters of the winter session. However, most students will find the beginning of the first semester in September the most convenient time for them to enter college.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

The College now offers curricula leading to the B.S. degree and the B.A. degree. The curricula leading to the B.S. degree lead to teaching in the elementary school, to teaching in the secondary school, to teaching home economics and business subjects. For those students who are not interested in teaching, it leads to specialization in mathematics, science, and the social sciences. The curriculum leading to the B.A. degree leads to teaching in the high school for those who are preparing to teach, and for those who are not preparing to teach it leads to specialization in the humanities, including the fine arts and literature, history, philosophy, and the foreign languages.

All curricula leading to teaching lead also to the Collegiate Professional Certificate, which is the highest certificate offered by the State Board of Education. Holders of the B.S. degree and B.A. degree may teach all subjects for which they have credit for 12 semester hours of college work, except in the case of certain special subjects, and may also teach in the sixth and seventh grades. They may teach in the lower grades, provided they secure credit for ten semester hours of college work in courses designed especially for teachers preparing to teach in the elementary school. Students completing curricula not designed for teachers are, nevertheless, entitled to the Collegiate Certificate.

The college also offers three two-year curricula. The two-year curriculum in Business Education leads to clerical positions. The two-year curriculum leading to nursing and dentistry provides preliminary education for students who expect to enter these fields. The two-year curriculum in medical technology prepares for entering schools of technology accredited by the American Association of Technologists.

Changes in Requirements

Progressive development in the teachers college forces constant revision of curricula. In every new catalog some improvements are indicated. When no hardship is imposed on the student because of changes and when the facilities of the college permit, the student is expected to meet the requirements of the latest catalogue. In this way the student may realize the benefits of improvement in her curriculum that she would be unable to realize were she to follow the curriculum tabulated in the catalogue at the time she entered college.

Admission Requirements

Students are admitted to the College in four different ways:

1. They may enter as freshmen upon presentation of a certificate of graduation from a public or private high school accredited by the State Department of Education in Virginia or the accepted accrediting agency of any other state. The State Board of Education has ruled that preference be given to Virginia students of academic and personal qualities of a high order who desire to teach.

2. They may enter as freshmen by passing an examination given by the College, by the State Department of Education, or by the College Entrance Examination Board. Those who wish to take such an examination should make arrangements with the Registrar of the College before the beginning of the fall term.

3. Experienced teachers who cannot meet the usual entrance requirements may be admitted, provided they hold an elementary certificate and have taught successfully for five years or longer.

4. Upon transferring to this institution from other state teachers colleges and other recognized institutions of higher learning students are given a fair equivalent in credit for the courses they have taken, provided an honorable discharge is presented and the entrance requirements of the college are satisfied. Not more than fourteen semester hours of correspondence work and not more than thirty semester hours of extension and correspondence work may be credited toward a degree.

With this catalogue is included a blank to be used in making application for admission. Applicants should apply at as early a date as possible. Students wishing to transfer credits from another college should have the registrar or dean of their college send to the Dean of this college a full statement of their credits. Students returning to this college after an interruption of their college work are expected to conform to the requirements of the latest catalogue. A deposit of $10.00 must be made with the application for admission. This will be credited on the fees for the first semester. This deposit will be returned only in case the student is refused admission.

Deferred Exams

Deferred examinations from the first semester should be removed within 30 days after the beginning of the second semester. Deferred examinations from the second semester or Summer session should be removed in September, on the two days preceding the date set for the return of upperclassmen to the college.

Graduation Requirements

For the B. S. and B. A. degrees the College makes three general requirements. The student must complete one of the regular curricula; she must have a minimum of 126 semester hours credit; she must attend the college for at least one session consisting of two semesters.

Credits and Courses

The credit hour, abbreviated as credit, is the "semester hour." Two credits are equal to one standard session hour. In general, a credit means one class period a week for one semester. For instance, a class meeting three hour periods a week for one semester gives three credits. Laboratory periods two hours in length give the same credit as lecture periods one hour in length. In some cases where the nature of the work requires less preparation than the standard, as in the case of many courses in physical education, the courses may carry only one or two semester hours' credit.

The courses numbered between 100 and 200 are designed for first-year students; those between 200 and 300 for second-year students; those between 300 and 400 for third-year students; and those between 400 and 500 for fourth-year students. However, first- and second-year courses are interchangeable and third- and fourth-year courses are interchangeable, but not more than twenty-seven credits in courses numbered below 300 are allowed in the third and fourth years.

The achievement of a student in her courses is indicated by the marks she receives. The significance of these marks is shown below:

A—Excellent	B—Good	C—Average
D—Fair	E—Conditioned	F—Failure
	I—Incomplete

The lowest passing mark is D. However, for a degree or a diploma a student must make a general average of C on all of her college work. Sometimes it is necessary to repeat certain courses or take additional courses in order to bring one's general average up to this requirement.

Student Load

The normal schedule of the student during any semester is sixteen credits, the number of class hours varying with the number of laboratory periods. By special permission the student may be allowed to carry as much as nineteen credits provided she is in good health, has attained a record during the preceding semester that is satisfactory, and needs an extra credit to increase quality points or to meet minimum requirements for graduation.

Honors and Privileges

The Dean's List which is open to all students who carry the required load of work recognizes superior scholarship. To be placed on the Dean's List a student must have an average of B+ (2.25 quality points) on all work taken for the semester with no grade below a C. The student on this list may be absent from classes when she can use her time in ways that seem to her more profitable. A student may be removed from the Dean's List if her mid-semester grades do not meet the required standard.

Two honor lists will be announced at the annual commencement exercises. Those students who average nearer A than B on four years' work will be graduated "With High Honor". Those who average B or better but nearer B than A on four years' work will be graduated "With Honor".

Citizenship Requirements

The long tradition manifested in the cooperative spirit of the administration, the faculty, and the student body makes strict rules and regulations almost obsolete. Most students appreciate the privileges and opportunities which the State has generously provided and conduct themselves as becomes citizens who wish to make the best of their opportunities and allow others to make the best of theirs. The student without the disposition to do her duty and without proper regard for others does not fit into the life of the community and does not measure up to the high ideals of the State in the establishment and maintenance of the college.

The Dean of Women and her assistants keep in touch with the daily life of the students, and provide for proper chaperonage when necessary. Whenever a student is found failing in her work, neglecting duty, or exercising an unwholesome influence on others, every effort is made to diagnose the case. No student can be suspended or expelled by the student government without the approval of the President of the College.

SERVICE TO STUDENTS AND ALUMNAE

The College undertakes to provide several types of service to its students and alumnae. Some of the more important of these consist of keeping records, transferring credits, securing certificates, providing educational guidance, and securing positions.

Keeping Student Records

A complete record of every student's work is kept in the Registrar's Office. At the end of each semester every member of the faculty reports to the Registrar the record of the achievement of each student in each of his courses. As soon as possible thereafter the parents or guardians are sent the complete record of the student's work for the semester.

Transferring Credits

The College not only keeps the record of students on file but it makes provision for sending on demand transcripts of such records to other institutions. For instance, the student, who for any reason wishes to have her credits transferred to another college or university or to another state for purposes of securing a teaching certificate there, informs the Registrar. Her credits are then transferred immediately.

Providing Guidance

The College has provided a systematic guidance program. It is in charge of a general committee whose chairman, the Dean, serves as consultant in all guidance activities. At the beginning of the freshman year students are divided into small groups. Each group is assigned to a counselor who is a member of the guidance committee. This counselor remains for those students in his group a consultant, helper, and friend throughout their four years in the College. During the first week of the college year the guidance committee conducts an orientation course for freshmen. In this way the beginning students are informed in regard to all phases of the College and are assigned to their respective counselors. During the year each counselor studies the needs of the students assigned to him and consults with them as a group from time to time. He also serves as consultant for each student in personal and educational matters. The guidance program is centralized in the general guidance committee, but practically every member of the college staff has some guidance responsibility. Plans are being made for strengthening the entire guidance program through the use of tests and measurements, through the preparation of a folder of information about each student, and through studies of each individual student by members of the faculty.

Obtaining Certificates

All certificates to teach are issued by the State Board of Education. Upon completion of the prescribed course of study the Registrar sends a transcript of the student's work to the State Board of Education, and the certificate is sent directly to the student.

Securing Positions

The College maintains an employment service for the benefit of its students and alumnae. Notices of vacancies are secured from superintendents, principals, supervisors, and alumnae. The character of a position and the qualifications of available graduates are given careful study, and the best person in the estimation of the authorities is recommended.

In order to secure the best possible service administrative officials should state clearly the character of positions to be filled, and the alumnae needing help should state clearly their needs and promptly make known their acceptance of positions or change in positions.

EXPENSES

The vast majority of the students are boarding students and live on the campus. Excellent provisions are made for boarding students in the dormitories and in the dining room. Each dormitory room is supplied with single beds, mattresses, and other necessary furniture. All buildings are supplied with modern conveniences, with an abundance of hot and cold water and plenty of bathrooms. The dining room and kitchen are furnished with modern equipment and conveniences. Trained and experienced managers are in charge of the dormitories, kitchen, and dining room. Only the best quality of foods is used, and all laundry work is done in a modern laundry owned by the College. The price of board is †$137.25 a semester. This includes board, room, and laundry.

Expenses of Day Students

There are some students who do not live in the College. Most of these students live in the community in the homes of parents or relatives. The same educational opportunities are offered the day students that are offered the boarding students. But they are expected to pay only the laboratory fees and a regular college fee of $63 a semester.

Expenses of Boarding Students

The expenses of students are light compared with the expenses in many other types of educational institutions. This is due to several factors. First, the student pays only for the cost of the services she receives, and no profit is realized by the institution. Second, food and supplies are purchased in quantities by the State at the lowest possible cost. Third, no tuition is required of Virginia students.

†See Footnote—page 34.

The tuition is $50 per semester for out-of-State students. The large majority of the students are from the State of Virginia and live on the campus. For this group the expenses are as follows:

Expenses for Nine-Month Session

†Board, $137.25 each semester.....	$274.50
College fees (except laboratory fees), $63.00 each semester.....	126.00
†Total for the session of nine months.....	$400.50

Laboratory fees vary with different departments and are not indicated in the above tabulation. All students from without the State are charged a tuition fee of $50 per semester. Board includes room, and laundry for students living on the campus.

Ration Book Requirements

In accord with the requirements of the War Price Rationing Board, each student, on arrival, must turn all her War Ration Books containing stamps designated for the acquisition of any rationed food, over to the Business Manager of the College.

Method of Payments

All fees for the semester are paid before entering classes. Board is payable by the semester in advance. For those who find it more convenient, board and college fees may be paid in four installments of $100.13 each, payable in advance. Students are not allowed to register for any semester at the College until all previously incurred college expenses have been paid or adequately secured. The student is expected to pay her own bills. Consequently, parents should make checks for all fees and board payable not to the treasurer of the College but to the student. No credit for college work may be given to any student for a diploma, a teacher's certificate, or for transfer purposes until all financial obligations to the College, other than student loans, have been paid.

†Because of the uncertain conditions prevailing with respect to the cost of food supplies, and of food services, the State Teachers College at Farmville reserves the right to change its rates for table board at any time throughout the year to meet such additional costs.

Method of Refunds

A student withdrawing within ten days after registering shall have refunded in full all fees except the sum of $10.00 to cover cost of registration and her name shall be stricken from the rolls.

If she withdraws or is dropped from the rolls for any cause after the tenth day of the term and before the middle thereof, her fees shall be returned pro rata.

If she withdraws or is dropped from the rolls for any cause after the middle of any term no refund shall be made for that term except in case of sickness, when the refund shall be prorated upon certificate of the college physician or other reputable medical practitioner.

In any case a minimum charge of $10.00 shall be made to cover the cost of registration.

A student withdrawing from college before the end of a term will be charged board for the time actually in residence at the monthly, weekly, or daily rate of pay as the case may be.

Guests

Students entertaining guests in the College dining hall are charged fifty cents for each meal. The crowded condition of the dormitories makes it inconvenient to have over-night guests. It is not best for guests or parents to request over-night entertainment in students' rooms therefore.

Graduates or former students of the College are always welcome, and are not charged for meals or accommodations for a period not exceeding two days. Those who remain for a longer period may secure meals and room accommodation at the rate of $3.00 a day. Due to the very limited facilities available for guests in the dormitories, it is requested that the Dean of Women be notified in advance of a contemplated overnight visit to the College by an alumna.

FINANCIAL AID TO STUDENTS

Some students are unable to defray all of their expenses without some financial assistance. There are two general types of aid available to students: Work scholarships and loan funds. In some instances the administration of loan funds is specified. In all other cases applications should be made to the President of the College. Unless otherwise specified all loans bear 4% interest.

College Work Program

A limited number of scholarships are available for students who need assistance. Those who receive this aid help in the dining room, in the college library, in the training school, and in various departments of the college. Applications for these scholarships should be made to the President of the College before June 1.

United Daughters of the Confederacy Loan Fund

The Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has established the Kate Noland Garnett Loan Fund. This loan amounts to $150 and is granted to a sophomore, junior, or senior who is a lineal descendant of a Confederate soldier. Other scholarships or loans may be available. Applications should be made to Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant, Chairman, Committee on Education, Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Chatham, Virginia.

Daughters of the American Revolution Loan Fund

The Daughters of the American Revolution have established a student loan fund for the aid of worthy students in Virginia colleges. Not more than $300 is available for any one institution, and no student may borrow more than $300, or more than $150 in one session. This loan is available only to juniors and seniors.

The Robert Fraser Memorial (The Virginia Normal League) Loan Fund

The Virginia Normal League organized by Dr. Robert Fraser in 1899 as a means of establishing a student loan fund has been changed in name to the Robert Fraser Memorial Loan Fund. This fund has been maintained in times past by annual membership dues of one dollar, and by voluntary contributions. Today the return of loans is the chief source from which loans are made to students now making application for help from this organization. Miss Ottie Craddock is Secretary of this loan fund and it is to her that all payments on past loans should be made. Applications for help from this fund should be made to the President of the College.

Cunningham Memorial Loan Fund

The alumna of the College who were graduated during the administration of Dr. John A. Cunningham, from 1886 to 1896, raised a fund, intending to establish a scholarship in memory of his faithful and loving service to them and to the State, feeling that the most fitting tribute that could be paid him would be the effort to give to those who are unable to obtain it for themselves the training for the work to which he devoted his life. When this fund amounted to $1,000 it was changed from a scholarship to a loan fund.

State Student Loan Fund

The College has a loan fund, which has been appropriated by the State. Not more than $200 per session is granted to any one student.

Mu Omega Loan Fund

This fund was established in 1930 by the Mu Omega Sorority for the purpose of helping students who need financial assistance in order to pursue their college course.

Alpha Phi Sigma Loan Fund

This fund was established in 1931 by Alpha Phi Sigma Society. Loans are made to students who need financial assistance in their college course.

Gamma Theta Loan Fund

This fund was established by Gamma Theta Sorority, in March, 1934, at the Golden Anniversary of the College. Its purpose is to assist worthy students who need help in their college expenses.

Gamma Theta Alumnae Loan Fund

This fund was established by the Gamma Theta Sorority Alumnae Chapter on March 21, 1936, at the Silver Anniversary of the sorority. This fund is dedicated to Dr. Jarman and Alma Mater as a testimony of loyalty and appreciation.

Tri-Sigma Loan Fund

This fund was established by Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority, at the Golden Anniversary of the College in March, 1934, for helping worthy students who need financial aid in order to complete their college course.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Loan Fund

This fund was established by the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority March 6, 1937, for the benefit of deserving students who need financial help.

The Jennie Masters Tabb Memorial Fund

The alumnae and friends of Jennie Masters Tabb, Registrar of the College and secretary to the president from 1904-1934, established in 1935 a loan fund in her memory. This fund is to be used to aid worthy students.

Junior Woman's Club Loan Fund

This fund was established by the Farmville Junior Woman's Club in 1938. Its purpose is to assist worthy local students who need help in their college expenses.

Pi Kappa Sigma Loan Fund

This fund was established by Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority, March, 1939, for helping worthy students who need financial aid in order to complete their college course.

Dramatic Club Loan Fund

This fund was established by the Dramatic Club, March, 1940, for helping worthy students who need financial aid in order to complete their college course.

Alpha Sigma Tau Loan Fund

This fund was established by the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority in March, 1942, for helping worthy students who need financial aid to complete their college course.

The J. L. Jarman Loan Fund

The Norfolk Chapter of the Alumnae Association established in 1942 a loan fund in honor of Dr. J. L. Jarman. This fund is to be used to aid worthy students.

Zeta Tau Alpha Loan Fund

Zeta Tau Alpha, which was founded at State Teachers College, Farmville, in 1898, has established a student loan fund honoring the memory of one of its founders, Maud Jones Horner. The fund is used to aid deserving seniors. Loans are interest free.

Mary White Cox Memorial Loan Fund

This fund was established in 1945 as a memorial to Miss Mary White Cox by a gift from an alumna of the College. It is to be used as a means of aiding worthy students.

Carrie Fowles Memorial Loan Fund

This fund was established in 1945 by the will of Mrs. Lula Bradshaw Turpin in memory of Carrie Fowles, who was a student at the College in 1889. It is to be used as a means of aiding worthy students who need some assistance.

The Mary White Cox Memorial Scholarship

The Prince Edward County Chapter of Alumnae will award to an outstanding girl graduating from the Worsham High School or the Farmville High School in June, 1947, the sum of $50.00 to be applied on her expenses at the College for the session of 1947-48.

Prince Edward Chapter Alumnae Loan Fund

This fund was started as a branch of the Virginia Normal League. For years many Prince Edward County girls received assistance from this fund without interest. Loans are made now at a small rate of interest. Applications for loans should be made to Mrs. W. J. Sydnor, Farmville, Virginia.

The Knights Templar Educational Foundation

This Loan Fund was established by the Knights Templar of Virginia for the aid of worthy students. It makes loans to juniors and seniors, sons or daughters of Masons residing in Virginia, of not more than $225.00 per year for each or either of those two years. Interest is charged at the rate of 5% per annum beginning July 1st after graduation or after leaving college, whichever is earlier. For further information write to Mr. W. Norvell Woodward, Secretary-Treasurer, 4528 West Seminary Avenue, Richmond 22, Virginia.

PHYSICAL EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES

The buildings and equipment of the College have been provided and arranged primarily from the point of view of their usefulness and convenience. In size, number, and relation to one another the buildings give a pleasing effect because they fit in a well conceived plan and serve the purpose for which they were designed. The whole plant is compact rather than scattered. The various structures are so related by connecting links that the student hardly knows when she goes from one building to another. Such an arrangement has the advantage of linking the student activities and the classroom work closely together. It enables students to move from one part of the College to another without exposure in bad weather. It saves time in that the classrooms, the laboratories, the assembly halls, the dining hall, and the dormitories are close together, and walking long distances is unnecessary. It also gives the effect of the comfort and security of a well organized home. The furniture and draperies throughout the network of buildings are beautiful because they fit in a larger pattern that is satisfying.

The Administration Offices

The main building faces the north and is situated about one hundred feet from High Street. It is a three-story brick structure, extending the full length of two blocks giving the appearance of a continuous building. There are, in fact, five distinct buildings or wings which face the street. About midway between the Student Building, or the right wing, and the Arts Building, or left wing, is the main entrance to the Rotunda and the Reception Hall. Down the Hall on the left of the Rotunda on entering are the offices of the President, the Business Manager, the Treasurer, the Dean, the Executive Secretary, the Registrar, and the Alumnae Office. Down the hall to the right on entering are the offices of the Home Department and the parlors.

The Dormitories

The dormitories consist of the second and third floors of the main group of buildings, including the five wings, and Cunningham Hall, which is a three-story brick structure, southwest of the main building. Every building is supplied with steam heat, electric lights, and hot and cold water with ample bathrooms on each floor. Every room is supplied with single beds and other necessary furniture. The rooms in Cunningham Hall are grouped in suites of two with connecting baths. Each building is supervised by a trained matron who makes it homelike and comfortable.

The Dining Hall

The dining hall is located at the rear of the main entrance and is entered from the Rotunda. In this building are located the dining room, kitchen, bakery, refrigerating plant, and a recreation hall.

The dining room is in the form of a Maltese cross and will seat 1,000 students on the main floor, and 100 students in each of the two balconies. The kitchen and bakery to the rear of the dining room are modern in every respect with a capacity to meet the needs of the student body. The refrigerating plant on the ground floor provides for the proper preservation of foods. The recreation hall also on the ground floor is convenient for social gatherings after meals and on other occasions.

Auditoriums

In the Student Building, which constitutes the east wing of the main building considered as a unit, is an auditorium which is used by the Young Women's Christian Association and for public lectures. In the building west of the Student Building and parallel with it is the general assembly hall.

Student Health Service

The Student Health Department upholds the highest standards of physical and mental health and emphasizes the prevention of sickness. An excellent health record has been maintained here because of the close cooperation between the college physician and other departments that are in a position to assist. The Physical Education Department works in close cooperation with the medical department with a view to promoting physical fitness and correcting defects as well as the development of health consciousness.

Medical Certificate. An applicant for entrance is required to submit a medical certificate from the family or other physician stating that she is in good health and not handicapped with physical defects that will permanently disqualify her for college work.

Entrance Examination. Soon after a student enters school she is given an examination by the college physician to determine her fitness for the various activities in the physical education program. The results of this examination are given to the Physical Education Department. Every girl is required to take some form of physical exercise.

Periodic Examination. Periodic examinations are given to watch the progress of cases limited in activities by the entrance examination.

Special Examination. Special examinations are given when called for by the physical education department.

Infirmiry Service. Students needing medical attention are treated in the infirmiry which is a separate building but connected with the main building. The infirmiry is well equipped and can accommodate more students than normally require medical attention at any one time. The daily sick call is held at a time which is most convenient to the students. The infirmary gives a twenty-four hour service, which takes care of the great majority of conditions needing medical attention. The College does not assume responsibility for any medical attention except that given by the college physician and by the nurse at the college infirmary. Consultants, specialists, dental work, operations, hospitalization, private nurses, special prescriptions, x-rays and other laboratory work, etc., is at the expense of the student.

The college physician gets in touch with the parents immediately in case of serious illness.

The Southside hospital is located a few blocks from the College in Farmville. It is well equipped and in charge of a capable staff of physicians and surgeons.

Health Regulations

1. All medical excuses, whether illness is on or off campus, and whether the student is treated by the college physician or her private physician, must come from the college physician.

2. Off campus students living in their own homes enjoy all the benefits of the Student Health Service except infirmary room service. The college personnel is not covered by the Health Service.

3. A student ill enough to be in bed is not allowed to remain in a dormitory, but must be in the infirmary where she can have medical attention and care of the nurses. No excuses are given unless this rule is observed.

4. The hostess in charge of each dormitory or residence hall must report any cases of illness to the infirmary.

5. Hostesses or the heads of homes in which off campus students are living are required to report without delay to the infirmary any cases of illness which may occur among the students in their homes.

6. Students at home on account of illness are required to notify the college physician immediately upon their return to college.

7. Students who have been exposed to any infectious disease must report to the college physician before attending classes or mingling with other students.

8. Students living in their homes or off-campus students who have been ill with infectious disease must report to the college physician before resuming classes.

9. Consulting physicians are called at the request of either the student or her parents or guardian, but in all cases the consultant must be called by the college physician.

10. Appointments with outside physicians or with dentists involving excuses from classes must be made by the college physician. If a student wishes an appointment with a dentist or with an outside physician and if such an appointment involves absence from classes, the appointment must be made by the college physician.

The Laundry

The laundry, a separate building, is equipped with all the necessary machinery for doing excellent work, and it is ample in capacity to meet the needs of the institution.

Lecture Rooms

In general the classrooms are on the first floor of the various buildings, which in effect constitute the main building. For the most part the classrooms of any given department are situated in the same section of the building. The classrooms are well-lighted and are supplied with comfortable chairs and slate blackboards. Efficient maid service keeps classrooms and halls clean and tidy. Drinking fountains are convenient to students in going from one classroom to another.

Science Laboratories

The departments of natural science are provided with well-lighted laboratories and classrooms, and are equipped with modern apparatus to meet the needs of students. They are also provided with departmental libraries, and all of the supplies necessary to make the students' work efficient, inexpensive, and pleasant. The Department of Biology is located on the ground floor of the postoffice wing of the main building while the Department of Chemistry and Physics is located in the Science Hall which is situated south of the main building.

The Arts Building

The division of fine and applied arts including home economics, art and handwork, and business education is housed in the west wing of the main building. All laboratories are fully supplied with modern equipment. The large, well-lighted, and compact arrangement of classrooms for each type of work make for comfort and efficiency in these technical fields.

The Library

The library is conveniently situated on High Street west of the main building and parallel with it. It is ample, conveniently arranged, and modern in every respect. The stack rooms, reading rooms, lounging rooms, seminar rooms, and lecture hall are complete from the standpoint of service, comfort, and beauty. The library contains 44,319 bound volumes, more than 3,300 pamphlets, pictures and maps, 342 current periodicals, and 15 daily newspapers.

Provisions for Student Activities

The College, in both equipment and arrangement of buildings, provides for the needs and convenience of students in their extra-curricular activities.

Student Building. The Student Building is intended primarily to serve these ends. It is a large four-story building fronting High Street, parallel with the assembly hall, the administration quarters, and the library building. It contains a large lounge for social gatherings; an auditorium for the use of the Young Women's Christian Association and other public meetings; rooms for the Student Council, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, the publications, and specially equipped rooms for the honor societies and the sororities.

Gymnasium and Swimming Pool. On the basement floor of the Student Building are a modern gymnasium and the quarters of the physical education department. The gymnasium is well equipped for basketball, gymnastics, and many features of physical education. Just to the back of the gymnasium and opening into it is a swimming pool of the most modern design housed in a building harmonizing in effect with the student building in which the gymnasium is housed.

Athletic Grounds. The athletic grounds are ample in every respect. They meet the needs of all students interested in outdoor sports such as tennis, baseball, hockey, lacrosse, and golf.

Riding Horses. Opportunity for riding is provided as an extra-curricular activity.

Recreation Centers

The Recreation Hall just beneath the dining room and back of the Rotunda is a beautiful hall in which hundreds of students assemble after dinner and on special occasions. Here they dance and sing, give their class stunts, and have good times in many ways.

The Student Building is a place for the more serious work of the student organizations, but it is also an important recreational center. The lounge, the auditorium, the Y. W. C. A. reception room, and the specially equipped sitting rooms for the use of various societies and sororities provide for recreational and social activities of many kinds.

The Longwood Estate, once the home of General Joseph E. Johnston, is now owned and maintained by the College. Here, in the atmosphere of the Old South students, are privileged to have teas, receptions, and week-end parties. The estate comprises one hundred and three acres of beautiful, rolling grounds with a nine-hole golf course, stables, riding ring, jumps, and bridle paths. In a thickly wooded section of the place are a natural amphitheater where the May Day festivals are held, and a log cabin with out-of-door fire places where students go in groups for rest and recreation. Longwood is located one mile east of Farmville and is one of the oldest and most beautiful homes of Southside Virginia.

STUDENT TEACHING FACILITIES

The training schools in which students teach are operated jointly by the College and the local public-school authorities. The Elementary School is located on the campus, and the High School is located only four blocks away. Both schools are large enough, and yet not too large, to provide adequate opportunities for both pupils and student teachers. The buildings are well-equipped with laboratories, libraries, cafeterias, and work rooms. The principals and faculties of both schools are especially well qualified by training and experience for demonstration teaching and supervision of student teaching. The college program and the training school program are co-ordinated through the department of education, which is responsible for the administration and co-ordination of the co-operative efforts of the faculty of the Elementary School, the faculty of the High School, and the special supervisors representing the various subject-matter departments of the College.

Major Phases of Student Life

In recent years much has been written about the education of the whole individual. In this institution, in order to provide for a well-rounded development, the life of the student is considered from several points of view. Some of the more important phases of the student life are the physical, the moral and religious, the social and recreational, and the academic and professional.

PHYSICAL LIFE

The physical life of the student supplies the foundation for her liberal education and success as a teacher. However important other things may be, a strong healthy body is fundamental. Consequently, every possible precaution is taken to safeguard the health and to develop a strong constitution. By providing regular physical examinations, well heated and ventilated dormitories, and balanced meals, the college seeks to protect its students against disease, improve their power of resistance, and develop their capacity to work without strain and nervousness. Through athletics, dancing, and regular exercise, the students not only have a good time but also maintain health and vigor.

But after all possible precautions are taken against disease some sickness naturally occurs. The College therefore maintains an infirmary in charge of a physician and a trained nurse. There is also available in the town the Southside Community Hospital to take care of emergency cases.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS LIFE

The moral and religious aspects of education are considered as important as are the physical and intellectual. During the history of the College a tradition of good will, cooperation, and high standards of personal relationship has developed. Such a stabilizing influence cannot be described; it can be appreciated only through living in the atmosphere it engenders. But this intangible influence is experienced by both students and faculty to such a degree that it has become a distinct moral force in the whole college community.

The College is a home in which everyone is expected to do his part and share in a give-and-take relationship with others. Certain modes of life are prized and valued because in a long history they have proved their worth and are therefore meaningful and significant to all. In such an atmosphere it is difficult for the young student not to develop high ideals and a wholesome moral outlook on life.

The Young Women's Christian Association, to which all students belong, is a strong religious force in the community. It provides a training and experience for the officers and others interested in religious work. The short devotional exercises conducted by the ministers of the town, the President of the College, and members of the faculty at Chapel give students a rest from class work and time to reflect on spiritual things. The Y. W. C. A. conducts daily evening prayer services, holds special weekly Morning Watch services, urges attendance at Sunday school and church, and fosters a spirit of religious life and service. Under its auspices the World Week of Prayer is observed, mission study classes are conducted by the faculty and others, a series of addresses by some Christian leader is given each year on the fundamental principles of the Christian religion, and noted speakers representing the international point of view address the students on important current movements.

The Baptist, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches of Farmville are all provided with good ministers who participate in the religious life of the College. These churches welcome the students to their services. They provide for students many Sunday school classes and social functions. Members of the faculty are also members of the churches and enter into the religious activities of the community. They are liberal and sympathetic in dealing with the religious problems of young people. The Catholic Church conducts Mass in the Student Building Lounge each Sunday. This Service offers an opportunity to students of the Catholic faith for worship together. Throughout the life of the College attention is given to moral and religious questions but without any effort to direct students into fixed moulds.

SOCIAL AND RECREATIONAL LIFE

The individual with a well-rounded and balanced personality is social in outlook and attitude. He is able to work and to play with other people. The community life in the college makes it easy for the students to participate in social life in many ways. There are a number of activities in which the recreational and social life are very closely related.

In the recreational halls students gather for dances. In the parlors they entertain their friends. They have several dances a year to which young men and young women are invited from outside the institution. The Y. W. C. A. reception to freshmen during the opening week of the College where the new students meet the upper classmen and the faculty is a delightful occasion for all. The Founders Day celebration in March, in which the students, the alumnae, and the friends of the college all participate, is one of the great events of the year. The Mardi Gras Ball, held on Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, is a time of fun-making and jollity. The college circus given every year by the student body is a notable event in the whole community. The May Day Festival, an annual occurrence held in the Amphitheatre at Longwood and featuring the crowning of the May queen, involves pantomime and dancing by students in expression of the spirit of an original production by some member of the student body. The Athletic Association offers an opportunity for all students to participate in the numerous sports through class tournaments and varsity competition.

Some of the more serious social and recreational activities consist of a series of entertainments provided by professional musicians, actors, dancers, and speakers given in the college auditorium at intervals throughout the college year. The College Choir and the Choral Club offer an opportunity for many students to participate in programs for the entertainment and recreation of the whole college community. The Dramatic Club under the auspices of the department of speech offers a similar opportunity to students with some talent in the dramatic arts.

Participation in activities of this kind lends meaning and significance to life. The students learn through the experiences thus provided to appreciate and enjoy the best cultural elements of the race. They have in them the happy experience of cooperating in bringing joy and delight to others. They learn to entertain themselves, to live together in a dignified, yet free and easy, atmosphere of culture and refinement.

ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL LIFE

The academic and professional life of the college constitutes the main emphasis to which all other activities are secondary and contributory. It centers mainly around the courses of instruction offered in the various departments of the college and the directed teaching of the students under supervision. Some courses are primarily cultural, liberal, and broadening in outlook. Others are primarily professional and designed to prepare students definitely for teaching in the elementary and secondary schools of the State. In still others academic scholarship and the professional spirit are very closely combined.

The spirit of the class work is rather free and informal. The members of the faculty and the students work together as members of a large family in which every one is expected to do his part. The students accept their instructors as friends and guides. Through such a spirit of fellowship and good-will are developed initiative, cooperation, responsibility, self-control, and other intangible qualities of personality and character. The method and spirit of the classroom are considered by the faculty as important as the content of the courses. More emphasis is placed on perspective and professional outlook than on routine and mechanical performance. A well-rounded personality capable of adjustment to the demands of a changing civilization rather than the mechanically trained expert is the controlling ideal. The more serious work of the classroom is not separated in spirit and method from other activities; it is rather an integral part, although a more serious part, of the whole life of the institution.

Program of Studies and Activities

The college educational program includes both the studies and the extra-curricula activities. The studies include both the program for freshmen and the program for upper classmen. The extra curricula consist of activities which are not definitely required of students or directly controlled by the faculty as are the curricula.

The curricula are described in terms of courses and the extra curricula are described in terms of student organizations. The courses in the various curricula are listed in tabular form, pp. 51 and 54, and the student organizations to which the extra curricula are related are listed on p. 52. The various courses are described in detail in the Departments of Instruction on p. 62, and the extra curricula are described in detail under the head of student activities on p. 94.

Information in regard to constants, majors, and electives may be found in the descriptions and tabulations of courses in the program for freshmen and in the program for upper classmen—pp. 50-61. Information in regard to student organizations is supplied in the descriptions of student activities on pp. 94-99.

The studies are arranged in the two different programs: the Program for Freshmen and the Program for Upper Classmen. The Program for Freshmen is uniform for all students, and the Program for Upper Classmen is arranged in five four-year curricula and three two-year curricula so as to meet the interests and needs of different occupational and educational groups.

Program for Freshmen

The freshman program places primary emphasis on general education but provides for a beginning of specialization. All students are required to take four courses in the general fields of English, history, science, and physical education, with some variation in consequence of individual differences with respect to capacity and interest. Each student is also given the opportunity to choose under the guidance of her advisor two exploratory courses that are open to freshmen in the field or fields in which she thinks she might wish to specialize, carrying from five to six semester hours credit, making a total of 16 to 17 semester hours. However, even these requirements are not definitely prescribed, and they will be changed to meet the needs and capacities of individual students as they are from time to time revealed. The nature of the program is indicated in the tabulation below:

	First Semester	Second Semester
English and Guidance X111, X112.....	3	3
History X111, X112.....	3	3
Biology X131, X132; Chemistry X121, X122; Physics X131, X132 or General Science X141, X142.....	4	4
Physical Education X111, X112.....	1	1
Exploratory electives	5-6	5-6

Every course pursued by the student carries full credit in the total number of semester hours required for a degree, but in some cases such courses are counted as electives only and not as requirements for a major. For this reason, students who expect to specialize in elementary education are advised to take Art X111, X112 and Mathematics X121, X123. Those who expect to specialize in home economics are advised to take Home Economics X121, X122 and Art X121, X122. Those who expect to specialize in business education are advised to take Business Education X121, X122 or Business Education X221, X222 and Business Education X131, X132, or Business Education X231, X232. Those who expect to major in a given field, as French, for instance, are advised to take six semester hours' credit in the field during the freshman year, and six semester hours' credit in the constants for the curriculum.

Program for Upper Classmen

The Program for Upper Classmen, while continuing to provide general education, provides also for increasing specialization. The five four-year curricula offered provide some differentiation of occupational and vocational groups, and the major fields and electives in all curricula provide for still further specialization. However, certain general courses in natural science and social science and in the humanities, including philosophy and professional education, in being common to many curricula provide for general education, that is for broadening the common interests and concerns of all the students.

CURRICULA PROVIDEDFour-Year Curricula

- Curriculum I. Leading to the B. S. Degree and teaching in the Elementary Schools.
- Curriculum II. Leading to the B. S. degree, or to the B. S. degree and Teaching in the Secondary Schools.
- Curriculum III. Leading to the B. A. degree, or to the B. A. degree and teaching in the Secondary Schools.
- Curriculum IV. Leading to the B. S. degree and Teaching Home Economics in the Secondary Schools.
- Curriculum V. Leading to the B. S. degree, or to the B. S. degree and Teaching Business Subjects in the Secondary Schools.

Two-Year Curricula

- Curriculum A. Preparing for Clerical Positions.
- Curriculum B. Preparing for entering Schools of Nursing and Dentistry.
- Curriculum C. Preparing for entering Schools of Technology.

EXTRA CURRICULA PROVIDED

- I. Student Government Association.
- II. Young Women's Christian Association.
- III. Athletic Association.
- IV. Student Publications.
- V. Honor Societies.
- VI. Student Clubs.
- VII. Sororities.

THE FOUR-YEAR CURRICULA

To meet the needs and interests of different educational and occupational groups the college provides five different four-year curricula. All of them lead to teaching in the public schools of the state; one to teaching in the elementary school, two to teaching general subjects in the high school, one to teaching home economics, and one to teaching business subjects in the high school. All of them supply a foundation in general education and opportunities for specialization in fields other than teaching. The student who is not interested in teaching, with the help and guidance of her adviser, usually substitutes for courses in teaching and education other courses in the field in which she decides to specialize.

Curriculum I leads to the B. S. degree and teaching in the elementary school; Curriculum II leads to the B. S. degree and teaching in the high school with specialization in the natural sciences, in social sciences, and in mathematics; Curriculum III leads to the B. A. degree and teaching in the high school with specialization in the humanities including English, history, foreign languages, the fine arts, and philosophy; Curriculum IV leads to the B. S. degree and to teaching home economics in the high school; Curriculum V leads to the B. S. degree, to teaching business subjects in the high school, and to positions in the field of business.

The beginning student enrolls in the Program for Freshmen regardless of what curriculum she expects to enter. Most students by the time they get to college have made up their minds as to the field in which they are going to specialize. Those who have thus made up their minds are advised to take exploratory electives which lead to the curriculum in which they expect to specialize. Those who are still undecided, with the assistance of their advisers, should select two courses each semester of the freshman year and try them out while they are making up their minds as to the field in which they will specialize.

Strictly speaking, the student is not finally enrolled in any curriculum until the beginning of the second year in college. All the courses she pursues during the first year count toward graduation. If she decides to change her original plans at any time during the first year or at the beginning of the second year, she may do so without loss of credit on any course. Such an arrangement enables students to experiment with different courses and curricula and enables some of them to make more intelligent decisions than they could possibly make at the beginning of the first year.

Students enrolled in Curricula I, IV, and V do not major in any one subject-matter field. The teaching positions in the elementary school, in home economics, and in business education include all subjects in these respective fields. They do not provide for so much specialization as do curricula leading to teaching in the secondary school and specialization in general subjects. But some specialization is provided even in these curricula to meet the interests and needs of individual students. In Curriculum II and III the student selects a major field leading either to a

B. S. or to a B. A. degree. A major requires 18 to 24 semester hours credit. No minors are required, but the student is advised to take at least 12 semester hours in each of several fields. Only those who have at least 12 semester hours college credit in a subject are certified to teach that subject under the present state regulations. Ordinarily, a student preparing to teach should not take more than 24 semester hours in any one field, but in special cases with the approval of the Director of Teacher Education she may do so. Students who are not preparing to teach should seek a broad background in several fields, usually in subjects closely related to the major field. Care in selecting sequences of courses should prepare the student to change majors without losing credit, supply her with a broad general education background, and qualify her to teach two or more subjects in the high school.

The five four-year curricula tabulated below include only courses for second, third, and fourth year students. The courses for first year students are included in the Program for Freshmen, p. 51.

Curriculum V

Leading to Degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Education, to Teaching Business Subjects, and to Positions in the Field of Business

The minimum constants required in semester hours for a degree in Business Education are: Accounting, 12; Shorthand, 12; Typewriting and Transcription, 8; General and Social Business Subjects, 15; English and Guidance, 12; Science, 8; Mathematics, 3; Physical and Health Education, 8; Psychology, 6; History, Economics, Government, and Social Studies (including Geography), 18; Education, 6; Philosophy, 6; Teaching, 6; Methods of Teaching Business Subjects, 3.

Students who have had typewriting and shorthand in high school may be scheduled for advanced classes in those subjects at the time of registration.

Those who desire to qualify for high school commercial teaching and for higher types of positions in business and government, should follow the tabulation as it is given below.

Students who plan to qualify for positions as medical and technical secretaries in offices of physicians, dentists, hospitals, clinic, and public health centers should elect courses in Biology and Chemistry that will prepare them for the specific type of work in which they are interested.

All students are required to attain the minimum requirements in hand-writing before graduation.

THE TWO-YEAR CURRICULA

To meet the needs and interests of certain occupational groups who do not expect to remain in college for four years, three two-year programs, known as Curriculum A, B, and C, are provided.

Curriculum A leads to stenographic positions, record keeping, and general clerical positions. When 64 semester hours with an average mark of C are completed, it constitutes the first two years of Curriculum V, and the students who complete it may continue for the B. S. degree without loss of credit. Beginning students who have had typewriting and shorthand in high school may take advanced courses in these subjects. To qualify for higher types of business and government positions, for positions as medical secretary, and for teaching, students should continue into the four-year program for a degree as indicated on p. 52. Furthermore, those who have completed the requirements of Curriculum A may return at any time to complete the requirements for a degree.

Curriculum B leading to nursing is designed to meet the requirements of the hospitals in which students enter for training.

Curriculum C leading to schools of mechanical technology is designed to meet the minimum requirements of schools of technology accredited by the American Association of Technologists.

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY PROGRAMS

Besides the regular curricula, special provision is made for those students who wish to prepare themselves for certain fields of service for which no general curricula are tabulated. Students majoring in social science may satisfy the preliminary preparation for social welfare work by selecting courses totaling 20 semester hours' credit in sociology and social psychology, 6 semester hours' credit in economics and 8 semester hours' credit in biology. Students preparing to teach in the high school may meet the state requirements for teaching in the primary grades by taking ten semester hours' credit in courses designed primarily for teachers in the elementary school. Students preparing to teach in the secondary school who wish to qualify as teacher librarians may do so by taking 12 semester hours' credit in library science, including two semester hours' credit in audio-visual education and three semester hours' credit in English literature for use in the high school.

Departments of Instruction

ART

MISS BEDFORD, MRS. LEMEN

The department of art includes courses in visual and tactile arts and art education for elementary and secondary teachers.

Any freshman may choose electives from the following: Art X121, X122, X201, X202, X221, X222, or Practical Arts X111, X112 for those interested in Elementary Education.

A major requires: Art X121, X122, X221, X222, X312, X321, X322, X422. Substitutions can be arranged with permission of the department.

Art X111, X112. Practical Arts Education.

First and second semesters; 4 periods a week; 2 credits each. Fee: $1.50 each. Required in Curriculum I.

MISS BEDFORD, MISS CAMPER, MISS HALL
(For description see Department of Education and Philosophy, Education X111, X112.)

Art X121, X122. General Art Structure.

First and second semesters; 5 periods a week; 3 credits each. Fee: $2.00 each.

BIOLOGY

MR. JEFFERS, MR. BRUMFIELD, MR. HIGGINBOTHAM AND ASSISTANTS

The first year of college biology (General Biology is basic to all other courses in the department.) However, after the first year, a student desiring to major in biology may select any courses offered in the department so long as she obtains the required number of semester credits as set forth elsewhere in this catalogue.

Chemistry and physics are fundamental to an adequate understanding of biology. Further, biology teachers are frequently called upon to teach general science. For these reasons students intending to major in the department are urged to elect general chemistry and general physics early in their college course. Biology majors are also advised to elect both mathematics and a foreign language, preferably French or German, so that they may not be handicapped if they wish to pursue graduate work in the field of biology.

Laboratory fees must be paid at the Treasurer's Office before entering classes.

Biology X131, X132. General Biology.

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit each. Fee: $3.00 each semester.

MR. JEFFERS, MR. BRUMFIELD, MR. HIGGINBOTHAM AND ASSISTANTS

The general principles of biology.

Biology X231, X232. Botany.

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit each. Fee: $5.00 each semester.

MR. BRUMFIELD

Biology X331, X332. Zoology.

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit each. Fee: $5.00 each semester.

MR. JEFFERS

The first semester treats invertebrate zoology; the second, the comparative anatomy of the vertebrates.

Biology X341. Embryology.

First semester; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit. Fee: $5.00.

MR. HIGGINBOTHAM

Biology X342. Field Biology and Ecology.

Second semester; 3 double periods a week; 3 semester hours credit. Students electing this course should arrange to have some Saturday mornings free for field work.

MR. HIGGINBOTHAM

Biology X351. Physiology.

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 semester hours credit. Repeated second semester upon demand.

MR. JEFFERS, MR. HIGGINBOTHAM

Biology X352. Genetics.

Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 semester hours credit.

MR. BRUMFIELD

Biology X361. Bacteriology.

First semester; 1 single and 3 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit. Fee: $5.00.

MR. BRUMFIELD

Biology X362. Mammalian Anatomy.

Second semester; 1 single and 3 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit. Fee: $5.00.

MR. JEFFERS

May be taken only with the consent of the instructor.

Biology X353. Laboratory Aids and Techniques.

Second semester; 2 double periods a week; 2 semester hours credit. Fee: $5.00. MR. BRUMFIELD AND STAFF

Biology X430. Biological Seminar.

Offered both semesters, and may be repeated for credit by a student. In that event the number will be X431, X432, etc. One period a week; 1 semester hour credit. MR. JEFFERS AND STAFF

Open only to a few qualified students subject to the approval of the head of the department.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

MR. LANDRUM, MISS CRADDOCK, MRS. WYNNE, MR. MYERS,
MR. SNEAD, AND MRS. HANFORD

The Department of Business Education meets the needs of students preparing to teach business subjects, students preparing for positions in the field of business, and students preparing for positions as medical or technical secretaries. The four-year curriculum leading to teaching and to business positions is indicated on pages 58-59. Courses in the Business Education Department are also offered as electives for students in other fields. Those who are not preparing to teach should substitute for the required courses in Education certain others in the Department of Business Education or in other departments that will prepare them definitely for specific types of work in which they are interested. Such substitutions must be approved by the head of the Business Education Department.

Those who desire to qualify for positions in teaching business subjects and for positions in business should follow the tabulation of Curriculum V, pages 58-59. By so doing, students will not only receive the Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Education, but will also receive from the Virginia State Board of Education a Collegiate Professional Certificate which entitles them to teach bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, office and secretarial practice, and social business subjects in the high schools of the State. This teacher's certificate not only certifies the student to teach all the business subjects taught in the high schools of Virginia, but also English, social studies (including geography), and any additional subjects in which she has taken two full years of college work.

Students who complete the requirements both for a degree, and for a teacher's certificate have a decided advantage over students who do not. The fact that students are qualified for two different types of positions, teaching and business, may have very definite advantages for them after graduation from college.

Students who desire to prepare themselves for stenographic, book-keeping, and general clerical positions in business offices, and who do not expect to remain in college for four years should take the two-year curriculum in Business Education. This curriculum consists of selected courses from Curriculum V and is given the title of Curriculum A, which is tabulated on page 60. A two-year diploma will be given after the requirements of Curriculum A have been fulfilled. Those following Curriculums V and A are required to attain the minimum requirements in handwriting before graduation.

The Department of Business Education recognizes three different types of education: General education, professional education, and specialized education. Its primary purpose is specialized education in that it prepares students for definite positions in the field of teaching and business. But it recognizes the importance of a broad general education as a foundation for specialization, and it does not minimize the importance of professional education in the preparation for teaching. The courses in the department are classified under three heads: Secretarial studies (typewriting and shorthand), accounting, and general business.

SECRETARIAL STUDIES

Business Education X120. Typewriting. Non-Vocational Typewriting.

(Not open to Business Education students.)

Offered both semesters; 5 periods a week. 2 credits. Fee: $3.00.

MISS CRADDOCK

Business Education X121, X122. Typewriting. (For those who have had no typewriting.)

First and second semesters; 5 periods a week; 2 credits each semester. Fee: $3.00 each semester.

MISS CRADDOCK

Business Education X131, X132. Shorthand. (For those who have had no shorthand.)

First and second semesters; 5 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MR. MYERS, MRS. WYNNE

Business Education X133, X134. Shorthand. (For those who have had the equivalent of one year of shorthand.)

First and second semesters; 5 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MRS. WYNNE

Business Education X221, X222. Advanced Typewriting and Transcription.

(For those who have had the equivalent of two years of typewriting and shorthand in high school or one year of typewriting and shorthand in college.)

First and second semesters; 5 periods a week; 2 credits each semester. Fee: $3.00 each semester.

MR. SNEAD, MRS. WYNNE, MRS. HANFORD

Business Education X231, X232. Advanced Shorthand. (For those who have had the equivalent of two years of shorthand in high school or one year of shorthand in college.)

First and second semesters; 3 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MR. SNEAD, MRS. WYNNE, MRS. HANFORD

ACCOUNTING

Business Education X241, X242. Accounting. (Elementary Accounting.)

First and second semesters; 3 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MR. MYERS, MR. SNEAD, MRS. HANFORD

Business Education X341. Accounting. (Advanced Accounting.)

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MR. LANDRUM

Business Education X342. Accounting. (Social Security and Payroll Accounting.)

MR. LANDRUM

GENERAL AND SOCIAL BUSINESS SUBJECTS

Business Education X151. Handwriting. (For Business Education students.)

First semester; 2 periods a week; no credit.

MISS CRADDOCK

Business Education X152. Handwriting. (For elementary Education students.)

First semester; 2 periods a week; one credit

MISS CRADDOCK

Business Education X251. Merchandising.

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MR. SNEAD, MR. LANDRUM, MISS CRADDOCK

Business Education X252. Office Machines and Filing.

Offered both semesters; 5 periods a week; 3 credits. Fee: $3.00.

MR. MYERS

Business Education X350. Office Experience or Selling Experience.

Offered both semesters, or during the Summer; 3 semester hours credit.

MR. LANDRUM

All prospective teachers should have a minimum of 300 clock hours of successful experience under conditions approved by the head of the department. Credits not to be substituted for regular course requirements.

Business Education X351. Insurance.

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MRS. WYNNE

Business Education X352. Business Law.

Business Education X454. Advertising. Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.	MRS. WYNNE

CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS

MR. McCORKLE, MR. FRENCH, AND MISS BURGER

The Department of Chemistry and Physics includes courses in chemistry, physics, and general science.

A major in chemistry requires 20 semester hours of chemistry and 4 semester hours of physics. If chemistry only is offered, 24 semester hours are required.

The state requirement for general science teachers is 6 semester hours each in biology, chemistry, and physics, but in special cases other combinations of science are considered on their merits.

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry X121, X122. General Chemistry.

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 credits each semester. Laboratory fee: $5.00 each semester.

MR. FRENCH

Chemistry X221, X222. Organic Chemistry.

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 credits each semester. Prerequisite: Chemistry X122. Laboratory fee: $6.00 each semester.

MR. McCORKLE

Chemistry X224. Introduction to Physiological Chemistry.

Second semester; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 credits. Prerequisite: Chemistry X221. Laboratory fee: $6.00.

MR. McCORKLE

Chemistry X321. Quantitative Analysis (Volumetric)

First semester; 4 double periods each week; 4 credits. Laboratory fee: $6.00. Prerequisite: Chemistry X122.

MR. McCORKLE

Chemistry X322. Quantitative Analysis (Gravimetric)

Second semester; 4 double periods a week; 4 credits. Prerequisite: Chemistry X321. Laboratory fee: $6.00.

MR. McCORKLE

Chemistry X323. Qualitative Analysis

Second semester; 4 double periods a week; 4 credits. Prerequisite: Chemistry X321. Laboratory fee: $6.00.

MR. McCORKLE, MR. FRENCH

PHYSICS

Physics X131, X132. General Physics

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 semester hours credit each. Laboratory fee: $6.00 each semester.

MR. MCCORKLE

Physics X331, X332. Selected Topics in General Physics

First and second semesters; 2 single and 2 double periods a week; 4 credits each semester. Laboratory fee: $6.00 each semester.

MR. MCCORKLE

GENERAL SCIENCE

Science X141, X142. Physical and Biological Science.

First and second semesters; 4 periods a week; 4 credits each semester. Laboratory fee: $2.00.

MISS BURGER

Science X342. Science for Elementary Teachers—Required in Curriculum I

Second semester; 4 periods a week; 4 semester hours credit. Laboratory fee: $3.00.

MISS BURGER

EDUCATION AND PHILOSOPHY

MR. WYNNE, MISS CAMPER, MISS CARTER, MR. COYNER, MR. HOLTON,
MR. JOHNSON, MR. SAVAGE, MR. SWERTFEGER, PRINCIPALS,
SUPERVISORS, SUPERVISING TEACHERS

The Department of Education and Philosophy contribute to general education, professional education, and specialized education for which the educational program of the college assumes responsibility. In some courses the primary emphasis is on general education; in others it is on professional education. In still others it is on specialized or vocational education, although in many courses all three emphases are given attention. It is, perhaps, impossible to state exactly the relative emphasis given to these different kinds of education in any course, but it may be indicated in a general way.

The courses of the department are grouped under four heads: education, psychology, philosophy, and teaching. The courses in education which are listed in more than one department or developed in cooperation with instructors from other departments are about two-thirds general education, one-sixth specialized education, and about one-sixth professional education. The other required courses in education are about three-fourths professional education and one-fourth general education, and only incidentally specialized education. The required courses in general psychology are largely general education and specialized education, and only incidentally professional education. The required courses in educational psychology are about one-half professional education and about one-half general education, and only incidentally specialized education. The elective courses in psychology are largely specialized education and only incidentally general and professional education. The required courses in general philosophy are primarily general education and are only incidentally professional or specialized education. The required courses in philosophy of education are about one-half professional education and about one-half general education, and only incidentally specialized education. The elective courses in philosophy are primarily general education and only incidentally specialized education and professional education. In emphasis, student teaching is about four-fifths general education and specialized education and about one-fifth professional education.

A major in psychology and philosophy consists of seven semester courses with a credit of 21 semester hours. Four of these seven courses, or 12 semester hours' credit, are required in all curricula. The other three semester courses with a credit of nine semester hours are elective in either psychology or philosophy, or in both.

EDUCATION

ENGLISH

MR. GRAINGER, MISS HINER, MISS JENNINGS, MISS FOSTER
MISS NICHOLS, MRS. DAVIS

The Department of English offers courses in composition, in literature, and in the teaching and the history of English. The Department seeks to coordinate its work with the counseling program of the College and with the work of the other departments, and to secure the active co-operation of all instructors in maintaining the use of good English in all classes. Many extra-curricular activities also furnish motivation for the study of English.

Freshmen who prove notably proficient in English fundamentals may substitute an elective in English for the second semester of Freshman English. Students in the advanced courses who show marked deficiencies in the fundamentals of the subject are required to remedy these deficiencies before receiving credit.

To become eligible to take a major in English a student must have made a grade above C on Composition X111 and X112. The major in English requires the following: Two semester courses chosen (preferably in the second year) from those with numbers in the two- and three-hundreds: Literature X311, X312 (preferably in the third year); Composition X405 (taken preferably during the practice-teaching semester); English X411 or X412.

Students taking a major in English in curricula leading to teaching in the high school are advised, but not required, to choose additional electives in the English field and to shape their programs so as to include studies in the related fields of history and social studies, speech, foreign languages, music, and art. Those who wish to qualify themselves as teacher-librarians may elect courses in Library Science. Guidance in the teaching of English in the high school is given during the practice-teaching semester by members of the Department of English.

HOME ECONOMICS

MISS TUPPER, MISS JETER, MISS GLEAVES, MISS HALL

The general aims of this department are to prepare students to teach home economics in the public schools, to give training and experience in the scientific administration of the home. These aims arise from the fact that the college has been selected by the State Board of Education as one of the institutions for the education of home economics teachers for the junior and senior high schools of the State. The courses outlined in Curriculum IV (see page) meet the standards set by the State Board of Education and the Federal Authorities. (The students enrolled in this curriculum are under the general guidance of this department.)

The courses in Curriculum IV and the practical work are so arranged that students may qualify for teaching chemistry.

The facilities of the Home Economics Department are adequate in every respect. The home management house and the laboratories are conveniently located. The equipment is entirely modern.

A major in Home Economics requires the following courses: Home Economics X121, X122, X221, X222, X232, X321, X322, X331, X332, X342, X351, X431, X441.

(All laboratory fees must be paid at the Treasurer's Office before registering for classes.)

MATHEMATICS

MISS TALIAFERRO, MISS SUTHERLAND

The preparation of teachers of mathematics for the elementary and secondary schools of the State is the principal aim of this department. The effort is made everywhere to link up the work with the demands of real life.

A major in mathematics in Curricula II and III consists of Mathematics X141, X151, X231, X233 or X335, X345, X346, X451 and three or four credits in electives approved by the head of the department.

Prerequisites for a major: one and one-half units of algebra and one unit of geometry.

The courses required in the constant for Curriculum I are Mathematics X123 and X323; for Curricula II and III, Mathematics X141 and X151, or in special instances Mathematics X121 and X122 instead of Mathematics X151.

All students are advised to elect Mathematics X121 and X122.

Mathematics X121, X122. General Mathematics

First and second semesters; 2 periods a week; 2 credits each semester.

MISS SUTHERLAND

Important phases of mathematics needed by the individual in everyday life; the nature of our number system; the nature of the fundamental operations; history and precision of measurement; approximate computation; statistical concepts and interpretation of data.

Mathematics X123. Mathematics for Teachers in the Elementary School

Second semester; 2 periods a week; 2 credits.

MISS SUTHERLAND

The subject matter of arithmetic from the teacher's point of view; emphasis on meanings and understandings; social usage of certain topics; analysis and solution of problems.

Mathematics X221. Commercial Arithmetic

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MISS SUTHERLAND

Mathematics X323. Mathematics for Teachers in the Elementary School

Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MISS SUTHERLAND

A continuation of Mathematics X123.

Mathematics X141, X142. College Algebra

First and second semesters; 3 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MISS TALIAFERRO

Mathematics X151. Plane Trigonometry

Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MISS TALIAFERRO

Mathematics X231. Analytic Geometry

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits.

MISS TALIAFERRO

Mathematics X233. Solid Geometry

Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits. (Offered alternate years.)

MISS TALIAFERRO

Not required for a major if high school credit has been given.

Mathematics X243. The Slide Rule

First semester; 1 period a week; 1 credit.

MISS TALIAFERRO

Mathematics X335. Advanced Plane Geometry

Second semester; 3 periods a week; 3 credits. (Offered alternate years.)

MISS TALIAFERRO

Introduction to the field of modern geometry; the circle and triangle; some theorems of historic interest.

Mathematics X345, X346. The Differential and Integral Calculus

First and second semesters; 3 periods a week; 3 credits each semester.

MISS TALIAFERRO

MUSICMR. STRICK, MISS PATTERSON, MISS CLARK

The aims of this department are to emphasize the aesthetic, intellectual, and social values of music; to broaden the conception of the function of music in the public schools; to prepare grade teachers to teach music in their respective grades; to prepare supervisors and special teachers of music in elementary and high schools; to help students in the use of the singing voice, and to develop an understanding and appreciation of the best music through group participation in song and through directed listening to the world's greatest musical literature.

Admission to courses in piano, voice, or violin is on the selective basis. A student may register for a course in applied music only after she has satisfied the head of the department, usually by examination, that she has had the necessary preparation, or has the ability to do satisfactory work in that course.

Students may enter at any stage of advancement and continue from that point. Fee for individual instruction, including use of piano for practice, $55 each semester.

The required courses in Curriculum I are Music X121, X122, X231.

A major in Music requires the following courses: Music X121, X122, X232, X233, X234, X361, X362, X365, Piano 191, 192.

The following electives are provided: Music X445, X446, X451, X452, X461, X465, Piano 191, 192.

PHYSICAL AND HEALTH EDUCATION

MISS BARLOW, MISS ILER, MISS KAUZLARICH,
 MISS DABNEY, MISS SHIELDS

This department has a two-fold purpose: first, to provide professional courses in physical and health education that will prepare students to teach physical education in the elementary school, high school, and college; second, to provide opportunity for all students to engage in developmental and recreational activities.

The swimming pool will be open to students at certain hours for recreational purposes. Those desiring this privilege must register at the swimming pool office and wear the regulation swimming suit.

A regulation suit is required in all activity courses. The suits are purchased through the college.

Unless excused by the college physician all students are required to pass a beginner's swimming test or Physical Education X100 before the end of the junior year.

A bachelor of science degree with a major in physical education requires the following courses: Activity courses include Physical Education X111, X112, X212, X231 or X232; and X322, X323, X324, X325, X326, X327, X329, X333, X334; Theory courses include Physical Education X336, X337, X339, X340, X401. Physical Education X321, X330 and X402, and Health Education X237 or X239 are also recommended as electives.

Students with a major in physical education who have not had a college course in human physiology are required to take Biology X351 as a prerequisite to Physical Education X336 and X339.

It is desirable for the teacher of physical education or a worker in the field of recreation to have ability in music, dancing, handcrafts, camping and various sports.

All students with a major in physical education are expected to participate in the intra-mural program offered by the Athletic Association.

SPEECH

MISS WHEELER

This department gives opportunity for acquiring the techniques and skills in the various aspects of the speech arts and prepares students to teach the speech arts in public schools.

A dramatic club, under the direction of this department, gives opportunity for the development of special talent in any phase of play production. Any student may register for the apprentice period of six months. Those who show most ability are elected to full membership in the club and are assigned to work in one or more of the departments. The departments are: Acting, stage design, costume, make-up, lighting, property, and business. Several one-act plays are presented before the club, and two public performances of full-length plays are given each year. It is the aim of the director to give each member of the dramatic club sufficient training to enable her to direct a play.

Speech X301. Basic Principles of Speech

Offered each semester; 3 periods a week; 3 semester hours credit. Required in Curricula I, II, IV, and V.

MISS WHEELER

First semester; 3 periods a week; 3 semester hours credit.

MISS WHEELER

Principles of play production. Reading and listing play suitable for production in public schools. Training in play directing. Students from this course eligible to membership in dramatic club without apprenticing.

Student Activities

The extra-curricular, as well as the curricular, activities are included in the program of studies and activities. They are related to the various student organizations in the same way that the classroom and study activities are related to the various subjects. The description of the student activities below corresponds to the description of courses in the departments of instruction.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The whole student body is organized for purposes of government. The business of the organization is conducted by two administrative bodies, the Student Council and the House Council. The Student Council is headed by the President of the Student Body. Representatives from each of the four college classes are on the Council. The officers are elected by the student body, class representatives being chosen by the classes themselves. It is the duty of the Student Council to enforce the general rules and regulations of the college. The House Council, whose president is also elected by popular vote, has as its duty the enforcement of dormitory rules and regulations. The Student Government not only is a means of maintaining wholesome standards of citizenship and of representing the will of the student body, but also supplies a direct method of learning to perform the duties of citizenship in the larger life of a democratic society.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Association in the College is a branch of the national Y. W. C. A. The administrative direction is in the hands of the students assisted by an advisory committee of the faculty. It promotes a number of religious activities. Daily prayer services and weekly devotional meetings are held. Usually these exercises are conducted by the students. From time to time some recognized religious leader is brought to the campus by the Association to discuss with students questions of religious interest and help individuals with personal religious problems. Through the Association, Bible study classes are organized in each of the churches of the town. The organization through its committees welcomes new students individually and sponsors a reception to Freshmen early in the fall. It likewise provides informal entertainment for other groups of students from time to time during the year.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association includes the whole student body. The Athletic Council consisting of students and a faculty adviser has control of both intra-mural and inter-collegiate sports and contests and attends to all the business of the organization. Contests between classes and between organizations are held in tennis, basketball, baseball, hockey, volley ball, lacrosse, and swimming. The nine-hole course at Longwood gives students an opportunity to play golf. In collegiate sports teams are maintained in tennis, basketball, and hockey.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The students of the college sponsor four publications, The Rotunda, The Colonnade, The Virginian, and the Students' Handbook.

The Rotunda is a weekly newspaper which keeps the students and faculty informed of the college news and the interests of the College as observed from the point of view of the students. It not only expresses the attitude of the students towards various phases of college life and current activities but also exerts an important influence in the development of the ideals of the community.

The Colonnade is a literary magazine to which students, members of the faculty, alumnae, and others contribute. It publishes in literary form some of the results of the thinking and writing done in the college and among its friends.

The Virginian is the year book of the College. Students are responsible for the art work, the editing, and the management of the publication. Each issue represents a cross section of the college life for the year. It is, therefore, highly valued by the members of the graduating class.

Students' Handbook is the manual of rules and regulations governing the conduct of the students. In addition, it contains the constitutions and by-laws of the Student Government Association, the 'Young Women's Christian Association, and the Athletic Association, and briefer descriptions of such organizations as the Dramatic Club, the honor societies, and the Pan-Hellenic Council. It serves as the orientation textbook for all new students in the college.

HONOR SOCIETIES

There are two types of honor societies in the college. The first consists of those organizations that are comparatively general in character and not confined to any department or section of college life. They are open to all students who meet the high standards of excellence required in scholarship and character. There have been established on the campus local chapters of the following national organizations: Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Kappa Gamma, and Alpha Phi Sigma. The second type includes a number of societies which place most emphasis on special fields. There have been established on the campus four of these national honor societies: Pi Gamma Mu, Sigma Pi Rho, Beta Pi Theta, and Pi Kappa Delta. Of this type also are the local organizations, Gamma Psi and Beorc Eh Thorn.

Kappa Delta Pi is a national honor society in education in the broad sense. Its membership consists of students interested in the activities of the teaching profession including all fields. The membership in this organization is confined to students of the Junior and Senior years, whose scholarship ranks in the upper fourth of that of the student body.

The Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi was organized in 1928. It represents the development of Pi Kappa Omega, a local honor society founded in 1918 in response to a need felt by the faculty and students for an organization through which scholarship, character, and service might be given recognition. Ten years later it was merged into Kappa Delta Pi, which emphasized the qualities recognized by Pi Kappa Omega with an additional emphasis on a professional outlook as broad as the college itself in all of its departments and activities.

Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honor society for leadership, was organized in 1928. It represents the merging of local societies which had been founded in order to bring together groups of representative students and faculty members, whose purpose was to foster high ideals and standards of leadership. Alpha Delta Rho, organized in 1925, became the Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma and was one of the charter members of the organization. Its field of work is the promotion of desirable co-ordination of various activities and interests of the College.

Alpha Phi Sigma is an honorary society confined to A-grade teachers colleges. Its membership is confined to students of high scholastic rating. Valedictorians and salutatorians of high schools are automatically eligible to membership. Other students in any class of the college are eligible when their scholarship becomes satisfactory. The Delta Chapter, the local chapter of this society, was established in 1930 with seventy-five members. The activities of this organization are designed not only to benefit its membership but also to further interest in scholarship in the whole institution.

Pi Gamma Mu is a national social science honor society. The purpose of this society is to further the scientific study of the problems of social science. The Virginia Gamma chapter, the local organization of Pi Gamma Mu, was organized in 1927. In addition to a high standard of general scholarship required for entrance each member must show an outstanding interest in the social sciences and must carry on while a member of the society a piece of original work in some of the social sciences.

Sigma Pi Rho (first organized at Farmville in 1930), became a national organization in 1932. The purpose of Sigma Pi Rho, the local organization of which is the Virginia Alpha Chapter, is to give recognition to those who have shown a deep interest in the field of Latin and have attained a certain scholastic standing, to afford them further opportunities in the work, and to create in others an interest in Latin.

Gamma Psi is a local honor society in fine arts. It was established in 1932 to give recognition to those students of the college who show an interest in the field of art and attain a certain scholastic standard; to create and foster these interests in new students; and to render art service to the college.

Pi Kappa Delta is a national forensic honor society. It is the largest of three honor societies in this field. The Virginia Alpha Chapter was chartered in 1928 and is one of the one hundred and sixty-five chapters in thirty-six states. Its purpose is to develop and maintain a high standard of skill and sportsmanship in debating and oratory.

Beorc Eh Thorn is a local honor society in English founded at Farmville, in October, 1935. The three Old English rune letters, which it has adopted for its name, symbolize the quest of literature to which the members are pledged and the inspiration and discipline which it affords. The society seeks to encourage creative writing and the study of literature. It gives its active support to the publication of the college literary quarterly and sponsors visits of distinguished writers to the college.

SORORITIES

The sororities found in the Teachers College are professional in character. They assume professional obligations and seek in various ways to render an educational service. They establish student loan funds, support libraries, and engage in other educational undertakings. Of the eight educational sororities in this institution Sigma Sigma Sigma, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Pi Kappa Sigma, Alpha Sigma Tau, and Theta Sigma Upsilon are national; Gamma Theta, Mu Omega, and Phi Zeta Sigma are local. Several of these organizations have provided loan funds to help needy and deserving students make their way in the college.

STUDENT CLUBS

In addition to the various honor societies there are a number of clubs that appeal to the interests of different groups. Among the more active of these organizations are the Debate Club, the Cotillion Club, the Dramatic Club, and the music organizations including the Choral Club, and the College Choir.

The Debate Club is a student organization in which opportunity is given to experiment with and participate in the various forensic activities. This club undertakes to train students for intercollegiate debates and public speaking contests. The record in debate and oratory has been outstanding for a number of years. Teams of the club lead forums on current questions in civic and social clubs throughout the state.

The Dramatic Club is open to all students interested in the dramatic arts. The 150 members of the organization are divided into groups according to their varied tastes, and these groups provide dramatic entertainment for the meetings of the club as a whole. The club gives training in coaching and producing high school plays and sponsors an annual play contest among the high schools of Southside Virginia. Under the direction of a competent coach the Dramatic Club each year gives a fall and spring production for the entertainment of the whole college community.

The Cotillion Club is an organization with a membership of two hundred and fifty students whose primary aim is the promotion of good dancing. The club sponsors two major dances each year, one in the fall and one in the spring. These dances have come to be regarded as important events in the social life of the college year.

The Philosophy Club is a group of students who are interested in problems of philosophy. The organization meets once each month for recreation and discussion of philosophical questions, and sponsors lectures in philosophy by members of the faculty of the college and invited guests from other institutions.

Le Cercle Francais and El Club Espanol are clubs to which all modern language students are eligible.

The programs of the regular monthly meetings, which are given in the foreign languages, consist of songs, skits, games, current events, and short talks on cultural subjects.

The Music Organizations of the College are the College Choir, and the Choral Club. These are important factors in the life of the college. They select their members through try-outs at the beginning of the session and give several concerts each year.

The International Relations Club consists of a group of students who are interested in present world conditions. The organization meets weekly for discussions of questions of diplomacy and of peace and war. A feature of this club is its participation in State and regional conferences on world relations held under the auspices of the Carnegie Foundation.

The Orchesis is an honorary dance group organized in May, 1933. The group creates its own dances and usually sponsors a dance program in the winter and helps with the College May Day in the spring. Members are selected from those who have taken at least two quarters of Modern Dance.

The Commercial Club is an organization of the students in the Department of Business Education who are interested in becoming better informed in regard to teaching commercial subjects and problems in the field of business. The programs of the regular monthly meetings involve lectures and discussion of business problems of current interest.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

There are in the College two organizations whose interests are primarily professional in character. Eligibility to these organizations depends largely upon the students' professional qualities rather than on their academic standing.

The Association for Childhood Education is a national organization composed of nursery school, kindergarten, and primary teachers and others who are interested in the education of young children. It concerns itself with the conservation of child life through securing a better understanding of children, and providing better opportunities for their development. The local organization grew out of the Primary Council which was organized on our campus in 1927, and later became affiliated with the national A. C. E. Students who teach in the elementary school are eligible for membership.

The Future Teachers of America is a national organization of prospective teachers enrolled in colleges and universities, and in high schools. The local organizations are called F. T. A. clubs in the high schools and chapters in the colleges and universities. The F. T. A. chapters are affiliated with the local state and national education associations. They serve as training schools for the improvement of professional relationships. The J. L. Jarman Chapter was organized in November, 1939, and received its charter from the National Education Association in 1940.
