Longwood University

Digital Commons @ Longwood University

Rotunda

Library, Special Collections, and Archives

Fall 11-9-1960

Rotunda - Vol 40, No 6 - Nov 9, 1960

Longwood University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.longwood.edu/rotunda

Recommended Citation

Longwood University, "Rotunda - Vol 40, No 6 - Nov 9, 1960" (1960). Rotunda. 2312. https://digitalcommons.longwood.edu/rotunda/2312

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Library, Special Collections, and Archives at Digital Commons @ Longwood University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Rotunda by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Longwood University. For more information, please contact hamiltonma@longwood.edu, alwinehd@longwood.edu.

Library Longwood College Farmville, Virginia

> Support Class Hockey Games

> > No. 6

Attend Marine Band Concert

Longwood College, Farmville, Va., November 9, 1960

VOLUME XL

Freshman Class Elects Officers, Representatives

The freshman class elected its officers and student government representatives on November 7. The officers are: Ann Harrar, president; Betty Ann Rex, vicepresident; Mary Ann Lipford, secretary; and Evelyn Ray, treasurer. Ginny Summers and Judy Melchor are the student government representatives.

President Harrar

The president of the class of '64 is Ann Harrar, a physical education major from White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. She plays on the freshman class hockey team and worked on the props committee for the Fall-One-Act. Among her many interests are hunting and fishing. With a big smile on her face she com-mented, "I still can't believe

Betty Ann Rex, the vice-president, said, "I'm very honored." A music major from Charlottesville, Betty is a member of the choir and the Granddaughters Club

"It's wonderful to have been chosen secretary of such a wonderful class," commented Mary Ann Lipford. Mary Ann is an elementary major from Lexington. Evelyn said, "I feel very hon-ored. I know it is a great respon-sibility and I will do my best."

Student Government

Ginny Summers had this to say about her being elected to student government, "I felt very surprised and quite honored. I'll try to do my very best." Ginny. an elementary major from Schuyler, is a member of the Granddaughters Club.

"I was very honored and surprised. I hope that I can do a good job," commented Judy Melchor, freshman representative to student government. Judy is an art major from Norfolk.

Elect Commission

The following girls were elected to the Freshman Commission of the YWCA: Betty Jean Russell, Sue Spellman, Vivian Taylor, Linda Woodall, Susie Waters, Pat Pinkston, Judy Partrea, Diana Delk, Marian Russ, Marjorie Twilly, and Brenda Is-

bel

-Staff Photo FRESHMEN OFFICERS E. Gray, A. Harrah, M. A. Lipford, and B. A. Rex, gather with G. Summers and J. Melchor, who sit in front.

75th Anniversary Talks Preserved In Book Form

As a note of appreciation to versity, who spoke on "The Abthose who took part in the special stract of Current Trends in year, a book of those speeches given is now being printed.

Foreword by Dr. Lankford ration of this special program with us. We offer this little book as a tangible reminder of a highlight in the history of Longwood College

Celebration Is Opened Dr. Alma Hunt, the executive secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, who is an alumnae of Longwood, opened the anniversary celebration with an address, "Imperishable Columns," on Founders Day, March 14, 1959.

Symposium Speeches

Included in this book are the partment of education, Duke Uni- publication programs during Longwood Col- Teacher Education;" Dr. Marlege's seventy-fifth anniversary guerite Roberts, dean of Westhampton College of the University of Richmond, who spoke on "The History of Teacher Edu-In his foreword to this book, cation;" and Dr. William F. Dr. Lankford stated, "We thank Quillian Jr., president of Ranall who contributed to our cele- dolph-Macon Woman's College, who spoke on "The Contribution of Liberal Arts Colleges to Teacher Education." These three speeches were made at the Longwood College Symposium on October 13, 1959.

The convocation for the Symposium was made by Dr. You Chan Yang, the Korean Ambassador to the United States. He spoke on "Progress in Korean Education."

On May 31, 1959 Governor J. Lindsay Almond of Virginia delivered the Commencement speech to the anniversary graduspeeches made by Dr. William ating class of Longwood College. Cartwright, chairman of the de- This speech will conclude the

Longwood Election Picks Richard Nixon LC Professors, Staff Members National Tally Places Earn New Posts Kennedy In Capitol

The faculty and administration of Longwood College has just undergone a reorganization, in which the work of the dean, the associate dean, and the executive secretary has been drawn together and divided between academic and general administrative work. This general renovation involves a number of individual changes.

As an initial change, Dr. C. G. Gordon Moss has been promoted from his position as associate dean to that of dean, filling the office to be left vacant by Dr. Boggs, who accepted an appointment at the University of West Virginia

The office of dean will carry the responsibilities of all academic duties previously performed by the associate dean, the registration of students, and the evaluation of the transcripts of students transfers.

The office of the associate dean has been abolished, and that of director of admissions has been added, with Mrs. Watkins, former executive secretary, filling this position. The director of admissions will be responsible for student admissions, student scholarships, student aid, and student placement.

In addition to these major official changes, a number of minor personnel changes have also taken place. Mrs. Jean Wilson in the business office will take charge of the payrolls and be responsible for all records.

In the faculty there have been only two significant develop-ments. Replacing Dr. Moss as chairman of the history department will be Dr. Francis Simkins while Dr. Robert Brumfield is relieving Dr. George Jeffers as chairman of the natural sciences department.

"Capriccio Italien,"

With a total of 874 votes cast in yesterday's mock election sponsored by the Longwood forum and Student Government, Longwood's students and faculty members refuted the national election of John F. Kennedy by electing Richmond M. Nixon the new President of the United States.

Out of the total the Republi-cans received 482 votes, Democrats, 386, and six votes were cast on the Conservative ticket. Polls were set up for each of the four classes and the faculty in the Rotunda from 7:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. The polls performed the functions of a state in a national election. Each student was registered at a poll and her name was checked as she cast her vote. The same procedure was followed with the faculty.

With 374 freshman votes cast, the Republican ticket got 198 votes. The Democrat ticket followed up with 174 and two votes went for the Conservatives.

The sophomore class went Republican casting 87 of their 149 the class total was cast for the Democrats leaving the Conservatives zero.

Ninety-seven of the juniors' 184 votes cast went to the Republicans and 85 to the Democrats. The Conservative ticket received two ballots in their favor. The senior class voted 69 of

Historical Sites Compose Tours In Travel Class

As part of its contribution to the celebration of the Civil War Centennial, Longwood College will offer a special traveling course in Virginia history during the 1961 session.

The course is intended for any-their 118 votes cast for the Republicans. Forty-eight went to the Democrats with the final two votes cast on the Conservative ballot.

The faculty votes totalled 58 with 31 going to the Republicans. Democratic faculty members numbered 17 and one lone member cast his vote for the Conservatives.

Throughout the state of Virginia other colleges held similar mock elections. Sweet Briar, casting a total of 387 votes, elected Nixon three to one in their campus balloting. Nixon was slightly favored by the Sweet Briar faculty also. Hollins College favored the Nixon - Lodge ticket, and a random sample total to the party. The rest of poll at Madison College resulted in a Republican victory.

Out-of-state colleges, such as Central Michigan University, elected Richard Nixon as the nation's new president. Nixon captured 617 of the 959 votes cast. Votes cast for state offices also went in favor of the Republicans.

It was Nixon by a landslide at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pennsylvania. Of the 663 votes cast 463 went to Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge. Voting at the university was done on a machine which tabulated the ballots mechanically.

Bluefield College in West Virginia voted Nixon three to one. The student body divided by states to represent all fifty states.

Editor's note: These samplings from college mock elections represent a total of ten schools reporting results. From these ten elections all favored the Republican platform. Other college results were not available at the time of publication.

Band

Schoepper Directs National Marine In Presenting Matinee, Evening Concerts

The United States Marine Band | Marine Band simulates a male will present a matinee and eve- choir using only instruments. ning concert November 12 at 3 and 8 p.m. in Jarman Hall under mission, the band returns to set the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Albert Schoepper.

Appearing in the traditional scarlet coats, worn since their inception as a band in 1789, the Marine musicians will present a vivid picture as they open the evening program in Jarman Auditorium with "The Diplomat." by John Philip Sousa. Then they will play "The Masqueraders" by Mascagni.

Leaving "The Masqueraders" they will move on to a "Cole Porter Medley" arranged by the Marine Band's own William Jolly, who has given the full symphonic treatment to a group of the most popular of the Cole Porter classics.

The audience will observe the vivid coats, gold braid, and gleaming instruments of the cornet section when they rise to play the exciting "Bolero" by Smith.

To close the first half of the program, "The Feast of the by Lizst. Apostles" by Richard Wagner, Another will feature an unusual and me-

Following a ten-minute interthe mood with a composition strictly American in flavor, as they present Morton Gould's "Family Album" from "Suite for Band." Returning the audience to younder days, the band stimulates musical recollections with "Outing in the Park," "Nickelodeon," "Old Romance," and Horseless Carriage Gallop." One of the highlights of this varied program will be the accordion solo by Donald Landaas. This young artist has the honor of being the first and only accordionist to become a member of the Marine Band. Since becoming a member of the band in 1959, Donald has been featured as a soloist before large and enthusiastic audiences in the Nation's Capitol; however, this is his first time as soloist on the play his own composition, "Swiss Fantasy.

Next will be "Dreams of Love"

Another high spot of the program will be a solo by William annual fall concert tour. He will also the Concert Moderator. His rich and powerful voice has thrilled audiences on four continents. His selection for this program will be "Largo Al Factotum" from Rossini's opera audiences in all parts of the burg, ending at the site of Lee's gelberg, head of the history de-"The Barber of Seville." This united States, have continued surrender at Appomattox Court partment of John Marshall High lodious presentation in which the Jones, baritone vocalist, who is aria, sung by Figaro in the first since that time.

Band Director LT. COL. ALBERT SCHOEPPER

one interested in learning more about Virginia and the Civil War. A regular three credit class, the course will include lecture periods and tours of Virginia's historic shrines and major Civil War battlefields. Tentative plans program have been made.

The schedule for the tour is set for approximately three weeks after the Longwood summer session begins. Students takbased on Italian tolk songs that ing this class may take courses the composer heard in the streets in summer school before the tour program starts, but will not be One of the greatest thrills of able to take any other classes the evening will be that of hear- when the history travel program ing the Marines play their own is offered since much time will arrangement of the "Marine's be spent off campus.

period will include a visit to the If the course proves successful, Longwood College students may historic Peninsula: Jamestown, where our nation was founded. in accordance with a schedule Williamsburg, where the fight ing the 1961 session. for freedom began, and Yorktown, where independence was fessor of history at Longwood, won.

in Charlottesville, studying the tion in this country. It was just spirit of Thomas Jefferson as ex- history and his book, Cavalier sixty-nine years ago when John emplified at Monticello and the Philip Sousa, leader of the band University of Virginia. A visit to knowledged to be the best onefrom 1880-1892, asked President Fredericksburg will provide op-Benjamin Harrison for approval portunity for touring the Civil lished. He wrote in collaboration to take the Marine Band on tour. War battlefields of northern Vir- with Dr. William Edwin Hemped and these tours, bringing the battlefields a round Richmond, best in symphonic band music to and the famous Crater at Peters- State Library and Sadie E. En-House.

No other Virginia college is scheduling such a history travelfor a three-week summer travel ing program in the 1961 summer session, but many are cooperating in housing. Students of this course will be housed on campuses nearest the points of interest. Colleges cooperating with this endeavor include William and Mary College in Williamsburg, University of Virginia in Charlottesville, and Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg.

The college will accept thirty The tours in the three week applicants only for this course. it is probable that it will be continued during summers succeed-

Dr. Marvin W. Schlegel, prowill be the instructor for this Several days will also be spent class. Dr. Schlegel is considered to be an authority on Virginia Commonwealth, is generally acvolume history of Virginia pubginia, followed by a trip to the hill, former director of the history division of the Virginia School in Richmond.

Presidential approval was grant-

THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1960.

Just Thoughts ...

A few brightly colored leaves fall gently from a drying branch and rest silently on the bare earth.

A quick gust of wind picks up the tiny fingers of nature and carries them across the gray walkway and drops them cruelly in the still waters by the curbing.

A heavy mass of clouds moves slowly across the bright blue sky, making a sharp contrast that hurts the eves.

An eerie rustling filters through the quiet afternoon as the stiff branches rub against each other, breaking the silence of footsteps on the moist ground.

A coldness creeps through the body and garments are wrapped more tightly around trying to shut out the unwanted visitor.

An increase of movement is everywhere as man and nature struggle to escape the foreboding.

A final argument occurs as autumn fights the stillness of winter.

Then . . . exhaustion.

Editorial Policy

Many students have asked us to explain the edi-torial policy of the Rotunda, so this is directed not just to those individuals but to the entire student body and administration.

The editorials may be written by a staff member or by guest writers, usually faculty members or heads of campus organizations. As stated on the masthead, unsigned editorials are the thoughts of the editor. All others are signed by the contributing writer.

Opinionated columns on the feature or another page generally run under the by-line of the author who may state his opinion within the realm of good taste. Even if the name of the author is not expressed, it must be known by the editor before the story can be published.

The Rotunda not only will accept but invites Letters to the Editor. It is important to the life of the college that student attitudes be thus reflected. These letters, however, must be written legibly, in good taste, and signed. As in the columns, the author's name may not be printed, but the editor must be informed of the source.

The ideas stated in these columns, letters, and editorials, belong solely to the author; they are not necessarily shared by the entire staff. We do, how-ever, wholeheartedly believe in the writer's privilege to express in print his beliefs and will, accordingly, stand behind him.

Points To Ponder

Eugenia Sheppard stated that "The legend is that all women love clothes, but my guess is that a door-to-door, early-morning canvass, when women are most likely to give with the truth, would turn up some pretty mixed reactions these days. Lots of sheer unadulterated love of clothes went out of the picture along with the little dressmaker and the long hours of co-designing and collusion at home. Clothes today are a weapon, a symbol, even a nuisance to be shopped for as fast as possible." John Steinback once said, "I believe that there is one story in the world and only one. Human beings are caught in their lives, in their hungers and ambi-tions, in their avarice and cruelty, and in their kindness and generosity, too — in a net of good and evil. A man, after he has brushed off the dust and chips of his life, will have left only the hard, clean question: Was it good or was it evil? Have I done well, or ill?"

LITTLE MAN CAMPUS IN BIBLER

"NO WONDER TH' RUSSIANS ARE AHEAD OF US - BOTH YOU SHOULD BE IN THE LIBRARY STUDYING."

Campus Kids Refuse To Understand Longwood's Future Teaching Plans

By Jane Stegall

"Are they gonna really all be teachers?" "Yeah! That's what I hear." "Oh! Not all of girl whisked up and asked Susan If it was the same Gerald Susan 'em, silly, some of 'em grow up and get married." . . . "And we 'une time — I asked what her une time — I asked what her get the rest." "Kenneth . . . George . . . come on let's go play ball behind the library." With this we gain some insight into a child's view of students at Longwood College. The girls think we're wonderful-the boys aren't so enthusiastic unless, of course, we're pretty good at their game of baseball.

Susan Likes Arithmetic The other day I saw a group of children who had just gotten out of school, standing across in front of the church. I crossed and began talking with a few of them. One little girl's name was Susan - she was in the third gradeliked arithmetic best-and just couldn't stand Gerald Lee. When she really liked living in a college town and thought the girls head to the one this year.

to say another little boy came running up and yelled . . . "Come Silent Treatment About that time another little on Gerald . . . we're waiting" to hurry. This being an oppor- was talking about I can well name was. She looked up and quite disgustedly answered, "My mamma and daddy told me not to talk with strangers."

Being a stranger, I shut up and directed my attention to a small boy leanhe began crying louder. I asked ing against the fire hydrant. I received no answer when I asked head — if he was hungry? — he about his name and only a blank expressionless look when I asked if he knew any of the college girls. Finally I inquired as to best I could gather, some boys what grade he was in and without had chased him and another boy, looking at me he held up two finand the other boy had left him. gers and still remained silent.

About that time he pulled out lution, four small boys, yet larger a Boy Scout knife and began ex- than the other one, whom I asamining it closely. I felt sumed to be his would-be assailthis might open up an avenue ants, rounded the corner, stalked I finally pinned her down, I found for new conservation, so I asked up the sidewalk and glared at me Dr. Lancaster's swivel chair with if he liked knives. He raised his and my unknown friend. After a at Longwood were nice. Susan was in a dance recital at Jarman last year and is looking forward fore I could think of anything else (Continued on page 4) (Continued on page 4) chairs? Chairs - you raise an eyebrow — a chair is a chair, isn't it?

Chairs May Uncover New Area Of Analysis

ticular chair be characteristic of its owner? Could the character- and comfortable. It is of a light istics of its owner rub off on the colored wood that hasn't a highly appearance of the chair? Think polished surface but seems to of it! We may have stumbled upon a new area of analysis.

The scientist in you says be specific, how about an example of this far-fetched nonsense. Our first step is to Dr. Moss' office. Behind his desk is a highly polished, modern, swivel type chair with armrests; it is of a dark wood with a greenish colored upholstery. "Go on and try it out,' Dr. Moss urges. Sure enoughit's comfortable. But is it Dr. Moss?

Not at all. Dr. Moss' old chair expresses him. When he was in his office in the back of his classroom in Ruffner devoting his time to the lectures and tests for renowned historians and col-understand her attitude.

S. O. S. For Wes

Another day as I was returning

Before I could suggest a so-

By Judy Detrich Have you ever thought about leagues in this or that historic endeavor, i.e. the students he has guided through studies of history from b. c. times to the contemporary world of big business and Of course it is, but perhaps it U Va — it was then that he sat is more than that. Could a par- in HIS chair.

This chair is firm, substantial, shine from use, not superficial gloss. It is not upholstered; it does swivel and tilt.

Most important to us is the impression it gives. The chair suggests values that are not rooted in material things. It seems to invite you to sit down to study, to think, or to enjoy an honest-to goodness head-thrown-back roar of laughter.

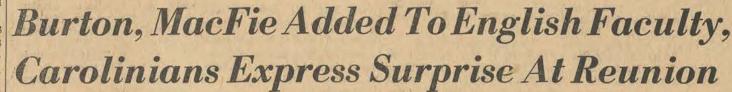

The connotations of this chair might be connected with Dr. Dr. Moss, for he is as the chair seems to be.

His classes are important for the history he teaches and even more profound because of his influence upon his "fellow historians." His concern is directed toward the minds of his students as he invites them to study, to think, and to appreciate a good joke or two.

His interest places little value n the material aspects of living. Goods are useful and pleasant but should not be given too much emphasis, he feels. For by gaining material wealth - moneysomeone else is necessarily deprived of it. On the other hand if you devote yourself to improving less tangible things you will be benefiting others.

Perhaps this is why Dr. Moss from town, I found a distraught left - a little reluctantly - his first grader on the corner by the old chair for the new one. It is Weyanoke Hotel. I leaned down true that he left behind his chair and asked if I could help and but he took with him the charactrue that he left behind his chair teristics that made it him. He if he was lost? - he shook his carried to the Associate Dean's office his character that may shook his head - if he was mad? help and influence the students he shook his head, only this he meets daily. Although he can time in the other direction. The no longer use his old chair it still embodies the characteristics he has taken with him to his new one.

Another case in point is the chair of Dr. Lankford. Like Dr. Moss he has had at Longwood an old and a new chair. When he first arrived here he replaced a similar one - except that it , gave me a black look minute they passed on by and had four straight legs. This chair,

By Ann Agee by the calibre of girl who is By Bobbi Goodman Miss Martha Burton, one of the here," and she likes the college The second addition to Long-wood's English department is Miss Anne Macfie, a native of Winnsboro, South Carolina. Miss Macfie teaches three courses in English: freshman communication, a survey of English literature, and American Writers.

Miss Macfie attended Erskine College in Due West lina, and did her graduate work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She has both a BS and an MA degree in English. For two years following her graduation, she taught at Southern Seminary and Junior College at Buena Vista.

In the Diary of Our Own Samuel Pepys, Franklin, two new professors in the Long-P. Adams said, "I find that a great part of the information I have was acquired by looking up something and an experienced teacher and stufinding something else on the way." Jonothan Swift said that "Wit in conversation is, in the midwives' phrase, a quick concepteion and an easy delivery."

Robert Raynolds in "The Choice to Love" said that "Love between man and woman like any other love, is a relationship in spiritual greatness. It is a in west Palm Beach, Florida, love generous in offering and generous in receiving; she did not find teaching elemenit is full of langhter, mercy rejoicing. Love nourishes tary school to her liking, howbut does not possess; in love we affirm one another but do not dominate. To love is not to win or lose but to help and be helped. ever, for as she jokingly com-ments, "... the fact that I was living in West Palm Beach was to help and be helped.

-Readers' Digest

The Rotunda

ESTABLISHED NOVEMBER 20, 1920

Published each week during the college year except during holidays and examination period by the students of Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia. Box 168.

Sandra Weaver Editor-in-Chief

Jo Anne Parsons	Business	Manag
Joann Kleinecke	Managin	g Edite
Nancy Lechler	New	a Edite
Judy Detrich	Featur	e Edite
Mary Byrd Micou	Sport	ts Edito
Pat Hurst	Des	k Edite
Linda Sudduth P	hotograph	y Edite
Nancy Lee Cole	irculation	Manage
Janet Stanley, Janet Wainwright Ad	vertising 1	Manager

(Unsigned editorials written by the editor)

Member: Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, Associated Collegiate Press (Rating first class), Columbia Scholarship Press Association (Rating first place).

Entered as second class matter at the Post Office at Farmville, Virginia, under the Act of Congress on March 8, 1984. Represented for national adver-tising by the National Advertising Service. Printed by the Farmville Herald.

wood English department, is both dent.

After completing high school, she attended Guilford College in Greensboro, North Carolina, for four years, graduating with her bachelor's degree. The following year, she taught the first grade the only thing which preserved my sanity."

In 1956, Miss Burton enrolled in the University of North Carolina, and after a year of study, received her master's degree. In the fall of 1957, she began study on her Ph D degree at U NC, and at the same time, served as a part-time instructor in the university English department. After three years of being half studenthalf teacher, she decided to leave graduate school, with most of the work toward a Ph.D. completed. When questioned as to why she accepted a position at Longwood, she said that she preferred a small college, rather than the 'mass organization" of a large university, and this college is close to Chapel Hill and to her home in High Point, North Carolina

Concerning Longwood, Miss Burton said she is "impressed very much. Longwood's impression of Miss Burton has been equally as good. Her students have a tendency to rave about her, saying that she makes the classics interesting, and they feel

(Continued on page 4)

NEWCOMERS TO LONGWOOD FACULTY, Miss Anne Macfie and Miss Martha Burton compare notes on classes.

-Staff Photo

Very much a travel enthusiast. Miss Macfie spent her high school summers traveling and working in various states. She once was part of a college team which taught Bible School in Alabama and Florida, and has spent a good deal of time working at Presbyterian conferences and camps. While working at a resort in Vermont, Miss Macfie became acquainted with New England and also journeyed into Canada. She recently spent a summer traveling on the Continent. "And I haven't finished my travels yet," she says.

Miss Macfie is also very much interested in drama and music and was a voice student in college.

An interesting sidelight to the appearance of Miss Macfie and Miss Burton at Longwood is the fact that they were friends in graduate school at UNC and neither knew that the other would be teaching here this year. It was apparently a pleasant surprise for both and according to Miss Macfie, "gives us a good opportunity to further our friendship."

THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1960

Longwood Hockey Team Boasts Brilliant Record

By Mary Byrd Micou

There are two things conductive to winning team spirit: a reputation to uphold and a motivation to score an upset. It can games since 1952. be proudly stated that Longwood has a reputation to uphold in the field of varsity hockey, and for four years every hockey team has successfully borne the voluntary task of perpetuating the Longwood tradition of victory on the hockey field.

A look at the records shows that been unbeaten in every collegi-Runners To Vie

On November 17

November 17.

selected to race.

from the event.

News Summary

shows that Longwood teams have lost only three college hockey Other honors have come to past varsity hockey teams through individual team members. In 1958, Lou Heier, a Longwood player at that time, was chosen to play in the national tournament at Chicago on the Southeast team representing teams all over the southeastern Longwood hockey teams have part of the country. Lou and another Longwood alumna, Carol Wolfe, are now playing hockey for a Washington club.

On the international hockey set Longwood has also left its mark. The college has contributed two to the international hockey team. Red and Whites will race Miss Elizabeth Burger, a gradagainst the Green and Whites to uate of William and Mary but hang their banners from the claimed by Longwood because dorms at Longwood. This is more she started her hockey here, and formally known as Color Rush. Clara McCarter were chosen for Color Rush tryouts will be held this honor.

after the class hockey game on Tentative plans have been November 16. The actual Color made to play next year's Tide-Rush will take place on the Athwater Tournament or Southeastletic Field immediately following ern Tournament in Farmville. the freshmen-sophomore game, In 1963, the international tournament will be held in Washington Five of the fastest runners and three of the visiting teams, from the freshmen and junior coming from such places as classes, and also from the sopho-Scotland and Wales, Africa, more and senior classes will be may visit the Longwood campus Color cup points are obtained during their stay in the United States

President Eisenhower said Tues-

take "whatever steps may be appropriate" to defend its Naval Base at Guantanamo, Cuba. He stated further that the United States will not agree to any modification of the treaty, which dates from 1903, assigning it the right to maintain a base at

The Archbishop of Canterbury will visit Pope John XXIII at the Vatican next month. It will be the first meeting since the Church of England split with Rome four centuries ago. The Guantanamo.

courtesy.'

ate game since 1956. An even closer look at the score books ing a suitcase.

Pigskin Play Two Carolina Teams

L. Hatch, V. Parker, M. H. Grayson, and C. L. Parker, try pack-

Stage Surprise Wins

By Carolyn Elliott

Onlookers were stunned by one of the grestest shockers of the season when Davidson defeated VPI at Blacksburg, 9-7. The victory, Davidson's second of the season against four defeats, broke Tech's four-game winning streak and upset Tech's plans of gaining possession of the Southern Conference lead. Navy was also ousted from the ranks of unbeaten teams when Duke managed to pull a surprising victory over the Midshipmen, 19-10. Proving the difference were Duke's big and alternating lines, as the Midshipmen slipped back in the third quarter under steady pounding. Despite the three fumbles made by the Blue Devils, they managed to come from behind and present a big "V" for the large crowd.

The first 18 minutes of the VMI-Lehigh game found VMI storing away 18 points. Even though VMI almost made the mistake of settling back while stubborn Lehigh advanced, the Keydets held the opposing team off and walked away with a fourpoint difference in the final Lehigh scored both of its score. touchdowns in the final six minutes.

announcement was made on All Saints Day by Dr. Geoffrey A third touchdown on a 93-yard Fisher, Archbishop of Canterrun, topped with a two-point conbury and spiritual leader of the version pass gave Franklin and Church of England. The meeting Marshall a 21-20 football victory was described as "a visit of over Hampden-Sydney. Both teams now have two victories and four losses.

The Soviet News Agency, Tass, said Wednesday that they had Remaining undefeated in the arrested Miknail Platovsky in Ivy League competition were the the city of Minsk as a spy for rs of Princeton as

Ed Dyas completed his eighth and ninth field goals for this season, setting a new national record and leading Auburn to a 27-12 victory over Mississippi State on Saturday

A field goal by Tom Blanda decided the Army-Syracuse game in Army's favor on Saturday. This is the second straight defeat for Syracuse, defending national champions.

North Carolina State's Wolfpack gained a 14-12 victory over Wake Forest, aided by Nick Maravich's conversions. State is now a half-game behind Duke in Atlantic Coast Conference wins. A touchdown run of 64 yards by Tommy Keesee in the third quarter gave Washington and Lee a 6-0 victory over Carnegie Tech. Washington and Lee has had an undefeated season with one tie. Clemson celebrated its homecoming by downing the University of North Carolina, 24-0. The game was, Tiger coach, Frank Howard's one hundred and twentieth career win. Georgia Tech's "rambling wrecks" rambled to a 14-7 victory over Tennessee, keeping Tennessee from tying with Mississippi for the Southeast Conference lead.

Penn State's Jim Kerr scored wice in the State victory over the University of Maryland, 28-9. The first TD by Kerr capped a 91yard run after the opening kickoff.

State Theatre

FARMVILLE, VA.

NOVEMBER 10-11-12

SHOW TIMES

1:00 - 3:35 - 6:06 - 8:35

3:00 - 6:45 and 9:10

WED.-THURS.-NOV. 16-17

SOPHIA LOREN

MAURICE CHEVALIER

"Breath of a Scandal"

Monday - Tuesday

Sunday

Longwood Honored

Hockey Tournament Finishes LC Season

By Lois Peters

The Longwood College hockey team traveled to Westhampton College in Richmond for the annual Tidewater Hockey Tournament on Friday and Saturday, November 4 and 5.

Nine Virginia teams including Longwood were represented at the tournament. Most of these teams were on Longwood's regular season schedule and are located in the same general area.

Beat Colonels

Friday at 2 p.m. the blue and white team met the "Little Colonels" of Richmond who had previously beaten them 4-1 in regular season play. Playing determinedly and well, Longwood avenged this earlier defeat tying he "Little Colonels" 2-2.

Saturday morning the Petersburg Club was completely hopeless as they fell to Longwood 12-Time and again the blue and white dented their opponent's goal line while Petersburg was unable to score.

At the completion of the other games the selecting committee named those girls who had been chosen for the Tidewater teams. These girls played an exhibition game, and from this game the first and second Tidewater teams were announced.

Longwood Honored

Seven Longwood girls received honors at the tournament. Those receiving honors were Mary Hite Grayson, Pat Southworth, Barbara Brantley, Trina Childress, Virginia Parker, Clara Lee Parker, and Lindy Hatch.

Mary Hite Grayson, a senior physical education major from Radford, was named to the Tidewater first team for the third consecutive year. Pat Southworth and Barbara Brantley, seniors, and Trina Childress, a junior, were named to the Tidewater second team. Pat was named to the second team her sophomore year and was an alternate last year. Barbara was named to the second team her sophomore year nates were Clara Lee Parker, a senior, Virginia Parker, a junior, and Lindy Hatch, a sophomore All seven of these girls will travel to Baltimore on November 19 and 20 for the Southeastern Tournament. Five associations will be represented at this tournament - Blue Ridge, Baltimore, Tidewater, Delaware, and Washington. From this tournament outstanding players will be chosen and will represent the Southeast in the National Tournament in California.

Faculty Honored

Two Longwood faculty members also received honors this past week end. Miss Olive Iler was elected representative from the Tidewater Tournament to the Southeastern Tournament. Miss Elizabeth Burger was elected to the Tidewater selection committee for next year.

Richmond Alumnae Hostesses Of Tea For VEA Visitors

The Richmond chapter of the Longwood alumnae gave a tea Friday afternoon at the Wythe Room of the John Marshall Hotel, for all Longwood alumnae who were attending the Virginia Educational Association convention in Richmond, Mrs. Norman Leek, president of the Richmond alumnae chapter, was hostess, and received guests.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Longwood's alumnae secretary, stated that a new alumnae chapter has been formed in Staunton. Recently, she and Miss Winnie Hiner, the retired alumnae treasurer, went to Staunton to attend a buffet supper given by Mrs. Stephen Timberlake IV. At this gathering, officers were elected for the Staunton chapter.

Mrs. Phillip Roberts was elected president; Mrs. Charles Dickerman, vice-president; Mrs. Percy Wilson, secretary; and and last year made the first team. Those chosen to be alter- Miss Catherine Bickle, treasurer.

Presidency Decided, Ike Supports Treaty

By Carla McNair

Without the aid of "Republi- day that the United States will can" Virginia, Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts piled up an insurmountable lead in the Eastern industrial states in Tuesday's heavy voting to clinch his election as the new President of the United States.

In defeating Vice - president Nixon, Kennedy became the youngest man ever elected to the office although Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest man to serve. Kennedy also became the first Roman Catholic ever elected to the White House.

Virginia went Republican for the third time in a row yesterday as the people turned in 354, 436 votes for Nixon to Kennedy's 312,12. It was an historic day in the State's history, but it failed to sway the nation's pub-

IN PREPARATION for their trip to Baltimore, seven of the Longwood hockey team, P. Southworth, B. Brantley, T. Childress,

By Ann McCants

Union Vespers will be held Sunday, November 13, at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Schlegel will be the guest speakers. All students are urged to attend this interdenominational meeting sponsored by the YWCA.

Episcopal

A Pizza Party will be held in the Parrish House on Thursday evening, November 17, for all Episcopal students. Those who wish to attend are asked to sign up on the Church bulletin board. Recently Mr. Sterling Adams, Mr. Vache, and Mollie Lambert represented the Longwood Canterbury group at the VCA Executive Council Meeting at Memorial Church in Richmond.

Methodist

The University of Virginia Wesley Foundation will be guest of the Longwood Wesley Foundation Friday, November 11, in he Fellowship Hall of the Church for a spaghetti supper. Entertainment by both groups will follow the meal.

There will be no evening program on Sunday, November 13, but the group will attend Union Vespers at the Presbyterian Church. Choir practice will be held in the center Thursday at 5 p.m.

official said: "I point out this is a Soviet citizen that they captured alleging he was an American spy.'

Western Actor Ward Bond died Saturday after what was described as a heart attack. On the Hollywood scene actor Clark Gable was rushed to a Hollywood hospital as an emergency case early Sunday morning. Doctors declined to say what the cause of the illness is.

Student Directory

Dr. Richard K. Meeker has announced that the 1960-1961 Student Directory has been completed and should be available to the student body before Christmas.

The directory is a complete and concise listing of the names, addresses, and tele-phone numbers of the students, faculty, and administration of Longwood College and incudes important local telephone numbers. The directory is published annually by Pi Delta Epsilon as a service to the students of Longwood College.

the United States. It reported feated Harvard, 14-12 in their that he had equipment for print- fifty-third football game. The vicing anti-Soviet propaganda. A tory, Princeton's thirty-first in United States state department this old series, gave the Tigers a

> LANSCOTT'S GIFT SHOP

Special Sale

of Christmas Cards

Buy Your Holiday Party Dress from

DOROTHY MAY

Use our charge account or lay-a-way

BING CROSBY * FABIAN * TUFSDAY WELD SUN.-MON.-TUES. NOV. 13-14-15

Cheerless leader

Not a "rah rah" left in him! He's just discovered there's no more Coke. And a cheer leader without Coke is as sad as a soap opera. To put the sparkle back in his eye-somebody!bring him a sparkling cold Coca-Cola!

BE REALLY REFRESHED

Bottled under authority of The Coca-Cola Company by Lynchburg Coca-Cola Bottling Works, Inc., Lynchburg, Va.

THE ROTUNDA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1960

Boat Fan Disclosed Among Local Children

skirt. The smaller boy, who I lawn, a small boy approached guess was Wes, looked at them from the rear and stood looking and began spilling off names the over her shoulder for about likes of which I had not heard! thirty minutes. Finally he punch-We went our separate ways and ed her . . . sat down beside her have not met again since.

Page 4

Baseball Try-Outs Have you ever tried to enter into their games behind the library? Once I asked if I could firmative answer he immediplay softball and after I was given the third degree about my potential was allowed to fill the position of catcher. I was hardly needed, however, for they rarely missed the ball. During football the dock. (Meaning a barge on season they won't let girls play because Pete told me that one got hurt last year when they were playing tackle football.

These boys like Longwood girls but just can't understand how some of the nice ones are going to be teachers. I asked if they really dislike teachers and one named Paul looked up and quite sincerely asked . . . "Aren't we possible. Oh . . . yes . . . if you're supposed to?" Rather than try ever walking through the art deto explain I asked if we had partment and see a picture hang-

Art Critics Too Once when a student at Long-

Porter To Open Hollins College Literary Event

Students at Longwood College have been invited to attend a literary festival at Hollins College November 12.

The intercollege symposium, the first such literary event at Hollins, will feature three contemporary American Writers, Katherine Anne Porter, Randall Jarrell, and James Dickey.

Festival sponsors, the English department and Grapheon, a literary honor society, have an-nounced that Miss Porter will open the program at 10 a.m. with a forum on fiction. The novelist and short story writer will preside at the session to be held in Bradley Hall.

A special feature of the poetry session will be the reading of Virginia college students. An open critical discussion will follow the poetry reading. Students Louis D. Rubin, Jr., Hollins College, Virginia.

An autograph party in the Hollins main drawing room will enable students to talk with the authors and see their works on display. The party will take place at 4 p.m.

The symposium will be concluded with a banquet at 7 p.m. in Randolph Hall. A panel including the visiting writers, Hollins writer-in-residence John W. Aldridge, and Dr. Louis D. Rubin,

(Continued from page 2) " wood was painting on the front

... pointed in a direction and said "that it?" — meaning was she painting a picture of the Colonnade, After receiving an afately changed the subject and announced that he had had a test that day . . . had walked out of class because he was bored . and gone to see a battleship at a small pier down at the river that runs through Farmville.) He had drawn a picture of his battleship and suggested she put a big black battleship in the middle of the Colonnade.

After briefly outlining his life history, he made plans with the student upon leaving for her to visit him at his home whenever enough people for a game of ing on the wall of the Colonnade with a big black battleship in the with a big black battleship in the middle of it . . . you'll know why. Little Intellectuals Yes, they're all cute and individual in their views and ideas bout Longwood girls . . .Sh! Here come some boys now . . "Why's that ole girl asking so many questions?" . . . "Yeah! many questions?" . . . "Yeah! she goes to college and she's gonna be a teacher." "Aw . . . come on Benja's waiting . . ."

Lankford, Moss Personify Ideas Of Chair Theory (Continued from page 2)

rests, served him until the redecoartion of his office last year. At this time, his chair - and itiation, they attended a dinner the cushion he used with it - at Cederbrook. was replaced by a new one. The new chair, too, looks very businesslike and efficient.

Dr. Lankford's interests lie in the field of progressive educapoems submitted in advance from tion and mathematics. If Dr. Moss' chair represents a character of academic emphasis, Dr. Lankford's chair creates an imare invited to send poetry to Dr. age of the practical aspects of college.

In this time when Longwood, like all colleges, is adjusting itself to enormous increases in everything from dormitory construction to student enrollment,

Dr. Lankford must be efficient and businesslike in his position. His chair seems to express these traits that are so essential to the President of Longwood College in ber of the sorority and discussed tions to the chapter. 1960. More of the hours spent in duties of officials. his chair must be concerned with the problems of college manage-

PAUSING IN THE TEAROOM, Dr. Simpkins muses over morning's news.

Sororities Hold Pledging, Host National Officers

| for the service.

collectively.

A social was given in honor of Mrs. Julia Fuqua Ober at the home of Miss Florence Stubbs.

Mrs. Ober, area advisor for National Panhellenic Conference, was on campus October 27 and met with all the social sororities

SK

Sigma Kappa's Founders Day

banquet will be held tonight in the tea room for the members, in the chapter room.

charge of inspection.

chapter room.

SSS

Sigma Sigma will have their national inspection. The national collegiate secretary will be in

Sigma Sigma Sigma has been selling breakfast in the dormitories and contributing the profits

ZTA

Founders Day on October 15.

This service was held in the Prior to Founders Day, Mrs.

Thelma Smith, province president, visited with Zeta Tau

Alpha. During her three-day visit on campus she held conferences with members and made sugges

Zeta Tau Alpha celebrated

By Betty Rice Dawson

AGD Miss Helen Blair, province president from Charlotte, North Carolina, spent a week visiting with the Alpha Gamma Deltas this fall. During this time Miss Blair had personal interviews with each member and made suggestions to the chapter.

On October 22 an alumnae luncheon was held in the Tea Room as a get-together for members and the alumnae returning for Circus.

One Sunday during each month the Alpha Sigma Alphas will serve as receptionists at the their fall initiation. After the in-

At the present, Alpha Sigma to the Robbie Page National Founders Day was November Fund. 4. A banquet in honor of this occasion was held Tuesday, November 8, in the Tea Room.

DZ On November 2 Delta Zeta so-The field secretary from national headquarters Miss Carothe Delta Zetas from October 30 to November 4. During her stay

us the Kanna Deltas sold breal

Simkins To Fill Post As Department Head

By Neal Banks

dent of Longwood College, has people out in Chicago." announced that the chairman vacancy left in the history department is to be filled by Dr. was appointed dean of the college.

Dr. Simkins stated: "I've been here for thirty years, on and off. No matter where else I go, I always seem to find my way back to Farmville. I get so homesick I'm forced to return."

Dr. Simkins was born in Edgefield, South Carolina, a small To View Exhibit town on the banks of the Savannah River.

which goes to prove what I've always said; that girls just don't know enough geography. They learn the subject in relation to people and situations, but the physical aspects are unknown to them. Why, my wife got lost

After college, Dr. Simkins spent two years on the faculty of the University of North Carolina and Randolph-Macon Woman's College. Then he came to Longwood. During the intervening years he taught at Princeton and the University of Texas, but somehow he couldn't give up Farmville permanently. "I spent a year in Tennessee. and found the people pretty much the same as here. The salary was about the same, too, but I just had to come back."

Dr. Simkins was all aglow concerning his trip to Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the Southern Historical Association meeting; he could talk of nothing else.

"It's to be a little debate, you see. I'm going to make a lot of noise about the South's right to consensus of opinion that we should be part of the overall pattern, but I don't agree."

Bernard Weisberg, of the University of Chicago, will make the reply.

Exchange Papers

Longwood receives exchange papers each week from various colleges. These papers are kept in the Library Reference Room, so students may catch up on college news. The Rotunda is sent in exchange each week to the following colleges:

Hampden-Sydney, VMI, VPI Randolph-Macon Woman's College, University of Richmond, Bridgewater, RPI, Randolph-Macon Men's College, Roanoke, Lynchburg, Mary Baldwin, Radford, Madison, Sweetbriar, Hollins, Bluefield, man out

"I suppose they'll run all over Dr. Francis G. Lankford, presi- me - they've got some good

> Dr. Simkins is greatly honored about the new appointment.

"I'm flattered, of course. But Francis Simkins, a post left va-cant when Dr. C. G. Gordon Moss think I'd been made president of the college. They sing songs to me, and stand and applaud-why, they treat me just like Charlie French!"

Students Travel "Nobody has ever heard of it- Of Modern Art

Six Longwood art students and Mrs. Janice Lemen of the art department visited Mary Washington College on Monday, October 31, to see the college's fifth simply making a trip to South Carolina!" Art majors Lee Burnette, Katie Fulton, Sandra Wise, Linda Davenport, and Mrs. Elizabeth Walker and Mary Jane Royall were the students who attended.

> The paintings were displayed in Mary Washington's Fine Arts Building. The students and Mrs. Lemen saw the exhibit twice; they were given a tour of the building by a Mary Washington art instructor and then went through again in order to study the paintings more carefully. Senior Mary Jane Royall was impressed by the fact that not only were oils and watercolors used but also more unusual mediums such as sand and tile.

Junior Sandra Wise summed up the exhibit by saying that "such a variety of modern art was displayed that no matter be different. It seems to be a what one's taste, there was something there that would be appealing to everyone.'

> Mary Washington College purchased a painting by William Thon called "Fragments of Delphi", which is a watercolor fantasy of Greek ruins. The college also bought an abstract design by Robert Loftin Newman, of Richmond, called "Rest by the Wayside." The Longwood College Alumnae House also has a Newman painting, "Descent from the Cross," which was given to the college by a former student.

Thirteen art galleries are lending works to the exhibition which is being presented until November 20.

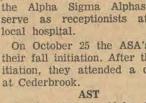

CAMPUS GRILL (Between Hockey Field & South Main Street.) Hot Dogs - Hamburgers Cheeseburgers

patrons, and patronesses. The theme of the banquet is 'Delta Nu's first year in Sigma Kappa.' ASA During each month the Sigma Kappas will spend one Sunday evening in 'the local hospital working as hostesses. Pledging took place November On October 25 the ASA's had On November 14-16, Sigma Tau sorority is making preparation for district inspection on November 15. Mrs. Betty Bibb will be in charge of the inspection.

rority had their initiation. lyn Leigh of Georgia visited with here she talked with each mem-

On Sunday morning after Cir- New Professor at Cederbrook.

ment, will discuss creative writ- ing on the college campus. Longwood College students at- tending include LaVerne Collier, Ruth Catlin, Lillie Belle Rogers, Rebecca Wilburn, Judy Harris and Judy Detrich. Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Meeker will accompany the group.	1 10 11 1 1 1 10 10 10	c olleges and universities. There are also papers from several Virginia high schools. Any student wishing to ex- change papers with colleges other than those listed, may contact Carolyn Elliott, as- sistant circulation manager.	Country Ham Sandwiches Barbecues SPECIAL Barbecued Chickens Ice Cream & Milk Shakes EX 2-4236
	conveys this enthusiasm to her students. Miss Burton revealed this, herself, when she said, "I teach both world literature and grammar, but I can't seem to get as excited about a subject's agreeing with its verb as I do about the Odyssey." Top Ten Tunes 1. I Want To Be Wanted 2. Save The Last Dance For Me 3. Devil Or Angel	Give A Lasting Gift! Select Your Christmas Gifts at Weyanoke Book Shop 200 High Street Farmville, Virginia Free Gift Wrapping	See Our Longwood Charms and Rings MARTIN THE JEWELER
ARCHITECT'S SKETCH shows view of future addition to the library.	 4. Let's Think About Livin' 5. Georgia On My Mind 6. Chain Gang 7. You Talk Too Much 8. Don't Be Cruel 9. My Heart Has A Mind Of Its Own 10. Stay WILSON'S HOME & AUTO SUPPLY 	COMPLIMENTS of SOUTHSIDE SUNDRY	Hungry??? Try The SNACK BAR "The House of Good Snacks"