Subject: Faculty Senate agenda for March 21

The Faculty Senate will meet on Thursday, March 21, at 3:30 in THE DINING HALL ANNEX.

1. Approval of the minutes of the February 14 Senate meeting (attached)
2. Report from the EPC. Their report is attached and the English Proficiency Committee proposal and its Implementation Timelines, also attached, are part of that report.
3. Motion from SACS Committee (attached)
4. Motions from P & T Procedures Committee (attached)
5. Motion from Graduate Committee (attached)
6. General Education Committee proposal about staggering terms. The committee determined, after trying to work with the Senate's motion of last month, that the rotation of members will be as follows:
1-year term: Bob May (2001-2002)
2-year term: Barbara Chesler (2001-1003)
3-year term: Mikie Flanigan and Claire McCoy (2001-2004)
7. Motion from the AAC about Program Review (attached)
8. Reports from committee chairs:
Committee on Faculty Development--Dr. Barber
College Lectures Committee--Dr. Clark
9. Motion on supervision of student teachers from the Department of English, Modern Languages, and Philosophy:

Current policy (p. 9 of FPPM):
Supervision of student teachers. No supervisor should be responsible for more than 18 students per semester. The credit-hour load for supervisors is two credit hours per three students supervised, and is based on an assumption of weekly visits at wide-spread locations. If visits are less frequent, or the locations are clustered, the credit-hour load should be adjusted proportionately.

Proposed policy:

limit will constitute a load of two credits.
