To Whom It May Concern:

We received the copy of Ruffner Roots & Ramblings (Vol. 6, Issue #1, March 2003) recently and when reading through it saw the information about Eve (Ruffner) Wood and Nehemiah Wood, Jr. Your information was very interesting and I realized that in the process of helping locate information for our Homestead Museum, which will be opening in April, we came across a picture the early 1900's of the Homestead. The information we were given is that it is a picture of Sam Shires at the old Wood Homestead in the early 1900's. I guess Same Shires isn't a relative but I thought you might like a copy of the picture anyway.

I've enclosed for the picture from the early 1900's as well as a current picture of the Homestead. As I mentioned they are turning the Homestead in to a museum. It will house history and information about the company, Bob Evans' family as well as information about the history of the Homestead itself. I just thought you might enjoy it.

Sincerely,
