MAIN ST LANES

by KC MCALLISTER | PHOTO STAFF | @LONGWOODROTUNDA

Main Street Lanes, Farmville's only bowling alley, offers 24 lanes and an arcade for students and locals. The bowling alley is located on North Main Street and holds multiple events throughout the year such as parties, fundraisers and league tournaments. Tuesday nights are college nights where students can bowl at a discount as many times as they like when they bring their student ID, according to their website.

Farmville DONUTS & KOLACHES

by MIRANDA GOMEZ | PHOTO STAFF | @LONGWOODROTUNDA

Farmville Donuts and Kolaches is a small donut shop on 1510 E 3rd St. Owner, Averest Tram, opened this donut shop with his sister, but currently doesn't have any student deals but is hoping to get one started as the business picks up. Tram feels this could be a good location for students to hang out, even though it is farther from campus, and feels they could enjoy warm homemade donuts that are made fresh with different toppings and fillings daily.

After renovations, Hotel Weyanoke reopened on May 7, 2018. These renovations included newly furnished rooms with a more modern style and four new restaurants within the hotel: Sassafra, Effingham's, Campagna and Catbird. Sassafra is a coffee shop located on the first floor of the hotel where you can sit down and work on homework while you sip on a hot latte.

Effingham's is a restaurant located on the first floor where they serve coal-fire pizza, hearty sandwiches and healthy salads with locally-sourced organic ingredients. Campagna is restaurant where you can order freshly-made Italian cuisine and pair it with a glass of wine. Catbird is a rooftop bar in which you can enjoy time with your friends while taking in a panoramic view of Farmville.

HUDDLE HOUSE

by Jacob Puterko | Photo Staff | @JPuterko

Huddle House is one of the few places in town where you can get breakfast all day long. Since opening up in November of 2017, they have prided themselves on serving good food with friendly service. They try to make everyone's experience there great by interacting with everyone and making it feel like home. Huddle House has low prices for their meals and a breakfast platter that will fill anyone up for less than $10. The prices draw in the college crowd but the service will make you feel at home.

WALKER'S DINER

by Brandon Cheung | Photo Staff | @longwoodrotunda

Walker's Diner has been around since the time of segregation. A small window in front of the main entrance is where the African Americans would order from. Walker's has been a favorite in the Farmville community and have attracted the attention of both Longwood and Hampden-Sydney students. They have no special deals for students, but they are sure to leave every customer satisfied. Not only do they serve all day breakfast, but they also have an extended lunch portion of their menu. Interesting fact to know is that Walker's sells homemade dog treats, made with all natural ingredients that are safe for consumption.

Perini Pizza, a new Farmville pizzeria on North Main Street, brings “the taste of Italy to the Heart of Virginia” and is owned by Tony Perini. Perini opened the pizzeria on June 5 of this year and says his dough and sauces are all homemade. Perini Pizza offers make-your-own-pizzas or guests can choose from the pizza options on the menu. The pizzeria also offers subs, salads and pasta and guests can receive a side of popcorn from their movie popcorn machine, instead of fries or chips. On Tuesdays, Perini Pizza has a College Happy Hour, where students can get half off appetizers and $2 beer when they show their student ID.
